

THE HERALD.

FREDERICTON, MONDAY, JAN. 27, 1890.

THE VERDICT OF YORK.

The County of York gave a splendid answer to the malicious attacks that have been made upon the government and especially upon the Attorney General.

As during the campaign THE HERALD had no words of abuse for its opponents, so now it has none. The county has pronounced its verdict with this THE HERALD satisfied.

AFTER THE BATTLE.

A defeated party usually seeks to find excuses for its ill-fortune, but it is seldom that one resorts to such inventions as the Gleaner has put forward.

DECLARATION DAY IN ST. JOHN.

The victors will very jubilantly naturally over their success, coincided that it was a surprise to them.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Dalton McCarthy has introduced a bill into Parliament to abolish the use of the French language in the Northwest Territories.

THAT CHARGE OF PERSONATION.

The Gleaner on Friday reiterates its statement in regard to the attempted personation of Mr. John Hewitson.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

The statement first made in the Gleaner and reiterated last evening to the effect that "Mr. Blair took a man to the Court House on election day to personate John Hewitson"

THE GENERAL RESULT.

The government comes out of the elections with a good working majority. A great many wild statements have been made.

THEOLOGICAL ACTIVITY.

Two notable deliverances have interested the religious world in the United States since the beginning of the new year.

THE WARDEN'S DINNER.

On Thursday night the Warden entertained the councillors at an oyster supper at the Watson & Long's restaurant.

The Queen and other Royal personages sent wreaths to be placed on the coffin.

The death of Lord Napier, of Magdair, has given rise to a somewhat curious complication. The deceased nobleman left two sons, Lewis, Robert and George. After a long discussion among doctors and nurses as to which entered this world first, the family decided that Robert should inherit the title. George thought of contesting this decision and of appealing to parliament to divide the honours, as there were two titles. As a compromise the family council, influenced the fact that Robert, though married, has no child, and that George must eventually inherit everything, propose to give George a handsome annuity and one of the titles. There is no parallel case in the history of the British peerage.

The Cunard steamer Catalonia, from Boston for Liverpool, arrived at Queenstown on Monday. During the latter part of her voyage the vessel experienced a hurricane, which lasted twenty hours. The storm culminated on Saturday morning. The davits were twisted like wires and four boats were lost. The bridge, ventilators, bulwarks and deck houses were badly battered. The sea entered the funnel and quenched seven fires and flooded the intermediate cabin. Several seamen and two steerage passengers were injured. During the storm a steam pipe burst, killing Fireman Calvin, Fear and James. Fireman Fitch was fearfully scalded. The passengers gave up all hope of seeing land again.
