THURSDAY, JUNE 18th 1908

Vote early, only be sure you do vote.

All men with convictions are not in jail.

The inevitable is something everybody tries to dodge.

Citizens, vote for the reestablishment of an industry in your town.

Vote 'Yes' and encourage an enterprising firm to erect a factory in keeping with our town.

Montreal is now threatening New York's grain trade. Such changes are inevitable. Northward the star of empire takes its way.

It is only a small matter, the granting of a bonus of five thousand dollars, but every citizen should take enough interest in the welfare of the town to deposit his ballot today.

The Presbyterian church in Canada does not seem to have felt the effects of hard times. An increase f $268,000 in contributions shows that the members of the church realize their duty in these days of national development.

Miss M. Cora Dow, whose home is in Cleveland, Ohio, is the proprietress of nine drug stores. She began her business training when she was 12, was graduated as a pharmacist when 16 and now employs 135 persons in her drug business.

A new method of resuscitation of the apparently drowned has been adopted by the British Royal Life Saving Society. The patient is laid face downward and natural breathing is encouraged by gentle and regular presure on the lower ribs at the rate of about fifteen times per mnute.

The citizens of Campbellton have a duty to perform today, a duty which all should attend to

This is the day set on which a vote will be taken on the question of granting a bonus of five thousand dollars to Messrs. J. & D. A. Harquail, and it is hoped a fair vote of the ratepayers will be polled.

In a recent issue we went fully into this matter, and trust with this reminder, every citizen will go to the poll and vote on the question at issue.

MONTREAL IS AHEAD.

The New York Produce Exchange has been alert in realizing the results of Montreal's successful competition for Atlantic shipping business. The White Star Line has withdrawn five grain and freight carrying vessels form the New York and Liverpool route, and the rapid shifting of traffic is shown by the record of 8,000,000 bushels of grain from Montreal since the opening of St. Lawrence navigation this season as compared with 2,000,000 bushels from New York during the same period. This is a splendid and gratifying tribute to the policy of the Dominion Government n perfecting the shipping facilities in Montreal harbor and boldly preparing on an adequate scale for the business of a great Canadian shipping port. The export of the continent is certain to expand, and with its growth the superior position of our ports should determine the course of trade. Although for a time there will be additional charges involved in along stretch of inland navigation, it will be more than offset by the long southern detour and greater distance involved in the route by New York or any other American the New York Produce Exchange place the grain rate from Duluth and Fort William to Montreal at 4.25 cents a bushel. This is for the all-water route and includes extra insurance. From Chicago Toledo it is 3.75 cents per bushel. These rates are contrasted with 7.40 cents per bushel from these ports to New York by way of Buffalo. From Georgan Bay ports the rates is said to be 4.75 cents per bushel by water and rail to Montreal, this also leaving a substantial advantage in favor of the Canadian port.

With all these advantages and with a shorter Atlantic route Montreal is the natural port of shipment and is eagerly adopted by the steamship suggested many devices for bringing the trade back, but nothing will succeed except a reduction in the cost f hauling. It will be necessary to continue the efforts which have resulted in this improvement in our export trade. Our competitors are already active in seeking better railway rates to New York. The railways can do much to throw the balance of advantage in favor of any port, but they cannot ignore distances. The improvement of the Erie Canal will greatly favor the southern port, but we have in prospect an enlarged Welland Canal with proportionate improvement in the navigation facilities on the upper St. Lawrence. In this healthy rivalry we have the advantage of the better situation nd the shorter route, and this is destined to outweigh the benefit of an established course of trade. Having already the advantage of cheapness in reaching Montreal, we must supplement it by lessening in every way the cost of shipping from this leading Canadian port. The Harbor Board have done much and can do more in this regard. The Government can continue its policy of perfecting aids to navigation and making the St. Lawrence route as safe as that from any Atlantic port. With the growth of trade the disabilities of occasional congestion with high ocean rates will disappear and the grain exchange will so expand as to fully provide for sales at the port simultaneous with purchase in the West. Already the pace, optimism and enterprise of the Ottawa Government ... results.—Globe.
