CENTRAL BANK OF
New Brunswick.
CASH CREDITS.

THE period having arrived when the Directors of the Central Bank of New-Brunswick feel themselves enabled to carry into effect an arrangement which they have long had in contemplation, namely, to establish CASH CREDITS, according to the Scotch System of Banking, so far as that system may be applicable to this Province.

Public Notice is hereby given, that the Board of Directors will receive applications for Cash Credits to a limited extent, from responsible persons from and after Monday the 16th October, instant, under the following regulations, viz.:

1st. The application to be made by Letter addressed to the Cashier, stating the extent of the credit required, the name, addition and residence of the applicant, and the names, additions and residences of two responsible persons to be proposed as sureties.

2d. The security to the Bank will be a Bond with two sufficient Sureties.

3d. The account to be settled at the end of every three months, and the Balance struck.

Six per cent. to be charged upon all sums drawn out, and four per cent. allowed upon all sums returned during that period.

4th. The Contract may be terminated by either party, and all arrears must be paid upon one month's notice being given.

5th. The Sureties, or either of them, on application to the Board, and on sufficient cause being shewn, shall be permitted to inspect the account of the party for which he or they may be bound, and such surety or sureties may, if they see fit, terminate the Contract, on settling the account and paying up all arrears.

6th. No fractional part of a pound will be paid or received under the Cash Credit.

7th. The foregoing Rules may at any time be altered, amended, modified or repealed by the Board of Directors.

Any further information on the subject will be obtained on application at the Bank.

By order of the President and Directors.
