After they had been fighting for about twenty minutes, there appeared to be signs of the police appearing, and so peace was proclaimed. The police as usual were just a little late arriving upon the scene for the boys had fled.

SMASH UP. — Monday afternoon three young men named Gibson, Flowers and Driscoll, hired a horse and carriage from Lee's livery stable to go for a drive. About ten o'clock in the evening, while turning the corner of Smythe street and government lane, the carriage upset, spilling its occupants. The carriage was pretty well dilapitated. All were more or less intoxicated.

COLLISION.— Weldon Burden had a very narrow escape from being run over on Saturday night. He and Robert Howie were riding down King street on their bicycles when Burden's "steed" became unmanageable, and as he was not a very skilful rider, it went where ever it wanted to. W. Grieves was driving his horse up the street, and not noticing Burden, ran into him. Burden escaped without being hurt, but the bicycle was badly damaged.

Drowning Accident.

A very sad drowning accident occurred on last Sunday afternoon by which Allen Hendry, the station agent and telegraph operator at Marysville, lost his life. The deceased, in company with a friend, Fred Nixon, formerly of this city but now employed at Marysville, went out canoeing and were returning to the boathouse when the accident occurred. They were directly opposite Simmons' tannery, a short distance from shore and within a few feet of a raft of logs when the accident happened, and had the deceased been able to swim at all he would, in all probability have been saved. The story of the affair as told by the survivor is that he (Nixon) wanted to go out canoeing and had asked Hendry to go with him. Hendry at first said that he would not, but on being coaxed by Nixon consented to go. They had gone to one of the islands and were returning, having been engaged at the island gathering cherries. Shortly before the canoe upset, the deceased, who did not know how to handle a canoe began rocking it, and on being cautioned by Nixon said, "What's the difference, you can't upset this canoe." The words were no sooner out of his mouth than over went the canoe, tumbling the occupants into the water. Nixon succeeded in clinging to the canoe, but Hendry went down and never came up. Several boats and canoes were soon upon the scene and Nixon was rescued. The men in the boats then commenced grappling for the body of Hendry, and at five o'clock, an hour and three-quarters after the accident occurred, Peter Maloy grappled with the body and brought it to the surface. It was taken to the residence of Willard Carvell, a relative of the deceased, and his father, who is station agent at Cross Creek, telegraphed for. In the morning, the body was conveyed by special train to Cross Creek, where it was interred. The deceased was a very bright young man of eighteen, and beloved by all who knew him.

The Sons of England.

Richard Ivens, supreme grand president of the S. O. E. B. S., in a report of his recent visit to the provinces, speaks of Fredericton as follows:

"Going on to the neighboring province of New Brunswick an unexpected difficulty was encountered. So many bubble insurance and benefit companies had been started in the province by yankee speculators and those joining them swindled, that the people naturally were inclined to fight shy of any new and comparatively unknown scheme. The doubts and suspicions were, however, very soon removed by the perusal of the Ontario government's report showing the excellent financial standing of the order, and, this once understood, the rest was plain sailing; and lodge Islington, No. 151, was dedicated in the capital city of Fredericton on the banks of the picturesque St. John river, which has been so aptly styled the Rhine of Canada. Messrs. Fred. Edgecombe, the leading merchant of the city, was placed in the president's chair, ald. Parker elected past president and capt. Cropley vice-president, ald. Parker being also appointed district deputy for the province."

Our Exhibition.

The arrangements for the fall exhibition to be held here on October 6th, 7th and 8th are progressing rapidly, and the committee in charge are sure that it will be the most successful that has been held here for years. It only devolves upon the public to make it such. The premium list as made up for cattle, horses, grains, etc., is an extensive one and should excite much competition. The grain exhibit will probably prove an attractive feature of the exhibition. The park association are arranging for races on the track adjoining the exhibition grounds, and the races will likely be well contested as good purses are offered.

The Spool Wood Industry.

John C. Risteen, who has been in this neighborhood for several weeks looking after spool wood in the interests of an American firm, informs us that he has decided to locate two mills this fall, probably three. Just where they will be placed will depend largely on the desire of birch owners in and about the Sugary. As the establishing of these mills means a good many thousand dollars in the pockets of our people we hope this new enterprise will be received by all in a spirit calculated to help along such an enterprise. — Advocate.

Tobique Valley Railway.

Contractor Kitchen of the Tobique Valrailway has offered to take an excursion party over the completed portion of the Tobique Valley railway on the 15th. This is the second excursion of this kind over the road. A large number of invitations have been issued and it is probable there will be many prominent persons present. Work on the road is advancing rapidly and it is likely the road will be inspected by government engineers in a short time.

UNCLE TOM. — On Monday, the theatre going citizens of Fredericton will have an opportunity to witness the playing of Uncle Tom's Cabin by as good a company as there is on the road, Peck and Fursman's spectacular Uncle Tom's Cabin Company. The company have been greeted with full houses everywhere, and the opinion, expressed through the press are very complimentary. Their brass band will parade the streets. Seats for sale at Davis & Staples'.

NARROW ESCAPE.— A mishap occurred on Brunswick street, Tuesday, which might have resulted seriously. Fred Hatt was driving Hatt & Son's horse attached to the express wagon, when the axle pin broke causing the front portion of the wagon to fall on the ground. Had the horse been going fast Fred would probably have been seriously hurt.

LIVELY RUNAWAY.—While A. F. Morrell was on his way to the French Village picnic on Tuesday, his horse became frightened, and in turning a corner shied suddenly, throwing the occupants of the carriage to the ground. Mr. Morrell was not very badly hurt, but John Lockhart, who was with him, was bruised considerably about the knees.

BUSTED. — The Champion Young Ladies base ball club is literally busted. They finished their tour of the provinces by a game at St. Andrews on Monday. Only six of them past in an appearance, and the place of the other three, were filled by men. In the course of the game one of the young ladies was hit in the face by the ball and disabled.

TO PURCHASE STOCK. — Messrs. Burpee, Fairweather, Campbell and Robertson, the gentlemen appointed by the government to make the stock purchase, left by the C. P. R. for Sherbrooke Monday afternoon. They will visit the several exhibitions in that part of the country.

GONE TO SEA.— Robert Chestnut, and Percy Jordan, two young men of this city shipped on Saturday last on the schooner "Mary George" for Providence, R. I. "Bob" has seen a good deal of the world in the past two years and they will doubtless take an extended voyage before returning home.

Social Amusements.

The annual picnic was held at French Village, on Tuesday. A large number attended from this city. The I. S. C. band was in attendance and furnish music.

On Thursday, the union temperance picnic was held at Lower Gagetown. A large number from the city went down on the Florenceville. Music was supplied by the F. B. band, which was in attendance.

On Sept. 16th, the Keswick foresters will hold a basket social, and sale of fancy goods, in the agricultural hall and the adjoining grounds, at Mouth Keswick. In the evening a lecture will be delivered by a prominent member of the order.

On Tuesday, a picnic and sale of fancy goods will be held at Bloomfield ridge on the grounds adjoining the school house. All the usual sports, etc., will be provided, and a concert will be held in the evening. Supper will be served on the grounds.

A picnic will be held at Lower Gagetown, on Tuesday next under the auspices of the L. O. T. A. of this city. The Florenceville will leave at seven o'clock. A band of music will accompany the excursionists and a dance will be held in the Gagetown hall.

The good templars of this city will run an excursion to Stanley, via the Canada Eastern railway, on Thursday Sept. 10th. The excursion is in connection with a picnic and entertainment to be held there on that day, by the F. C. Baptists. Conveyance from Cross Creek station to grounds free. Train leaves Fredericton station at 8 o'clock.

The arrangements for the combined picnic of St. Andrews society and St. Paul's church Sunday school, on the 15th inst., are completed. A beautiful point on the Nashwaak has been selected, and a large attendance is assured. A first-class band will be in attendance, and everybody may expect a good time. The special train leaves Fredericton station at 7 o'clock and make stops at Gibson, Marysville and other points for excursionists.

Normal School.

The result of the written examinations for entrance to the Normal school was announced to the students Friday evening at 9 o'clock. Out of the 217 who underwent the examination only 16 failed, a fact that speaks highly for the common schools of the province. It is understood that a young lady leads the class. As it is against the rules to publish marks the principal declined to intimate the name, but said he thought the leader was from Kings county.

There will be in addition to the above number of students attending the present term some eight or ten from St. John, Woodstock and St. Stephen who passed the university matriculation examination held at those places in June last, and who were not required to pass any further examination for entrance. The students were classified into four divisions. Those in the first division alphabetically arranged, are: Bessie M. Fraser, Grand Fall; Walter S. Keith, Havelock; Clement Kelly, Bellisle, Kings county; Ida Miles, St. Marys, York; Mary Perkins, Fredericton; Phœbe Robertson, Titusville, Kings; Janet Rossborough, Fredericton; Ella M. Wolhaupter, Florenceville. Forty-three made second division and the remainder are in third and fourth. The regular work of the term begins on Monday morning. The public opening exercises will be held on Wednesday at 10 o'clock.

PERSONAL.

Concerning People Known to Most Readers.

George L. Holyoke, of the Woodstock press was here on Wednesday.

Pennington Cliff, formerly of this city, is here visiting his numerous friends.

D. Glendening of Harvey was in the city on Wednesday on business connected with the Harvey superior school.

John G. Gunn, left on Monday morning for a trip to Montreal and Toronto, combining business with pleasure.

Douglas S. Biggs, editor of the Knights of Honor Reporter, Boston, visited his relatives and friends in this city this week.

Prof. W. C. Murray, who has lately been appointed to the staff of the N. B. university, arrived at Halifax on Sunday from Europe.

Miss Anna Crosadale, who has been in this city for some time visiting her friend, Mrs. Frank H. Risteen, returned on Tuesday to her home in Moncton.

Fred Risteen left Wednesday morning by train for Grand Falls. He intends staying two days at the falls and then ride down on his bicycle which he took with him.

Willard Kitchen, contractor of the Tobique Valley railway was in the city the first of the week. He reports the work on the railway to be progressing very rapidly.

After an absence of four years, judge E. L. Wetmore, now of Calgary, Manitoba, is here visiting his old home. The judge looks hale and hearty, and we but voice the sentinel of the entire community when we extend to him a hearty welcome to his native city.

West End Out of it Again.

It has been generally understood by the residents of West End, that the sidewalks in that vicinity were to receive the attention of the road committee in the way of asphalt; but as yet no asphalting has been seen and as it is known that the supply of asphalt and coal tar is about exhausted there is no probability of its being done this year. This looks rather rough for while the residents of the lower end of the city may be entitled to asphalt and all other modern improvements it would seem only just that Wellington ward should receive its share. Especially is this the case when it has been assessed for it and some of the largest ratepayers of the city are residents of that district. However, they have given up all hopes for this season and now only trust in Providence and alderman Gilman for what next season may bring forth.

Police Pencillings.

On Friday, George Peters was arraigned, charged with depositing night soil within the limits of the city. He admitted the of fence and was charged $10 and cost.

On Monday, before police magistrate Marsh, the hearing of the evidence was concluded in the larceny case, in which John Johnson is charged with stealing a wagon from Edgecombe & Sons. The prisoner was sent up for trial at the next session of the county court.

BLUEBERRIES.—The Canada Eastern trains continue to paint the air blue. Every day from ten to thirty barrels of the fruit arrive at Fredericton, chiefly for Hoegg & Co's factory. Conductor Yerxa states that over forty tons of bluberries have been shipped from Upper Blackville alone. The price obtained for them this year is small; still the scores of men and women along the line who follow up the business are able to make excellent wages.

THE MINING BOOM.— All day yesterday surveyor general Tweedie was occupied in hearing the protests of various interested parties to the granting of certain applications under the mining act. The genial surveyor continues to hold the scales of justice to-day. September 25th and October 14th have been named as dates for hearing the Charlotte and Kings county claimants respectively.

THE BELLEDUNE CASE. — The prisoners who were sentenced to one month's jail at the Restigouche circuit for beating the sailor George Williams, appear to have strong objections to being entertained at the expense of the county. Early this week they made a furious attack on Sheriff Phillips, which will doubtless result in their retirement being prolonged to a still further period.

BASE BALL. — The Fredericton base ball club defeated the Y. M. C. A's of St. John, in a seven inning game on Thusday. The score standing 21 to 0. A return match will likely be played soon.

CANTERBURY NEWS.

The River Drive—Picnic and Concert—An Important Event.

Fred Moore took advantage of the late rise in the river, and putting on a large crew, hurried the remainder of the hung-up corporation drive down. They passed this place on Monday night, and expected to reach Pokiok on Tuesday. Energy and capital combined can get ahead every time.

The great subject of talk is the monster picnic and concert of Dufferin division, S. of T., held here on the 20th ult. Every one says that it was well named a grand combination and gala day. No such gathering for numbers and pure enjoyment was ever witnessed in Eel River. The arrangements were in the hands of a clear-headed, hard-working business committee, who spared no pains, expense, or hard work to make it a success. All who took part deserve great credit for their exertions. Commencing at 2:30, as advertised, were a series of sports, followed by a sale of baskets and supper at 5:30. Then at 7:30 the hall doors were thrown open to a large and expectant crowd, which proved too numerous by over one hundred for the seating and standing room. Those who gained admittance were treated to the following program:

Address, Welcome, W. P., P. Girdwood; chorus, Sign to-night, division choir; recitation, The Telegraph at Johnstown, Maurice Scott; dialogue, The Assessor, Davie Olts, Wilds Porter, Lela Edwards, Hurd Edwards and Sarah Scott; solo, Jock o' Hazeldean, Mrs. Girdwood; tableau, first scene, Money or your Life, second scene, Money and your Life, Davie Olts, Hazen Scott, Amaziah Bragdon, Samp. Dow; reading, Bartender's Story, P. Girdwood; duett, Butterfly Dude, H. F. Grosvenor and Hazen Scott; dialogue, Aunt Doleful's Visit, Sarah Scott and Lela Edwards; duet, Larboard Watch 'ahoy, Maurice and Hazen Scott; tableau, Love, Purity and Fidelity, Jennie Farrow, Sadie Scott and Bessie Edwards; reading, A Fruitful Discourse, H. F. Grosvenor; organ solo, Miss Howie; dialogue, Texas Courtship, A. J. Best and Carrie Scott; recitation, Drowned, Mrs. Hannah Scott; dialogue, Catching the Train, Hazen Scott and Sadie Dow; tableau, Paint, or The Garden Seat, David Patterson; recitation, Asleep at the Switch, Maggie Girdwood; dialogue, The Census Taker, Wilds Porter, Bessie Edwards; violin solo, Angus M. Mullen; recitation, Rescued, Carrie Scott; dialogue, Sambo's Visit to the Country, Hazen and Sarah Scott; solo, The Hat my Father Wore, Maurice Scott; recitation, An Evening Idyl, Lela Edwards; closing chorus, Sleeping on Guard, division choir.

The well-earned reputation of the Eel River performers was fully sustained on the occasion.

On dismissing at 10 p. m. a further instalment in the way of fireworks, under the able superintendence of Elisha Moore, delighted all and sundry. The only drawback was the bright moonlight, which rendered the display less striking than it would otherwise have been. Notwithstanding an outlay aggregating nearly $100, the finance committee, we understand, report a net balance to the credit of the division of some fifty dollars.

A large gathering assembled at the residence of Mr. Girdwood, the teacher of our superior school, on Wednesday evening, 2nd inst., to witness the marriage of his daughter Mary, to Nelson Marsten. The groom was supported by Hazen B. Scott and the bride by her sister, Miss Maggie Girdwood. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. James Ross of Woodstock, who tied the nuptial knot according to the impressive ceremony of the Presbyterian church. The bride was the recipient of many useful and elegant presents, and left for Springfield, her future home, amid showers of rice and numerous slippers.

The Roll Call.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Colwell mourn the loss of their young child, which died on Sunday at the age of eight months.

THE RIFLE.—The annual competition of the York county rifle association is to take place during exhibition week. It is with no small pleasure that the local shooters observe that Edward Smith, formerly of this city, captured the Governor General's prize and $250 at Ottawa on Thursday last with the fine score of 94 points at Queen's ranges.

MACHINERY SOLD.— R. K. Jewett who had his mill burned some time ago, has disposed of his machinery, boiler, engine, etc., and will not rebuild the mill. Sansome & Sons of Stanley are the purchasers. The price is rumoured to be $250, which is extremely low.

THE SHOOTING SEASON. — There is every reason to believe that the partridge crop this season is above the average. The boys are polishing up their batteries and storing away powder and lead in anxious expectation of the arrival of the 20th.

MONCTON NOT IN IT. — The Corn-Killer says there are more sweet looking girls in Moncton than in any place he has ever visited.— Times. He has evidently never visited Fredericton while the Normal school is in session.

TRINITY CHURCH ON FIRE. — The steeple of the Trinity church, St. John, has been on fire twice during the past week. It ignited from a fire pot used by the men who were coppering the steeple. No damage was done.

TO ST. ANDREWS. — Quite a number took advantage of the low rate and went to St. Andrews this morning. The fare for the round trip was only $1.05, and the tickets are good to return up to Monday night.

FORESTERS. — Court Boiestown, I. O. F., has been organized at Boiestown with a charter list of thirteen members. At the next meeting a number of others will be initiated. James Fairley is chief ranger.

BREACH OF PROMISE. — At the Bathurst circuit this week one case was tried, Elizabeth Ellis vs. John Ellis for breach of promise. The fair plaintiff had her lacerated feelings soothed by a verdict of $400.

DROWNED AT ST. JOHN. — A canoe upsetting on Sunday last caused the death of Joseph Whalen. He and his brother were out padling when the canoe upset and John was drowned. His brother was saved.

REPAIRS COMPLETED.—The steamer Florenceville was taken to St. John last week for repairs. She returned Tuesday, the repairs having been completed. Her engine has undergone a thorough overhauling.

TO STUDENTS. — The cheapest and best place to purchase books and stationery, is at McMurray & Co.'s, bookstore. Normal school students should give them a call.

"The Century's" Life of Columbus.

The Century Magazine will celebrate the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America by publishing a Life of Columbus written especially for that magazine by Emilio Castelar, the famous Spanish orator, statesman, and author. The work is written in Spanish, and will be carefully translated. Senor Castelar, whose interest in and admiration for America are well known, has made a careful study of the new historical material bearing upon the subject, and it is said that his papers will be very richly illustrated. Other articles dealing with the discovery of America are in course of preparation for the same magazine.

THE FARMER AND THE GOVERNMENT.

In view of the present timeliness of the subject, The Century has arranged to print during the coming year an important series of articles on the general subject of agriculture and the government's relation to the farmer. Among the topics to be treated are "Agricultural Possibilities of the United States," "The farmer's Discontent," "What the Government is doing for the Farmer," "Cooperation," etc. J. R. Dodge, Statistician of the agricultural department A. W. Harris, of the same department, professor Brewer of Yale, and others, are among the writers.
