Frauley Bros. big fur sale is in full swing and their store, Saturday, was crowded with buyers.

Farmers who have done their threshing report a very good yield of grain, in spite of bad weather conditions.

The sale at Elmsville last week, when Angus Turner disposed of his stock, attracted a large attendance. Everything was sold at good prices.

As a result of a shooting expedition, in which W. P. Hill and Arthur Brown took part, on Thanksgiving, two houses enjoyed partridge for dinner.

Messrs. Tayte Meating & Co. report an unusual number of orders on hand for this season, and a growing demand for the products of their plant.

Mr. Arthur Frauley, who is one of the youngest moose hunters of the province, has returned from an unsuccessful trip. While disappointed at his hard luck he will try it again, with better hopes of success.

The supper held in the vestry of the Baptist church was successful in every way. A large crowd was present and the service was excellent. A sale of fancy articles very materially increased the receipts.

Edith Lee, formerly of Lee Settlement, was arrested a few days ago by the St. John police. A short time ago she was married to a bronze gentleman, the wedding being quite an event in the circle in which the young couple moved.

When Mr. A. C. Gillmor was asked if the rumor was correct that he would allow his name to go before the convention, for the liberal nomination on the government ticket, he stated to the Greetings, that a number of his friends had spoken to him about the matter, and he was in their hands.

W. C. Archibald, of Wolfville, was in town this week and informed the Record that the apple crop in the Annapolis Valley this year would give returns to orchardists of about $3,000,000. The farmers of the Annapolis and Cornwallis Valleys consider a return of one million a year a handsome dividend, so it will be easily seen this year promises to be a record breaker.

L. A. McAdam has just finished enclosing the Thos. Ray lot at the Upper Corner Cemetery. A handsome monument was recently erected by Mr. McAdam and the plot has been further improved by the erection of handsome stone posts, piping, chains and tassels. The enclosure is now one of the handsomest in the cemetery. Mr. McAdam is also erecting a large monument in Newtown and enclosing the lot for the late Robert Coates and wife.

The above clipping is from the Kings County Record, and the Mr. McAdam mentioned is one of our St. George boys who is evidently making good in his present location.

Thanksgiving was generally observed in town, the stores and some of the granite works being closed for the day. The town has many reasons for thanksgiving, being free from epidemics, financial losses and scarcely any fires during the year. Business in all manufacturing branches, has been exceptionally good, the town improvements have been many and everyone seems to be in readiness to meet the conditions that usually come with our long and severe winters.

Considerable anxiety is felt for the safety of the little schooner Twilight, owned and commanded by Capt. John Cassidy of this city. Capt. Cassidy left Eastport for a New Brunswick port after a cargo of wood a month ago and has not been heard from by his people since. Ten days usually, is sufficient time to make the passage when the weather is favorable. But the weather since the Twilight's departure has been unusually stormy, several big blows having occurred. The schooner is now two weeks overdue. Capt. Cassidy has a crew of three Eastport men with him, the families of whom are all becoming seriously anxious over her long delay.---Eastport Sentinel.

Mr. T. R. Kent is in town for a few days. He is boring a well at the biological station, St. Andrews.

There is a dearth of soft coal in St. John. American coal coming in with a duty of 60 per cent. makes it pretty expensive.

Many of our young men have been taking advantage of the open season, with fairly good success. Several fine specimens of moose and deer have been brought to town.

Str. Viking has been having hard luck lately. With her machinery out of order and a collision with Str. H. F. Eaton, she has been taken off the route and is undergoing repairs.

A number of young people spent a very pleasant evening at the home of Miss Vida Maxwell on Hallowe'en. Music and games were indulged in and a good time voted by all.

During a fit of temporary insanity on Saturday, Wm. Dalzell of Grand Manan, committed suicide by taking paris green. He was fifty years of age and a man much respected in the community.

Hallowe'en has passed with the usual lot of fun, for a lot of boys and a lot of people and all the escapades were taken in good humor. The fun commenced early, so that no one was roused from their peaceful slumber.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McCormick celebrated the anniversary of their wooden wedding Monday eve. A number of friends gathered at their residence to offer congratulations, bringing a number of valuable and useful presents, which indicate the esteem in which the young couple is held.

Messrs. F. H. Grimmer, of St. Andrews, and Geo. F. Calkin, of St. John, drove to Black Harbor last week on business. The work that is being carried on at that place by Messrs. Connors Bros., the hustling canners and fish dealers, was a revelation to them. About 100 hands are kept in constant employment by these energetic merchants.---Beacon.

The corporators of the Maine Shore Line Railroad perfected their organization last week at Bangor by the election of the following directors: J. N. Greene, G. R. Tainter, James E. Lynott, S. D. Leavitt, James R. Talbott, S. N. Campbell, L. A. Emery.

At a subsequent meeting of the Directors, officers were elected as followed: President, J. N. Greene; Clerk of the Corporation, S. N. Campbell; Capital stock, $1,600,000.---Eastport Sentinel, Feb. 22, 1895.

Of Letters.

(A Rondel.)

(By the Rev. Arthur B. O'Neill, C. S. C. in the Ave Maria.)

Could absent friend but know
What joy their letters bring,
How like a breath of Spring
They set our hearts aglow,
They'd write more oft I trow,
And give their pens full swing,---
Could absent friends but know
What joy their letters bring.

Time's stream would smoother flow,
Our little griefs take wing,
And great ones lose their sting,---
All life would gladder grow,
Could absent friends but know
What joy their letters bring.
