LOCAL NEWS.

AT THE CITY HALL.—The lectures at the city hall, Monday and Tuesday evenings, by John A. Nicholls, were fairly well attended.

WANTED.—Mrs. Frank L. Morrison, Charlotte street, wants a servant girl, who can come well recommended. Good wages will be offered.

DROPPED DEAD.—Someday Day's horse dropped dead on Tuesday morning while hauling a load of sawdust from Estey's mill. Heat disease was the cause.

COMPLETED.—The backfilling of the Smith street sewer has been finished, and the sewer is now complete from Victoria lane to the river. Robert Delya did the work.

AT ST. PAUL'S.—Rev. Dr. Wilson of St. John, chairman of the N. B. and P. E. I. Melodist conference, occupied the pulpit of St. Paul's church on Sunday last, morning and evening.

FILLED IN.—During the week the Phoenix square wharf has been filled in. This will greatly please the cartmen who have to haul away from the wharf, as hitherto the hauling has been very difficult.

OFF FOR NEW YORK.—William Chestnut has disposed of his two bear cubs which have been attracting much attention during the summer, to a party in Syracuse, N. Y. The price is rumored to be $50.

$25 REWARD.—The Fredericton gas light company will pay $25 reward for information that will lead to the conviction of the parties who sawed the electric light pole opposite the premises occupied by A. G. Edgewood on King Street.

ANOTHER SEWER.—Men have been engaged this week in excavating for a sewer, which is to be laid along Northumberland street. It is to be hoped that the work will be pushed along, so as to be finished before the winter weather sets in.

RECEIVED A CALL.—The Rev. James A. Porter, Baptist, who has been for several years pastor of the church at Richmond, Carleton county, has received a call to Doaktown and will remove his family there on Monday next.

ANOTHER APPOINTMENT.—James Hendry, station agent at Cross Creek, has resigned the position and will next week take the station at Doaktown. He is a first class operator. Cross Creek station will be looked after by T. Dunn.

THE TROOPER.—Partridge has been only a fair crop this year, and bad weather has greatly interfered with the harvesting. The report that travel on the Newell road had been impeded by the vast numbers of birds on the highway turns out to be a canard.

OFF FOR DUCKS.—A sporting party, composed of three gentlemen, drove through to Gasperaux, Queens county, on Monday, to enjoy a few days sporting among the ducks and geese which abound in that region. They were escorted by Jas. Fraser, the veteran whip.

ENTERTAINMENT.—Prohibition, No. 8, Orange temperance association, will hold an entertainment and harvest supper at the Orange hall, Queen street, on Monday evening. A program consisting of music, addresses, etc., will form an interesting part of the entertainment.

FIVE YEARS IMPROVEMENT.—Wilson, the manager of the female base ball team which played and shocked the morals of citizens in this and the adjoining province, has been sentenced to imprisonment for five years and fined $1,000 for abducting one of the girls from her home.

THE HAMPTON BRIDGE.—The new steel bridge at Hampton was inspected by A. C. Beckwith, C. E. of the provincial public works department, Thursday, thoroughly tested and was then taken off the hands of the contractors. It is a fine structure. Hon. Dr. Pugsley was present at the test.

BAPTISTAL SERVICES.—There will be baptisms to-morrow at the Baptist church at the close of the morning services. Rev. Mr. Carpenter, F. C. Baptist, who was lately ordained, baptised five converts last Sabbath and will have other baptisms to-morrow at Upper Nashwaak.

CONGRATULATED.—At the opening of the October term of the St. John county court, Judge Peters was presented with a congratulatory address by Allen O. Earle, president of the St. John law society on behalf of the society. Judge Peters who was very much affected made a suitable reply.

READY FOR WALK.—The curling club have had a meeting, appointed their officers and taken many solemn vows to "knock the socks" from under the clubs of St. John, St. Stephen, Moncton and anywhere else they intend it will be war to the knife this winter and outsiders had better get their armor on.

HANDSOME DWELLINGS.—Two of the neatest looking dwelling houses to be seen near the Celestial are those of Messrs. Chas. and Sydney Murray of Springhill. The houses have been lately undergoing considerable repairs, and a coat of paint at the hands of Robert Winter makes them look exceedingly well.

INVESTIGATION.—Hon. Mr. Ryan, chief commissioner of public works, and auditor general Beck, have lately been visiting Victoria county, making an investigation into matters connected with the public works in that county. As a result, there may be a change in the supervision of the county.

FALLOUS CONCERT.—The parlor concert in aid of the Baptist church, held at the residence of J. Fred. Richards, King street, Thursday evening, was largely attended. An interesting feature of the program was the band playing of J. R. Handley. The F. O. M. W. orchestra was present and furnished excellent music.

DANCE.—The weekly dances at Barker's point and St. Marys continue to be well patronized. On Wednesday quite a number attended the dance at Barker's point and spent an enjoyable evening, while the Foresters' dance at St. Marys, contained a number last evening who tripped the light fantastic. Prof. Bartlett supplies the music.

A LIFE SKETCH.—The national stenographer, of Chicago, is now publishing from issue to issue a series of biographical sketches of the leading stenographers of the United States and Canada. The October number contains a fine portrait of Frank H. Risten of this city, and a highly appreciative sketch of the pen of R. D. Long, of Denver, Col.

TO BE SOLD.—Negotiations for the sale and purchase of the Calais Times, newspaper, have been carried on for some weeks and it is probable the matter will be consummated within a short time. Mr. Widdien, the editor, has been offered a good position elsewhere and it is expected will soon move with his family to his new field of labor. The Calais Times, since Mr. Widdien's connection with it has been edited with marked ability, and has proved himself a natural newspaper man. Editors of other papers do not hesitate to acknowledge this fact.

Sports on the Terrace Thursday Afternoon.

The university boys held their sports on Thursday afternoon, and good contests were witnessed by the small number that gathered on the terrace. The day was bright but very cold, and this, together with the terrace being in rather poor condition, made record-breaking difficult. Two records, however, had to go, the running high jump and the mile race. The judges were J. D. Fowler and profs W. C. Murray and W. K. Hart; John W. Wetmore acted as starter and H. C. End of the Season.

The trotting season on the Fredericton park association track is over, and while the spectators are disappointed in the fall circuit races have not done as well as their admirers anticipated, they have done fairly well, when their facilities and chances have been taken into consideration. At the St. John races, Harry M. and Bessie Clay did not show up to advantage, but in connection with this, it should be known that neither of the horses were fitted for a race on that day. The accounts of the races largely for their poor performance there. But, after being under the efficient training of D. J. Stockford at St. John for two weeks, Harry M. won, it might be said, in straight harness, Bessie Clay, also if she had a chance, would have redeemed her reputation, and the Hon. Edward Blake against whom she trotted at St. John, would have needed to trot faster than 2:25 to beat her, as she reportedly showed miles in from 2:25 to 2:37. However, probably, the Fredericton horses will have a chance next season to show their mettle.

Wedding Anniversary.

A number of the lady friends of Mrs. Henry Chestnut arranged an agreeable surprise for herself and her husband Saturday evening. It was the twenty-fifth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Chestnut's wedding day. About eight o'clock in the evening they were surprised by a large party laden with numerous reminders of the occasion, which were presented to the hostess with many wishes for the future years of such prosperity and happiness as she and her estimable husband had hitherto enjoyed. Among the ladies present were Mrs. George Hart, Jr., Mrs. A. F. Randolph, Mrs. Judge Steadman, Mrs. A. H. F. Randolph, Miss Thorne, Mrs. J. W. Johnston and the Misses Johnston. During the evening Mrs. Chestnut appeared in her wedding toilet, which she has preserved intact.

Narrow Escape.

A lady from the rural districts made a narrow escape at the market this morning. She had to pass a team to get to the wagon at which she wished to make a purchase and one of the horses made a vicious bite at her, missing her shoulder by very few inches. It is time that there was some regulation made as to how teams should be placed in the market. They should be ranged in lines, side by side, heads in the same direction, so that a purchaser would not have to risk a bite or a kick. It will be arranged when some one is maimed or killed. Old fashions are hard to kill.

Fredericton Markets.

All kinds of farm produce were in supply this morning and the demand was strong. Prices were as follows: Pork, per lb., 6 to 6 1/2 cts.; beef, per lb., 4 to 5 cts.; mutton, 5 to 5 1/2 cts.; lamb, 6 to 7 cts.; hams, 10 to 11 cts.; sausage, 12; butter, 16 to 17; lard, 14; turkeys, 12; chickens, per pair, 35 to 40; ducks, 50 to 60; eggs, per doz., 15 to 16; potatoes, per bush, 30 to 31; turnips, 40 to 50; carrots, 75 to 80; hay, per ton, 47 to 50; straw, per ton, 24 to 25; oats, per bush, 34 to 35; buckwheat, per cwt., $1.25 to $1.50; socks and mitts per pair, 20 cts.

Burned to the Ground.

James K. Pinder's house and two barns, at Temperance Vale, were burned to the ground with all their contents on Sunday morning last. His whole crop was destroyed. The house and cattle were rescued with difficulty. It was two o'clock at night when the fire was seen, too late to get it under control. It is not known how it originated. The property was covered by insurance, yet the loss will be heavy.

GUY FAWKES DAY.—The Orangemen of the city and vicinity will celebrate Nov. 5th, Guy Fawkes day, by holding a supper in Foresters' hall, St. Marys. The Rev. H. H. Thomas has been asked to attend and deliver an address. It is expected that Rev. Mr. Knight, of Gibson, will also take part. The society will be under the auspices of Rosemore Royal Orange Lodge. Mr. Ashford, one of the ablest speakers in the city, will address the Marysville Orangemen in their hall on that evening. Arrangements are being made for a good time.

"WE FOUND THE HOG."

The Biggest Turnip of the Season, or Whopper, Which.

He was the editor of a newspaper in the classic precincts of Chatham, Miramichi. As he sat in the Barker house, a few evenings since, musing on the uncertain current of human affairs, he was joined by a man who was not the proprietor. Their talk from generalities settled down to the subject of what they did not know of the porcine race, and a listener observed that there were volumes of pork there that were not varied in. At this moment there was a startling sensation. The massive doors of the hotel swung inward and with a rush there came a man with unkempt hair, eyes ablaze and the steam issuing from his nostrils like the billows of a high-pressure engine. With inflated lungs and a voice like a bull he bellowed, "We've found the hog!" "Where? Where?" asked the man who was not the proprietor. "In that turnip!" he replied. "All right, I'll drive him into town for Halloween's sake." Turning to the man who was not the proprietor, the astonished editor asked for information. He was told that at the Killarney farm the last of the season, a great abundance of turnips, wickles, cokes, clams and other shell fish, and a certain improved Chester hog had grown to a fair size, about 1,000 weight, when one morning he was missed. Search was made, but the hog was not to be found in turnips, which they move one at a time on McCluskey's tallow slides, the slides gave way, and the turnip falling split in halves, exposing to light the long lost pig. He had not been seen since, and had no desire to return. "Well," reflected the editor, "it is a mighty big turnip or a mighty tough yarn."

Police Penalties.

At the police court, Tuesday, another assault case came up for trial, in which Peter Martin and Moses Brewer charged Joseph Douglas with assault. J. H. Barry appeared for the plaintiffs. The case was settled by the defendant paying the costs. It was an expected looking crowd that gathered at the police court on Monday last, when the assault case was to be tried. It soon, however, began to be rumored that the prisoners, John B. Taylor, had skipped. The prisoners, in consequence, did not seem very sorry for their past doings, and laughed over the affair. Their laughter was, however, turned to grief, when the police magistrate remanded them to jail until Thursday. No one appearing to prosecute, the parties were allowed to go and White Chapel will once more ring with its old time hilarity.

Two of the O'Rea boys and Joe Estman were to be asked by Mr. Marsh to-day why they beat Walter Kelly, of the tug Pantheon, on Queen street about ten o'clock Thursday night. It appears that the prisoners, who are colored men, met Kelly on the street and that he tried to pass them on the wrong side of the walk. They told him to take the right side and as he would not do this, they determined to knock him to make him. Kelly was struck on the forehead with a weapon of some kind. There are various theories advanced as to what it was. Steel knuckles, a sling shot, a stone and other things are mentioned by whatever was used Kelly will have a mark for life. Joe Estman said to the police when they reached the battle ground that he was not concerned in "de fus" at all. Kelly was taken to the Pantheon by officer Wright. They failed to appear, however, and it is thought have skipped.

Gabe and Mary Paul, Indian and squaw, of the St. Marys reserve, paraded up Queen street, Friday afternoon in a way that would lead an observer to imagine they were imitating a woodcock beating against the wind. They were chocked full of the olden time. This, with their mallets and were met by Roberts who put them in the lockup where there was better holding until the harbor dues were paid. Barker among they paid and set sail for the eastern shore.

At Vancouver.

Hon. George S. Hill, a member of the legislative council of New Brunswick, and Daniel Gilmore, a son of the honored member for Charlotte county in the house of commons, arrived in the city to-day and are at the Manor house. Mr. Hill sat for the fourth time in the legislative assembly of New Brunswick in 1885, and was defeated at the election in 1886 when confederation was carried. He was re-elected and sat from the general elections of 1878 until appointed to the legislative council in 1882. He was made speaker of the upper house in 1887. Both gentlemen are strong liberals, and living as they do on the border, favor enlarged trade relations with the United States.—Vancouver World, 16th.

Three Feet of Snow.

While Fredericton is rejoicing in green fields the people of Williamsburg, not many miles away, have their doorways and fence corners decorated with drifts of snow three feet deep. To add to this the cold snap of the last night is necessary to freeze the field, and on some farms where the potatoes had not been dug they shared the same fate. A hoe was of no avail on Thursday, nothing but a pick-axe or crow-bar would have been of any use.

Hallowe'en.—Don't forget that to-night is Hallowe'en. The boys will be on the warpath as usual but they will not scare so well as they did last year. Of course, boys will be boys, but go easy; you know the old folks cannot stand too much. In my opinion, to-night will be one of enjoyment and merrily chat and laughter will echo round each freize.

HOLLERS ADAMS.—Rev. B. F. Gaskin of the Beulah, W. Va., will preach in the temperance hall, Sabbath afternoon, Nov. 1st, at 3 o'clock, and in the evening at 8 o'clock. Prayers, praise and testimony meeting previous to preaching service. All con. a. bringing silver collection.

Alexander Forbes, a son of William Forbes of the Nashwaak was drowned on Wednesday in New Hampshire. He, with seven other young men, left here for that State a year and three months since and was employed at river work. The last word received by his parents was that he was going dam building when a dispatch that he was drowned plunged them into grief. His remains were expected to-day. Deceased was a smart, intelligent young man, twenty-two years of age and well liked by all the people of the parish. Much sympathy is expressed for the families thus bereft and all that love can do to assuage their grief will be done.

Marysville Notes.

John Gibson is getting out the lumber for a schooner to be built the coming spring at the mouth of Nashwaak.

Philip Maricle lost a cow, Monday night, by hanging. She had been fastened with a chain and in some way twisted it so as to choke herself.

A number of young men who had been inhibiting rather freely of the ardent, got into an altercation on Sunday morning. A free fight ensued, in which all the parties took a full hand, and several broken noses and black eyes were the result. Police were called and just a little later, and the parties escaped punishment which they richly deserved.
