HURLED TO DEATH.

30 Mystic Shriners Killed in Train Wreck.

Santa Barbara, Calif., May 12.—A special train bearing homeward 145 mystic shriners and friends from the annual meeting at Los Angeles was wrecked at Honda yesterday by striking a defective switch. The locomotive turned a somersault into the sand and the forward coaches were crushed to debris and took fire. The flames were soon extinguished by uninjured persons from two rear coaches. The bodies of 25 victims now lie at Santa Barbara and four others at San Luis Obispo. The injured, many of whom are terribly hurt and some of whom may die, are in two sanitariums at San Luis Obispo. The passengers were mostly from Buffalo, N. Y., and Reading, Pa.

The train was going at the rate of 50 miles an hour, and the wreck occurred at 2.35 o'clock, an hour and forty minutes after the train had left Santa Barbara. The locomotive in leaving the rails tore up the track, twisting the rails into fish hooks. The baggage car half buried itself in the sand on the right side of the locomotive. It was smashed almost to kindling wood. The dining car, in which were 32 persons eating a luncheon, fell directly on the demolished locomotive. Nearly every person in the dining car was killed. Scores were scalded by the escaping steam from the disconnected pipes. The rear coaches jammed against the first wreckage, pinning in those who might otherwise have escaped. Several imprisoned in the debris were roasted alive. Engineer Champlain was pitched with the cab twenty-five feet beyond the engine. He got up and ran a mile, seeking help, before he found his arm was broken and that he was severely scalded. An instant after the smash those who were not incapacitated jumped from the train to render aid, but were unable to do much besides extinguish the fire, and they had to wait hours before relief arrived.

There were some terrible scenes witnessed after the wreck. Geo. F. Hagenman, of Reading, Pa., refused the aid of his brother Nokes after they had dragged him, badly hurt, from the wreckage. "I am dying," he said, "go help the women."

NET FISHERMEN.

Organization Brought About by J. H. Kelly, M. P. P., for Bonaventure.

The Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Quebec has granted the incorporation of the salmon net fishermen of the County of Bonaventure, and in the future the legal designation of the said fishermen will be the "Baie des Chaleurs Salmon Net Association."

The incorporation of the salmon net fishermen was brought about by the efforts of Mr. John Hall Kelly, Member of the Local Legislature for the province of Quebec. Last year the Local Government of the Province of Quebec had intended increasing the amount of license to be paid by the salmon net fishermen to a very high rate which would have made it impossible for the salmon net fishermen to pay the license that the Government intended putting on.

In order to overcome this difficulty Mr. Kelly, in the month of December last, held a large meeting of all the salmon fishermen of the County of Bonaventure at New Carlisle, which was very largely attended, and it was then and there decided that the fishermen should be incorporated for the protection of their rights.

While speaking to one of the Members of our staff last week Mr Kelly stated that the fishermen would hold a mass meeting this summer in order to draw up the by-laws and regulations and to take the necessary measures to protect the salmon industry in the County of Bonaventure.

RYAN-SULLIVAN.

At the R. C. church, Bathurst, on the 8th inst., Miss Amie Ryan, daughter of Mrs. Wm. Ryan, was married to Mr. D. Sullivan of Waterloo. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. Martin, and quite a number of friends were in the church to witness the ceremony. The bride looked extremely well, in a pretty suit of navy blue cloth, with white hat. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Queenie Salter, and Mr. Lincoln Salter supported the groom. After a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan left on the accommodation to visit Fredericton and St. John.
