

all the avenues leading to Estalla. Colonel Eliza had been tried and convicted of treason by a court-martial sitting in that town, and executed on the 5th.

On the night of the 4th instant a Courier from Paris had arrived with important despatches for the Minister of Finance. He was the bearer of the first report of the Commissioners sent to that Capital to negotiate the loan of five million of francs. The ministers held a council the next morning to deliberate on the contents of those despatches.

The Directors of the Bank of England appear to be gradually increasing their circulation, the policy of which is much doubted in the City, as capital remains most abundant. If a similar course is much longer pursued, many parties anticipate a revival of the mania for speculation which prevailed the year before last, and from the injurious effects of which the country has not yet recovered. The periodical statement of the liabilities and assets of the Bank, on the weekly average, for the quarter from the 1st of May to the 24th July last, has been made out, and by this it appears that the circulation of Bank Notes has been increased from £10,047,000, to £19,286,000, or nearly £140,000. The amount of deposits is about the same as at the previous account, viz. £10,424,000. The securities possessed by the Bank during the last quarter stood at the week average of £22,601,000, or 247,000 above the sum held previously. The stock of bullion has also been increased; it was by the former return £9,722,000, and by the present it is given at £9,749,000. That amount of undivided profits is slowly increasing; it is now £2,610,000, showing a greater balance in favor of the Bank by £37,000 than at the end of the former quarter.

In our last, we called public attention to a Ploughing match, and have much pleasure in stating, that in all probability one will take place in about a month from this date. His Excellency the Lieut. Governor, actuated by a due regard for a great and paramount interest of the Province, having handsomely offered to contribute £10 for the purpose. The Ploughing match will be open for competition to persons from all parts of the country; subscriptions will be taken up early in the week; and a meeting will probably be called to appoint Judges, and fix upon the time and place, at which the Ploughing match shall be held, of which due notice will be given in the papers of next week.

In the mean time, we trust the agricultural portion of the community will be on the alert; and will devote the intermediate time as much as practicable to ploughing, that they may be prepared to compete for the prizes. In this way a certain benefit will accrue, as a large quantity of land will be prepared for sowing early in the spring, the importance of which may be estimated by a perusal of the following extract—[Fredericton Sentinel.]

BANGOR, Aug. 14.

Those farmers who last year, attended to ploughing their wheat land in the fall, were enabled to get in their wheat before the frost was wholly out of the ground, and were thus enabled to gain time, or lengthen the season of said time; while those who neglected so to do were compelled to get their seed in quite late, and to much disadvantage to the crop. Experience has fully proved the utility of fall ploughing and the safety of sowing wheat before the frost is out of the ground. Let the voice of experience counsel every farmer to do his work in good season.

At a meeting of the Inhabitants of West Isles and Campo Bello, held at Indian Island on the 29th day of August, 1838.

Colonel Hatch having signified his wish to the persons composing the militia of the Parishes of Campo Bello and West Isles, and others being present, that they should meet after their dismissal from public duty, to consider a communication from Lieutenant Robinson, Commander of Her Majesty's schooner Skippack;—a meeting accordingly took place: when Colonel Hatch was called to the Chair, and Lieutenant B. R. Fitzgerald was chosen Secretary.

The Chairman stated the object of the meeting in a neat address, and Lieut. John James Robinson, R. N. then informed the meeting, that he was under orders from his Commander in Chief to proceed to the Bay of Fundy, and these Islands in particular, to protect their Fisheries, and to obtain all the information possible relative to them; to enquire whether the treaty relative thereto with the United States of America, was in any instances broken by the inhabitants of the United States; and to learn from those whom he was addressing, whether there were any instances of its breach, and whether there was any wrong done to their property in the fisheries by foreigners. And in order that they might know their own just rights, and the nature of his duty under his present orders, he requested that the treaty itself might be read, which being done accordingly,—Lieut. R. then observed, that he was directed to report fully on the present state of the fisheries, not only to his own Commander in Chief, but also to the Lieutenant Governor; he hoped, therefore, to obtain such information from them as would enable him to make a full and satisfactory report thereon.

Captain Owen, R. N. a Representative for the County, being present, moved that the thanks of the meeting should be given to Lieut. Robinson for the communication; and that he should be requested to communicate to Sir Charles Paget, his Commander in Chief, the humble acknowledgments and thanks of this meeting, in the name of all the inhabitants of the two Parishes, for his attention to their interests in sending the Skippack on this service, for which she was in every way so well adapted and equipped.—This was seconded by Captain M'Lean, who offered some very pertinent remarks.

The motion being put by the Chairman was unanimously voted by acclamation, and communicated to Lieut. Robinson, who was pleased to express his sense of the honor done him by the meeting, to which he observed he had no claim, being merely in the due execution of his duty; and that he should have great pleasure in reporting to his Admiral this proof of their good feeling.

Captain Owen addressed the meeting at some length, and stated that Her Majesty's Government having given them this proof of its paternal interest in our welfare, it became us to be true to ourselves, and if we had any complaints to make of our neighbours of the United States, we should now fearlessly state them.

Several persons present made observations to the meeting, of the fact, that our neighbours of the United States did continually trespass, by boats and vessels, and by setting nets on our grounds, depriving us of our fish: that the examples were of every day occurrence.

Major Hatheway addressed the meeting, and stated that the fact of the continued every day breach of the treaty was so notorious, that there was not a creature in the two Parishes who did not know of it. He pointed out in language at once clear, perspicuous and impressive, that we ought to take advantage of the present occasion for expressing our wrongs.

Mr. Holmes stated that the system of unlimited depredation on our fisheries by Americans was notorious, and was maintained by such a system of terror, that generally speaking people here living so near Eastport, with which place they were of necessity in constant communication, were afraid of violence to their persons or property, if it were known that they ventured to complain.

Captain Owen stated that this was a fact notorious also, for he had himself received but yesterday some threatening notices from Eastport, because he presumed to accept a passage from Grand Manan in the Skippack, and her Commander had been insulted in the streets of that town. It is true that this feeling is confined to a few of the very worst description of people, but these are the executors of Lynch Law, and the authorities there cannot be depended upon as any security against personal violence.

In the course of the debate many gentlemen addressed the meeting, during which the following resolutions were put by the Chairman, and voted unanimously.

1st. Moved by Captain Owen, R. N. and seconded by John Snell, Esquire—

That it is a fact of public notoriety, that the merchants of the United States in our immediate neighbourhood, do fit out annually numerous vessels to fish in our waters in the Bay of Fundy,—that many of their crews are natives of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, who they are able to pay better because of the high bounties which they receive from their Government; and that it is a fact known to all, that their fishermen do set their nets on the shores of these parishes, and of this county, about the Wolves, the shores of Beaver Harbour, L'Etang, and other parts westward of Cape LePreau; and do thus not only occupy our fishing ground, but being subject to no restrictive regulations, they do much injury to the future fish harvests by throwing their gurry and refuse overboard there; and otherwise do injuriously interfere with our fishing operations, by driving us from our own grounds, and other acts of trespass and wrong; and this meeting is of opinion, that respectful application should be made to Her Majesty's Government, to take measures for the due enforcement of the treaty of 1818, which has been read, and for the uninterrupted protection of our Fisheries.

2d. Moved by Major Hatheway, and seconded by Mr. Fitzgerald—

That this meeting is of opinion, that the casual visits of a vessel of war are not sufficient for the purpose of protection, and that the Provincial Government should be petitioned with due respect and humility, to make proper regulations, and equip and employ a sufficient provincial force to afford us protection and instant redress in all cases of wrong.

3d. Moved by Captain M'Lean, and seconded by Captain Brown—

That it does appear to this meeting, that no foreigners of the United States, or others, have any right whatever by the treaty of 1818, or any other treaty, to fish within those parts of the Bay of Fundy which are bounded by the shores of Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick only since it is expressly excluded by its geographical limits, from such operations of the inhabitants of the United States, nor have the subjects of our provinces or nation, any such reciprocal advantages or privileges, within any Bays similarly situated, i. e. bounded by the shores of the United States, such as the Bays of Cape Cod, the Chesapeake, Long Island Sound and others.

4th. Moved by Captain Owen, and seconded by Major Hatheway—

That it is notorious that our fishermen are not permitted to fish anywhere in waters of the State of Maine, even in our vicinity,—and that therefore it is but reasonable that the inhabitants of the United States should not be permitted to trespass on waters exclusively British.

5th. Moved by Capt. Owen and seconded by John Snell, Esquire—

That it appears to this meeting that the attention of our Provincial Government should be solicited by humble petition to the peculiar circumstances of our Island Parishes, and that Major Hatheway, Capt. M'Lean, Captain Brown, Mr. James Chaffey, Lieutenant B. R. Fitzgerald, and Thos. Moses, Esquire, be a Committee to draw up a Petition for general signature, to pray for Legislative aid by bounty to encourage our Fisheries, and to establish efficient measures for the continued protection thereof, and also for the establishment of a Packet Boat and Post Offices, to enable us to keep up a reasonable intercourse with the main land of the Province.

The Gentlemen named having accepted the task of drawing up such petition, or adopting that agreed upon by the inhabitants of Grand Manan.

Captain Owen moved that the Chairman, Col. Hatch, do leave the Chair, and the Secretary to take the same, which being done,

The thanks of the Meeting were unanimously voted to Colonel Hatch for his conduct in the chair, who expressed his sense of the honor done him in a few very appropriate words,—when the Chairman, pro tem, dismissed the meeting, which had been conducted in a very satisfactory and creditable manner.

B. R. FITZGERALD, Secretary.

From the Washington National Intelligencer, September 7.

LORD DURHAM.—NATIONAL HOSPITALITIES.—During the past summer, many gentlemen of this city visited the Canadian dominions of her Majesty, and we are rejoiced to learn that the hospitable treatment which they uniformly experienced at the hands of Lord Durham and the British officers has inspired them with the most favourable sentiments towards the British authorities, and greatly strengthened the friendly feeling with which the Government of our old mother is habitually regarded by well-informed and well-disposed Americans. Lord Durham seems to have taken particular pains to render Americans sensible of the kind feeling with which he regards our country, and not only extended his civilities to those who fell in his way, but was at the trouble of seeking out all respectable gentlemen from the United States, whom pleasure or business called to Montreal or Quebec, and offering to them the elegant hospitalities of his house. Such conduct on his part is well calculated to strengthen the natural affection between the two countries, and to prevent the possible occurrence of unpleasant collisions whenever any cause for difference may be supposed to exist. Courtesy on the one side begets kindness on the other, and national prejudices disappear, and lose their influence in the genial glow of social fellowship.

NEW YORK, September 14.

SEVERE GALE.—The gale from the Eastward, with incessant rain, continued until about two or three o'clock yesterday morning, when the wind changed to N. W. and blew a hurricane. We do not recollect so violent a wind from any quarter, during the twelve years that we have resided in this city. Fourteen trees in the Park were prostrated, and one (not large) which was supported by stakes, was broken off, short just below the lowest branches. Many others are bent from their former erect positions. A new three story brick house in 22d street was blown down; many other buildings in different parts of the city have suffered more or less damage. Three new houses in 10th street between avenue A and 1st Avenue were unroofed, and otherwise injured.

BOSTON, Sept. 14.—The storm on Wednesday was very severe indeed—more so than any other which has occurred for months. Many of the trees on the Common lost their limbs from the violence of the wind, and the steamboats, both here and on the Sound, were prevented from running.

Mr. George P. Tewksbury, of the quarantine boat, picked up on Saturday afternoon off Fort Independence, the body of a man, which had apparently been in the water 5 or 6 weeks. He had a pocket book, marked Capt. Robert S. Smith, of Esch. Eliza, which contained $22 of Boston money, and two ten shilling bills of the Fredericton Bank, N. B. Also, sundry papers and a silver watch were in his pocket. The body was immediately buried on Hospital Island. Further particulars may be had by applying to Mr. Tewksbury, on board the boat at Granite wharf.—Boston Gazette.

The Great Ship ashore.—A letter from Norfolk, dated the 13th inst., states among other incidents of the gale, "that the big ship, the Pennsylvania, broke from her moorings at the Navy Yard, and went on the opposite shore."—Ibid, Sept. 15.

Her Majesty's steamship Medea arrived here this forenoon from Halifax, has brought the Honorable J. W. JOHNSON, Honorable J. B. UNIAKKE, and W. YOUNG and M. B. ALMON, Esquires, a deputation named by the Lieut. Governor of Nova Scotia, it is said, to consult with the GOVERNOR GENERAL, on the subject of a Federal Union of the five Provinces of British North America.—Old Quebec Gazette, Sept. 12.

MELANCHOLY DEATH.—(We get the following particulars of the death of Mr. La Baume, from one of the passengers who was on board at the time.) Mr. Gustave La Baume (Jeweller, native of Germany) took passage on board the Schr. Speculator, on Wednesday week, for Lunenburg, with twelve other passengers. A gale came on between twelve and two o'clock, sea very rough. Just after dinner, Mr. La Baume left the deck, went to the cabin, and returned,—immediately on his reaching the deck, the vessel lurched heavily, deceased attempted to preserve his footing, but not having any thing within reach, and there being no bulwarks to the vessel, he went overboard. The only boat on board, a flat, was quickly launched, and Captain Young and his boy, at imminent risk, put off to attempt a rescue. The vessel was put about, with some damage to her sails. All attempts at nearing Mr. La Baume were fruitless; he was seen for about ten minutes swimming strongly, when he disappeared among the waves. All on board were deeply impressed with the disaster, and did every thing in their power to prevent the melancholy result.

Mr. La Baume's death is much lamented in Halifax, where a residence of some years, during which he sustained an amiable and spotless character, had endeared him to a large circle of friends and acquaintance.—Nova Scotian.

Customs at the port of Shediac, and Churchwarden of his Parish. He was zealously attached to the Established Church of England; and as a Communicant of that Church, endeavored as far as in him lay, to lead a life in accordance with its pure and Scriptural doctrines. The poor regarded him as their common benefactor, and the Church of his affections received every assistance, which an ample competency and an unsparing hand prompted him to bestow.
