

The Grand Jury of Charlotte wish to express their admiration of that gracious countenance which His Majesty has not withdrawn from the legal profession of this loyal Colony, but has given his subjects here an earnest of his paternal consideration for their welfare, by conceding to their wishes the appointment of an upright and talented native of the Province, in the person of your Honor, to a seat on its judicial Bench.

That you may long enjoy that seat, and continue in your course of usefulness, is the unqualified wish of the Grand Jurors of the County of Charlotte.

Signed on behalf of the Grand Jury,
THOMAS SIMS, Foreman.
Grand Jury Room, 5th Oct. 1836.

To which his Honor was pleased to make the following reply:
Mr. Foreman, and Gentlemen of the Grand Jury,

I beg to offer you my sincere acknowledgments for the honor you have done me on my first visit to this place, in the Judicial Office to which it has pleased our most gracious Sovereign to appoint me from the Provincial Bar.

The long and intimate acquaintance I have had during my professional life with this County, to which family connexions have given an additional interest; and personally with most of the Magistrates, and many of you, Gentlemen, make me feel that I am among friends, whose good opinion is peculiarly gratifying.

Fully sensible how desirable it is that persons called to the discharge of public duties, particularly those of a judicial nature, should possess the confidence of the community, I have been rejoiced to perceive the sentiments of respect and esteem for the Bench of this Province, which prevail throughout the several Counties I have visited; to secure the continuance of these by a faithful performance of my duty will be my earnest and unceasing endeavor.

I cannot omit this opportunity of thanking you for the very full attendance and prompt attention you have given to the business of this Court; and expressing my cordial good wishes for your welfare and for the prosperity of this loyal and important County.

PROSPECTUS OF THE BANK OF FREDERICTON.

IN presenting to the public the prospectus of a New Bank in Fredericton, it may hardly be necessary to enlarge upon the manifold benefits of such an institution, and the advantage of an investment of capital therein to individuals. The rapid increase of Banking capital in New Brunswick within the last few years, the enormous interest which it has paid the Stockholders, and the high premium which Bank Stock has commanded, prove far better than any other mode of reasoning the profitability and utility of such an establishment.

It is also a well known fact, that the amount of capital at present employed in Banking, comes very far short of affording that general accommodation which the increasing commerce of the Country requires. In no part of the Province, from a variety of favorable circumstances, is there so favorable a location for another Bank as in Fredericton. Situated in the centre of the Province, surrounded with an extensive range of settlements rapidly advancing in wealth, population and enterprise, such an institution must, like the Country itself, continue daily to rise in value. It would be needless to enter at present into a minute detail of all the contributing causes which render Fredericton a favorable situation for Banking operations. The recent sale of the Stock of the Central Bank at an average rate of upwards of 33 per cent. premium, fully demonstrates the truth of the opinion entertained by the original projectors of that institution, and the correctness of the position which we have assumed. Those who are familiar with the history of the Central Bank will recollect, that for about six months after it commenced discounting, its profits would barely cover expenses; but at the expiration of the next half year the Directors declared a dividend of 44 per cent., and in June last the half yearly dividend had increased to 74 per cent. During the last Session of the Legislature an Act was passed authorizing the Stockholders of that institution to increase its capital stock to upwards of three times its original amount. In the application at that time made, we have the deliberate opinion of the President, Directors and Company of the Central Bank—persons best qualified to form a correct judgment—that there is in Fredericton profitable employment for a capital nearly equal to the gross amount of the capital of the proposed Bank.

The primary arrangements of the Company have been so regulated as will prevent that total derangement of the commercial and monetary concerns of the community, consequent upon an application to the Legislature for a Charter previous to the establishment of the Bank, and such is the forward state of the institution that it will commence operations with as little delay as practicable.

The Company will be established upon a similar plan to that adopted in the organization of joint-stock Banks in England, with the infusion of such principles as have received the sanction of our Provincial Legislature.
