A BIG LONG LAUGH AT THE OPERA HOUSE LAST EVENING

The Whole Damm Family Proves to
Be a Good Attraction and Created Much Fun.

PLAYS TO COME THIS WEEK

The Power Company, at the opera house last night, again appeared to a crowded house, notwithstanding the fact that the weather was very disagreeable.
The piece, "The Whole Damm Family," was new, and something out of the usual run. It was a farce-comedy and the audience enjoyed it from start to finish. The management offered $20 in gold to any person who would not laugh during the evening, and it is needless to say, they still hold their gold. New specialties were also put on.
The play tonight will be of a more serious nature, but none the less enjoyable on that account. The company will put on "The Lights of Gotham," and on Friday evening this excellent company will play "The Devil". This piece has received much favorable comment and all should see it.

ANOTHER CONTRACTOR PAYS SUMS TO OFFICIALS OF MAINE DEPT.

Gregory Made Much Money Out of His Office--Others Get Small Sums.

NO MORE PATRONAGE LIST

(Special News Service.)
QUÉBEC, Wednesday.—R. H. Gale, head of the State Electric Company, of Quebec, was the first witness in the marine investigation this morning.
His company had done business with the department amounting to $10,000 during the past three years. He did not know for whom the steamer Arctic was chartered, but he retained $100,000, finally paying over $400 and keeping the remainder, which Mr. Gale called an interest. He also had sent Gregory the use for small amounts.
J. B. Gale said he had sold $20,000 to the government in the last three years. He paid O'Farrell about one hundred dollars; Captain Koestler about $50; Fontaine $250; Captain S. Delanger, about $100; Pettit $75.
Witness also did some work for Mr. Gregory for nothing. He asked any payment for another disclosure of the disclosures of the marine inquiry. Mr. Brodeur has issued an order to the effect that all the patronage list must be suppressed and that all purchases made by the department must be made in open market.

BRAITHWAITE ADMITS THAT GAME LAWS WERE VIOLATED BY SPORTSMEN

American Shot Caribou in Mistake for Bear on Sept. 9th
The Animal Was Taken to Camp and Meat Used.

OTHER VIOLATIONS ADMITTED

(Special News Service.)
CHATHAM, N. B., Wednesday.—The Braithwaite case was finished today, and Magistrate Connors reserved his judgment until Wednesday, November 18th.
The chief features of today's evidence was furnished by Braithwaite, who went on the stand and admitted that he had shot a caribou on the day he was charged.
On September 9th, he said he and Mr. Stanton were in the woods, Stanton was about four hundred yards ahead of him when he heard a shot. He rushed forward to Stanton, who said, "I have done it now." "Done what?" Braithwaite asked. "I have shot at something in the woods that I thought was a bear, and it turned out to be a caribou."
After some consultation, Braithwaite drove the animal and carried it to camp, where the meat was eaten by practically all the party.
Williams, another American sportsman, also shot a moose on the 14th, or very early on the 15th.
Braithwaite admitted that all the game, two moose and one deer, was secured by the Braithwaite party, and was shot out of season.
The case against Major Major Duncan, for acting as a guide, without a license, was finished today, and judgment was also reserved.
