

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS
SECOND PAGE
Grand Trunk Railway

LOCAL NEWS.

MEETING AT NASHUAUK.—The soldiers of the salvation army held a revival service in the hall at the covered bridge on the Nashuauk Tuesday. Starring addresses were delivered by Lieuts. Heiser and Joust, and many conversions are reported.

AN EXERCISE CLUB.—Douglas has an exercise club, the members of which recently met at the residence of Joseph Hawkins where a most enjoyable evening was spent. The object of the club is to promote recreation and mutual social intercourse.

THE FIRST OF THE SEASON.—The festive bicycle made an early appearance on Queen street Wednesday. It was piloted by well known city man who displayed considerable ingenuity in manoeuvring at the corners and crossings. Spring must at last be with us.

BAPTIST CHURCH, GIBSON.—Preparations are being made to give an entertainment on Monday evening. With the great care taken to make proper selections of music and readings, a most interesting time may be anticipated. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

A FINE PAIR.—Frank Goodine, of Muzal settlement, sold a couple of fine, home fed beef cattle on Thursday last for the St. John market. The price offered was $100. Altogether some fifty fine head of prime cattle have found their way to the St. John market this week.

REVERENDLY LL.—W. H. White, of Gibson, has been lying seriously ill at his residence at that place during the past fortnight. At one time it was thought he could not recover, but later reports say he has now taken a favorable turn, and that his convalescence is only a matter of time.

SHIPPING POTATOES. Geo. Gilman, W. T. Esey, and E. Estabrook, have been busy shipping potatoes to the Boston markets this week. St. Dayton of St. Mary's is a pretty large buyer, and the Ketchum, M. P. F. has been dealing very extensively in the early tuber this week.

YORK AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—Acting on the recommendation contained in J. E. Baxter's letter read at the provincial farmers' session last week, the York agricultural society are now considering the advisability of asking for a grant from the government in aid of the fall exhibition.

THE ELECTRIC LIGHT.—The city council are undecided respecting the matter of the electric light, and some of the members of the board think that the city should be refused for an act of legislation that it will be refused. The matter will be thoroughly discussed at the next monthly meeting of the city fathers.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.—The city lodge of this order met in council Tuesday evening, grand chancellor Powers presiding. After routine business had been transacted, the council adjourned to Watson's on York street, where a discussion of the juicy bivalve was moved, seconded and unanimously carried.

ON THE WAR PATH.—Peter Muzerel the celebrated hunter of Hayville was in town on Monday, and brought with him several specimens of pelts obtained at Clearville. Peter intends hunting the bear in the same district and finds the dangerous pastime exceedingly profitable. He sold a large quantity of fox skins this week.

A BIG PARTY.—The telegrapher's ball at Woodstock on Monday will be one of the largest events of the season. A party of fifty piloted by the P. O. M. W. orchestra will represent the contingent from this city. Neither trouble nor expense has been spared to make this the pleasantest occasion of the kind ever held there.

A PIE SOCIAL.—A very successful pie social was held at the residence of Mr. Sewell down river on Tuesday when a large party from the city and vicinity drove out from town. The object of the social was to raise a presentation fund for the Rev. B. H. Nobles of Gibson. A pleasant time was spent by all, and a handsome sum realized.

LODGE MATTERS.—On Monday evening the members of Rossmore lodge, St. Mary's, held an interesting social in their rooms. A musical program, with speeches by the principal officers made up a real social time. On Thursday evening the L. O. G. T. at Kingsclear held a candy social. Albion lodge have postponed the celebration of their anniversary until Thursday next.

EASTER EGGS.—The old time custom of presentation of Easter eggs to relations and friends is almost dying out, and although one reads of the gaily colored hen's fruit being exposed for sale in the stores in St. John, there are very few to be seen in this city. Interesting little presents of Easter lilies seem to be fastidious this year, if we may judge from the large number of orders left at a well known nursery.

ANOTHER DEBUT.—The member for Westmorland, Mr. McQueen, made another maiden debut at the gospel temperance meeting on Sunday last, and spoke of the healthy temperance sentiment prevailing in Fredericton. His advice to young people was concise, manly, practical and sensible. Messrs. Hanington, Palmer, Colter and Burchill also occupied seats on the platform, and a very successful meeting was held.

A WISE PROVISION.—On Thursday morning several farmers congregated on the market square in commencing upon the vote of $20,000 for the installation of thoroughbred cattle and sheep into the province, showed their keen interest in this wise provision of the government. The measure is meeting with the highest commendations from the agricultural community, and the level headed people are beginning to see that the government have the interests of the farmers at heart.

A QUIET WEDDING.—On Monday last John E. Sands of Stanley was united in marriage to Miss Mary E. Smith of Lincoln the residence of the bride's father. The Rev. J. J. Shenton officiated, and there was a quiet gathering of the intimate friends of the groom and bride who showered congratulations upon the newly wedded pair. Mr. Sands is one of the most energetic of the Stanley farmers. He is a practical agriculturist, and conducts his operations on very scientific principles.

THAT DREAD DISEASE.—A gripe is prevalent to a large extent in this city and vicinity. The gentle sex over the river are the greatest sufferers. There are six married ladies at St. Mary's, and a large number of children afflicted with the disease. Quite a number of young city men have had to suspend work, and their symptoms exhibit all the peculiarities of the disease, hot flushings, silvering, and fainting fits, followed by complete prostration. At the Hames factory, St. Mary's, two-thirds of the hands are absent, owing to a gripe.

SWELLING WITH IMPORTANCE.—There was once an honorable member. And behind he complained to the house of the immense size of the telegraphic bill. And the promoter rose to reply and transcribing the honorable member with the point of sarcasm said: "The amount was swelled by the collect telegrams sent me by the opposition leader." "But I only sent one." "The leader of the opposition has never sent me any other than collect messages," calmly replied the premier. Then the honorable member was greeted with a roar of laughter, at which he sat down, but not—oh no!—with a collected countenance.

DEAF AND DUMB ASYLUM.
Visit of a Delegation from the Local Assembly.

Father Sol was shining brightly on Wednesday morning, when two heavy sleigh loads of the local legislature, started at 11 o'clock for the deaf and dumb institution. The visit was made in response to an invitation extended to the members by the premier. The delegates consisted of Messrs. Colter, Stockton, Alward, Smith, McKewen, Atkinson, Labillios, Plimney, Burchill, White, McQueen, Palmer, Hedges, Erington, Porter, Lewis, Turner, Anderson, and the Hon. A. G. Blair, and clerk of the house Rainsford.

The delegation was received on entering by professor Woodbridge with his staff and conducted through the various sections. The new building excited the admiration of all, and their careful inspection the delegation declared themselves satisfied with the comfort and attention provided for the unfortunate deaf and dumb mutes.

The teachers illustrated by the method of sign questioning, the methods of teaching reading in the admirable institution, and specimens of work were handed around for the inspection of the visitors. Some of the work done on the blackboard by the pupils in its various departments, teachers and scholars, and their tip and other signal powers of communication were thoroughly tested. The delegation spent about two hours in the institution and arrived at the city at one o'clock, having spent a very profitable and pleasant visit at the deaf and dumb asylum.

Easter Services.
There will be special Easter music rendered by the choirs of the various churches at the morning and evening services. At the Baptist church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty. At the P. O. M. W. church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty.

At St. Paul's, the Rev. J. A. McLean, of Harvey, will officiate. At the Methodist church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty. At the P. O. M. W. church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty.

At St. Paul's, the Rev. J. A. McLean, of Harvey, will officiate. At the Methodist church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty. At the P. O. M. W. church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty.

At St. Paul's, the Rev. J. A. McLean, of Harvey, will officiate. At the Methodist church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty. At the P. O. M. W. church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty.

At St. Paul's, the Rev. J. A. McLean, of Harvey, will officiate. At the Methodist church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty. At the P. O. M. W. church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty.

At St. Paul's, the Rev. J. A. McLean, of Harvey, will officiate. At the Methodist church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty. At the P. O. M. W. church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty.

At St. Paul's, the Rev. J. A. McLean, of Harvey, will officiate. At the Methodist church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty. At the P. O. M. W. church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty.

At St. Paul's, the Rev. J. A. McLean, of Harvey, will officiate. At the Methodist church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty. At the P. O. M. W. church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty.

At St. Paul's, the Rev. J. A. McLean, of Harvey, will officiate. At the Methodist church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty. At the P. O. M. W. church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty.

At St. Paul's, the Rev. J. A. McLean, of Harvey, will officiate. At the Methodist church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty. At the P. O. M. W. church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty.

At St. Paul's, the Rev. J. A. McLean, of Harvey, will officiate. At the Methodist church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty. At the P. O. M. W. church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty.

At St. Paul's, the Rev. J. A. McLean, of Harvey, will officiate. At the Methodist church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty. At the P. O. M. W. church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty.

At St. Paul's, the Rev. J. A. McLean, of Harvey, will officiate. At the Methodist church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty. At the P. O. M. W. church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty.

At St. Paul's, the Rev. J. A. McLean, of Harvey, will officiate. At the Methodist church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty. At the P. O. M. W. church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty.

At St. Paul's, the Rev. J. A. McLean, of Harvey, will officiate. At the Methodist church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty. At the P. O. M. W. church, the Rev. F. W. Crawley will officiate, and a selection of Easter anthems and hymns will be sung by the choir, under the direction of H. G. Zesty.

A GIANT IN STRENGTH.
A Sketch of a Well Known Character.

Conspicuous among the uniformed forces of the salvation army in this city is one Nathaniel Bragden. He stands 6 feet high without shoes, has a ponderous frame, a rather intelligent face, and is a deaf mute. Nat—for by this name he is most commonly called—is quite a character in his way. He belongs to a celebrated Woodstock family who are all renowned for great powers of endurance and strength. Nat has many friends in this city and many are the anecdotes told of his feats. Once while working in the lumber woods at Macanquack Nat moved an immense log which had defied the efforts of a team to dislodge it from its position. Another feat which his Woodstock friends credit to him was the upturning of a heavy wagon which had caught in a rut, and was immovable.

His powers have frequently been displayed in this city, and it was only a few days ago that a lumberman "attacked" Nat on King street. The deaf mute simply took the man by the shoulders and forced him to his knees where he held him until the fellow was glad to be released. One of the infants school prizes has caused Nat to remember the power of Nat's terrible arms. The soldier had been indulging in a little pleasure in the salvation barracks when Nat who had been informed by signs of the occurrence, had caused Nat to lift the soldier from his seat and fling him headlong into King street.

With all this Nat Bragden is a simple harmless inoffensive person. He has been intelligently taught, has a good notion of figures, and makes it a point of honor to pay his board bill regularly every Saturday. His power of sight and touch are remarkable, and he has a keen sense of the grotesque. He is also very fond of music and will spend hours of an evening in his little room practising upon the harmonica. One of his special delights is to get the writer to play the organ when he will bend down his ear to the instrument and try to catch the notes. Nat is at present working on the public roads, and has many friends who will never allow the poor deaf mute to want for the necessities of life.

ESTER BEEF.
A Lively Budget from our own correspondents.

The Sandwich club met at the residence of Mrs. J. P. Haxton, Monday evening. There was a good attendance of the members, and everyone present enjoyed a lovely time. The next meeting is at the residence of C. Rowley, Esq.

Mr. J. G. Gibson entertained the members of the woman's working band a few days ago. Mrs. Gibson has the reputation of being a charming hostess, and is ably seconded by her daughter, and is president, Mrs. Hatt. A very pleasant afternoon and evening was spent by all. Mr. Hanley of Lowell, who has accepted a position in the cotton factory, played some very fine airs on the harp, and showed that he was a complete master of the instrument. On the appearance of the ice cream, oyster parties, etc., a band of young folks arrived from the farm, among them a popular medical student, who was warmly welcomed by his lady friends. A pleasing incident of the entertainment was the presentation of a travelling bag to Mr. Peaks, who is on the eve of his departure for South America to fill a lucrative position there. Mr. W. G. Day made the presentation in the name of the ladies with a few well chosen remarks and the company sang with a will: "For he's a jolly good fellow."

They were followed by the Rev. G. C. Roberts officiating, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

PERSONAL.
Concerning People Known to Most Readers.

E. E. Phair intends to start with his family for Vancouver, next month. R. T. Babbitt of Gagetown was in town Monday and registered at the Queen. Rev. J. A. McLean of Harvey station of Fredericton, will be in town tomorrow. Miss Paisley started on Thursday for Iowa where she will visit her brother Thomas. Robert Atherton of the St. John internal revenue has been on a short visit to the city. Edward McManney, Lincoln, left on Monday for the West where he will make his future home. Miss Grace Thompson arrived home on Thursday from Sackville Academy, to spend the next holiday.

Arthur Limerick is steadily improving and is able to bear the journey which will probably come home next week. James Hogg of this city, is to make Moncton his headquarters. He has accepted a position with Fitch & Atkinson. Dr. J. H. Barker of Maine who recently officiated at Mashwaak Methodist church, is on a short visit to his friends here. Mrs. T. Lynch, of this city, has been at Bath, Carleton Co., during the week, spending a short time at her mother's, Mrs. T. Bohan's.

Mr. J. F. Frol Richards, who has been at one of the Boston hospitals for two months, returned home Wednesday afternoon, much improved in health. W. M. Jarvis, H. J. Thorne, and J. Reynolds representing the St. John exhibition association had an interview with the government on Wednesday respecting a grant to the association. Messrs. J. D. Chipman, Stewart, Berry, Johnson, and Butler of the St. John were at the Queen Wednesday. An amendment of the St. Stephen assessment act is the object of the visit of these gentlemen.

Among the arrivals at the Queen this week were J. P. Haxton, Moncton, Transcriber, Alderman Kelley St. John; J. E. B. McReady, of the Telegraph; G. H. Murbie, lumber merchant, Calais; R. A. Payne of the Sun; and the Hon. H. A. McKeown and Emmerson.

MARYVILLE NOTES.
A Lively Budget from our own correspondents.

The Sandwich club met at the residence of Mrs. J. P. Haxton, Monday evening. There was a good attendance of the members, and everyone present enjoyed a lovely time. The next meeting is at the residence of C. Rowley, Esq.

Mr. J. G. Gibson entertained the members of the woman's working band a few days ago. Mrs. Gibson has the reputation of being a charming hostess, and is ably seconded by her daughter, and is president, Mrs. Hatt. A very pleasant afternoon and evening was spent by all. Mr. Hanley of Lowell, who has accepted a position in the cotton factory, played some very fine airs on the harp, and showed that he was a complete master of the instrument. On the appearance of the ice cream, oyster parties, etc., a band of young folks arrived from the farm, among them a popular medical student, who was warmly welcomed by his lady friends. A pleasing incident of the entertainment was the presentation of a travelling bag to Mr. Peaks, who is on the eve of his departure for South America to fill a lucrative position there. Mr. W. G. Day made the presentation in the name of the ladies with a few well chosen remarks and the company sang with a will: "For he's a jolly good fellow."

They were followed by the Rev. G. C. Roberts officiating, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

On Sunday last the funeral of the late James Blain of this city was attended by a large number of citizens. It was a most impressive ceremony, and was headed by a firing party of the 71st battalion under Capt. Finlay followed by the 71st band playing "The March in Saul" under conductor Bryson. Rossmore lodge in regalia, followed by prohibition lodge of this city came next, the coffin in the hearse, and a long line of mourners and citizens. The Rev. G. C. Roberts officiated, and deceased was buried with full military honors. James Blain, whose early death has occasioned such a spontaneous burst of sympathy, was one of the first to volunteer on the occasion of the Northwest rebellion, and he was as ready to serve a friend as he was to defend the honor of his country.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.
A crown of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—U. S. Government Report, Aug. 17, 1880.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS
GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY.
SPECIAL EXCURSIONS
From the Maritime Provinces to CHICAGO WITHOUT CHANGE.
To San Francisco and Intermediate Ports; St. Paul, Portland, Ore., and Puget Sound. Pts.
WITH ONLY ONE CHANGE.
A Pullman Tourist Sleeping Car will be attached to the Quebec and Montreal Express, International Railway, and leave
MONCTON CHATHAM JUNCTION at 8.05, p. m. at 9.57, p. m.
March 18th, 17th, 24th, and 28th.
April 17th, 16th, 21st, and 25th.
Tuesday, May 6th and 13th, 1891.
Making close connections at Chicago.

NOTICE.
THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING of the Stockholders of the Central Fire Insurance Company of New Brunswick, will take place at their Office, on the first Monday in April next, at 2 o'clock, p. m. The presence of the Directors for the ensuing year and for the transaction of such other business as may legally come before them is requested.
A. D. MACHESON, Secretary.
Mon. March 23, 1891.—Tat.

PUBLIC NOTICE.
The Government Stallions
WILL BE LEASED AT FREDERICTON, ON
Tuesday, March 31st inst., at 11 o'clock, a. m.
Department of Agriculture, Fredericton, 16th March, 1891.
CHAS. H. LUGRIN, Secretary of Agriculture.