TIGHT BINDING
RELIURE TROP RIGIDE

over a mile from London Bridge on the Southern bank of the Thames, is of Corinthian style of architecture, and of vast size. It is capable of "sitting" 4,200 persons, and two or three thousand more could find accommodation in any emergency. The amount of seat rent will be about $20,000 and the entire erection will cost $150,000. Mr. Layard M. P. has been lecturing in Southwark, or Nineveh, for the benefit of the building.

FRANCE.—Protestantism is beginning to exert a marked influence on the leading literary and political papers. When men are allowed to think, they cannot but see the absurdity of the teachings of the Papal Church. Other causes have led to the favor with which the Reformed faith is being regarded. The influence of the Jansenist doctrines is still widely felt. French infidelity, too, has created an almost universal disbelief in the dogmas of Roman Catholicism, but has left unassailed the pure faith of Christ. And the large and increasing numbers of all ranks who are attached to Protestantism cannot but excite respect. There are now at least 2,000,000 Protestants in the country, having 1,000 clergyman, numerous colleges, schools, newspapers, &c. Were it not for the deadening influences of State support these numbers would have been still greater.

PERSIAN MISSION.—Seventeen years ago when Miss. Fisk went to Oroomiah to labor as teacher among the Nestorian women, scarcely one had any just conception of the truths of the Gospel; but last year when she left on a visit to her native land, she partook of the Lord's Supper with 98 women, once her pupils and now teachers in different parts of the country.

INDIA.—In Travancore eleven native Christians have been recently set apart for the office of evangelists, The natives in many parts are being roused to the importance of education. Respecting a new class of boys recently received to the seminary at Pasumaile, Mr. Tracy, of the American Board, writes: "This class was limited to fifteen, but on the day of examination, thirty-one candidates were present, from the different stations. After a day spent in careful examination, the requisite number were selected and the remainder returned, greatly disappointed, and in some cases in tears, to their house."

SYRIA.—The French people, moved by religious sympathy with their fellow-Catholics, and stirred with enthusiasm by the departure of a military expedition to the Holy Land, have sent enormous contributions, amounting to not less than $500,000!

COCHIN CHINA.—The latest news from this country announce that fresh persecutions had been commenced against the Christians.

SIAM.—Mr. Mattoon, of the Siam Mission, remarks in relation to the attendance upon preaching: "I see an improvement not only in the numbers, but in the attention of those who come to our regular Sabbath services."

PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT.

From our own Correspondent.

WEDNESDAY, 20th.

This morning a Resolution moved by Mr. McPhelim to pay George Wallace of Richibucto twenty pounds lost in a money letter, mailed in Aug. 1854, caused much discussion. His letter was regularly mailed to John Dever, St. John, and registered at Kingston W. O. Richibucto; the mail bag containing it was stolen from the driver between Richibucto and Shediac, and asks the Province to reimburse the money. McPhelim, Gray, End, Cudlip and others supported the resolution. The arguments in favor of paying this claim were these: that if this public Department holds out inducements to the public to entrust their means to its charge and forbids private individuals from carrying correspondence, it shall be responsible for their safe carriage, that the tendency of Commercial Legislation in Britain is to this end that an action cannot be brought against the Mail Contractor, as no contract is made between him and any individual, except the Government, &c. Messrs. Smith, the Speaker, Chandler, Tilley, Steadman and others opposed the resolution, believing it, if it passed, a most dangerous precedent. The fact of registering a letter was merely for the purpose of tracing it through the Post Offices when missing; the P. O. is established for the public benefit, it is not an insurance office; if money is lost through the negligence of the carriers, special actions can be brought against them; the Department advertises that it is not responsible; this principle is not established in any country in the world, if the resolution passes, a door will be opened to fraud &c., &c. Progress was reported.

This matter was taken up again on THURSDAY, re-discussed, and the resolution carried.

In the Afternoon the debate on going into the Supply was resumed; several speeches were made besides the closing ones of Messrs. Wilmot and Tilley. Mr. Wilmot's was not so able as I expected to hear from him, but he was probably reserving himself for "heavy fighting" after going into Supply, as he knew his motion would be defeated. Mr. Tilley's was a clever review of the speeches of the members of the Opposition who had preceded him. His retort upon Lawrence who had alluded to the eight members of Government turning "Queen's Evidence" against Mr. Fisher, was particularly happy, and will no doubt be remembered by that gentleman whenever he reflects upon his betrayal of the Prohibitory Liquor Law in which your Baptist friends have taken and still take so deep an interest. The Government was sustained by a majority of Five, the Vote being:

In favor of proceeding with Supply:—Messrs. TILLEY, BROWN, SMITH, WATTERS, MITCHELL, END, READ, LEWIS, McMILLAN, STEADMAN, TAPLEY, FERRIS, McLEOD, GILLMOR, CHANDLER, CUDLIP, WRIGHT, HANNINGTON, McADAM, CHAS. PERLEY,—20.

Against:—Connell, McPhelim, Lawrence, Grey, Williston, Botsford, Allen, McPherson Scovil, Vail, Gilbert, Wilmot, McIntosh, DesBrisay, Montgomery, Tibbits,—16. Messrs. Fisher, Kerr and McClelan, were not in the house at the time. Mr. W. E. Perley, absent in Sunbury. The House then went into the Committe of the whole, Mr. Botsford in the Chair, and passed appropriations for expenses of the Legislature and salaries of officers of the Country.

THURSDAY, 21st.

The House was occupied during the forenoon discussing Mr. McPhelim's resolution, which passed, as already noticed.

Immediately after dinner—an appropriate time—Hon. Mr. Wilmot rose with a copy of the Christian Watchman of the 18th in his hand, and drew the attention of the House to some remarks in an editorial article on, "Land Jobbing—its true issues." He read the extracts—and was proceeding to denounce the writer, when Mr. End interrupted him, and referred to the practice in the House of Commons, quoting to shew that it was unparliamentary for a member to make any reference to articles in newspapers, unless the gentlemen intended to make a motion on the subject. Mr. Wilmot promptly stated that he intended to make a motion. The Speaker did not see what motion Mr. W. could possibly make on such a subject, but decided to let the gentleman go on, as other members had received a similar privilege previously. The Hon. Mr. Wilmot then detailed the course pursued by him in 1858, he being requested by a constituent, to ask information about some Crown Lands which, it was said, were being taken up under the Labor Act; his moving a resolution asking return of grants, his altering the date of the Address, so as to embrace only those lands, applied for, or granted, during the period Mr. Tilley's government was in power. Mr. Wilmot did not make any allusion to his then telling Mr. Tilley, that "he knew Mr. T. had got his land in a proper manner;" nor did he make any reference to his writing his friend the "constituent," that he "had lost all confidence in the people." He entered into a good many unnecessary details connected with this matter, but on these important facts he did not even bestow the doubtful honor of a hasty glance. He pronounced the somments of the editor "outrageous," and said that the Rev. E. B. DeMill was an applicant for land under the Labor Act in 1858, and read from the Colonial Empire to prove the statement. He thought it very wrong for a minister of the gospel to write in such a style, and considered it particularly dishonorable for him to confound his (Mr. W's.) altering the date of his address, and calling for a statement of grants, with Mr. Inches altering the date of Mr. Tilley's application for land. He entirely overlooked the important fact that Mr. Shives had distinctly sworn that Inches expressed great indignation at Wilmot's proposal.

This afternoon there has been fiery personal speech-making between His Honor the Speaker and Mr. Connell.

Several members of the governmet have been "pitching into" Mr. C. The debate was rather personal than pleasant to the belligerents, and greatly amused the bye-standers. When the House was about to adjourn Hon. Mr. Smith announced his intention of paying his respects to Mr. Connell to morrow P. M. There was considerable discussion about the Revenue and the Post office Department, which was not of great importance. The usual appropriation was made for the protection of the Revenue.

ST. JOHN.

FREDERICTON, March 26th, 1861.

Judges Fees Bill lost; 13 to 12.

Progress in registration Cumberland Bill.

Bill relating to Police of St. John agreed to.

Also Bill to divide Welling on Ward. Also Bill to incorporate Petitodiac Bridge Company.

The Committee to whom was referred the Bill to consolidate Acts relating to St. Andrew's Railway submitted. Bill which passed; only granting extension of time one year, and confirms grants of land already made.

Gray introduced a Bill relating to Militia and Volunteers.

Supply concluded with very little discussion.

In relation to Immigration, Tilley said it was the intention of the Government to send home 3 persons to visit England, Ireland and Scotland; would endeavor to get Brown to go to Scotland.

Tibbets submitted Report and evidence of Crown Land Committee; report general and moderate. It refers the House to the evidence. Condemns the transactions of Inches, the policy of allowing lands to be locked up along line of Railway, interference with Surveyor General in his endeavors to economize, and resist on just charges; and affirms Executive responsible for judicious management of Public domain. Signed by all—200 copies of the report and 2000 of the evidence to be printed.

Adjourned at 4. 40.

☞ The Exhibition of the High School of Mr. Hartt took place last night, and in spite of the weather it was well attended. The scholars acquitted themselves creditably, and if we may be allowed to specify names, we would mention Miss Harding's exercise as very pleasing. This is the first of what we hope will be a long succession of similar exhibitions from the same quarter.

FIRE.—About four o'clock on Friday a fire broke out in a barn between Exmouth and Waterloo Sts., near the Cathedral. The snow was so deep and fell in such quantities that it was some time before the engines could be brought to the ground. The fire was not extinguished till a number of buildings were seriously injured.

Much praise is due to His Worship the Mayor for his promptness in sending horses to assist in dragging the engines, and to the firemen for their activity in subduing a conflagration which might have been attended with incalculable loss to that section of the city.

WOODSTOCK.—L. P. Fisher, Esq., has been re-elected Mayor of Woodstock. He has filled the office several times.

NOVA SCOTIA CENSUS.—The Enumerators appointed for taking the census have begun their labors.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.—At lot 45 the house of Mr. M. McDonald was recently destroyed by fire. Loss amounted to £2.000. Mr. McDonald's young child, aged three months, met a horrible death in the flames, and the unhappy parents were much injured by their exertions for its rescue.

Serious Accident on the Halifax Railway.

We learn from the Halifax Journal that on Thursday evening last, four Loncomotives attached to a Snow plough left Richmond Station (Halifax) to attempt breaking out the road that Trains might pass.

When four miles beyond Redmond the great deph of snow in a cutting caused the Snow Plough to turn, which threw four Lomcotives off the track.

Nearly all the employees of the Railway were on the Locomotives.

Hon. J. McCully (Chairman of the Raliway) received the most serious injuries, having the flesh torn from his left leg in several places, and also much bruised about the head, but it was impossible to then learn the precise nature of his injuries. Mr. Ward had his ankle seriously jammed and received other bruises. Mr. Ham also jumped off into a snow bank; had a locomotive pass over him and was severely bruised Mr. Feetham, was also injured, so far as we could learn, not seriously. Messrs. Johnson, Marshall, and several others received slight cuts and bruises.

Soon after the meeting of the House on Thursday afternoon, the Hon. Provincial Secretary announced that he had received a verbal message of the occurrence of such an accident, and that he had despatched a special train to the spot, with medical aid—mattresses and blankets, and other appliances for the use of the suffering were also sent. Drs. Foreman and Gilpin, and a number of other citizens went up in the train, which left at half-past two o'clock.

UNITED STATES.

Our news this week is comparitively uninteresting. Things remain in statu quo. The intentions of the New Government with regard to the rebel states have not yet been made public. It is probable that a peaceable solution of the difficulty will be attempted. No doubt both sides will do any thing rather than rush hastily into civil war.

The "Confederacy" are perfecting their Constitution. It is similar to that of the United States. Montgomery, Alabama, is to be the capital for the present. The President is to remain in office six years instead of four, as is usual in the old Union, and members of the Cabinet are to have seats in the House of Representatives. The flag adopted for the new Republic is thus described; "Three stripes, the first red, the second white, the third red. In the upper left hand corner of the flag, on a blue ground, seven white stars, the number of the states, arranged in a circle." May it never float on a field of battle.

TERRIBLE INUNDATIONS IN HOLLAND.—A correspondent of the London "Times" 3d inst says:—

The inundations referred to in my last, are spreading with fearful rapidity, As the ice breaks up, notwithstanding that the thaw is gradual and unaccompanied with heavy gales, the waters collect in the upper localities of the country, and overflowing the dykes, lay villages and towns under water, causing great loss of property and human life. The small German frontier town of Emmerich is six feet under water; Anaheim is impassable from the flood which permeates its streets. More than fifty villages arn totally submerged, and thousands of families have been obliged to leave their homes to seek a houseless shelter in the higher districts. It is feared that this city may yet become the prey of the invading element. The consternation is great, while the prospect of the danger increases with the arrival of every telegram and train. For some days a considerable portion of the Dutch Rhenish Railway has been under water, and the rails displaced, so that communication with Germany has become almost impossible.

PAPAL PAY.—The Unita Italiana of Genoa states that several Pontifical soldiers made prisoners have arrived in that port. They are all provided with a bit of paper with the following words: "Reserve Corps of the Holy See; 100 years of plenary indulgence to whoever takes arms against the excommunicated King. Signed, CARDINAL DE ANGELIS.
