Upon the special recommendation of His Excellency Sir John Harvey, the Honorable William Black has been replaced by the Queen, with his former rank and precedence, in Her Majesty's Executive Council of this Province, of which Mr. Black consequently becomes the senior Member. Mr. Black's mandamus having been received, the Honorable Gentleman took the oaths and his seat at the Council held on the 2d of August. It will also be seen by the following copy of a Dispatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State, that upon His Excellency's suggestion and recommendation, co-ordinate rank with Members of the Executive Council (according to the dates of their respective appointments) was assigned to the Puisne Judges of Her Majesty's Courts in this Province. An extract of a Dispatch assigning rank to the Master of the Rolls next to the Chief Justice is also published.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

HEAD QUARTERS FREDERICTON,
21st August, 1838.

MILITIA GENERAL ORDER.

It being found that the days appointed for the General Inspection of the Militia of the City of Saint John, would interfere with those appointed for holding the Courts of the Quarter Sessions, and Inferior Courts of Common Pleas, the Commander in Chief has been pleased to order that the City Militia be inspected on Monday the 17th day of September—the Rifle Battalion on Tuesday the 18th—and the Sea Fencible Battalion on the 19th September, on the Sands near Saint John.

By Command,
GEO. SHORE, A. G. M.

We have had the satisfaction of learning from good authority, that among other objects of great importance, to the interests of the Lower Provinces, which were brought under the favourable consideration of His Lordship the Governor General, by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor during his late visit to Canada, the improvement of the communications between New Brunswick and that Province was strongly urged upon His Lordship's attention, and the proposition met by His Lordship in a manner so favourable as to leave no doubt that that desirable object will shortly be accomplished. We understand that our Lieutenant Governor while at Quebec caused estimates of the probable expences of rendering practicable for wheel Carriages both the Metis or Kempt Road and that by the head of the Lake Timisqua (upon a new and improved line) to be prepared under the superintendance of the active and intelligent head of the Post Office Department—Fredericton Sentinel.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.

The news from England is highly interesting, from a private correspondence, as well as from the public journals. It will be seen that the ministers are now considered most firmly seated in the government. It was thought at the opening of the Session, that ministers were in a precarious situation—the Conservatives anticipated an addition of strength from the contested elections—they were disappointed, most of the liberals retaining their seats. Upon the first trial of strength they showed their firmness. This went on, increasing from the Irish question to the Canadian question, which, despite of Conservative influence and trickery, and a death struggle to get uppermost, acted favourably for the ministers. The Duke of Wellington, himself, in his place, confessed that ministers had done all that could be done in a military point of view. Lord John Russell observed, on the 19th ult., in the House of Commons, in effect, that if the liberals could not get all they wanted, they would get all they could, and that they would accept any bill, however mutilated by the lords, in which was left any benefit whatever. This is a master stroke of policy, and one that will ensure the Whig party in the ascendancy. To this must be added the Queen's confidence in the present ministers, and the perfectly routed state of the Conservatives.

Letters from Bayonne of the 14th ult. states, that Don Carlos was about to return to Navarre. His head quarters on the 12th, were still at Elorrio. General Espartero was evidently preparing for an attack on Estello. From the 9th to the 12th, 3 Carlist officers and 50 men, with their arms and baggage, had deserted to Munlagari.

The Theatre de Vandeville at Paris has been totally destroyed by fire.

A great fire broke out in Cairo on the 21st June, which lasted till the morning of the 25th, 60 houses were consumed, among them 100 of the first commercial houses in Europe and the Levant. Great excesses were committed by the Arabs and soldiers. A letter from Alexandria of the 27th June, says that trade would not be much affected by this deplorable event, and that all the goods and merchandise in the warehouses had been fortunately saved.

The Bashaw of Egypt is expected to declare his independence of Turkey. This, it is thought, will ensure him an ally in the Emperor of Russia and probably induce England and France to go to war with that Potentate.

The political news by the Great Western is altogether unimportant. The course pursued by Lord Durham in the administration of the affairs of Canada, appears to be satisfactory to all the parties.

The disturbances in Ireland still continue; we may look for but little relief to that distracted country until the odious tythe system be abolished.

CANADAS.—In the House of Lords on the 17th, Lord Melbourne stated, in answer to questions put by Lord Winchelsea, whether Sir John Colborne had resigned, and that whether Canada was in a situation that it was requisite to send out an additional force: "As regarded Sir John Colborne, that distinguished officer certainly had requested that an arrangement should be made by which he might be relieved from the command of the troops; and with respect to the other question, the Government did not think that there was any thing in the present state of affairs in Canada that would require an augmentation of the military forces there.—Gazette.

1ST ROYALS.—A most chaste and elegant monument is about to be placed in the Church, at Colebrook, by the officers of the 1st Battalion, to the memory of their highly esteemed and deeply lamented comrade, Captain Thomas Brooke of the Grenadiers. The splendid Band
