TIGHT BINDING
RELIURE TROP RIGIDE

LATER.—The great naval expedition, which has been fitting out for some time for a descent upon the Southern coast, sailed from Hampton Roads, on Tuesday the 29th ult. It numbers 76 vessels of all sizes, with about 500 guns, and carries 20,000 troops. The Northeners, who have a fondness for a high sounding nomenclature, have dubbed this fleet the "Great Union Armada," and indulge in great anticipations of its success.

Messrs. Mason and Slidell, the ministers appointed by the Confederate Government to the courts of London and Paris, who were lately supposed to have left Charleston in the "Nashville," have, it seems, found a different conveyance.—The Herald's correspondent at Havana says that they have arrived at Cuba in the steamer "Theodora." They are to leave for Europe in the British Mail Steamer of the 6th November. It is said that the British Consul at Havana waited on them in full uniform and presented them to the Captain General, and that from all the Spanish authorities they have received the highest consideration. The "Theodora" left Havana on the 23d Oct., with a large cargo of arms, provisions &c., for Charleston. While in port she was presented with a large Confederate flag, of silk, by a number of Southern ladies now in Cuba.

The list of casualties at the battle of Ball's Bluff is stated by the Northern press at, killed 223; wounded 166; wounded, among prisoners, 100; prisoners, not wounded, 429; total 918. When to these are added the killed, wounded and missing of the R. I. Battery, the 1st U. S. Artillery, and the cavalry, the numbers will be largely increased. Of 2100 Federals who were engaged probably only one half are in safety.

The Southern blockade of the Lower Potomac is not as effective as was reported. By hugging the Maryland Shore numerous vessels have managed to reach Washington. It is, however, a source of great inconvenience to the Federal Government.

Gen. Fremont has retaken Springfield from the Confederates. Gen. Price is retreating into Akansas.

It is stated on good authority that Gen. Fremont is to be relieved from his command in the West.

The steam transport Belvidere, laden with horses and stores, has returned to Fortress Monroe disabled in the storm; had 12 horses killed.

Steamer Monticello spoke the fleet on Saturday night proceeding finely.

Reported that a landing would be made on Sunday morning at Bull Bay, 25 miles from Charleston, where there are no fortifications of strength.

Storm had abated.

Despatches from Gen. Rosencrans states that Floyd's army is beaten, nearly surroun'ed, and would probably capitulate.

A telegram from San Francisco of 27th Oct says: "Most glowing accounts of the richness of the Ner Perces Mines, of new gold discoveries over a wide expanse of country, are published in the Portland (Oregon) papers."

The news published in the Victoria papers from the British Columbia Mines, states that the news from those sources was never more exciting, and probably will cause another stampede next spring equal to the Frazer River excitement in 1859.

DREADFUL WRECK OFF BOSTON HARBOR.—We copy from the Boston Courier of Monday—The Ship Maritana of Providence R. I., Captain G. W. Williams, which sailed from Liverpool Sept. 25, for Boston, was in the Bay during the storm, and just as she was making for Boston Light, the weather being thick, breakers were discovered ahead, and she almost immediately struck on Egg Rock, about one-eight of a mile from Boston Light. The masts were cut away, which in falling stove one of the boats. At about 6 o'clock, a boat with 5 seamen endeavored to get a line to the shore, to save the lives of those on board, but being unsuccessful they were called back. The ship held together until 7 o'clock, when she parted amidships, and the Captain fell into the open chasm, and was instantly killed by a falling beam. His body was got upon the deck, when the vessel began to go to pieces fast, and in a very short time her fragments were floating towards the shore. Thirteen persons who were on the after part of the vessel, succeeded in getting ashore, some on the poop deck, and some by swiming, but those forward, numbering twenty-four persons, were all lost.

Among the lost were John McInnis, of P. E Island—a French boy and another little boy—Mrs. Pratt, and two daughters, Eliza Bozier, Mrs. Clarke; Mary Flannagan; Maria and Elizabeth Byron, sisters, of Dublin—also a lady and daughter.

PHILADELPHIA, 31st.—GREAT LOSS BY FIRE.—The loss by the burning of Craig's Mill is over $100,000, $25,000 insurance on the machinery, including $15,000 in the Etna office, Hartford. The building contained 266 looms, belonging to various parties, engaged on army flannels. Two hundred operatives are thrown out of employment.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—British brig Ariel, with salt, from Liverpool for Charleston, has arrived here, in charge of a prize crew from the gun boat Gembsbok. She was captured off Frying pan Shoals, while trying to run the blockade.

ENGLISH AND FOREIGN.

We have news from Europe up to October 23d.—

GREAT BRITAIN.—The Times, in an editorial on the efforts of a class in Lancashire to induce the British Government to interfere in America, and break the blockade, says England will rather undergo much suffering than break the plain rules of international law. She has recognized the blockade, and must abide by it. To break it would digrace and stain the reputation of England. England will not commit such an act even to save her greatest manufactures. The Times, however, says the blockade is not everywhere effectual, and reminds the Washington government that only real blockades call for recognition. The article concludes by saying it would ill become England to be the tool of Southern machinations, which, by withholding cotton, count on compelling foreign nations to take her side in the quarrel.

The Shipping Gazette continues to denounce the conduct of the blockade, and the wrongs done British ships. It says some action on the part of the British government is becoming indispensable.

Mr. Russell, in his last letter to the Times, asserts that England and the United States were all but at war three months since. The Times points to the military operations in Missouri and Kentucky to show the impracticable nature of the war.

A company has formally been inaugurated for restoring the telegraph in India.

FRANCE.—The Gazette De France denies that a warm discussion took place between Persigney and Thousenel on the Italian question, no difference of opinion exists.

The Patrie says that the English Admirality decided upon plating ships already built if the experiment succeeds. England could have twenty in one year. The Admirality are determined to execute numerous defense works in India, China, and the Red Sea.

It is reported that France has sent an answer to the Italian propositions on the Roman question to the effect that the economical and financial difficulties of France, prevent a solution of the question.

The position of the Bank of France continued to excite uneasiness. It is reported that twenty millions of francs have been lost since its last statement.

It is asserted that the panic relative to the French wheat crop is premature and exaggerated.

PRUSSIA.—King and Queen received most enthusiastically at Dantzic and Berlin.

AUSTRIA.—The Imperial patent orders for the collection of taxes are the same as last year.

RUSSIA.—The Emperor closed Moscow and Kayan Universities.

SPAIN.—France and England will despatch a joint expedition to Mexico. Spain will make a direct demand for satisfaction for special insults. It is expected that a majority of the members of Cortes of Spain are favorable to the Ministry. Infanta dead.

ITALY.—Approaching reactionary movements are reported. Neapolitan reactionists have chartered Maltese vessels.

A decree abolishes the Lieutenancy of Naples and the separate Government of Tuscany.

Brigands insulted the French Vice Consul at Consignola and pillaged his house.

POLAND.—The Military forcibly entered several Warsaw Churches and conveyed the male portion of the congregation to the Citadel; half of the number arrested have since been liberated. The 2000 remaining would be draughted into regiments for military service.

The clergy have closed all Churches in Warsaw. The people pray before the doors. Five hundred merchants fined one hundred Rubles each for closing their shops on the 15th October. Agitation increasing in Warsaw. The authorities are taking more vigorous means for the maintainment of order.

INDIA.—The Bombay mail of Sept. 27th received. Calcutta telegrams are to 25th. Cotton imports active, and advancing in both markets. The weather was favorable for crops. A medium yield of cotton anticipated in the northwest. The Bombay Gazette asserts that, in another year, England need only look to India for cotton.

HEALTH AND PEACE BE MULTIPLIED.

GOOD HEALTH is far above all other temporal blessings, without which does the rich man enjoy his wealth, or the poor man labor for his living? Answer all ye Dyspeptics. Indigestion or Dyspepsia is the fruitful cause of all other maladies in the human system. Does it not impair the intellect—does it not crowd the Provincial Lunatic Asylum? Answer that ye men of science. Get the stomach right and the whole system will be healthy. It is not a course of mercury or purgative nostrums that will effect a cure. Your Dinner Pills will fail to render relief. Insanity, or some other malady, may terminate your miserable existence. There is yet hope in your case, if you will avail yourself of it, and at a cheap rate. Dr. Benjamin Leary has not failed to cure it in its worst stages, as hundreds in St John and this Province, as also Nova Scotia, can testify with heartfelt gratitude, the permanent cures performed by the ANGLO SAXON MEDICINE and ADVICE. It is offered to the afflicted at the low sum of $4—that is, the patient must describe symptoms of complaint from its commencement in writing. The Dr. will send him or her a prescription suitable to their case, with advice; as also for the following complaints: Liver Complaint, Consumption in its first stages, Billious Affections, Scrofula or Kings' Evil, Fever Sores, Canker Sores, Errysipilus in all its forms Salt Rheum, Acute and Chronic Rheumatism, all cutaneous diseases. His celebrated Albion Linament. Speedy Relief or Cramp & Pain Killer, Asthma and Cough Remedy may be had of P. R. Inches, G. F. Everett & Co., W. O. Smith, and all others in the trade. Communications must be Post-paid
