By order of His Excellency in Council.

The English Mail for February arrived here on Monday last, bringing London dates to the 2d and Falmouth to the 4th ultimo.

LONDON, FEBRUARY 2. OPENING OF PARLIAMENT.

From the circumstance of His Majesty not proceeding in person to open Parliament, the attendance was not so numerous or so brilliant as on many occasions. Yet, there were numbers of persons in attendance. Shortly before two o'clock the gallery and the doors of the house were opened, and soon after the Commissioners appeared and took their seats.

The Commons having been summoned to attend in the House of Peers, the found in the capacity and integrity of

Lord Chancellor read His Majesty's most gracious Speech as follows:—

My Lords and Gentlemen,

We are commanded by His Majesty to acquaint you, that His Majesty continues to receive from all Foreign Powers the strongest assurances of their friendly disposition; and His Majesty trusts that the experience of the blessings which Peace confers upon Nations will tend to confirm and secure the present tranquility.

His Majesty laments that the civil contest which has agitated the Spanish Monarchy has not yet been brought to a close; but His Majesty has continued to afford to the Queen of Spain that aid which, by the Treaty of Quadruple Alliance of 1834, His Majesty engaged to give, if it should become necessary; and His Majesty rejoices that this co-operating force has rendered useful assistance to the troops of her Catholic Majesty.

Events have happened in Portugal, which for a time threatened to disturb the internal peace of that country. His Majesty ordered, in consequence, a temporary augmentation of his Naval force in the Tagus, for the more effectual protection of the persons and property of his subjects resident in Lisbon; and the Admiral commanding His Majesty's squadron was authorised, in case of need, to afford protection to the person of the Queen of Portugal, without, however, interfering in those constitutional questions which divided the conflicting parties.

His Majesty has directed the reports of the Commissioners appointed to inquire into the state of the Province of Lower Canada to be laid before you, and has ordered us to call your attention to that important subject.

We have also in charge to recommend for your serious deliberation those provisions which will be submitted to you for the improvement of the law and of the administration of justice; assuring you that His Majesty's anxiety for the accomplishment of these objects remains undiminished.
