"WE HAVE BEEN FRIENDS TOGETHER."

BY MRS. NORTON.

We have been friends together,
In sunshine and in shade;
Since first beneath the Chestnut trees,
In infancy we played;
But coldness dwells within thy heart,
A cloud is on thy brow;
We have been friends together—
Shall a light word part us now?

We have been gay together;
We have laughed at little jests;
For the fount of hope was gushing
Warm and joyous in our breasts;
But laughter now has fled thy lip,
And sullen glooms thy brow;
We have been gay together—
Shall a light word part us now?

We have been sad together;
We have wept with bitter tears,
O'er the grass-grown graves, where slum-
bered
The hopes of early years.
The voices which are silent there
Would bid thee clear thy brow;
We have been sad together—
Oh! what shall part us now?

THE MINIATURE.

William was holding in his hand
The likeness of his wife—
Fresh, as if touched by fairy wand,
With beauty, grace and life.
He almost thought it spoke; he gazed
Upon the treasure still,
Absorbed, delighted, and amazed,
To view the artist's skill.

"This picture is yourself, dear Jane,
'Tis drawn to nature true;
I've kissed it o'er and o'er again,
It is so much like you."
"And did it kiss you back, my dear?"
"Why—no—my love," said he.
"Then William, it is very clear,
'Tis not at all like me!"

The following beautiful Farewell Address was found in the repositories of the REV. JAMES KIDD, D. D. Minister of the Gilcomston Church, who died on the 24th December, 1834.

Aberdeen, 3d October, 1833.

I feel myself advancing fast to the grave,
and upon a back look of past life I can say,
in truth, that God hath been very merciful to me, and I now leave my testimony to his providential care of me, from my infancy hitherto. He has given my heart's desire to me in my standing in Society, and I bless and praise him for all, and am willing to lay down my Professorship and my Ministry
when he may please to call me to do so.

I now bid adieu to the Universe, and to all things beneath the sun. Farewell ye Sun, Moon, and Stars which have guided my wanderings in this valley of tears,—to you I acknowledge much assistance in all my attainments.

Farewell thou Atmosphere, with thy clouds, and thy rains, and thy dews,—thy hail, and snow and different breezes, which contributed so much to my life and comfort.

Farewell ye Earth and Sea, which have borne me from place to place, where Providence has ordered my lot,—and with your productions have supported my bodily wants so often and so long.

Ye Summers and Winters, adieu!
Farewell my native Country, and every place where I have had my abode. Adieu, Aberdeen! May peace and prosperity for ever be in you,—to all your Inhabitants I bid farewell.

Farewell Marischal College and University, in which I have had the honor of a Chair so long,—may Learning and true Religion flourish in you till the latest posterity. Adieu ye Members of the Senatus Academicus,—may ye enjoy many years of health, peace, and prosperity.

Farewell all ye who Studied under my care,—may you be useful, faithful, and successful Ministers of the Gospel.

Farewell, Chapel of Ease. May peace be within thy walls,—for my friends and brethren's sake. Peace be in thee, I say.

Adieu, ye Eldership,—ye Heads of Families,—ye Young. May the Lord in tender mercy bless all I have baptized, and all I have admitted to the Lord's Table for the first time. I follow all with my most earnest prayers as long as I live.

Farewell, ye Little Children in general all around, whom I have so often met in kindness, and saluted with my best wishes for your good. May all good be your portion in this world and the next.

My own Children—I commit you to God
in life and in death. May he fulfil to you the promise. Psal. xxvii. ver. 10. With mixed distress I leave you under the care of Him that is able to keep you from falling,
and to present you faultless before the presence of his Glory with exceeding joy. Farewell!

I bid adieu to my Library, and to my Bible, which has been my companion from my earliest days. I leave the Volume, but I carry with me, as the ground of my sure hope, the contents found in Psal. lxxiii. ver.
23—28; John. xiv. ver. 3; Psal. cxxxviii.
ver. 7 and 8; and Psal. xxiii. These I take before God, as my dying support and comfort.

Farewell Time!—Welcome Eternity!—
Farewell Earth!—Welcome Heaven! Amen,
and Amen.

JAMES KIDD.
