No Exhibition, of Course.

A petition from the Fredericton board of trade was presented to the city council on Tuesday evening last, asking for a grant of $500 for the purpose of holding an exhibition. The petition stated the claim that the city council received $3,000 of insurance on the exhibition building and has enjoyed the use of that sum since that time. The petitioners wished to assist agricultural society, No. 34, in holding an exhibition, feeling that there was danger, should the exhibition be not held, that the buildings now held for exhibition purposes would be sold. It was signed by president John M. Wiley and secretary McCready.

There was considerable argument over this. The city council say that the $3,000 of insurance which came to them they used to take up debentures on the exhibition building and that, therefore, the agricultural society had no claim against them. Whatever hope there might have been of getting the grant was destroyed by making this insurance matter the strongest argument in the board of trade's plea for the grant.

The matter was referred to a special committee, Alds. McPherson, Estey, Gilman and Richey.

There is not the slightest hope that the request of the petition will be granted, and there will be no exhibition unless the money can be raised by other means.

Summer Travel.

On Tuesday a large party of Americans from Biddeford, Me., paid our city a visit. As is usual, they were loud in their praises of the beauty of Fredericton, and expressed regrets that their time was so limited they could not remain and view the city and surroundings more fully. The hotels have had a good run all the season, and the stream of travel is not yet over by any means. The trains and boat each day bring a large number of recreationists, who, were there any attractions here beside the scenery to direct their attention, would prolong their stay, and probably come next season and bring more with them.

One lady tourist very properly made the remark: "I do not see why the people of this city should marr the beauty of their lawns by erecting fences, in some cases a high board fence, giving the impression the owner wished to hide himself and grounds from the public gaze and make his surroundings almost a prison?" Will some of our interested citizens make a note of this? The fence nuisance is certainly a thing of the past, and other places of note have long ago discarded them.

Those Skulking Burglars.

On Tuesday night Alex. McKenzie, living on George street, missing some things from his cellar, thought of a novel plan to catch the thief. After placing policeman Wright on the watch, he rigged a string of old cans on the trap for the purpose of an alarm, should the door be opened. A short time afterwards the rattle of the cans announced the presence of the burglar, and Mr. McKenzie was sure he had him. Before, however, he or the policeman could get into the cellar, the man had escaped.

By a package of matches and a piece of twine found in mayor Allen's cellar after the robbery there a few days ago, the thieves were found out. The mayor did not want to prosecute on account of the youth of the marauders.

Social Amusements.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians will hold their annual excursion on the 24th to St. Stephen and Calais, amalgamate with the excursion and picnic proposed to be held by the Irish Literary and Benevolent association of St. John. It gives promise of being a grand affair, and will no doubt be liberally patronized.

The ladies of the Episcopal church at Douglas held a very successful tea meeting on Saturday of last week. There was a good attendance, and the affair being in the hands of an efficient committee, everyone had an enjoyable time. About $23 was realised, which will go towards church purposes.

The Marysville brass band will hold a festival on the grounds of Jas. Gibson, at that place on Monday next, afternoon and evening. The Fredericton brass band will attend in the evening. There will be an opportunity for all desirous to trip the light fantastic. Hacks will leave the city for the grounds.

Canada's International Exhibition.

Arrangements have been completed with nearly all the railway and steamship companies for very low rates and special excursions during the time of the Exhibition, at St. John, N. B., Sept. 23rd to Oct. 3rd. The musical society of St. John are making their arrangements for repeating the mammoth concert which was given last year, on a much larger scale, and to be held in a separate building in order to avoid the crowding and noise which was a drawback of last year. Some of the leading soloists of the United States have been engaged for this concert. The exhibition association have just completed their arrangements for a series of balloon ascensions and parachute drops, in addition to the numerous other attractions which have been engaged.

Police Pencillings.

A case of violation of the Canada temperance act came before the police magistrate Friday morning and was settled by the payment of $50 and costs for the first offence.

John Perry complained of James Christie, hack driver, for assault at the railway station. He said Christie struck him twice. The trouble arose about a passenger. Christie admitted the offence and was fined.

Annie Collins charged Dan Driscoll in the police court with using abusive language to her, and Driscoll appeared and pleaded not guilty. The parties belong to the vicinity of Brick Hill. After hearing the evidence this case was dismissed.

A Strong Denial.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

Sir, In the Fredericton Gleaner of July 29th, the following scrap appears:

"A portly farmer from the backwoods of Carleton county, is trying to make himself famous at the Advent church in New Zealand. On Sunday last he boldly asserted that all who believed in the immortality of the soul and sprinkling were of the devil, and worse than the devil."

I wish to say that the above is a most glaring untruth, and is false from top to bottom.

ELDER J. C. HARRIS.

Visiting the Lodges.

Messrs. Phillips, MacFarlane and Creed, of Star council, this city, visited Banner council at Penniac on Saturday night. A very good program, consisting of songs and recitations, was gone through with, and spirited addresses were delivered by the visitors. On Monday evening Messrs. Currie and King, of Upright council, Kingsley, visited Star council and delivered addresses. Mr. Todd, of Royal council, Gibson, was also present. At the conclusion of the session the council adjourned to the coffee room where an enjoyable time was spent.

New Billiard Room.

It appears that John Edwards, the popular proprietor of the Queen hotel, has a mania which many of our citizens would do well to infuse into their system — that of never getting weary of improving his premises. His latest in the improvement of the Queen's premises is by converting the store adjoining the upper end of the building, formerly used as a sample room in connection with the hotel, into a billiard room, replete with all modern fixings. Entrance will be made from the waiting room of the hotel building.

IT WAS A FINE DAY, TOO.

Never since the days of the old Mason's outings, has a larger crowd attended a picnic than that which left here for Burton on Thursday last under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias. The day was all that could be desired, the water was calm, the crowd in good spirits, and when the David Weston cast her line from the wharf, careering from side to side with her load of some 800 persons, and with the strain of music by the Fredericton brass band, it looked indeed as if the youth and beauty had turned out to assist the Knights in this their first outing.

A delightful sail landed the picnicers on the grounds of Mr. Cambridge, Willowbank farm, the front of which was appropriated for the occasion. Every kind of sport, to please old and young was indulged in, and the magnificent prizes offered for competitor drew a liberal patronage.

At two o'clock the Florenceville conveyed quite a number to the grounds, and returned at 9. The Acadie returning about 10.30.

The Knights are to be congratulated for the efficient manner in which everything was carried out, and also for the handsome remuneration this their first outing has returned to them..

Your Attention, Please, Mr. Black.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

Dear Sir,—In my letter of the 18th ult., I was dealing with the councillor for Southampton, rather than the late auditor. It, however, appears that I pressed rather hard on the auditor's corns, hence his gentlemanly effusion in Saturday's Gleaner. I had no desire for a war with Mr. Black, as I think he had his hands full in clearing up the charges prefered against him by Mr. Wilson. His three column letter gives no explanation of one of Mr. Wilson's queries: "How was it that the county was cheated out of three thousand dollars while he (Black) was acting deputy secretary treasurer?" He says my attention has been called to a letter in THE HERALD. He then takes his coat off, and with one long sweep of his pen, he annihilates "one who knows." He calls me a miserable scribbler, an ignorant, malicious coward, besides many other choice names; and the meek Mr. Black then makes the important announcement that he will in future take no notice of this class of correspondents. Here are the exact words:

"This communication is an exhibition of malice and ignorance. Malice in the slanderous nature of its miserable insinuations, and ignorance in saying that certain amounts of bye road money paid either as special grants or otherwise and for which returns had not been published, had not been credited to the parish of Southampton. A person who can write and publish such utter nonsense as this is wise not to sign his name."

The learned gentleman after getting off the above, says that I did well not to sign my name to my letter. It was never known that the celebrated Mrs. Moriarity had any relatives in this country, but one would judge from reading the above, that Mr. Black, if not one of her descendants, possesses in a large degree, the talent for which she was so famous. I made no reference to Mr. Black in connexion with either special grants or bye road monies. What I stated was that his particular friend, Pinder's name, had been on the defaulter's list for years, and that in 1888 or 1889, it was taken off without the amounts being paid, for which he was a defaulter or the parish receiving any credit for them, and this was done with the assistance of the then auditor. Mr. Black says that he has the authority of the committee for what he does; but he takes good care not to tell us how his friend, Pinder's name, got off the defaulters' lists. It can easily be seen why Pinder worked so hard to get Mr. Wilson out of the secretary treasurer's office and put Mr. Black in.

Hoping Mr. Editor, that you will kindly publish the above,

I remain,

Yours respectfully,

Aug. 1st, 1891. ONE WHO KNOWS.

Accidents.

On Wednesday afternoon while Ran Staples, of St. Mary's, was hitching his horse to the wagon, the animal, maddened by a bite from a horse, suddenly kicked, striking Mr. Staples on the right arm near the shoulder.

A son of Albert True, of Lincoln, was brought to the city on Monday bleeding freely from a wound in the left wrist about two inches long, inflicted by a knife while whittling. It was found that an artery had been cut, which had to be tied and several stitches put in.

While Henry B. Clark, David Wilson, John Machum and young Minto were working at Rev. F. Alexander's residence, on Wednesday, the staging gave way, precipitating the occupants to the ground. All escaped injury except Machum, whose arm was broken. Dr. Coburn rendered the necessary medical assistance.

A young colt belonging to Duncan Buchanan, of Marysville, after being frightened out of the yard by a clothes line pole falling upon it while being harnessed, went over the Nashwaak river bank and head first down the descent of about sixty feet. The horse was pretty well used up by the fall; the wonder is that it was not killed.

Henry Babour, (formerly of the I. S. corps, and who lost part of one of his feet while working on a railway construction train last summer) accidentally fell off a platform, twelve feet high, at St. Marys, Monday evening, and sustained severe injuries. He is being cared for at the Victoria hospital, and is doing as well as possible.

This is a Chance.

Lucy & Co., corner Queen and Regent streets, will continue their cheap sale all next week. This is a rare chance to secure bargains in boots, shoes, hats, men and boys clothing, trunks, valises, etc.

They still have the ladies India kid button boots at $1 per pair. Ladies wigwams, 50 cents; children's, 30 cents per pair.

HORSE NOTES.

A List of the Good Ones that are Likely to Make Sport This Season.

The prospects for fall races throughout the province are good. St. Stephen will have a two day's meeting, St. John will have five days of racing during the time of the exhibition, and Fredericton will probably have two days, with dates to suit St. John and St. Stephen.

The reason that the dates for the Fredericton races have not been fixed is owing to the uncertainty as to the proposed exhibition. If an exhibition is held the races will be given on the same dates.

A large excursion under the direction of the Knights of Pythias is expected here in September, when the park association will likely hold a race meeting. If the owners of Robbie Lee, Lincoln Lass and Nellie H. could come to any understanding before that date, it would be an attractive race for the public, the relative merits of the several horses have been very much discussed since the race on 1st July. Unfortunately, Mr. Hanlon's mare met with an accident, which has prevented her being speeded any lately.

The only colt race that St. John expects to put on is for four year olds. Some of our local colts would have a good chance for this purse, such as Bessie Clay and Roach's Sporter, jr.

Local horses are doing very well just now, but there is not so much amusement on the track in the evenings as there was earlier in the season. However, some fast trials have recently taken place. A. N. LaForest recently drove his three year old Wilkes stallion a mile in 2.49½. This is within one second of the track record for three year olds, viz.: 2.48½, which was made by Carvill's Speculation in the second heat of a race in October, 1888. Speculation's mile at that time was by quarters — 41, 42½, 41½ and 43½, while the trial made by Sir Wilkie was 42½, 41½, 42 and 43½.

In this three year old race in October, 1888, the starters were Speculation, School Marm, Clayola and Johnstone. The first heat was won by School Marm in 2.49, and the next two by Speculation in 2.48½ and 2.51. Johnstone was distanced in the first heat, but he was a good colt, and has since entered the 2.30 list, or it is so reported. Speculation has a record in a race of close to 2.30, and Clayola has this season entered the charmed circle. School Marm has also trotted some very fast miles since that race.

They were four good colts; and if Mr. LaForest, with Sir Wilkie, can beat that record of 2.48½ in a race this fall, of which there is every prospect, he may well be proud of his colt.

Rumor says that the attorney general's pacing filly, sired by Harry Wilkes, is showing some fast trials in the hands of J. D. Stockford, and that Mr. Stockford will handle her until fall with a view to starting her in the three year old races. Should this filly, Sybil, and Sir Wilkie meet this fall, the race will not be for dollars only, and should be a drawing card for any track that is fortunate enough to get them.

For a four year old race, the local horsemen would rely on sheriff Sterling's Bessie Clay to keep up the reputation of the celestial city, and for a three minute purse they would be willing to back Mr. Thompson's Harry M. against all comers.

For a 2.40 class, the Fredericton favorite, George All Right, would be depended on to make a race interesting, and any horse winning could hardly expect to start in a 2.40 class again. Whether or not the owners of these horses will have them fitted for the fall races, remains to be seen; but should they do so, they have good material to work upon, and the home people, interested in horse racing, would be glad to see them start.

The Roll Call.

Cecil, the bright little year and a half old child of Charles Goodspeed, died on Monday at Gibson of cholera infantum.

William Russell, formerly of this city, but who has lately been living in Minneapolis, U. S., died on Sunday morning last. He was 56 years of age.

An infant daughter of Richard Tibbitts, deputy provincial secretary, died on Sunday from cholera infantum and was buried on Monday afternoon.

William Simpson, of Queensbury, died on Thursday last at the age of 60 years. He was buried on Saturday at Bear Island, rev. Mr. Tupper conducting the last sad rites.

The death is announced of Miss Margaret Morrow, daughter of R. A. H. Morrow, at St. John, Saturday night. Meningitis was the cause of her death at the age of 21. She attended the Normal school here at the last term.

Ed. Jones, formerly of this city, was drowned in Snake river near Portland, Oregon, on the 17th ult. Deceased at one time worked in Eben Miller's carriage factory, and went west a few years ago. He has a brother living in Millville.

Intelligence received from Medford, Wisconsin, give particulars of a sad accident by which Willard Miller, son of George Miller of Lower Southampton, engineer of a tannery in that city, was killed. The slipping of the governor belts was the cause. Deceased was a young man 25 years of age, and leaves a widow, daughter of Wm. Ganong of Southampton, and a little daughter of two years, living in Medford.

On Saturday last, Rynard Wheeler died at his home at Lower Prince William. The deceased was a life long resident of the parish and was well known in this city, having had business dealings with many of the merchants for many years. He was in the 60th year of his age at the time of his death. The funeral took place on Monday last, and was attended by a large concourse of people anxious to show their last respects to an old friend and neighbor.

Geo. Foster J. P., of Kingsley settlement, dropped dead this morning while working at his hay. The deceased arose in the morning in apparently good health and spirits, and went about his usual work on the farm. He was well and favorably known and a gentleman much respected throughout the county. At one time he represented his parish at the council board and was a zealous worker in its interests. He was in the 75th year of his age.

Resolution of Condolence.

The following was moved and carried unanimously at a late meeting of Rossmore L. O. L.:

To Rev. E. H. Thomas, grand chaplain of New Brunswick.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER — The officers and members of Rossmore L. O. L., No. 21, have directed us to convey to you their sincere condolence in the sore bereavement, in which an All-Wise Providence has again visited you, in the loss of your father. We know we can very inadequately realise the extent of the loss sustained by you, yet we venture to express the hope that it may, in some measure, be gratifying to you to know, that you have the heartfelt sympathy of every member of the lodge. God works in a mysterious way, and although we may sometimes feel tempted to murmur when He lays His afflicting hand upon us or our dear ones, we should remember that the Lord reigneth and he does all for the best. May you not sorrow as those without hope, but think of the dear one as not lost but gone before. We pray that the Almighty God, the Source of all strength, will comfort your heart in this affliction and enable you to say, "I shall go to him although he cannot return to me." When you have finished with the things of time on earth, may the Grand Master of all, take you home to himself, an unbroken family. Assuring you, dear brother, our sincere sympathy, we remain, yours fraternally,

Committee { WM. H. ANDERSON, R. H. COCHRANE, E. MILROY, R. BLACKNER.

Mr. Inglis, manager of the bank of B. N. A., on Thursday commenced his vacation for three weeks, and will spend the time with Mrs. Inglis and his family at the Bay Shore, St. John. His place here will be filled by John Miller, a gentleman well known to Fredericonians.

Another Desertion.

On Tuesday evening there occurred a clear case of desertion from the ranks of single wretchedness to that of the Benedicts. This happy event took place at the residence of Henry A. Garrity, at Gibson, when David M. Vanstone, an engineer on the Canada Eastern, was united in marriage to Miss Maud Garnty. Rev. Mr. Crawley performed the ceremony, and Miss Barbara Brown assisted the bride and B. C. Yerxa assumed the part of the best man. The bridal presents were numerous and many.

Ald. Walker and auditor McMurray have been granted leave of absence from their civic duties, the former for two months and the latter for one month. Mr. Walker leaves next week for his trip to the old country, and Mr. McMurray is to take an extended business and pleasure trip through the eastern states and upper provinces.
