

LOCAL NEWS.

REPAIRS.—The bank of B. N. A. is being repaired throughout.

ROMANIZED.—The 71st Bn. band has been reorganized with Frank Bryson as leader.

L. O. T. S.—The Grand L. O. Temperance Society meets in this city, in Orange Hall, Queen street, on Tuesday, 9th inst., 2 o'clock, p. m.

BAR CONCERT.—The Fredericton brass band rendered a musical programme of music on Parliament square on Wednesday evening.

THE PAINTERS MEN.—The painters base ball nine (so-called) defeated the carpenters base ball nine (so-called) at a game of base ball (so-called).

EARLY FROST.—On Tuesday and Wednesday night there was a very heavy frost in the sections of the country. In many places the buckwheat suffered severely.

THOU SHALT NOT STEAL.—Joseph Brown has been sentenced to the reformatory for seven months and fifty cents for stealing seven dollars and fifty cents from Mrs. John O'Brien.

WHERE WILL YOU GO.—The picnic season is at hand, and every day is set apart for an outing of some kind. The only difficulty for the picnic goer is to choose from such a varied programme.

RETURNED HOME.—Pte. Emerson of the I. S. Corps, who deserted from here some four months ago, delivered himself up to the military authorities last week. He is to get a district martial.

BROUGHT HOME FOR BURIAL.—The remains of Stephen Hovey, an old and respected resident of this city, who died in Boston, arrived here by Monday's train in charge of the deceased's son, Charles Hovey. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon.

BRIEF TESTIMONY.—Soleid tenders will be received at the department of public works until the 15th inst., for rebuilding Young's bridge St. George, Charlotte county. Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of the department and at John McCreath's St. George.

THE EXHIBITION.—Preparations for society 34's exhibition are progressing finely. The new building is quite a capacious affair and will give lots of room. With the show, the races and the torchlight procession, we ought to be able to attract quite a number of visitors to town for the day.

RATHER THICK.—The Gleamer was responsible for the statement that there was three inches of frost at Boleston the other night. "Three inches of frost"—did any living person see such a phenomenon? Measure three inches and try to fancy what it would be like to have that space filled with hoar frost.

A FALL IN HORSE FLESH.—While a horse and driver by young George Dunlop was passing up an alley leading to Blair's factory, a defective trap door suddenly gave way, and horse and vehicle fell into the cellar. It took the united exertions of a dozen men to get the horse and driver once more on terra firma. No damage was done.

RISE OF THE WATER.—The heavy rain raised the river sufficiently to enable the Florenville to resume her trips to Woodstock, as well as to start all the logs that were hung up on the main river and the Nashwaak. The other side of the picture is that laying on the low meadows has probably been interfered with to some extent.

THE FARMER.—Our contemporary, the Farmer, has appeared in a handsome new dress, and its editor and proprietor has moved into a new house, for which evidences of prosperity he is, we hope, duly thankful. He has made the Farmer a readable sheet and a welcome visitor in many households. We trust he will have to order a great many more new dresses for it.

LITTLE FOLKS POOR.—The young Misses of the several schools are enjoying a "private" picnic to-day (Saturday) at "Canaan" picnic grounds. No young gentlemen are invited. Through the kindness of J. Tennant, this grove has become a popular resort for picnics this season, and Mr. Tennant spares no pains to make the outings enjoyable to those participating.

THE JAIL FEEL AGAIN.—On Wednesday afternoon sergeant Vandine and constable Roberts took a stroll through the lower end of the town, and struck luck. It only took them about an hour to drum up a herd of sixteen cows. These were deposited in the pound for safe keeping, and the owner of the kine were allowed to take them away on paying up and looking pleasant.

THE NORMAL SCHOOL.—The applicants for admission into the Normal school have been very busy, and the result of their examinations have been made known. Out of 211 candidates 164 passed. The successful students from Fredericton include: Miss May Babitt, Marion Gough, Eunice Kelley, Louisa F. Mitchell, Zora Sewell, Bessie H. and Nellie M. Taylor, Lizzie Taylor, and Dean Creed.

MEETING OF THE PARK ASSOCIATION.—Entries for the Fredericton park association's meeting close on 8th September inst. The circuit will open on the 17th and 18th days of this month. On Wednesday there will be a stake race for foals of '88, a 300 metre class and a 237 class. On Thursday a free-for-all class, a 145 class and handicap running race. The value of the prizes offered is $1,000.

TORQUE VALLEY RAILWAY.—An Ottawa despatch to the Sun says: "Alderman Connor of St. John and James Stratton, barrister of the same place, leave for New York tomorrow, having, they report, received an assurance that the Torque railway will receive an extension of time and other important concessions, which they, with Hon. Mr. Costigan, have been pressing on the department of railways for some time."

SAN DEATH.—Particulars recently received by the friends of Enoch W. Macklin, son of Robert Macklin of Gibson, who was supposed to have been killed in a railway accident at Desha, Mo., state that deceased died of typhoid fever and abscess of the liver. His remains will be brought home for re-burial. Mr. Macklin was a member of the Legion of Honor, and his policy is made to Miss Gertrude, his youngest sister.

ONE OF THESE INTERESTING EVENTS.—Richard George, of Wiley's apothecary store, whom everybody knows and likes, was united in marriage on Wednesday. Miss Manie, daughter of Elisha Vanwart, of St. Mary's, a young lady who deservedly occupies a prominent place in the esteem of a wide circle of friends. Rev. Mr. Brewer, uncle of the groom, assisted by Rev. Mr. Shenton, performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. George took the flying yankee for Boston on a wedding tour. They will take up their residence in St. Mary's.

THE WRONG WAY TO DO IT.—If you must drink whiskey perhaps it is as well to mix a little water with it, although Charles Lamb used to say of brandy and water that to mix them spoiled two good things; but to fill yourself up with the fluid and then attempt to dilute it with a whole river is a little different. Yet this is what George Bryson of Ormotto attempted to do the other day. He is a man of twenty-five years, but with a fifty year capacity for the ardent, and having satisfied it so far as the resources of the classic village would permit, he retired to the highway bridge over the stream and took a header down below. He was fished out with some difficulty and with more water within him than his anatomy than he has indulged in for some time.

A Successful Picnic.

The Kirk picnic, the anxiously awaited event among picnic goers of this city, took place on Tuesday. As usual there was an immense crowd, and a good time was had about half past nine when the heavily loaded train left the Canada Eastern station bound for the pleasant valley of the Nashwaak. The farm of Mr. Fraser at pleasant valley was the place selected for the picnic ground, and a more beautiful spot could scarcely be found. Every sort of amusement had been provided by the committee to suit the taste of young and old. The base ball match between the Lone Stars and the Alerts was the chief centre of attraction and was a very interesting game. The Alerts won by a score of 8 to 7. The picnic sports were exciting and closely contested. The prize winners were as follows: S. Solomon took first, an arm chair, and J. Paul second, a smokers' set, for archery, both were Indians. The ladies' archery, was won by 1st, Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

The putting weight prize was won by H. McLeod, cuff buttons. The brace and bit competition was won by A. C. Fleming, prize brace and bit. The quilts prize by Samuel Owens, a gent's wallet. The fat was won by Miss Fleming, a cake basket; 2nd, Miss Jennie McFarlane, of Nashwaak, a silver cruet. The Excelsior prize was won by William Ring, a merschaum pipe; the air gun competition by 1st Lieut. Murray, of Maryville, 33pts, brass plaque. The ring toss resulted in Mrs. McLellan and Ernest McKay tying. It was decided that Mrs. McLellan should take the prize, a ladies' companion, and Mr. McKay, having declined to throw off, should hand the prize over to the lady, if he has not already done so.

PERSONAL.

Concerning People Known to Most Readers. A. D. Yerxa is seriously ill. M. Adams was in town last week. Albert Palmer, M. P. P., is in town. G. T. Baird was in town on Friday. Peter McFarlane is to be out again. Capt. and Mrs. Hemming are home again. A. Sison Thompson, of Chicago, is in town. J. M. Humphrey of St. John is at the Barker. Dr. Melville Jack has returned from St. Andrews. G. G. Gilbert, of St. John, was in town on Thursday. F. H. Hale, M. P., was at the Barker during the week. P. Lynott of Edmundston, was in the city on Thursday. G. Fred Fisher has been seriously ill with heart trouble. Dr. Forgan is getting ready to go west. Success to him. Judge Steadman and Mrs. Steadman have gone to Boston. Dr. Alward and Mrs. Alward have gone to the Pacific coast. Dr. Coburn has gone on a short pleasure trip to the United States. Leonard Tilley has gone