PROSPECTUS

Of a weekly Journal, which is intended to be published in FREDERICTON, and called,
THE CONSERVATIVE.

Mr. R. T. Edgill, sole Proprietor and Editor.

THE principles of "THE CONSERVATIVE" are sufficiently declared by the name, which seems to have acquired a fixed and determinate meaning. It scarcely need be said, that a "Conservative" means one, whose principle and determination is to defend the time-honored British Constitution, and maintain the valuable Institutions of the Empire in their integrity; but who is not averse to the correction of abuses that may have crept into any of them by length of time, or to real improvement wherever it may be practicable. This, at least, is the meaning which we attach to the term; and in this sense of it we shall endeavour to justify the title assumed.

The Columns of "The Conservative" shall be always open to Communications in which subjects of local interest are temperately and fairly discussed; and adorned by the most valuable literary materials that can be procured.

The Rights of ALL PARTIES shall be invariably respected and maintained.

The aim of "The Conservative" will be to preserve harmony and good feeling among all classes of His Majesty's loyal subjects in this Colony; and to direct the energies of the people into the most healthful channels.

It remains to be seen, whether the Proprietor shall be encouraged to embark in an enterprise of this nature.

An engraving, of original design, will surmount the Title; and "The Conservative" will be issued on fine paper, with new type.

No money will be looked for until the expiration of the first six months, when the whole of the annual subscription would be required, to enable the Proprietor to meet the heavy engagements which must be contracted before "The Conservative" can commence.

At the same time, it shall be optional with subscribers to decline the paper at any moment, on paying the amount of subscription due.

Terms:—Twenty Shillings per annum.

"The Conservative," it is intended, will open with a review of the proceedings of our Legislature during the Session which has just closed; and the publication will begin as soon as possible after the undertaking may appear to be justified.

The Editor's address is at the General Agency Office, Fredericton.

Subscription Lists will be prepared forthwith, and Agents appointed.

FREDERICTON, March 18, 1835.
