Treasurer's Office, St. John, N. B.
April 28, 1835.

R. SIMONDS, Province Treasurer.

The Lord Bishop of the Diocese has announced his intention to visit this Province in all June.

The Members of the Fredericton Society of SAINT GEORGE, celebrated the Anniversary of the Tutelar Saint of England on Thursday last, by dining together at the County Building—the Hon. Geo. F. Street and J. E. Woolford, Esq. Vice Presidents. Among the guests were Lieut. Col. the Hon. H. S. Fane and the Officers of the Garrison, the Hon. T. Baillie, Captain Coffin, R. N. Captain Campbell, A. D. C. the Rev. Dr. Somerville, the Rev. Mr. Birkmyre, and many others.

The Dinner was furnished by Mr. Staples, whose well known character as a provider was well supported—both viands and wines were excellent and well served. The fine Band of the 34th Regiment was in attendance, and in addition to the usual instrumental music sang a number of Glee's in a style which reflected great credit upon themselves and their talented leader, Mr. Crozier. Several capital songs were also sung by Mr. Stephens, Mr. W. Simpson, and Mr. J. Roberts; these, with the Speeches called forth by the various toasts and sentiments, rendered the entertainment only too short. We subjoin a list of Toasts, Songs, Speeches, &c. Few Festivals have been celebrated with more perfect unanimity and harmony. After the removal of the cloth Non Nobis Dominie was sung by Messrs. Crozier, Stevens and Gardiner.

The first Quarterly Meeting for the year 1835, of the Fredericton Temperance Society, was held at the Baptist Chapel on Monday evening the 20th inst., W. D. Hartt, Esq. President, in the Chair, when the following Resolutions were proposed and adopted:—

I. Moved by Wm. Wilmot, Esq. and seconded by Mr. Zebulon Curry.

Resolved, as no great melioration of the human condition was ever achieved without the concurrent effort of numbers, and as no well directed association of moral influence was ever made in vain,

That under the assurances contained in these propositions we feel ourselves stimulated to increase our exertions in behalf of the Temperance Reformation, and are warranted to expect the ultimate success of our exertions.

II. Moved by Mr. W. S. Esty, and seconded by Mr. J. P. Taylor.

Resolved, That the fact of the use of ardent Spirits being indefeasible upon any principal of Moral or Physical expediency, ought to be considered in itself a sufficient objection to the continuance of the practice.

III. Moved by Mr. Thomas Smith, and seconded by John T. Smith.

Whereas the practice of retailing ardent Spirits in any community, is not only creditable to the individuals engaged in the same, but highly injurious to its inhabitants, and the evils of intemperance cannot be fully obviated so long as that practice exists.
