Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

THEY REVEL IN THE GLORIES OF THE WALTZ TO ORCHESTRA'S SWEET AIRS

NORDHEIM OUTING CLUB'S "AT HOME" WAS ONE OF THE SEASON'S BIG EVENTS

Well gowned women, tuneful music and pretty decorations helped to make the "at home" of the Nordheim Outing Club, Friday night in the Opera House one of the most successful affairs of its kind ever held in Campbellton. The members of the club were the hosts of nearly a hundred couples who danced merrily from nine o'clock until the early hours of the morning.

The dancing took place on the big stage of the theatre, which was elaborately decorated with Chinese lanterns, flags and bunting. The ensign of the club occupied a conspicuous place among the decorations. The scene presented by the dancers from the auditorium was a very pretty one.

The program consisted of about sixteen dances the music for which was supplied by McEachern's orchestra of Chatham, who upheld their reputation as providers of delightful dance music.

At midnight an excellent supper provided by the lady members of the club was served.

It was 3.30 when the affair broke up and all present voted the club members capital hosts. The committee which had the affair in charge and to whom a great deal of credit is due for its success consisted of the following: R. K. Shives, F. W. Kennedy, F. E. Lockhart, G. E. Farrer and F. E. Shephard. The chaperons were Mrs. H. Lunam, Mrs. S. Moffat, Mrs. C. F. Clare, Mrs. F. E. Blackhall, and Mrs. J. Wilson.

BOVRIL creates appetite

BOVRIL added to any dish gives it the delightful odor of roasting beef.

Makes your mouth water—puts your appetite on edge.

Its rich, beefy flavor, starts the gastric juices flowing, helping the digestive organs extract more nutrition from the food you eat.

BOVRIL is not a mere extract. It contains in concentrated form all the essence, substance and flavor of prime beef.

When tired out, try a little BOVRIL in a cup of boiling water, with a soda biscuit. 'Twill refresh and strengthen you.

All good cooks keep BOVRIL always on hand. There's not a day passes that it cannot help make some dish more palatable—more nourishing.

All good grocers sell BOVRIL.
