A GOOD OFFER.—John G. Gunn, of this city, was offered seventy-five dollars last week for his fine St. Bernard dog, Noble. The offer was a bona fide one, and the gentleman, Dr. W. W. LADIES COLLEGE.—The Rev. B. W. R. Taylor, of Riverside, Southern California, is at the Queen hotel, on a canvassing tour on behalf of the college for ladies of the maritime provinces. HANDSOMELY REMEMBERED.—Just previous to their departure for Minneapolis on Friday of last week, Mr. and Mrs. Fagan were presented with a handsome bill and beautifully engrossed address by the teachers and Sunday school of St. Paul's; and the choir and a few outside friends presented an elegant tiling silver tea pitcher, which, no doubt, will be cherished with pleasant recollections of their short sojourn among our citizens.

THE POTATO CROP.—In Aroostook and the upper New Brunswick counties, the potato crop has not been so seriously damaged by the late rains as was thought. The shipments by the cars are very large from Presque Isle, Houlton and Carleton stations. The yield is good, one farmer having dug no less than 81 barrels out of an acre and a half of ground. Prices range from $1.25 per barrel, a very satisfactory rate for the farmers.

She was interred in the old burying ground, nine miles above the city. Rev. Mr. Crawley conducted the funeral services.

DROWNING ACCIDENT.—A sad drowning accident occurred Saturday at Douglas brook, three miles above the city, by which James Sinclair, a native of New Maryland, 16 years of age, lost his life. He was out from shore on a catamaran, when he lost his balance and fell off. The swift current carried the catamaran beyond his reach, and being unable to swim, Sinclair sank after a few struggles, before assistance could be brought from shore. SOME MORE OF US.

Notwithstanding the very early hour, 6 o'clock, on Tuesday morning last for the solemnization of one of those interesting affairs which create a flutter of excitement among the gentler sex and envy among the sterner, there was a very large gathering at the Kirk to witness the nuptials of Miss Martha Fleming and John Harvey.

The bride was met by the Rev. Mr. Mowatt, and Miss Bertha Emery of Woodstock, a cousin of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and Wm. A. Adams of this city superintended the groom.

The bride is the daughter of one of Fredericton's most estimable young ladies and a very popular member of St. Paul's church.

After the ceremony the young couple boarded the flying yankes for Boston, New York and other cities in the neighboring republic. The bride's parents were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Adams.

The following from the Cambridge, Mass., Tribune refers to an interesting ceremony in which both the principals are well-known and have many friends in Fredericton: At St. James Episcopal church, Wednesday evening, September 3rd, Rev. Dr. Porter of Lexington officiated at the wedding of Miss Mowatt and Mrs. Etna Fenely.

The ceremony was witnessed by only the immediate relatives of the couple. Judge Stoddman, the step-father of the bride, gave her away. The couple have just returned to Harvard street.

The Farmer is responsible for saying: The single curiers in their contels with the married men the coming ladies' will sadly miss the prowess of Messrs. D. L. Babbit and E. S. Barker, both of whom are represented as about to assume the joys and responsibilities of matrimony.

The Herald has the old time slipper (and a big one, for our pedals are large) and, awaiting the developments of busy dress-makers and planners of the future, whereby Fredericton, as we will lose a highly esteemed young lady. The happiest man in this pleasing episode holds a prominent position in a leading St. John book-stationery and printing establishment, and is not only held with his high respect by his many friends, but is also a most deserving of such a life partner as she whom he is about to wed.

Meraldians. The river is usually high for this time of year. The Baptists of Stanley held a tea meeting next Thursday at Cross Creek.

Quite heavy frost the past few nights have left its prints in many gardens in the city.

Friday evening the R. S. I. band gave their farewell on air concert for the season.

The remainder of Cooper's exhibit of carriages went to the exhibition by boat this Saturday morning.

A few flakes of snow fell at Indianton on Wednesday last, and a flurry of the beautiful was seen at St. John.

A meeting of the Fredericton curling club is called for next Wednesday. Election of officers and transaction of business for the coming winter's sport.

Thursday evening the Queen hotel coach attempted the feat of running on three wheels, but came to grief as the other wheel slid off to its companions. The coach was filled with passengers at the time. No one injured.

Chas. Hatt's grey mare of Marysville, had a pleasant run at noon on Saturday, but falling to regard a tree on Saturday, a part of the wagon hanging to the trunk, while she went her way down Queen street breaking her harness at every jump. She was secured below town.

Our friends along the Nashwaak have taken up the pleasing amusement of croquet, and are holding those croquet parties so very popular for years past along the borders of New Brunswick and Maine. Why not get up a croquet tournament with our Jacksonville neighbors. They have some croquet players and there are lots of innocent amusement when the champions meet at their social croquet parties each season.

Why cannot our country friends arrange a tournament of croquet as well as our city friends the lawn tennis, and while not only make and develop new and pleasing games, but help to content the young as well as amuse the old. Is it not worth pondering over, you, who are always trying to solve the problem why the young men are leaving the farms? What think you of the tournament, B. N. Goodspeed?

The police court was kept very busy Thursday and Friday of last week. Complaints for assault and battery were the order of the day. The colored population of the suburban districts again forgot the eternal law of love towards their fellow creatures, and the result was a fine for Thos. McIntyre was charged with ill using Jane O'Ree.

Fred Lottimer was on Friday fined $10 and $2 costs for assaulting private Keedy, of the I. S. C., in default of payment, twenty days imprisonment.

Private McAllister, of the I. S. C., was also fined $1 and $1 costs for being disorderly on Queen street. His loaded revolver was confiscated and a fine of $20 imposed, which was allowed to stand.

Another complaint was laid under rather peculiar circumstances. It seems that a young town law student, who was formerly connected with a leading city newspaper, who desires of taking his "girl" to see the McDowell company and accordingly proposed to the office of the said newspaper for the purpose of obtaining what complimentary tickets the going around.

It seems, however, that the manager of said newspaper had generously bestowed the said tickets on a young lady clerk who had charge of his front office, and this young lady had made arrangements to go and see the show herself and take a ride with the horse, and the young law student thought extremely unkind of the young lady especially as he did not seem willing to resign in his favor. He accordingly resorted to force and proceeded to choke the young lady with right wing. Hence a complaint for assault and battery. It is understood that this is not the first nor second time such a tragedy has happened in the way of binding etc. The exhibit was pretty extensive and you can imagine chief Crockett's surprise when on going down in charge of it, he found that four of the five stalls had been previously given up to the teachers and scholars of St. John, while one little stall was set apart for the work of the rest of the province. This occurrence clearly points out the international character of the St. John exhibition and fully illustrates the notoriously jealous feeling which St. John has for Fredericton.

Literary Note. The New York Ledger for October 4 is a mine of interesting fact and fiction regarding the South, both the new South and the old. It lends itself with a brilliant character sketch of Henry W. Grady, journalist, orator and patriot, written by Oliver Dyer, in which the effect on the new South of Grady's life-work is luminously explained. A crisp editorial on "The Marvelous Revival of property in the South" tells its own tale. The old South is pictured in the opening installment of a Kentucky war story entitled "Remembered," the pen-product of a distinguished Southern officer. In "For Isabel" Maurice Thompson gives a vignette of ante-bellum life in Louisiana. James Parton tells the story of Cesar Rodney of Delaware. An illustrated ballad by Thomas Dunn English and a story by Mrs. Amelia E. Barr are published in the same number.

BALMORAL CHOE.—All lovers of real school music should go and hear the Balmoral choir, composed of professional vocalists and musicians from Glasgow, who appear in the city hall, on Thursday evening, the 9th of October. Reserved seats on sale at McMurray's.

THE FREDERICTON RACES.

The directors of the association held a meeting at the Queen hotel on Wednesday evening to discuss the condition of their affairs and the financial result of the races.

Of course, owing to the bad condition of the track and the postponement of the agricultural show, it was to be expected that the loss would be considerable, and it was found to be in the vicinity of $200. This is quite an item to throw away, and the management of the association deserve the greatest praise for the many way in which they have so acted. Everything was in opposition to the weather, the financial outlook, and the opposition of a leading spirit on another track of the circuit.

Nevertheless everything that had been promised was performed in time, and the visiting horsemen who stayed to the end, went away fully satisfied. It was decided at the meeting to hold another series of races at the time of the exhibition, the 15th and 16th of October, and it is to be hoped that a larger attendance and better financial results will attend them.

The attendance at the Fredericton Park association race last Monday was a good deal larger than on Saturday. The weather was rainy, a good solid track and a number of interesting event with good races were the attractive points. The grand stand was well filled.

2.37 Class. Purse $200. The first race was called, the 2.37 class, a match race between Blackbird and Ida. In this race Blackbird was not pushed very hard by her opponent. The attendance at the Fredericton Park association race last Monday was a good deal larger than on Saturday. The weather was rainy, a good solid track and a number of interesting event with good races were the attractive points. The grand stand was well filled.

2.37 Class. Purse $200. The first race was called, the 2.37 class, a match race between Blackbird and Ida. In this race Blackbird was not pushed very hard by her opponent. Blackbird stayed to the end, went away fully satisfied. It was decided at the meeting to hold another series of races at the time of the exhibition, the 15th and 16th of October, and it is to be hoped that a larger attendance and better financial results will attend them.
