

NOTICE.

York, to wit.

PURSUANT to Her Majesty's Writ, to me directed, for the Election of Four able and discreet persons to represent the County of York in General Assembly, I do hereby proclaim, and give Public Notice, that a GENERAL ELECTION will be held in the County Court House, in Fredericton, on Monday the 25th instant, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, when and where all persons interested therein will be heard and are to attend accordingly.

E. W. MILLER,
High Sheriff.

Fredericton, 6th September, 1837.

Freeholders of York!

I AM no longer your Representative. The sudden dissolution of that Branch of the Provincial Government in which I had the honor of labouring to advance your interests, has turned me back upon your hands for a renewal of my Commission.

During the short, but interesting, term of three years, I have not been forgetful of your flattering support, nor of my repeated assurances, at the last General Election; and I shall now be happy to receive, and shall feel highly honoured by, a repetition of your confidence, while I am prepared to assert and maintain those principles which I have always avowed.

Under the gracious auspices of a kind and beneficent Sovereign—whose memory we should ever gratefully cherish and revere—the late House succeeded in effecting the most important and salutary reforms, that have ever been brought about by the efforts of a Colonial Assembly.

You well remember the unexpected opposition which, for a time, held the Country in painful suspense—but that opposition was to be thrown down. The conflict of opinion was severe—the struggle of party was desperate—the crisis was one of thrilling interest—you know the triumphant result—it is recorded on our Statute Book; and I esteem it as the key-stone which will bind, in indissoluble union, the security of the Crown with the interests of the People, in this loyal and flourishing portion of the British Empire. Permit me to say, however, that the benefits derivable, immediately, to the Country, from the adjustment of this all-important question, will mainly depend on the wisdom, the prudence, and the firmness of the popular Representation.

Familiarised with the principles of what may be called our new system, I am ready and willing to do all in my power towards reducing those principles to practice—but it remains entirely with you to say whether I am again to take any part in Provincial Legislation.

I shall say no more at present, but shall confidently await the time, when your free and unbiased voice shall point out the individuals, who are to be invested with the important trust of representing you in General Assembly.

Wishing you all the contentment and prosperity, which it is your privilege as an industrious—a free—and an enlightened people to enjoy, I have much pleasure in subscribing myself,

Gentlemen,
Your very obdt. and humble servant,
L. A. WILNOT.
Fredericton, 29th August, 1837.

To the Free and Independent Electors of York County.

GENTLEMEN,
As you will shortly be called upon to exercise your Elective Franchise, I take this early opportunity of informing you that I intend again offering myself as a Candidate for the honor of representing you in General Assembly. The liberal support you afforded me at the last Election, and the consciousness that during the short but eventful period since my return, I have done nothing to forfeit your confidence, urge me forward and encourage me in the hope of again claiming an opportunity of serving you as one of your Representatives. It shall ever be my endeavour to maintain the same constitutional principles which I professed at the last Elections, and to advance to the utmost of my ability the interests of this flourishing County.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,
Your very obedient,
D. LUDLOW ROBINSON.
Fredericton August 28, 1837.

To the Freeholders of the County of York.

GENTLEMEN,
The lamented death of our late beloved Sovereign having caused a dissolution of the House of Assembly, you will very soon be called upon to exercise one of the dearest rights and privileges of a British people in the selection of Members to represent you in the General Assembly of this Province.

Through the solicitations of a number of respectable Freeholders, and assurances of support received from different sections of the County, I have determined to offer myself a Candidate for your suffrages at the approaching Election. In doing so, I have no party views to promote nor have I any private or separate interests to serve; my interests being so inseparably connected with yours that it would be impossible to sever them, or to neglect the one without injuring the other.

My intimacy with agricultural pursuits during the earlier part of my life, with the experience I have since had, with respect to Mercantile and other affairs, has given me an opportunity of becoming somewhat acquainted with the general interests of the Province. I have also studied to obtain some knowledge of Legislative matters. How far, Gentlemen, I may possess ability, in connection with those circumstances, to enable me to represent you in the Provincial Legislature, is for you to determine.

My situation in business for the last ten years has, I presume, given the most of you an opportunity of forming some acquaintance with me, and of noticing my conduct.

Should you, therefore, consider me entitled to your confidence, and by a majority of your free and independent suffrages place me in that highly important and responsible situation, I assure you that it will be my highest aim to do you my time and attention in promoting the welfare of the Province generally, but most especially that of this County.

I may err in judgment—I may fail in point of ability to enforce your claims, but I do feel assured Gentlemen, that I can never betray the trust reposed in me—that I can never fail to assert your rights, and to fearlessly and independently maintain inviolate your privileges at all times, to the extent of my power and ability.

I have the honor to be,
Gentlemen,
Your most obedient
and very humble servant,
JOHN T. SMITH
Fredericton, 25th August, 1837.

Gentlemen Electors of the County of York.

THE demise of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, has afforded you again an opportunity of exercising one of your most valued rights in the choice of Representatives for this County.

I am not aware at this time that the inhabitants generally of this County are dissatisfied with the representation as it lately stood, but from the assurances which a number of my friends have given me of their support, I shall at the approaching Election offer you my public services. It will then be in your power to show forth more unequivocally the public feeling towards me, and its dependence on my exertions.

I am before you for the first time as a Candidate for your suffrages, but if it shall yet appear that you are fully satisfied with the late Election, I shall cheerfully retire, and present no opposition to the justice of your discrimination; but if encouraged to proceed, I shall rest my dependence on the unbiased and dispassionate votes of the Electors of this County.

In the event of my being returned, I trust my acquaintance with the local interests of this County and Province, and with the rights and privileges which all men should equally enjoy under the British Constitution, will enable me to redeem satisfactorily my pledge to the Country.

I have the honor to be,
Gentlemen,
Your most obedient
and humble servant,
JAMES CAMERON.
