

From the Saint John Courier, January 23.
We have much pleasure in giving publicity to the following official documents.

Government House, Fredericton, 13th January 1838.

Sir, I have the satisfaction herewith to transmit to you the copy of a Despatch which has been addressed to me by the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, conveying the answer which Her Majesty the Queen has been graciously pleased to direct to be returned to the loyal and dutiful Address of condolence and congratulation from the Corporation of Saint John, which was transmitted through me—an answer which cannot fail of being highly gratifying to that loyal body.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
J. HARVEY, Lt. Governor.

The Worshipful the Mayor of St. John.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please Your Majesty—We your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of Saint John, in your Majesty's Province of New Brunswick, in North America, convened in Common Council, beg to condole with your Majesty and the whole British Empire, in the loss which the nation has sustained by the lamented death of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, whose memory will long be affectionately cherished by this thriving portion of your Majesty's Dominions.

Greatly however as that calamity is to be deplored, we hail with heartfelt satisfaction the accession of your Majesty to the Imperial Throne of your ancestors, and beg leave most fervently to congratulate your Majesty on so auspicious an event; nor can we forget while thus having an opportunity of paying our homage to another Sovereign of the illustrious house of Brunswick, that your Majesty's royal father, while in command of the troops in the Province of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, deeply interested himself in the welfare and advancement of the City, which we now represent, and graciously honored it with his infant state, with his presence.

Founded as this Colony was by the American Loyalists of 1783, and fully recognising the sacred principles by which they were actuated, we reiterate our unbounded affection and unshaken loyalty to your Majesty's person and the British Constitution, so strikingly illustrated by our forefathers to your Majesty's Royal Grandfather, and we assure your Majesty that it is our most earnest and hearty prayer, that your Majesty's life may be long preserved to reign over a loyal and dutiful people.

[L. S.] ROBERT F. HAZEN, Mayor.
By Order of the Common Council,
JAS. PETERS, Jr. C. C.

Downing Street, 27th November, 1837.

Sir, I have the honor to lay at the foot of the Throne the Address of Condolence and Congratulation from the Corporation of Saint John, which accompanied your Despatch of the 17th October, No. 52. The Queen has commanded me to convey through you to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of St. John, Her Majesty's thanks for this loyal and dutiful Address, and to assure them that Her Majesty highly appreciates the attachment to her person and government which has been expressed by the Corporate Body of a City, destined, as Her Majesty trusts, to exercise an extensive and salutary influence on the interests of British North America.

I have the honor to be, &c.
(Signed) GLENEIG.
Major General Sir John Harvey, K. C. H. &c.

Her Majesty's Ship Cornwallis, of 74 guns, Captain Sir Richard Grant, arrived off this Harbour on Sunday morning last, from Halifax with Detachments of the 34th and 65th Regiments. The Cornwallis sailed from Halifax on the 9th instant, at 12 A. M. and came to anchor here on the 14th, at 1 A. M.

The Cornwallis is the largest vessel that has ever visited this port, and has naturally excited a good deal of curiosity. Numbers of our citizens, who have visited the ship, speak in the highest terms of the gentlemanly conduct of the Officers, and of the affability and condescension of all on board, who did every thing in their power to gratify public curiosity.

The Cornwallis was built at Bombay in the year 1813. Her gun deck is 177 feet 1 inch long; her keel for tonnage, 145 feet 7 inches; extreme breadth, 48 feet 4 inches; depth of hold, 21 feet 11 inches; tonnage, 1809 tons. Draft of water, 22 feet 6 inches; do. do. forward, 21 feet 3 inches. For the first three years she had on board 180 tons of ballast, and for the last twelve months, 156 tons.

On Tuesday evening, the Officers of the Ship and of the different Regiments were entertained at a Ball, hastily got up at the Hotel by a number of our citizens, as a mark of respect to the distinguished Guests who were invited on the occasion.

Died.

At Saint John, on Thursday last, Mr. John Flaherty, Grocer, King-street, aged 45 years. His death was occasioned by accidentally being struck in the face by a plank which was carrying down King-street on Thursday evening last; it is presumed that Mr. Flaherty's fall caused a concussion of the brain, which resulted in his death. In the midst of life we are in death.—Mr. F. was a man universally esteemed, and his sudden death is very generally lamented. He has left a wife and two children to lament their unhappy bereavement.

At the same place, on Friday morning last, of consumption, after a few weeks illness, Eliza, second daughter of Mr. R. C. Minnette, in the 14th year of her age.

On Thursday evening, in the 52d year of his age, Mr. David Roberts, of the Parish of Portland, in sure and certain hope of the Resurrection into Eternal Life through Jesus Christ our Lord, leaving a wife and two children to lament their loss.

Fredericton, January 23, 1838.

PROSPECTUS.

"El Emigrante debe reanimarse a legos."

THE Subscriber proposes to publish a weekly Newspaper, the first number of which will appear in the course of the present month. It will be entitled the Emigrant, and its principal objects will be, to communicate Metropolitan Intelligence, and to cherish in the breasts of the British Colonists, that spirit of patriotism, and that feeling of attachment to the home Government, which are so invariably called for at the present momentous crisis, and which are calculated not only to redound to the honor of those who entertain them, but to promote the happiness and prosperity of these Provinces.—The Subscriber is induced to enter upon this undertaking from the circumstance of the newspapers of this city, being engrossed with local and Provincial details, to the exclusion of that information, which the Emigrant from Great Britain and Ireland, can never cease to desiderate; and from the want almost universally expressed of a Periodical influence by the prejudices of domestic factions, unshackled by party feelings, and open to the candid discussions of all subjects in which the British Colonist can feel an interest. The Emigrant will be the strenuous advocate of individual right and good government, disregarding alike, party, sect, or denomination.

Its principles will be purely CONSTITUTIONAL, and its opposition will be unceasingly directed against despotism and misrule, from whatever quarter they may come.

Having given an outline of the design of the Emigrant, and of the principles to be advocated by it, the subscriber trusts to an enlightened public for that support which will enable him to carry his project into execution.

The Emigrant will be published every Monday evening, the price of it will be Fifteen Shillings per annum, five shillings in advance, being payable every four months, and those papers which may be sent by Post being subject to an additional charge of two shillings and six pence per annum. Advertisements will be neatly and conspicuously inserted at moderate rates.

N. B.—The Emigrant will be printed at the office of Mr. Youngblood, and Subscription Lists are exhibited at the Stores of Messrs. Corbet & Trenowsky, H. Buxton, and W. L. Avery.

DEBATES OF THE House of Assembly.

INDUCED by the pledge of the House of Assembly, (as contained in their Resolution of last Session, to provide for the Reporting of their debates, and to furnish them gratuitously to any Printer who would undertake to print them daily in Fredericton,) we had made all the necessary preparations for issuing a daily publication of the debates of the present Session; and Mr. Blatch, who originally established and has for seven years executed the Reporting, was prepared to furnish us with the Debates, as reported by himself, agreeably to the intentions of the same Resolution. Our first Number would have appeared about ten days ago; but owing to the House of Assembly having shown, by their discussions on the subject, a reluctance to follow up the intentions of the late House, by patronizing our attempt, our project was delayed. We have, however, again determined to prosecute the work, as far as lies in our power; convinced that a daily publication of the Debates of the Assembly will be interesting and useful to the public generally, and confident that we need fear no competition with regard to the style in which we are enabled to execute it.

Mr. Blatch, the Reporter, who is at present attending on the House, furnishes us with his manuscript reports, and we have therefore commenced the publication according to our original intentions. The work will be printed in large quarto, four pages of which, containing twelve closely printed columns, will be issued daily; provided there is sufficient matter in debate; printed with a type, imported expressly for the purpose, and on fine paper, with a full and copious index to the work. The subscription price will be Twelve Shillings and Sixpence for the entire Session, exclusive of Postage. Persons wishing to subscribe to the work will please transmit their names to either of the following Agents; and upon the list being returned to this Office, the Reports will be forwarded to them from the Reporter, and regularly continued thenceforward.

We shall occasionally introduce into the Columns of the Gazette, such of the Debates as may be interesting and important to the constituency of the Province generally, and more particularly such as bear upon the Commercial and Agricultural interests of the community.
