IMPORTANT TO FARMERS AND BACK SETTLERS.

THIS Subscriber being desirous of obtaining a supply of BARLEY to the amount of several thousand bushels annually, takes this early opportunity of acquainting the back Settlers and Farmers generally, that they may depend upon a ready sale and cash payments for their clean samples of the above Grain, at the rate of three halfpence per pound. Allowing the Barley to weigh 50 pounds, it would be 6s. 3d. per bushel, which would be a fair remunerating price, considering the certainty of barley crops in this country, when the ground is properly prepared, in addition to the certainty of finding a ready sale and being able to calculate the proceeds previous to going to market.

These hints are suggested for the practical improvement of the Farmer who wishes to make sure of a Wheat Crop next Season—and the Messrs. BRAITHWAITE, KAY & Co for whom this Barley is intended, are about fitting up their grinding apparatus, and will be ready and willing to give the Farmer Wheat Flour in payment for his Barley should he prefer it to cash.

Any other explanation will be freely given on application to
