Good-bye Canada.

THE GIRLS OF LONDON TOWN.

The girls of London Town are gay,
And laughter bright their eyes,
They smile in such a guileless way,
But they are wise—so wise.

I've watched them all along the street,
Demurely they trip by
In silken hose and costumes neat,
"I dare you" in each eye.

Ah ! Care-free girls of London Town
Whatever shall I do ?
I can't make love to every one,
I've lost my heart to you.—T.J.W.
