DISASTROUS FIRE LAST NIGHT

Hartland Poultry Yards Suffered Severe Loss

Last night fire destroyed the main henry of Hartland Poultry Yards, owned by Dr. MacIntosh and managed by Robert E. Kidney. A large lot of very valuable fowls were destroyed, among them some choice pens of fancy stock that was the result of years of careful breeding. The loss, therefore, although partly covered by insurance, is such a one that money can hardly replace. The fire is discouraging to an enterprise that has been of much value toward setting an example in the extensive production in poultry and eggs.

The origin of the fire is unknown and it had made considerable headway when discovered. Neighbors from near and far hurried to the scene and assisted in saving adjoining buildings.

Hallowe'en Fete

"The night was dark and stormy, the wind was howling wild" and all the witches of Hallowe'en were out in furious gayety on Tuesday evening when the energetic young ladies of the Philaetha Class of the U. B. Sunday school were hostesses at an entertainment the proceeds of which were for Red Cross purposes. The fete was given at the Armory which was symbolically decorated with the Hallowe'en colors, black and orange, and witches, bats, pumpkins and black cats held an orgie. Fortunes, were told, riddles were read, and a host of tricks, new and old, were tried. A most pleasing luncheon was served on decorated tables, candle-lit. Sister Susie was a prominent character and was the means of collecting considerable cash. The candy booth claimed much more coin. A very clownish clown made much sport, offsetting the un-canny effect of the numerous ghosts present. A good crowd were in attendance in spite of the weather and the sum of $56 was realized.

When the older brother took the whooping cough we used this medicine promptly and prevented serious trouble as the cough passed off in two or three days."

10 CENT "CASCARETS" IF BILIOUS OR COSTIVE

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—They work while you sleep.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret-to-night will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

When peevish, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.
