The Paris Times approve of the late Duke's refusal to accept the nomination of friendly power in accordance with the agreement made at the Paris Conference of 1860, and says no other power but France can be mediator.

The Paris Press advocates an energetic intervention of France between England and America.

The Opinions National (organ of French Liberal party) says that France should not follow example of England, should rather recognise the Sovereignty of America.

The Momento, of Turin, warns England against beginning war with America, as France would take advantage of it to interfere in the East.

Austrian papers state that fears are entertained at Vienna that war between England and America would remove the only obstacle in Europe against French ambition, and that France would begin war against Germany.

General Scott says for himself in the "Arago," had a long interview with Prince Napoleon. It is reported he carries expression of Emperor's desire to bring about pacific solution of the Trent affair.

EARL DERBY APPROVES OF THE POLICY OF THE GOVERNMENT.

TROOPS GOING BY WAY OF RIVIERE DU LOUP.

ST. JOHN'S N. P., Dec. 23.
The Persia left Liverpool on Sunday the 15th, and was off Cape Race at 6 o'clock on Monday evening.

PRINCE ALBERT EXPIRED AT NOON ON SUNDAY, OF GASTRIC FEVER.

The Persia, has 1,100 troops on board, bound for River du Loup or Rio.

The Liverpool Mercury of the 14th states that a report received in London, that Earl Derby had been consulted by the Government and approved of its policy with reference to the American difficulty.

It is suggested to ship owner to instruct the captains of outward bound ships to signalize any English vessels that a War with America is probable. This suggestion is strongly approved of by the Underwriters.

The Australasian sailed from Liverpool on the 13th with troops for Canada. The First Division, 10th Brigade Garrison Artillery embarked, per Niagara, for Halifax.

It is understood that 10 Companies of Engineers are to be sent to British America. Panama, 14th.—Bourse heavy—closed 67.60. London, Friday P. M.—Consols opened at yesterday's price, but relaxed & fell, and reacted to opening prices. Railways have been dull owing to absence of business; closed a shade better. Banks steady. Miscellaneous dull at previous rates.

Austrian advices from Vienna 10th state that during the Emperor's stay at Venice he liberated all political prisoners.

Naples, 13th.—Austria, the Brigand Chief, was executed.

Prince Albert's illness was not considered dangerous till Friday.

Arrival of American Wheat and Flour heavy. Small business doing. Prices favor buyers.

The Persia brought no regular news despatch. The above was compiled from late Liverpool papers.

The Australasian passed Cape Race about 20 miles astern of the Persia.

FROM CAPE RACE.
The Niagara passed Cape Race on Monday. She brings no later news than the Persia. Will arrive at Halifax to-day.

The death of His Royal Highness, the Prince Consort, is confirmed at the Westward.

STILL LATER.

ARRIVAL OF THE "NIAGARA" AT HALIFAX.

1,600 Troops arrived in Halifax.

STRANGE STORY OF MR. SEWARD.

12,000 Troops to be sent to Canada !!!

HALIFAX, Dec. 26th, 1861
"Niagara" from Liverpool 14th inst., from Queenstown 15th, arrived at Halifax at 1.30 on the afternoon of the 26th. She has 220,000 in specie, 24 passengers for Boston and 300 troops for Halifax. Treated aboard on the 15th 11 miles off Texark's will sail at 7 this evening.

"Australasian" which left Liverpool with 1265 troops, a field battery, large quantities of ammunition, stores, sledges, &c., for North America, also arrived at Halifax this afternoon.

West India Mail brings intelligence that the Privateer Samter had a narrow escape of capture on 15th Nov., by steamer Inopson at Capetown, but escaped in the dark. On the 25th Mr. Samter captured an American ship Montmorency near Newport with souls for St. Lawrence, but released her on a receipt of bond by captain promising to pay twenty-five thousand dollars three months after date.

British war vessel "Cadmus" arrived off St. Thomas to protect vessels against another Trent affair.

Attitude of, and preparations by England, show no change.

Times editorially reports the following story.—During the visit of the Prince of Wales to America, Seward took advantage of entertainment to Prince to tell the Duke of his private belief was likely to occur. He said, that who he did so it would become his duty to insult England and he should smart her accordingly. The Times accumulates evidence of long cherished intention on part of Seward to do England injury.

In another leader, internal affairs of civil war, Times advises Federal Government to make peace in time before it is committed to a rebellion—viz—with Confederates, the British and American Abolitionists.

The illness of Prince Albert assumed alarming symptoms. Prince of Wales telegraphed for, and went to Windsor at 3 on the morning of 15th. Telegram from Brussels of 12th to Times said, "There is rumour in Diplomatic Circle, that mediation in American Conflict will be offered by King Leopold."

Secretary British Legation has left for London.

Morning Post says there is no truth that General Scott's sudden return was theme of much speculation. Generally reported he had come on a mission from French Government to Washington Cabinet.

Herald's Paris correspondent says he had long interview with Thiers before his departure.

[illegible]

The fire. The attention of the firemen has been directed thither, and they are straining every nerve to save Meeting street. The frame buildings on Queen street are smoking, and will presently blaze forth.

TWELVE O'CLOCK.

M-eeting street, from Market to Queen streets is one mass of flame. The Circular church and Institute Hall are burning. The Mills House is thought to be in imminent danger, while the fire seems stretching around the Charleston Hotel. There has been a general desertion of both hotels by the guests, under the impression that they cannot be saved.

ONE O'CLOCK.

The track of the conflagration begins to be clearly defined. Leaving Church street, on the westerly no block excepting that next to Market has been burned, the fire is steadily pursuing its southward course towards the corner of Archdale and Queen streets. About half an hour ago a drizzling rain began falling, which may, perhaps, dampen the tops of wooden houses exposed to danger from sparks. The people now understand how far the fire has extended. Furniture is being removed from buildings as fast as it is possible to do so.

TWO O'CLOCK.

At this hour the fire is still raging with violence, and has scarcely abated. A splendid effort was made by the fire companies to save the house of L. W. Spratt, Esq., on East Bay, but this was unsuccessful. The houses which saved the lives of the buildings on Huger street, the fate of which depended on that result. Passing to the southwestward, the fire has swept the entire track to the rear of the Charleston Hotel, and to the end of the Hayne street range. There are no buildings north of Market street. None of the Hayne street stores are still standing, except, perhaps, those of Henry Gerdes and the Misses Pinckney.

Crossing Market street, the fire has extended down East Bay to Cumberland street, and thence across to the Mills House, taking in its way the Circular church, Institute Hall, the Charleston Hotel, and all the buildings upon King street, from Clifford street to within a few doors of Broad street. Crossing King street the flames are approaching the rear of the Cathedral, the Unitarians, and the English Lutheran churches. Whether it will cross the area covered by these churches or pass the Mills House down Meeting street is still uncertain. The fire Department is making incredible exertions, and the men are apparently near exhausted, but are springing to each occasion with renewed vigor, and such exhibitions of courage and endurance have rarely been witnessed.

THREE O'CLOCK.

The steple of the Circular church has just toppled and fallen with a heavy crash. General Ripley, who is moving to and fro superintending the movements of the troops with characteristic energy, has ordered, several hours ago, that several buildings in the track of the conflagration be blown up. The execution of this order, delayed at first, has at length been accomplished. Ever and anon, during the past hour, the explosions have rent the air in the power part of the city.

The fire has done its work in thorough style. It is now well burned out, and nothing now remains to mark where it has passed but smouldering piles of cinders and gaunt and smoking walls and chimneys.

The Charleston Hotel is safe, and Hayne street street also. The wind has swept the danger off further to the South, although the fire rages on three sides of the Mills House. That fine structure has not caught.

The Theatre, Lloyd's coach factory (opposite the Express office), the old Executive building, and all the houses between that point and Queen street have been burnt.

The fire seems to be making advances towards the Jail. Companies of the Reserves have been ordered out to repress any possible disturbance among the prisoners confined in that building. The wind has abated somewhat.

FOUR O'CLOCK.

A change in the course of the wind has bent somewhat the course of the fire towards Broad street. The Lutheran and Unitarian churches are now considered safe. The Cathedral seems now to be in exceeding danger. The buildings on the west side of Friend street, near the corner of Queen street, are burning fiercely. St. Andrew's Hall is on fire, and the noble spire of St. Finbar's gleams with a splendor of portentous import. The occupants of houses on Broad street, beyond King, are moving their effects.

QUARTER-PAST FIVE O'CLOCK.

As the clock of St. Michael's tells the quarter, the Cathedral spire has fallen with a tremendous crash, and the Cathedral is burning furiously, likewise St. Andrews Hall—in fact the whole of Broad street is on fire, from Mr. Gadsden's residence to Market street. The residences of Messrs. George M. Coffin, James L. Pettigree and others near by, are consumed. The flames have now crossed Broad street, and the wind has not lulled. It is impossible to say where they will stop short of the river. There does not appear to be any imminent danger of the fire again making headway, either to the right or to the left of the furrow; it has cloven through the city from East Bay to King street, and it is not probable that it will be still fearful to look upon, and is pushing forward with great strides now.

Great, indeed, has been the calamity which has fallen upon our noble city; but let us, with anxious hearts, turn our eyes to the future, and endeavor to amend the losses we have sustained, and relieve each one, according to his means, of the great sufferings which the fire must entail upon its poor victims.

The above report is taken from the account of the fire which appeared in the Charleston "Mercury" of this morning.

MESSAGE OF JEFF. DAVIS TO THE CONGRESSIONAL RATE CONGRESS.

[From the Richmond Examiner, July Dec. 15.]

At the meeting of Congress yesterday, the following message was received from the President:

TO THE CONGRESS OF THE CONFEDERATE STATES.

The calamity which has laid in ashes a large portion of the city of Charleston calls for our sympathies, and seems to justify the offer of aid in the manner hereafter suggested. The State of South Carolina, with no prudent desire to assist the people of Charleston in their hour of need, but, as her resources are now taxed to the utmost in resisting the invasion of her soil, she cannot prompt intervention in this government matter, but is nevertheless available to the occasion. The State of South Carolina, in common with the other States, has made liberal advances on account of the war, and this government is unquestionably largely her debtor. With the existing pressure upon her resources, it is probable that the Government will be obliged to Charleston may be restrained by suffering city upon her available means. Under such circumstances we may not exhibit our sympathy with her people, by an offer to place at the control of the Government the sum we owe her, in consideration of the sum we owe her. The magnitude of the calamity affords the reason for making an exception in her favor, and promptness of action will be in the most appropriate manner, the sincerity of our regard for the people of that loyal State, and our entire sympathy in all that concerns them. I recommend, therefore, that Congress make an appropriation of such a sum as will be sufficient to meet the purpose proposed, to be placed at the disposal of the authorities of the State of South Carolina.

JEFFERSON DAVIS.

Mr. Kenner, of Louisiana, offered the following, which was unanimously adopted:—

A RESOLUTION TO MAKE AN ADVANCE TO THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, ON ACCOUNT OF HER CLAIMS AGAINST THE CONFEDERATE STATES.

Resolved, That the sum of $250,000 be, and is hereby, appropriated as an advance, on account of any claims of the State of South Carolina upon the Confederate States, and that the same be paid to such person as may be authorized by the Legislature of South Carolina to receive the same.

NEWS FROM THE SOUTH.

FORTRESS MONROE, Dec. 16, 1861.

The Lynchburg 'Virginian' of Friday says that a Maryland regiment has deserted from Lincoln's army, with their arms and equipments. It was the first of the kind which occurred when it reached the front of our line it hoisted the Confederate flag, and marched into Centerville, accompanied by the Colonel and all the officers.

The 'Charleston' 'Courier' has a report from Beaufort stating that the Yankees advanced their position to near Fort Royal ferry on Tuesday, and crossed the ferry under the cover of the night. It was reported that they destroyed several Confederate rifle pits.

The Richmond 'Examiner' says that a Court of Commissioners to determine claims for indemnity for losses by the war is to be organized at once. The President has appointed, and Congress, in secret session, has confirmed, the following as the Commissioners:—George P. Scarborough, of Virginia; Thomas C. Reynolds, of Missouri, and Walker Brooke, of Maryland.

The Richmond 'Enquirer' of the 16th inst., acknowledges the receipt of the balance of the clothing from Massachusetts for the prisoners of war. It was reported that the balance, under, and will be distributed by Lieutenant-Piercer, of the Twentieth Massachusetts regiment, who was taken prisoner at Leesburg.

The 'Norfolk' 'Day Book' was printed on an average sheet of paper to be raised in price to five cents on Thursday.

A despatch from Richmond dated the 14th inst., says that the Union forces, five thousand strong, attacked the Rebels on the 13th inst., and seized it on Custody Mountain, on the 13th inst., and were repulsed with great loss, after an engagement of several hours.

Gen. McCulloch has arrived at Richmond.

Col. Wallace, of the 1st Maine, has been promoted to the command of Craney Island, and will take charge of the Virginia Military Institute.

The steamer S. R. Spaulding has not yet arrived here.

DEFENCES OF THE CAPITAL.—Gen. Barnard Chief Engineer, reports that the defence works of the Capital are now completed. The works are 300 miles, and that the whole defensive perimeter is 35 miles—exceeding by several miles the works of Forts of Torres Vedras. He asks $150,000 for the completion of the works, and $100,000 for the completion of the works. The works are a large portion of it for the defence of New York harbour.

ERON MEXICO.—The steamer Constitution brought to New York Mexican advices to Nov. 20. The Mexican Congress was said to have refused to allow the United States to land troops, but would do anything short of that to prevent the invasion. It authorized the President to lower the duties and he did so, and it abolished the law which prohibited the sale of arms to Mexico, but all this was of no avail, and General Urquiza, General Ortega, and General Tapia were ordered to prepare for defence on the roads leading from Vera Cruz to the Capital. Outrages against the Spaniards are said to be of common occurrence.

THE AMERICAN CONGRESS.—Even in the present state of the country, the members of the House of Representatives, Congress, can not conduct themselves with propriety. On Monday last Mr. Fouke, contradicting a statement made by Mr. Cameron, said that the Government had no intention of sending troops to Mexico. Mr. Cameron said Fouke's conduct was that of a blackguard and a scoundrel. Mr. Fouke retorted, calling Cameron a disgrace to the nation and to humanity, and that we are told the matter ended in the House.

BOSTON, Dec. 19.

Col. Wallace, at the head of 300 Confederate troops, left Manassas, Ky., on Tuesday, and defeated them. Confederate loss 62 killed and many wounded. Federal loss 15 killed and about 300 wounded.

At Falling-Watters, (Upper Potomac), on Tuesday night, a force of 900 Confederates under General Jackson, launched 51 bombs for the purpose of throwing a force across to the Potomac. The Confederates were repulsed, and gathered. Two Regiments under Col. Lennox occupy the Maryland shore, and it is thought they will be able to hold the position until reinforcements can reach them.

The rebels, on Wednesday morning, but we have no further news.

A portion of the army of the Potomac is being sent slowly towards Winchester and Rome, which is thought will indicate a general advance by General McClellan.

BOSTON, Dec. 21.

The New York Herald states editorially that the rupture with England on the Trent' affair may be dismissed, the demands of the British Government being such as can be honourably conceded.

A conflict took place near Leesburg yesterday. The rebels and our regiments were engaged on both sides; the rebels were routed with a loss of 150 killed and wounded; the Federal loss was from 20 to 30.

It is reported that the Federal Government has made an important Treaty with Mexico, which the French and British Expedition may be withdrawn. It provides for a loan of $1,000,000 to Mexico to pay English and French claims.

Eighteen hundred recruits, one thousand horses and twenty wagons loaded with provisions and clothing for Gen. Fien in Missouri have been captured by the rebels. It is asserted that the rebellion in Missouri is nearly crushed out. Breadstuffs are without change.

Despatches state that Fort Pickens had again opened on Fort M' Rae, and heavy firing continued at last accounts.

Connonating at Tybee Island is also reported to have no details.

One hundred miles of the Northern Missouri Railroad has been rendered impassable by the rebels.

The Tribune's Washington despatch says that Lord Lyons made his first official communication to Secretary Seward on the Trent affair on Saturday. The Secretary is now engaged with his reply.

The general impression is that the British Government do not present an ultimatum, but leave room for negotiation.

The statement that the Government has determined to yield everything to England, even the surrendering of Mason and Slidell, is pronounced utterly false.

The rebels failed in the attempt to cross the upper Potomac, and have retired on Leesburg.
Super. State $5 25 a $5 40 a $5 60 a Boston, Dec. 24th.

Charleston jail was burned during the late conflagration, and Col. Corcoran of the New York 64th Regiment, with other prisoners of War confined there, escaped. The Colonel had not since been heard from.

A dispatch from Washington despatch says that Lord Lyons held another conference with Secretary Seward on Monday. Persons of high authority state that the conference was friendly and satisfactory.

Lord Lyons has issued invitations to his Chris-mas dinner.

A Cabinet meeting will be held to-day, where our relations with England will be thoroughly discussed.

Congress has passed a bill increasing the duties on Ten twenty cents per pound; on Coffee five cents; Molasses six cents per gallon and Sugar 2 1/2 to 8 cents, according to quality.

The New York Post states that the Cabinet has resolved to release Mason and Slidell, and orders have gone to ship them at once to Halifax.
