RECOLLECTIONS OF MY FRIGATE.
FROM THE LAMENTATIONS OF JEREMIAH.
My gallant little hooker—my pride—my heart's delight, We've weather'd many a gale of wind—we've fought in many a fight: No craft upon the ocean's ear behav'd so very well.
As when we topp'd the mountain sea, or climb'd the rolling swell.
Firm hearts of oak were all her crew—her officers were brave; Her timbers stout—her bows well form'd to breast the dashing wave; Her sticks were staunch—her sails well bent —her shrouds taut as a bar; Proudly she rode—"the beautiful"—ready for peace or war.

But ah! the man of war's man is not what he used to be;
For stopping half his quart of grog don't suit him to a T;
And though he gets more cocoa, and additional burgo,
Jack sorrows for his absent fill, and swears
"till all is blue."

The good old days of wad to shot are pass'd off like a dream;
The thick dark smoke of broadsides is ex-chang'd for scalding steam; And now, alas! both ships and men, when put upon their mettle, Must start on end from the same cause—hot water in a kettle.

I've often heard the rushing winds piping amongst the gear, Until we grew, like brothers tried, and I had lost all fear;
'Twas joy to hear his blustering voice give notice of the weather; Ah, then we've join'd in harmony, and whistled both together.

But soon there'll be no gear aloft—the day of sails is past;
For ships, like coaches, go on wheels, with a chimney for a mast:
The tovering canvass all is gone—even the heaven's poker
Is chang'd for one of hotter berth, and handed by a stoker.

The raking masts were once the pride of every boatswain's mate; Yet soon they'll know no raking, but the raking in the grate:
To rake a craft, right fore and aft, was once their heart's desire; Instead of firing with a rake, ah, now they rake the fire.

We used to hoist our colours at the peak-end of the gaff;
But like a riddle ensign, now 't's plac'd upon the staff;
On watch I've took my trick at wheel, to steer well I had learn'd; Ah, me! like tricking watches, now the wheels are engine turn'd.

I little dream'd when yet a boy—some sixty years ago,
That I should live to see the breeze sustain so great a blow!
Within six points we went close haul'd, but now a ship can fly Ten knots, and poke her figure-head right slap in the wind's eye.

Yet still my gallant hooker—my pride—my
heart's delight;
I'll think of you on many a day, and dream of you at night;
I have your picture on my wall—your model in my room;
And when I die, they'll place them both above my tomb.

JEREMIAH JEWELLBLOCK.

ON THE LOSS OF A CHILD IN INFANCY.
"They only can be said to possess a child for ever who have lost one in infancy." Our beautiful child we laid amidst the silence of the dead,
We heaped the earth, and spread the turf above its cherub head.
We turned again to sunny life, to other ties as dear,
And the world has thought us comforted when we have dried the tear.

And time has roll'd his onward tide, and in his ample range,
Has pour'd along the happiest paths, vicissitude and change.
The flexible forms of infancy their earliest leaves have shed,
And the tall and stately forest trees are waving in their stead.

We guide not now our children's steps as we were wont before, For they sprung to warrior men, they lean on us no more;
We gaze upon the lofty brow, and time and thought have cast A shade through which we seek in vain the memory of the past.

And do we mourn the utter change which makes our memory here?
Oh no! 'tis but the answered wish of many a secret prayer, Centre of all our dearest hopes, we live but in their frame;
But our love as to a little child, how can it be the same?

We still have one, an only one, secure in sacred trust;
It is the lone and loving one that's sleeping in the dust:
We fold it in our arms again; we see it by our side,
In the helplessness of innocence, which sin has never tried.

All earthly trust, all mortal years, however light they fly, But darken on the glowing cheek and dim the eagle eye;
But there, our bright, unwithering flower, our spirits' hoarded store, We keep through every chance and change,
The same for evermore.

LANDS FOR SALE

BY THE

NEW BRUNSWICK & NOVA SCOTIA LAND COMPANY.

THE New Brunswick and Nova Scotia LAND COMPANY having been long since incorporated by Royal Charter, with a Capital of £200,000 Sterling, with power to increase that amount to £400,000, and having purchased from the Crown the most central and delightful portion of the Province of New Brunswick, between the Rivers "Saint John and South West, Miramichi," have been quietly and unostentatiously improving a large portion thereof for settlement. The improvements consist of a fine line of Road, cut and now travelled upon, directly through what may be termed the Valley of the Nashwaak to the Company's new Town of STANLEY, where they have erected a SAW MILL of great power, with Circular Saws, capable of producing every description of Boards and Scantling necessary for Building, at the most reasonable rate and shortest notice—a GRIST MILL has likewise been built, with the most approved re-acting power, and the best and finest Granite and French Burr Stones introduced; so that the Settler may have the opportunity (without difficulty) of getting the produce of his Farm rendered serviceable at the least possible expense.

The Town of Stanley, delightfully situated on the banks of the beautiful River Nashwaak, offers every advantage and inducement, both from situation and luxuriance of its soil, for immediate increase of population. Gentlemen of Wealth from England having already fixed their location there, their Buildings showing at once a cultivated taste and certain satisfaction of future success; a Tavern, a Blacksmith's Shop, and many Houses have been erected by the Company, most of which are now occupied or in course of completion; one hundred and fifty to two hundred Acres have already been cleared, and the principal part in a state of cultivation—proving to demonstration the capability and happy results produced by only ordinary labour, strict attention to the nature of the soil, and a proper mode of Agriculture.

The whole line of Road from its commencement to the South West, Miramichi, offers every inducement for Settlement, on both sides of which a number of small Farms have been laid off, some with Clearings and Log Houses built thereon, a few of which are inhabited, so that the Traveller will find accommodation at the most reasonable rate. The steady and persevering Emigrant will find that every attention will be paid, and every necessary facility given him to render his new undertaking as light and pleasing as the Company's interests may justly and fairly warrant.

The price of the Land will as a matter of course, vary according to situation, but none will be higher than Twelve Shillings currency, or Ten Shillings sterling per Acre for the present Season, (Town Lots and Ten Acre Farms surrounding the Town excepted) every information about which will be readily and cheerfully communicated by the Company's Agent at Fredericton.

As many applications have been made for Town Lots without positive situations being named—it will be necessary for the Applicants to repeat their requests and fix upon the number in the Town Plot they would wish to occupy.

TERMS—The terms of Payment will be made easy, as follows:—One-fifth to be paid at the time of purchase, upon which a Location Ticket of Possession will be given, the other four-fifths by annual instalments; but should the Purchaser pay the whole amount at once, a discount of 15 per cent will be allowed upon the purchase money, upon completion of which a Deed, in fee simple, will be immediately prepared by the Company's Solicitor, to be paid for by the Purchaser, putting him in absolute and sole possession.

The Company's Road has been cut out, but not yet finished to Campbell, (another projected Town on the South West, Miramichi River,) At this Establishment a valuable Property has been purchased by the Company, consisting of Saw Mill, Grist Mill, Blacksmith Shop, &c. &c. &c. for some years in active operation, Houses built by the Company, and a beautiful Farm under good cultivation; the Line of Road from Stanley to Campbell proving yet more fully the value and richness of the Soil of this long neglected, little understood and most valuable portion of His Majesty's North American Colonies.

As enquiry will bear out every statement made in the above advertisement, and as every attention and assistance will be given to the most humble but industrious Settler, it is particularly requested that when real information is required, application may be made to—E. N. KENDALL, Chief Commissioner, or JOHN STEPHENS, Fredericton; the Hon. J. CUNARD & Co. Miramichi; J. V. THURGAR, Resident Agent at Saint John, and ANDREW DUNCAN, Campbell; or the Hon. S.
CUNARD & Co. Halifax, Nova Scotia.
