"A La Mode?"

In Sensible Every Day English means, ACCORDING TO THE FASHION.

THE YOUNG, MIDDLE ACED, OR ELDERLY MAN WHO NEGLECTS HIS DUTY

as far as suitable, proper and stylish raiment and wearing apparrel is concerned, is heavily handicapped in his race to the goal of comfort and worldly success. The men who are pursuing the varied callings so necessary to the success of our great Dominion, be they professional men, bankers, merchants, manufacturers or humble sons of honest toil, must in their stations be properly warmed, and becomingly clothed and adorned by Chapman Bros; if they would in this life successfully brest the boisterous wave of rush and competition swelling on every hand. At the season, when necessity and fashion compel us to make provision for the variable and changing weather of autumn, and the severity of winter, thousands will make Chapman Bros. their chosen clothier and outfitter.

Facts Established by Experience.

A nobby suit, coat, pants or vest,
Conduce to make the man;
Chapman Bros. clothes do their best
To perfect Nature's plan.

As Outfitters for old and young, Chapman Bros. hold their sway; We've heard their praises often sung At home and far away.

"Their shirts and Collars, scarfs and ties, Their Gloves and Socks and Hose, Can well be lauded to the skies In verse or simple prose.

AS CLOTHIERS, Outfitters, Chapman Bros. are public benefactors. Their long experience and exquisite taste are guarantees of nobby and stylish goods. This fact, together with low prices, have established for them a lasting and enduring business reputation. For the present Autumn and coming Winter their vast importations are specially attractive for men of all ages; boys and youths are very specially provided for.

The Funeral Ceremonies at the interment of Rev. Canon Townshend at Amherst on Tuesday were impressive. The stores were closed, and streets crowded. McCoy being in attendance, and then by the vestry and officers of "Christ's Church". The Bishop, Archdeacons Gilpin and Kaulbach and other clergy followed in canonicals. The pall bearers were the clergy of the deaneries of Amherst and Shediac. Rev. W. C. Wilson was cross bearer. The remains were removed to "Christ Church" on Monday evening at 8 o'clock and placed in the Chancel and were viewed by hundreds to whom he had been both friend and pastor. Hay trade.—The hay trade is active. Speculators seem ready to buy at certain figures. In fact, they seem anxious to buy, although they state that the price is falling in Halifax. Election Returns.

Before the votes were counted on Declaration Day in Albert County, C. A. Peck on behalf of an elector read a protest against the return of Henry R. Emmerson. The protest was entered for the following reasons:—

First—That the said Henry R. Emmerson should not have been entered in the general poll book as a candidate at said election, the said Henry R. Emmerson not having taken the qualification oath and made the necessary declaration of qualification before you, and filed the same with you as required under section 57 of the New Brunswick elections act of 1889, and when he was required so to do.

That the words legislative assembly do not appear in the New Brunswick election act of 1889, or any acts in amendment thereof, and do not import the same as the house of assembly used in said act,

Gathered from the earthly cold,

—The service in the Episcopal church on Sunday evening was interesting. Rev. C. Wiggins gave a good discourse. The church was beautifully decorated and the different kinds of garden and field products were represented. The house was crowded notwithstanding the inclemency of the night, had it not been for the rain many more would have been present.

—The threshing machines are on the wing and notwithstanding the unusual dry summer the graneries are well filled. The fire which broke out in Mr. Jackson's mill was not as serious as reported. They are carrying on sawing right along.
