THEY GOT BACK.

A St. John preacher, last Sunday took his audience "To Hell and Return." It is well for them that he did not fail to return.—World.

COULD SELL MORE.

The town of Campbellton has no difficulty in selling its bonds. An offer has been received for $20,000 at a little above par, but unfortunately all the issue had previously been disposed of.

BONDS SOLD.

The issue of $60,000 of water and light bonds have been disposed of at par. Forty thousand dollars were taken by a Montreal firm and one thousand was sold to a St. John man. The balance were sold to Restigouche parties.

CURLERS MEET.

The annual meeting of the Campbellton Curling Club was held in the rink last evening, and a large number were present. The following were elected for the ensuing year:

Pres.—Harry Wilson.

Vice.-pres.—A. G. Adams.

Sec.-Treas.—D. C. Firth.

Directors:—A. McG. McDonald, D. J. Bruce, J. R. McKenzie, A. E. G. McKenzie and Max. Mowatt.

Other business of a routine nature was transacted, and the meeting adjourned to meet again on December 1st.

A NICE REPRESENTATIVE

Harvey Lawrence, of Burtt's Corner, is in jail here serving out a sentence for violation of the Scott Act. Lawrence who is the local government school book vender at Burtts Corner made a combination of selling school books and booze. A conviction was recorded against him and when a constable went to arrest Lawrence the latter attacked the officer with a pitch fork threatening to do all kinds of things. The officer got away. Later Lawrence became frightened, drove to town and gave himself up.

WEDDIDNG BELLS.

A pretty wedding was solemnized in the Church of Our Lady of the Snows at 6.30 o'clock on Wednesday morning, when Miss Winnifred Chamberlain and Mr. John Knight were united in marriage by Rev. E. P. Wallace.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a suit of blue with hat to match. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home, at which only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present. The happy couple left shortly afterwards for a wedding trip to P. E. Island. The bride's going away gown was of brown ladies' cloth. Many useful and valuable gifts were received. Both bride and groom are very popular, and all join in wishing them a happy journey through life.

WILL MEET NEXT TUESDAY

A meeting of the Town Council will be held on Tuesday evening next.

EXCELLENT SLEIGHING.

The weather still keeps cool and there is excellent sleighing about town.

HERE IN DECEMBER

The Jere McAuliffe Co. will fill an engagement at the Opera House here early in December.

SENT UP FOR TRIAL.

Chas. Debosus, accused of stealing fourteen dollars from John Underhill, who had previously taken it from Thomas Webb, was sent up for trial by Judge Mathieson yesterday afternoon.

WHO SAID JURY?

The patronage man from the Shiretown should curb his temper. He should know better than to get cross when juries are mentioned in his hearing. Campbellton business men have no more use for juries now, and there would be little gained by breaking faces as threatened.

SALMON EGGS FOR P. E. I.

Mr. A. W. Halroyd, of Charlottetown, is at the Southesk hatchery, Miramichi, to procure salmon eggs for the salmon hatchery located at Southport, P. E. I., Mr. Halroyd has charge of the lobster hatchery at Rocky Point near Charlottetown, as well as the salmon and trout hatchery. The lobster hatchery was started there three or four years ago.

DANGEROUS RIDING

Riding on the blind baggage, which is mostly carried on by tramps, must be a dangerous habit. This morning at the I. C. R. depot a tramp, who was enjoying a smoke in the smoking room, told a story of falling from an I. C. R. train about two weeks ago and to prove his statements could show marks indicating a recent bad bruising about the head. 'It's a wonder I wasnt' killed,' said the Weary Willie, 'but we tramps bear a charmed life.' —Transcript.

KEEP WORK AT HOME.

Why will our merchants persist in sending out of town for their printed stationery when they have printing offices in their own town, which can handle all this class of work. Hardly a week goes by but we see printing that has been imported yet these very same merchants get hot under the collar if they hear of any of their customers or citizens buying goods from the big city stores. Pray, what is the difference in these cases. The newspapers every year refuse advertising from these large departmental stores as they feel that it is not in the interests of home merchans to publish such advertisements. The merchants should reciprocate and have their printing done at the home newspapers. The Graphic's work and prices compare favorably with that of any competitors and with increased facilities we can handle work promptly.

OUR NEW BY-LAWS.

Our new town by-laws are now printed and ready for distribution. They embrace a wide variety of subjects, covering 141 pages, which is about four times the number comprising our former by-laws, and also a comprehensive and alphabetically arranged index. The subject matter of each by law is treated very fully and systematically. It is nearly two years since the preparation of these by-laws was undertaken and they must certainly have cost a great deal of patience, as well as care, and study to bring them out in their present form, especially as a great deal of the ground covered is entirely new. The arrangement and clearness of expression, which prevail throughout the book leave no doubt regarding the meaning of different terms, and make the work very readable. Any ratepayer may get a copy by calling at the office of the town clerk.

(From Saturday's GGraphic.)

DONATION RECEIVED.

The citizens' band has received a cash donation of ten dollars from Dr. Doherty.

PERSONAL.

We are all pleased of the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Walter de St. Croix, of Pleasant, North Dakota, intend spending a part of the winter with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles de Ste. Croix, in New Carlisle.

HAD A SCRAP.

Two employees from the I. C. R. shops were before Judge Matheson yesterday. One was arrested for assaulting the other. It appears that words led to blows, and some damage was done. The case was concluded, but the judge reserved judgment until Tuesday.

NOT QUITE CORRECT.

The November number of the "Educational Review," published at St. John, N. B., says:—

"It is probable that the Campbellton and Dalhousie, N. B., schools will shortly introduce manual training, and combine to secure the services of a teacher, who will give a proportionate time to each school."

We take pleasure in informing our esteemed exchange that Campbellton has had a first class, well organized and up-to-date manual training department in connection with its town schools for the past six years. In fact our town was the first in the province to establish such a course of instruction.

NEWSBOYS' COMPETITION.

The boys in town are getting busy, and are going to work hard to win the prizes offered by The Graphic.

None of these boys have been working in earnest, as it is early yet. In Bathurst one boy has entered, and is making good progress, while in Newcastle one boy is working, and two at Chatham. The score last evening was as follows:—

A. Peacock	244.
Blair Miller	202.
Russell Dobson	119.
Ralph Chary	113.
Peter Hachey,	98.
Murray Gray	9.

LORD MINTO MAY SOON RESIGN

NEW YORK, Friday—A despatch to the Tribune from London revives the rumor that Lord Minto, viceroy of India, will soon resign. It says:

Lord Minto it is reported in official circles in London, has arranged to resign the viceroyship of India early next spring, not on ground of any disagreement with the home government, but owing to the condition of the health of his wife. India has never suited the constitution of Lady Minto, who found the sudden change from Canada extremely trying. Even the so-called cool season in India has affected her health injuriously, and her physicians have insisted in the most urgent manner that this shall be her last winter in India, and that when she comes home in the spring when the hot weather sets in, it will be for good and all.

The wedding of her youngest daughter, Lady Violet Elliot, to Lord Charles Fitzmaurice, is by the special wish of the King to take place in India, instead of next summer in London as had been contemplated. It is to be a very gorgeous function, in which full viceregal state will be displayed, and at which all the leading vassal rulers will be represented, either in person or by princes of their houses.

There is much speculation as to who will succeed Lord Minto, and among the names which have been mentioned therewith is that of Winston Churchill, who would in that event receive a peerage. Winston Churchill is far from rich, and the salary of $100,000 a year and allowances to almost double that amount would be very acceptable; while he must realize that as watters stand now several years must elapse, even under the most favorable circumstances, before he could hope to attain the premiership.

A portion of these years may be profitably employed as Viceroy of India, which would enable him to keep his name before the public, even while outside the barriers of the political arena at home. Naturally, the acceptance of a colonial satrapy, no matter how magnificent, by a successful and conspicuous member of the House of Commons is invariably regarded as getting temporarily out of the race of the goal of every statesmen's aspirations, namely, the office of Prime Minister. But, all things considered, it is extremely probable that Winston Churchill will follow next spring that example of Lord Curzon and abandon for a time the halls of Westminster for the splendors of the Government House, Calcutta.

A man can hire a horse in Japan, keep two servants, and live on the fat of the land, all for a little over $20 a month.

KAISER AND THE REICHSTAG.

Chief Interpellations From Conservative, National, Liberal and Socialistic Parties.

BERLIN, Thursday.—The chief interpellations which will be discussed in the Reichstag tomorrow originate from the Conservative, National, Liberal and Socialistic parties. The first asks for more information regarding the events leading to the publication of the Kaiser's interview. The second aims at extracting from Chancellor Von Buelow a declaration of what he proposes to do in order to make his responsibility for the constitutional duct of the German foreign policy more real. The third calls for a declaration from the chancellor as to how he proposes to prevent similar communications regarding the actions and uterances of the Kaiser from becoming known.

MILLION FROM SALE OF LANDS

Great Areas Taken up Along Line of the G. T. Pacific

(Special News Service)

MONTREAL, Thursday—A million dollars worth of land averaging ten dollars an acre and representing in the aggregate $10,000,000 have been sold this year in the vast region traversed by and contiguous on the Grand Trunk Pacific in the Prairie Provinces.

This is the announcement made by Cy Warman, who has just returned from a trip over the G. T. P. to Wainwright—as far as completed. It is, he declares the banner year for land sales in the Northwest, the construction of the new Transcontinental road having stimulated a demand for farms farther north than settlers have ever dreamt of going before particularly in the region west of Saskatoon, where the G. T. P. cuts out for itself fertile valleys and plains far beyond the reach of any existing road.

The buyers are from far and near, but the majority are from the United States, men who mean themselves to settle on the land they have bought. It is admitted that around the stations and division centres there has been considerable sales for speculative purposes, but in the main the buyers are bona fide settlers who mean to plant their homesteads where they have bought the land.

REMARKABLE WHEAT GROWING IN RUSSIA.

A remarkable experiment is being made in the art of growing wheat, in Russia. The author of the new method is said to be General Levitsky. He sows single grains of wheat at the bottom of the conical pits, a foot to a foot and a half deep. As the grain thus sown in the apex of the pit begins to appear above the surface, it is earthed over, and each time the leaf appears, more earth is filled in till after, say, five or six earthings the pit is full and level with the surface. The result of this treatment is that the plant which has a branching knot at the base of the stem, and of each new stem, sends out a number of new sprouts at each earthing. It is asserted in a letter to the Novoe Vremya that one grain treated in this way sent up 19,683 shoots.—Indiana Trade Journal.

LIVELY TIME AT A COVERMENT MEET

Battered Tory Politicians Talk the Matter Over Fredericton.

THE VICTIMS PRESENT

(Fredericton Herald.)

Scene:—The Executive Council Chamber, Fredericton, November 3rd, 1908.

* * * * *

THE HON. DUG.—Well, boys, I see you're all here, but like myself, generally used up, after the awful carnage of Oct. 26.

* * * * *

THE HON. KIDD.—Yes, Dug, we were up against it sure, and if you don't believe how severely the Grit cyclone struck us, in Carleton, I've got the mangled remains of Smith—Frank Smith in the corridor as exhibit A. Your cussed affidavit, with its wrong date, put the finishing touches on us. If Pugsley had accepted my challenge

(Chorus of jeers from the others.)

* * * * *

THE HON. JOHN.—Your challenge. I never saw any man make such a hare of himself as you did, Kidd. The whole country laughed at you wanting to meet Pugsley. Why man, he would have made mincemeat of you in two minutes. Seems to me you Carleton county fellows get swelled heads before you even get the hayseed out of your hair. There was Frank Smith——(Groans from the corridor.)

* * * * *

THE HON. KIDD.—That's Frank, now. Boys, he's in awful shape. Carvell ran him clear through. Even the Bath bridge couldn't save him.

* * * * *

THE HON. JOHN.—As I was saying, you Carleton fellows are suffering from swelled heads, and we have a case of it in this county. There's Donald, for instance, and I may just mention that I have Donald's remains in a packing case outside the door, and he's still unconscious. I beg leave to submit his mangled body as exhibit B.

* * * * *

THE HON. HARRY.—You fellows are no good. Why, look at me. Ossie couldn't have seen parliament again but for me—and that little Orange circular. We just lined the boys up, called for cheers for William "of pious and immoral memory," and down went the Grit forces. Gentlemen, I feel that I am the greatest man in this bunch, and Hazen should get out and let me form a government.

* * * * *

THE HON. JOHN.—Well, Harry, you are indeed great at your own estimate, but over in our county, the party wishes you and your Orange circulars had been thrown into the river.

* * * * *

THE HON BOB.—They worked all right at Pisarinco, among the brethren, and even the children can repeat from memory "The Duty of the Hour."

* * * * *

THE HON. DUG.—The circulars were all right, if the d—— Grits had not got onto our game so soon. Now I believe that an affidavit, judiciously used, is more effective than a circular and——

(Chorus of voices—"What's the date, what's the date?")

* * * * *

THE HON. DUG.—Oh, you fellows don't know how to hatch a great conspiracy. Baxter and Mayes and I deserve the underlying thanks of all our friends for the hole we put Pugsley in, for, say twelve hours. After that, of course, the deception wouldn't work, and they came back at us so effectively that I'm really sorry I meddled with the business at all. Even the small boys on the streets of St. John shout after me, "Any more affidavits, Dug?"

* * * * *

THE HON. W. C. H. G.—It was a d—— stupid piece of business, the circulars and affidavits, and Pugsley and all the rest of the Grits regard us as idiots. Speaking of mangled remains, have any of yo. seen Gil since the election on the 26th. Todd walked all over him, and even the clams on the shores of Passamaquoddy bay set up a chorus of jeers when they see any of us crowd.

* * * * *

THE HON. MED. COMMISSIONER.—Sacre, d—— they gave it to us in Kent. Not one lettle bit of us left, all gone. That old man LeBlanc, is a very d——, and I'm thinking of getting of de polytic and going back to de pill—De leetle—what you call him—de lettle circular play de very devil with us in de county of Kent. 'Damn Pit, damn McLeod,' dey say over dere.

* * * * *

THE HON. DUG—Well, boys, they certainly did us up in great shape. If I were sure 'Uncle Harry' could hold his job. I don't believe I would ever be seen back here. I think I made a mistake in not calling Pinder into my administration. They say he is the brains of our party.

* * * * *

THE HON. HARRY—Brains be blowed. Brown whipped him in his own door yard. I am the rising hope of this country. Why, you can't carry your own constituencies—you are dubs, rascally affidavit makers.

* * * * *

THE HON. DUG. (sternly)—See here, Harry, the next man that mentions affidavits in this chamber will be summarily ejected.

* * * * *

THE HON. HARRY—And the next man who mentions circulars will just have to settle with me (assumes a John L. Sullivan attitude.)

* * * * *

THE HON. JOHN.—Circulars, circulars, circulars, affidavits, affidavits. There, what are you fellows going to do about it. Come on, you Dug, and you Harry.

* * * * *

THE HON. BOB—Boys, this is going too far. Let us discuss prohibition, or any old thing, but the recent unpleasantness. Pugsley's got us, we might as well admit it. Gosh what sport they'll make of us in the House this winter.

* * * * *

THE HON. DUG.—Out of respect to the memmory of our late comrades Frank and Donald, and to terminate this unseemly brawl, the meeting is now adjourned till this evening, when we shall meet to appoint another batch of J. P's.

(The executive then proceeded to inspect Exhibits A and B. in the corridor.)

MORSE GETS FIFTEEN YEARS IN PRISON

NEW YORK, Friday.—Charles W. Morse, was today sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment, by Judge Hough, of the United States Court. The sentence on A. H. Curtis was suspended. The sentence of Morse was based on the verdict guilty of mis application of funds of the National Bank of America, and making false entries in the books of that bank.

It is understood that if Morse goes to prison he will be confined in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga.

Ten days' stay in the execution of the sentence upon Morse was granted by Judge Hough, and it is understood that notice of an appeal will be filed immediately.

GOOD ROADS.

The "Leader," the personal organ of the Chief Commissioner of Public Works, in an article defending the expenditure of road money and the condition of the roads says that "every dollar has been spent on the roads to good advantage." We wonder if this has reference to the hundreds of dollars spent in Restigouche during the late election campaign. Money spent on roads after the frost comes cannot be spent to advantage. This work should have been done early in the summer, when the weather was fine.

The "Leader" also states that the roads are good this fall, that there is no fear of being mired when driving through the country. This is no doubt true, but the Hazen government or the Chief Commissioner is not responsible for the exceptionally dry summer which we enjoyed this year, and the fine weather made dry roads. In sections of the country where last year the roads were bad, and where not a dollar of road money was spent this year, there are excellent roads. Good roads are sometimes due to fine weather.

MINE TIMBERS.

They Add Eight Cents to the Cost of Each Ton of Anthracite.

The cost of every ton of anthracite is increased eight cents by the cost of the mine timbers. To supply these timbers, says the Vegetarian Magazine, requires each year the product of approximately 150,000 acres of forest.

Timber is used for cross ties for tram roads in the main haulage ways, as wooden rollers and as props. A set of gangway timber consists of two legs, commonly nine or ten feet long and about thirteen inches in diameter, and a collar six or seven feet long. These sets are placed on an average at intervals of about five feet. One gangway frequently contains 1,000 sets and ten gangways to a colliery is not an unusual number.

The average life of the timber is badly above two years. Forty-five per cent of the timbers are destroyed in decay, while breakage, wear and insects destroy the remainder. By peeling the timbers and properly seasoning them and especially by giving them a tratment of oils and chemicals their length of service is materially increased.

While ten of the forty six states have forest reserves, only three states, New York, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin, have over 50,000 acres in State Forest lands.

The Boston Transcript says: A Washington state statistican has figured out that if the present national apple crop were made into pies and placed side by side, the product would extend 975,000 miles. This would be more than twice the distance to the moon and back again, which might ensure plenty of green cheese to go with them.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER ON A FRENCH TRAIN.

PARIS, Thursday.—Another mysterious murder was discovered last night at Autan. The body of a rich cattle dealer, M. Lazare Leathereau, of Dun-les-Places, in the Nievre Department, wrapped in a blanket was found in a second class carriage of a train from Paris to Autun. On his head were a number of wounds, which appear to have been inflicted with a heavy hammer.

There was no trace of a struggle in the compartment and the floors did not even show signs of blood. The pocketbook of the deceased, containing a large sum of money, is missing, and the police consequently believe that the motive for the crime was the robbery of the millionaire.

M. Leathereau for the last twenty years had visited Paris every week on business.

WAREHOUSES COLLAPSE.

Arkansas River Eats into the Heart of City of Pine Bluff.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Thursday.—Two large brick cotton warehouses tumbled into the Arkansas River, following the continuous caving in of the Arkansas River.

The Hotel Jefferson, and the Jefferson County Court House are in danger of falling into the river within the next forty-eight hours. The river continues to eat its way into the heart of the business district and thousands of dollars' worth of property are in danger.

Several small cottages have been carried down stream and a large plantation on the north side of the river is gradually disappearing.

NINE HUNTERS KILLED

Slaughter of Human Beings in Maine Woods

(Special News Service)

NEW YORK, Friday—A despatch to the World from Bangor, Maine, says: The slaughter of human beings in the woods of Maine thus far this season exceeds the bloodiest records of the past, while more than the usual number of hunters have been maimed or painfully injured. The season is not half over yet the fatalities already equal the number recorded for most full seasons, nine persons having been killed, eight seriously wounded and scores of others suffering other slight wounds.

The old lady had just paid a dollar to have a prescription filled.

COMPLICATIONS IN LOCAL CONTEST

NEWCASTLE, Friday.—Serious complications have arisen in regard to the local contest in this county for the seat vacated by Hon. Donald Morrison.

Mr. Morrison, it is announced, is quite willing to offer as a candidate, but there is little hope of electing him if he is obliged to offer, but it is rumored that the Hazen axe will fall and a government position made for the Honorable Donald.

There is undoubtedly other aspirants to the legislature among the Conservatives, among whom are Frank Swim of Deaktown, and T. Flett, of Nelson. Either of those would make useful members of the legislature.

Recently a number of gentlemen met at Millerton and it was decided to press the claims of Mr. Weldon Robinson, as the county's next representative. Mr. Robinson is a rising young man, and if elected would be a strong addition to the local opposition. He is very popular and would likely win by a huge majority. His father, James Robinson, ex-M. P., has many followers who would work for the son.

The opposition should get to work and organize for the local campaign.

MRS. EDDY BUYS AN AUAO.

SERVIA NOT HOSTILE.

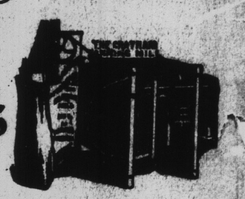

Government Awaits Hopefully Issue of International Congress.

BELGRADE, Friday.—At the moment Crown Prince George is returning home from his visit to St. Petersburg, the Servian Government, acting upon the advice of the powers, has issued an official repudiation of any hostile designs on Austria-Hungary, together with a declaration that Servia awaits the issue of the International Congress hopefully, trusting in friendly powers to plead her just cause.
