SKATING RACE AT MARYSVILLE.—Melvin Good, James Dyer, and Arthur Gibson skated a three mile race in the Marysville rink on Tuesday evening. There was a large number of spectators present and the ice was in fine condition. Gibson won in 11 min. 58 sec., Dyer being second.

DAIRYING.—Mr. Temple, M. P., writes to say that Mr. Robinson, a dairy expert, will come to Fredericton on the 20th of March and lecture on butter and cheese making. If the farmers of this neighborhood would care to hear him, a meeting will probably be arranged for. Mr. Robinson is to lecture in Halifax on March 18th.

DIVORCE COURT.—The divorce court opened on Tuesday last, Justice Wetmore presiding. Two cases were entered for trial. Addison vs. Addison and Brown vs. Brown. The woman is the petitioner in both cases. Messrs A. J. Trueman and George W. Allen appear for the plaintiff in the former case, and Geo. Fowler in the latter.

A FRAUD.—The "Standard Dramatic Company," whoever they are, advertised to play "Out at Sea," in the city hall, Monday evening. Subsidized press notices, and other misrepresentations, had enticed a large and fashionable audience to the hall. It proved to be the dizziest performance ever seen in the city. A few such "sells" will kill theatres in this city.

JUDGE STEADMAN WILL APPEAL.—Judge Steadman has decided to appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada, from the recent decision of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick, adjudging him guilty of contempt, in refusing to obey Judge Tuck's order of prohibition in the Queen's Co. elections. The necessary proceedings for an appeal have been commenced.

CONTRADICTORY EVIDENCE.—An information was laid against John Edwards of the Queen Hotel during the week for violating the Scott Act. One George Lawrence, arrested for drunkeness, swore he purchased his liquor at the Queen. The party from whom Lawrence swore he purchased it, swore he was not near the premises of the Queen at the time of the alleged sale. Mr. Edwards was fined $50.00 and costs, and that the case will probably be reviewed.

GOLD IN THE HOPPER.—The miller at Muniac while handling over a hopper of grain recently picked out a stone which he thought had the appearance of containing rich metal; being encouraged in this conviction by others who examined it, he had it sent to Montana for assaying. The report surprised him, as it proved to be very rich in gold. Where the stone came from is not precisely known, but could probably be traced to the field where the grain was grown.

ARREST OF A TEXAS EMBEZZLER IN ST. JOHN.—Fred. A. Walton, who stole $35,000 from the Pacific Express Co. at Dallas, Texas, has been arrested in St. John by police constable John A. Grose of Montreal. Part of the stolen money was found on his person. The remainder had been squandered among gamblers and others in Montreal. Dr. Silas Alward was retained by the prisoner, and got an order for a writ of habeas corpus from Judge Palmer. The legality of the arrest was argued on Wednesday. He was discharged from custody, the prosecution admitting that the warrant on which he was arrested was defective.

BUT HE HADN'T THE RIFLE.—Driver Davis, of the St. Andrews express, opened his eyes a good deal wider than usual last week, when, as he was approaching Watt Junction, he observed two deer trotting on the track ahead of him, says the Beacon. They jogged along at an easy gait ahead of the locomotive, and then leaping the fence, sought shelter in the woods. Mr. Davis says they were beauties, and he could easily have brought them down with a rifle, as they were not more than fifty yards from the locomotive when they left the track.

Recent Deaths.

Geo. Hatt, Sr., has received intelligence of the death, at her home in Glengary, Ireland, of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Alleyne Torrens, wife of Moses Torrens.

Morris Robinson, of St. John, at one time a resident of Fredericton, died quite suddenly at St. John on Saturday morning last. Deceased was a brother of Delancy Robinson of Douglas.

J. Woodforde Smith, late deputy provincial secretary, died at his home in St. Mary's on Sunday morning last. The deceased had been in very poor health for a number of years, the last few years of which time he had been a confirmed invalid. Mr. Smith was a native of Fredericton and was seventy-four years of age. He was in the public service for a long time and after filling a clerkship in the provincial secretary's office, was appointed deputy provincial secretary on the death of Mr. Fulton. He held the position until the year 1884, when failing health compelled him to retire on a superannuation allowance. The deceased gentleman enjoyed the esteem of all who knew him; being of a social and kind disposition he made many friends, and had no enemies. He was a gentleman of the old school and took an active interest in all out-door sports, and was paymaster of the 71st York Battallion for a number of years; he was twice married, first to Miss Miles, sister of Odber Miles of Maugerville, by whom he had two daughters, Lucy, widow of the late Dr. Gregory, and Miss Sarah. His second marriage was about the year 1872, to Miss Scovil, sister of S. J. Scovil, banker, and Walter Scovil, who represented King's county in the legislature for a number of years.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon and was very largely attended. The Bishop Coadjutor, Rev. Mr. Alexander and Rev. Mr. Jaffrey officiated at the church, Mr. Jaffrey reading the service at the grave. The interment took place in the burying ground at Lower St. Mary's. Among the mourners were Dr. Gregory, a grand-son of the deceased; E. H. Allen, who is married to Dr. Gregory's sister; G. H. Miles, W. H. Thorne and T. B. Winslow. The officials in the public departments also walked as mourners.

Illness of Judge Fraser.

The serious illness of Judge Fraser at Dorchester, where he had gone to hold an adjourned sitting of the Westmorland circuit, was heard throughout the province with the deepest concern and regret. For a few days the news received almost every hour from the sick bed, was of the most discouraging nature, indicating that the life of one of Fredericton's most beloved and honored citizens hung by a very slender thread. Indeed at one time all hope of recovery was abandoned, and the citizens were hourly expecting to hear the sad news of death. It was known, however, that all that human skill and tender care could do, was being done to save his life. Mrs. Fraser was with the judge when he was taken ill. Mr. and Mrs. Byron Winslow went on as soon as the news of his alarming illness reached them, and Dr. Coulthard, the family physician was summoned to the bedside, and after a desperate fight the crisis seemed passed in safety, and the good news that a change for the better had taken place in the Judge's condition was received with delight by his friends. He has been steadily improving since, and the changes for his ultimate recovery are good.

Judge Fraser was in very poor health when he left Fredericton, more so than his friends were aware of at the time, and he contracted a fresh cold attending the funeral of Mr. Gilbert, at Dorchester.

The Ice Boom.

The prospects for a large cut of ice in the St. John to supply the American market do not appear to be as encouraging as was promised a short time ago. Messrs. Thompson and Estey have returned from New York and Boston, where they had gone to ascertain definitely the state of the market. The demand for ice is as great as ever, and the prices are up to the figures at which it was hoped a profitable business could be done here. But the high freight rates by rail between Fredericton and New York, makes it a doubtful question whether it could be cut and transported by that means at a profit. The Oromocto shoals, on the other hand, prevent large enough vessels from getting down the river with a full load of ice, to make it a profitable industry by that means of transportation. The American dealers do not seem willing to take the risk of contracting for it on the banks of the river, and the outlook for a heavy cut, at present, is not very bright.

During the late cold snap the ice men of New York harvested a large quantity on the head waters of the Hudson; but within the last day or two the warm weather has played sad havoc with it. In their haste to get the ice they cut more than they could house at once and hence the loss.

Resolution of Condolence.

BOARD OF SCHOOL TRUSTEES,
FREDERICTON, February 26, 1890.

At a meeting of the Board of School Trustees, held this day, it was unanimously

Resolved, That this board hereby places on record its deep regret at the loss sustained by the death of P. McPeake, Esq., a gentleman whose presence was always gladly welcomed by his associate members. For upwards of ten years he faithfully and zealously discharged his duties as a trustee, and in all these years his seat was seldom vacant at the meetings of the board. In all deliberations Mr. McPeake's actions were characterized with broad liberality and unassuming Christian charity, ever evincing a desire to forward the interests of teachers and pupils and thereby promote the efficiency of the common schools system. Further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be communicated to Mrs. McPeake and that the board tenders to her and her family its profound sympathy for their irreparable loss.

Also, that a copy of the foregoing be published in the city press.

CHAS. A. SAMPSON, Secretary.

FOR GUM CHEWERS.—The reports that spruce gum is becoming scarce, says the Bangor Commercial, do not seem to be verified, judging from a fact lately. A man was in the city with a hundred pounds of fine gum which he and another man gathered in ten days in Aroostook county. He has 500 pounds at his home. Gum chewers are still to be found in large numbers and the arrival of new lots always pleases them. The prepared gums also have many devotees, but the real old fashioned spruce gum is sure of a place in the market as long as it exists. The gum gatherers do quite a good business when they strike a place where the article is plenty. It has been bringing from $150 to $180 a barrel, according to the quality. A barrel weighs about 170 pounds.

Leonard Gaetz, once a well known Methodist minister, has retired from that profession and is now farming at the Red Deer settlement, eighty miles north of Calgary. His specialty is barley raising, which he raises in large quantities.

W. Bliss Carman of this city has been appointed to an important position on the editorial staff of the New York Independent. He is not the editor of the paper, however, as some of our contemporaries have it. He has charge of the correspondence department, a place filled by the recently deceased son of Dr. Bowen, Proprietor of the Independent. Mr. Carman has a fine field of work. The Independent covers a wide range of subjects, although it is essentially a religious paper. It numbers among its correspondents men distinguished in literary and other walks of life. The work of Mr. Carman's predecessor, as explained in the sketch of his life recently published, was to select from the mass of contributions such as appeared to be "available," to use the publishers, expression, and to suggest to correspondents topics which they might discuss. Mr. Carman will find in this work scope for the display of his unquestioned ability in literary work.

Racing a Runaway Train.

As the 5 o'clock freight train was approaching Houlton last Saturday evening, says the Times, eight heavily laden cars broke loose from the train one-half mile from the station; from there it is a steep grade into the depot. As they came down the decline, gaining momentum at every minute, they were noticed by Isaac Richardson, fireman on Jas. Curran's engine. Taking in the situation at a glance and with that rare presence of mind and nerve not uncommon to railroad employes, he leaped from his engine and started on the run for the switch. It was a race to determine which should get there first and Richardson being a heavy man, the odds were against him; but he struck a gait and broke the record, reaching the switch in the nick of time to turn the wild train from the main track on to the siding leading to the extract works, which terminates in a heavy grade known as the "Mountain." The train consisted of two cars of corn, one of oats loaded in bulk, two of flour, two of bark, and one miscellaneous freight. Had the cars continued on their course down the main line they would have gone over the "dump," and an expensive job it would have been. Go up to the head Fireman Richardson!

A Forger from New Brunswick.

In the superior court, East Cambridge, near Boston, Mass., last Thursday, Wm. B. Jonay, of Marlboro, Mass., alias W. Z. Jones, of Marlboro, alias Jas. T. Blakney, of Hudson, Mass., was found guilty and sentenced to four years in the state penitentiary on the charge of forgery, says the Montreal Star. He applied to Messrs. Stone & Wellington, of that city, for an agency as Jones, from Marlboro, and as Blakney from Hudson, and obtained agencies. He forged his references and also orders from between 50 and 60 persons; all fictitious, none bona fide. He got part of his commissions, but the firm's suspicion being aroused, they stopped the "needful," and succeeded in identifying W. B. Jonay as the man. Mr. Beall, their manager, worked up the case. He has just returned from Boston where he was helping the prosecution.

The man referred to is said to be a native of Petitcodiac.

The Portia.

The cargo which the Portia took from St. John on Friday last was made up of potatoes, butter, cheese, nuts and bolts, fish, cotton, pork, grindstones, oats, hay, beef, peas, oatmeal, shingles, nails, flour, lighter sweeps, harness, carriages, rope, sails shooks, crates, and an organ. All these articles are from New Brunswick. There is also a general assortment of samples of manufactured goods from Ontario and Quebec.

The following is the list of passengers: W. F. Starr and wife to Bermuda; Miss Alice Raymond, Mrs. W. H. Merritt, Mrs. Fred Butcher, Messrs. J. F. Merritt, R. C. Grant, R. T. Hayes, C. A. Murray, Rev. Calvin Goodspeed of St. John, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Vanwart, J. H. Killam of Yarmouth, F. B. Black of Sackville, Mr. Morrow and R. C. Merritt from Toronto, and Mr. Howe, of the firm of Bowring & Archibald of New York, and his sister.

Potatoes.

The Bangor Commercial says that large quantities of potatoes are being hauled from the province into Houlton and sold to dealers there. Present prices, our contemporary says, make this a profitable business notwithstanding the duty.

It is estimated that fully double the amount of potatoes will be shipped from Caribou this season than has been shipped any preceeding year, and prices remain firm at $1.50 per barrel.

In this city parties have already commenced to barrel potatoes and will ship to the American markets as soon as the weather will permit.

Entertainment at Gibson.

A very successful social was held in the Baptist church at Gibson on Monday evening. A. D. Yerxa presided, and opened the exercises with a brief address. A very interesting programme had been prepared by the young people in connection with the church and congregation, the members of the choir furnishing the music. There were several persons in attendance from the city, including the Rev. F. D. Crawley, who gave a very acceptable reading. Refreshments were served by the ladies of the congregation.

The Exhibition at St. John.

As the work of organization for the exhibition, to be held by the Exhibition Association in St. John during the present season, is now making good progress and the committees are working up their several departments, it may interest our readers to know what is proposed regarding the Exhibition.

The following resolutions passed by the directors of the Association will give the most definite information on the subject.

That the general plans, rules, regulations and prize lists in use for the management of the Exhibitions held in the western provinces be adopted as the basis for the management, subject to such modifications as may appear suitable to the Maritime provinces.

That such grants made by the Provincial government and city council of St. John—which the committees hope will together amount to not less than $10,000—be appropriated to prizes in connection with exhibition, and that such prizes generally be confined to stock and Agricultural products and that additional prizes be invited from private citizens, for special objects to be named by them.

While the competition is open to the world it is expected that preference will be given to the Maritime Provinces exhibitors, provided their applications are promptly made.

It will be seen by the foregoing that this association proposes to offer their largest inducements to agricultural interests, and it is hoped that the exhibition may be made very valuable factor in promoting the farming interests of the Maritime Provinces.

The exhibition will commence on the 24th September and it is proposed to continue it for one week or longer. Prize lists, application, forms, etc., are now being prepared and can be had on application to Ira Cornwall, secretary at St. John, N. B.

The Twelfth of July.

There is considerable activity among the Orangemen of the Province generally, in planning for the 12th of July, bi-centennial celebration of the battle of the Boyne, to be held in St. John this year.

The executive committee appointed at the last meeting of the Grand Lodge have decided that the procession will form on Charlotte street starting from the Lansdowne rink at 11 o'clock a. m., and traverse the principal streets of the city. The required dress shall be either the uniform of the knightly orders or black clothes, white tie and gloves, with silk or regulation hat. The committee have arranged for the regulation hat, which is a soft felt, high crowned, nicely shaped with cord and small tassel for a band, and possibly an appropriate device in front—the whole being manufactured expressly for the purpose. Each lodge must decide which hat it shall adopt, as each different body of men taking part in the march must wear hats alike.

Knights, both of the Black and Scarlet, are to dress in the uniform of their order, and all members not in uniform will wear the regalia of the highest degree to which they have been advanced. It is intended that after the procession there will be speeches by prominent gentlemen, identified with the order, and possibly a banquet in the evening.

St. John county lodge has decided that the lodges in its jurisdiction shall adopt silk hats, and a few private lodges have decided to adopt the same.

A Drunken Quarrel.

About midnight on Tuesday, Thomas Harrigan, of the Infantry School, and a young man named James Haney, belonging to the city, got into an altercation and when near the residence of Dr. Brown, Haney drew a large knife from his inside pocket, and struck at Harrigan. The knife struck a rib near the heart, inflicting a severe wound. He was also cut in the right hand while defending himself.

Dr. Brown was at once summoned and the injured man removed to the hospital, where he is now getting along very well under the circumstances. The doctor says that had the knife entered an eight of an inch above the rib struck, the injuries would in all probability have proved fatal.

The men were in a disorderly house kept by Mrs. Doherty, during the evening. The police are investigating Mrs. Doherty's establishment.

Parlor Social.

Another very successful parlor social, in connection with the Baptist church, was held at the residence of Mrs. Dr. Currie on Wednesday evening. There were nearly one hundred persons present. W. S. Clark acted as chairman. Rev. F. D. Crawley, J. W. Spurden, and Miss Clark gave some entertaining readings. The quartette of the Baptist choir, and Misses Lugrin and Richards furnished excellent music. Miss Ella Clark recited "The ride of Jennie McNeil" in a very pleasing manner. J. Fred. Richards sang a comic song in his usually happy manner. Mrs. Dr. Currie favored the audience with "The song that reached my heart." Light refreshments were served.

A BRIDGE FOR THE ST. CROIX.—The United States are considering the matter of bridging the River St. Croix at Baring. The proposed bridge will connect the town of Baring in Washington Co., Me., with the town of Upper Mills in New Brunswick. The United States Government will give $3000 if the New Brunswick Government will give the same. An army officer, detailed by the U. S. Secretary of War, is to supervise the work, in conjunction with an officer similarly detained by the government of New Brunswick.

MUSICALE.—The musicale at government house on Tuesday evening was attended by about a hundred guests, who were unanimous as to its enjoyable character. The following ladies and gentlemen contributed to the evening's entertainment: Mrs. F. B. Edgecombe, Mrs. C. H. Lugrin, Mrs. W. P. Flewelling, Mrs. Macnutt, Miss E. Shenton, Miss Harrison, Miss Bailey, Mr. Bristowe and Mr. Gellibrand. The Infantry School Orchestra played a number of selections. The party broke up at half past eleven.

BILLS FOR THE LEGISLATURE.—Bills will be presented at the next meeting of the legislature to provide for the appointment of a member of the city council, in the administration of justice committee of the county council. A bill will also be presented to rearrange the representatives of York so as to give one representative to the city and three to the city and county. The bill to allow ratepayers to vote at municipal elections without their taxes being previously passed, will be introduced this year as usual. An important equity bill will also be introduced.

SUING THE CITY.—Joseph Phillips, through his attorneys, Messrs. J. A. & W. VanWart, has commenced a suit against the city for damages for injuries sustained last summer by being thrown from his wagon on Queen street. The accident happened one night during the time the street was being rebuilt. The workmen had neglected to put up lights and Mr. Phillips drove into a hole, and was thrown from his wagon, sustaining injuries which confined him to his bed for some weeks. He claims about five thousand dollars damages. The city has offered to settle at one hundred dollars.

CONCERT AT THE UNIVERSITY.—A very large audience attended the concert in the University Library on Thursday evening. The entertainment was of a very enjoyable character. The following ladies and gentlemen took part:

Mrs. Bridges, Mi Lugrin, Miss E. Shenton, Miss Cameron, Miss Wetmore, Miss Whelpley, and Mrs. Bailey, Messrs. Stockley, Bridges, Bristowe and Hayes. The students sang two choruses.

FIRE.—On Saturday morning about 4 o'clock fire was discovered in a small house on the east side of Westmorland street, between Queen and King streets, owned by the estate of the late George Lee. The building was gutted. A second alarm was given about 6.30 from the same quarter. The occupants of the house were rather disreputable. The fire is supposed to have been incendiary.

The Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Company.

We direct attention to the card of this company which appears in another column. The company will hereafter be represented at Fredericton by Wm. Wilson, M. P. P., who will be prepared to give the most favorable terms for fire insurance of every description. The high standing of the company, and its promptitude and liberality in the settlement of claims, are so well known as to require no comment.

The company has, we understand, just closed another successful year. In Canada its loss ratio has been comparatively light, and even in the United States, where the fire insurance business of 1889 was generally unfortunate, the Liverpool and London and Globe shews a profit for the year.

P. E. I. Poisoning Case.

The investigation into the Sutherland, Weeks poisoning case is in progress in P. E. I. Dr. Johnston, Mrs. Sutherland's physician has been examined at length, and gave evidence as to his treatment of Mrs. Sutherland, and his discovery of arsenic in the medicine on Jan. 4th. W. F. Best of St. John has gone over to give testimony.
