TO THE ELECTORS.

ATT. GENERAL BLAIR

AND OTHER GENTLEMEN

WILL

ADDRESS

ELECTORS

TUESDAY EVENING

IN THE

CITY HALL.

All are cordially invited to attend.

GOVERNMENT

Committee Rooms.

All Committees and others interested in the Success of the Government are requested to meet each and every evening till the 22nd, (Sunday excepted) at the Temperance Hall, York Street.

NOMINATION.

Those Who Support the Respective Candidates.

Government Men Have a Strong Following.

MR. COLTER'S SPEECH.

From early morning till ten o'clock teams from the country were constantly arriving, the great attraction being nomination and its accompanying speeches. It was very plain that the government had a very strong following, the opposition men being spirited away to certain back offices as speedily and quietly as possible, their candidates believing that were they to once hear the true facts of the case there would not be enough of their men left to nominate a candidate as required by law.

Sheriff Sterling opened court at eleven and the full tickets as published elsewhere in this paper were nominated. The opposition nominees were: E. B. Winslow, W. Vanwart, J. Oldham, J. S. Neill, and Thomas Gray. H. H. Pitts was nominated by E. D. Estabrooks, W. E. Everett, J. D. Estey, J. F. M. Merrithew.

The streets were crowded up to noon, the great majority of the people being outspoken in favor of the government. The government candidates have secured the city hall for the afternoon, but Attorney-general Blair told the opposition candidates that if they wished to speak at the meeting he would give them time to do so. Everything is shaping well for the government candidates, and it is evident that the greatest majority will be polled by them that has ever been cast in York. Let all help to bring about this result.

When the hour for nomination had arrived the crowd around the court house was large and the government candidates must have had an assurance of their election in the burst of applause that followed every time their names were repeated. All will see below the names of some of those who nominated Messrs. Blair, Wilson, Colter and Anderson. These names carried conviction with them that the government, will carry the largest vote that was ever polled by any ticket in York.

and many others.

The city hall was packed to the doors, when Wm. Henry took the chair. The candidates agreed to speak alternately.

Thos. H. Colter was the first speaker. He spoke of the fine vote received by him at the last contest. He had received a strong call by a convention to once more allow his name to be put in nomination. He spoke in scathing terms of the reports that had been circulated throughout the county respecting his candidature. He spoke of the work he had done and would not speak of the opposition cries that had been raised, but would tell of his work in connection especially with the roads. The members, he said, had taken the road money into their own hands and some of the county councillors agreed to that way of road repairing. We, he said, had offered the full control of the roads and bridges to the councillors but on account of the bye road grant being small, they would not agree. We then, he said, took it to ourselves and the result speaks for itself, the best roads that the county has ever seen. The electors of York will bear us out on the 22nd, and will say that the roads were never in the condition that they are to-day.

Our opponents, some of them now candidates, have admitted that the roads were never in better condition. I have travelled the county for weeks and weeks, free gratis, looking after the roads and bridges. One of our opponents has said that I was paid $5 per day for it, but I make the statement that it is a malicious falsehood. Where the last government spent hundreds on the roads we have spent thousands and received more value, dollar per dollar, than that government did. In York they spent $17,143.46, this government has spent in York $30,803. This shows what the government has done. Let any man challenge the statement and I am prepared to prove it. This is some of the money that our opponents charge us with putting in our pocket. We gave the farmers $2,178, the old government gave $621. Why are all the cheese and butter factories springing up all over the province? The government have been working actively for these and all advance in these lines is due the government. The government gave the farmers a grant of $10,000 last year to help these out. When has the same been done by any other government.

The government paid $30,000 dollars for the horse importation, and the late exhibition proved that it was one of the greatest benefits that a government had ever conferred on the people. His honor Sir Leonard Tilley stated the ring show was the best horse parade he had ever seen. The opposition respecting the cattle importation say that I had no trouble to get good stock as the government gave them to me. This is hardly worth contradicting. The cattle and horse importations amounted to $50,000. Speaking of the increase of debt I can show you where every cent has gone. I could show you where, under the subsidy act, the great expenditure on railways was contracted by the old government. They will not tell you anything about the number of iron bridges built, the roads laid out and finished; they will not tell you of all the other improvements that must cost money.

Mr. Pitts will sell the temperance and orange vote to the opposition and they will sell the opposition vote to him. Mr. Pitts is not the only temperance man before you. My colleagues are temperance men. Mr. Pitts said that Thomas Colter was kicked out by the Good Templars; this he charged as a bare-faced falsehood; ask the Rev. B. H. Thomas if this is so; ask any prominent man of that society and they must give the lie to Mr. Pitts. I, he said, worked for that temperance order for a year and did not charge that society one cent for my years work. Mr. Pitts is not a better temperance man than I am myself. Mr. Pitts would not let captain Howe attend his convention because he would not take Mr. Pitts' pledge, the pledge of prohibition, but Mr. Howe could not take it. If all the temperance people had gone to Mr. Pitts' convention he would not have been nominated. I have spoken on all temperance platforms in this county and others. It is not worth my while to reply to Mr. Pitts' arguments. I can only say that what is seen in the Reporter is not true.

See what has been done on the road at Douglas. One of the most dangerous pieces of road is now open for travel, a piece of road that other governments shirked. I ask you in conclusion to vote the full government ticket on the 22nd and roll up a large majority.

The meeting is in full swing as we go to press.

Vote for the government that has improved the highways, the schools and the bridges.

Gibson and St. Marys.

Mrs. Garrety has gone to Boston for a visit.

The residence of Cond. Hoben is being repaired and re-shingled.

Malcolm Brown is completing the house started by the late Robert Neill.

Wm. Butler has taken a contract to build stations along a new railway route in Chili, and goes there at once.

At the school meeting held on Thursday last it was decided to finish two rooms of the school up stairs for class rooms. As, however, many of the ratepayers were not present at the meeting it has been decided that before work is commenced a meeting will be called. Many are in favor of building a class room outside on the ground instead of putting the children up stairs.

Vote for the government that has helped you place in your stables the very best horses, cattle and sheep.

Putting it in Shape.

B. D. Sewell, of Springhill, who shows lots of pluck and enterprise, is having his farm buildings remodeled. Charles McClusky, of Gibson, has been there for some time. He has removed one building and is fitting it up as a store. Another that stood by the side of the Springhill stream will be moved up hill, an up grade of two and a half inches to the foot, and will be placed on the south-east side of the hotel and used as a public hall, something that has been much required in that locality. All the work will be completed by the fith of November and the appearance of the place will be much changed.

Marysville News.

Mr. Watterson and wife, of St. Stephen, are visiting at J. R. McConnell's.

Reports from Miss Sadie Titus, who has undergone a surgical operation at Montreal, are very encouraging.

Miss Susie Heron left on Tuesday for Minneapolis where she intends to reside in future. On Monday evening many of the young people of the town called to bid her good bye.

Rev. W. J. Stewart, of St. John, is assisting Rev. Mr. Nobles in some special services at this place. The attendance is reported to be large and the meetings excellent. Several have signified their desire to find the Lord and serve him. It is expected that there will be regular services throughout the day tomorrow.

Vote to increase the value of your farms by keeping the power in York.

A CHEAP TICKET.—If ever a ticket was formed in York that fortold its own defeat it is the Pinder-Howe combination which now asks the people's favor. It will be buried so deep beneath the votes of the stauch government men of York that the opposition ballots will have to be looked for with a microscope. Were the three men in the house what could they do? Not one of them can make a speech fit to be heard in a legislature, they have had no experience in politics, while the framing of a bill is beyond their comprehension.

BOY COMMITS SUICIDE.—Joseph Monahan of Nelson, Miramichi, about eighteen years of age, committed suicide early on Saturday last. He had been troubled for some time with a pain in the head and it was thought was taking a fever. On Friday night at a late hour he was seen in bed sleeping it was believed, but early Saturday morning he was missing. Search was made and blood noticed at the back door. A bloody trail was followed to the river and the body found with the throat cut. It was plainly suicide.

Vote for the men who have made York respected at home and abroad.

APPOINTMENTS.—His honor the lieutenant governor has been pleased to appoint the hon. Henry R. Emmerson, chief commissioner of the board of public works, vice the hon. P. G. Ryan, resigned. The hon. Ambroise D. Richard, a member of the executive council and solicitor general, and a commissioner of the provincial lunatic asylum, vice the hon. William Pugsley, resigned.

GRIST MILL AFIRE.—On Thursday morning the fine little grist mill of W. H. Bradley at Nashwaak, caught fire from the chimney of the blacksmith shop adjoining. The neighbors quickly responded to the alarm and having a good water supply the flames were soon mastered, not however till one side of the roof was burned through.

Phillips' heave and cough cure for horses will relieve and cure the worst cases. After a long experience with this remedy, can recommend it. 25 and 50 cents a package, at Wiley's.

A $7,000 BLAZE.

St. Marys Visited by the Fire Fiend on Friday Afternoon.

One of the greatest fires that has occurred at St. Marys for some years, broke out on Friday afternoon last about three o'clock. It appears that James Riley of that place was removing to Houlton and before he had half of his furniture out, the house was in flames. It is said that a defective flue was the cause. The flames spread to Thos. Tomlinson's barn and woodsheds in which were stored forty cords of dry hard wood, and when this got well under way the heat was very intense. The St. Marys hand engine had got to work as soon as possible, but in spite of it Tomlinson's hotel and Walter McFarlane's dwelling house were on fire. An alarm from the city hall here called out the firemen, and an engine and hose reels were sent across. The men worked with a will and prevented the flames from spreading to the Amos Shields house and railway station which were several times threatend, in fact were on fire. The C. E. R. sent a locomotive up and removed several cars belonging to the C. P. R. which were in danger.

A shout was heard down street and it was seen that Peter Hughes house and James Hayes barns were going fast. The engines could not be spared and the men had to do the best they could with the few appliances at hand. The chapel and priest's house were threatened, but at this point the wind which had been sweeping along the line of houses, blowing very strongly, changed and blew towards the river, carrying the cinders where they could do no damage.

Riley's house had a mortgage on it for $400 and was insured to that amount. As most of the furniture was got out there was little loss. Tomilson lost heavily. The hotel and outbuildings were worth about $3,000 and there was no insurance. He also lost $200 in cash burned in the house and about half of his furniture, besides forty cords of wood. W. McFarlane lost his residence worth $2,500 and quite an amount of furniture burned and broken. There was $1,000 insurance on the house. Peter Hughes house was more damaged by his friends than by the fire, and his loss will foot up to $200; no insurance. Jas. Hayes lost two large barns filled with hay and grain besides some farming utensils. His loss will be well up to $700. Too much credit cannot be given the city firemen for the very efficient aid they rendered; without this help from the city there would have been few buildings left standing. If there had been no bridge, the city engine would have arrived too late. St. Marys people should bear this latter fact in mind and vote for the man who put the bridge there.

Vote a solid government ticket, don't allow any splitting.

A WORLD'S RECORD.

The Marysville Mill Has Set a Mark for North America.

For some time past saw mills in various parts of the province have been doing what was called heavy cutting. Gangs were turning out fifty, sixty and one has been credited with ninety-four thousand feet of sawn lumber for the day of ten hours. The latter mark is one that has been seldom reached, and over half of that quantity was pine which cuts more easily than spruce, perhaps three logs to two.

Alex. Gibson, jr., who has charge of his father's mill at Marysville, determined to see what one of the gangs in the old mill could do, and so told Richard Staples, millwright and H. C. Titus, filer, to get the gang in shape for a record. On Monday last she was started, there being at the gang S. Stafford, John Godsoe, W. Capens L. Love and W. Hartt; at the patent edger W. Bubar, L. Bubar and Amos Pond; at the trimmer C. Higgins, F. McSorley and Geo. Stafford; on the bed which was managed by Jacob Libby with John McCray, sorter, there were P. Markey, J. Downing, R. Wade, D. Stevenson, and D. Bruce. There was a small army of slab men and edging carriers. Mr. Estey, of St. John, was engaged to scale the deal and saw something new to him in the way of cutting.

It was the intention to strike the hundred thousand mark. The gang was striking an average clip of two hundred and twenty-five strokes to the minute with feed of an inch and a quarter, that is the log moved through the gang one and a quarter inches for each down stroke. Four-deal logs, twenty-two feet long, went through in from 30, 40, 45 up to 55 seconds, no log held the gang a full minute as when the work was hard she was given the full pressure of water. At the end of the first two hours and a half it was seen that she had cut 25,070 or a little better than 10,000 to the hour and the men knew that the 100,000 mark would be reached. It was then decided to rush her for a few minutes and for a quarter of an hour the logs went through like smoke, the surveyor hanging out 3,800 feet for the 15 minutes or at the rate of 15,200 feet for the hour.

She was then eased away and kept up the same regular clip till noon, when she had passed the limit set for the five hours and all knew that a world's record would be reached.

Belts were tightened and everything put in shape for the terrible rush of the afternoon, and at sharp one the water was again turned on. Logs disappeared like magic and steadily as a clock ticks that unceasing grind went on till six o'clock stopped the sawing. The ten hours had been done without a break and the surveyor was soon surrounded. When he held up 142,600 as the cut there was as hearty a cheer as the old mill has heard for many a day. There were five thousand of spruce boards also sawn, but as these had not been edged they were not counted. Nothing like this has ever been done in North America, in fact there are few gangs that can cut half of it.

The lath mill, managed by Mr. Alexander also broke the record, one machine run by S. Grant, D. Gregory, J. Taylor, H. Finemore, D. Howard and E. Gregg turned out eighty-five thousand in ten hours throwing all forty and fifty thousand marks into the shade.

Blair helps the farmers too much, say the opposition. Farmers, set the dogs on them.

MARRIED.

The Wedding Bells Still Continue to Ring.

Miss Helen Young, sister of Mrs. R. Inglis of this city and William Rand of Boston, were married at St. John on Monday last.

A quiet wedding took place at Lower Prince William on Wednesday, the 13th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, when Miss Ida Smith and Clowes Nevers were married by the Rev. A. G. Downey.

At the residence of the Methodist minister, Keswick, the 5th, Miss Bertha M. Crabb and Weston W. Webb, both of Haynesville, were married by the Rev. Mr. Johnston.

IT PAYS.—Edgecombe Bros, the enterprising carriage makers sold twenty-one of their beautiful exhibits during the late provincial fair held here. H Niles, of Gibson, got one of the best, a handsome extension top carriage. This firm believe in advertising and from the result above noted it appears to pay.

Vote for the man who built the bridge and increased the value of every foot of land in St. Marys, and did away with all ferriage fees.

SOCIAL.—The F. C. Baptist sale and supper in their church at Marysville on Thursday night was well attended and much enjoyed by all. Morrison's bus was on hand and hauled all visitors to and from the church. The receipts totalled $61.00.

DESPERATION.

The Opposition in Straits for an Election Catch-word.

Since the first political meeting held in this province the opposition, when they could get no other rallying cry, have always trumped up the old chestnut of direct taxation. So it is now; having no excuse for bringing out a ticket at the present time they must make one, and this old corpse is resurrected. There is no more evidence of direct taxation now than there was fifty years since. Let no one be deceived, the opposition are bound to have something to say and this is all that remains to them. Let the electors vote for the interests of York county and not for the few individuals who are but the tools of the St. John politicians, and are paid to rob York of her rights and to dethrone the only men that have worked for the interests of their native county. Look at the oppositionists and see what they represent, and who they are. They run down the road machines and every other advantage the government has secured. Remove the power to St. John and what will York get? What could be expected from W. K. Allen, J. K. Pinder, or Capt. Howe? Vote for the government and retain the men in power who are most interested in your welfare and in this county. Vote for A. G. Blair, W. Wilson, John Anderson and T. H. Colter, and vote the ticket solid; dont put on the names of any opposition candidate or you are ruining the chances of York in the contest. We have the best representatives in the province, let all endeavor to keep them in power.

Vote for the government that has given a subsidy to the farmers, some thing no previous government ever attempted.

OBITUARY.

Deaths that have Caused Much Sorrow.

Miss Kate Malany died at the residence of James Hayes, St. Marys, on Monday. She had fallen in a dead faint and did not rally. She was much esteemed. Her funeral took place on Wednesday, the interment being at Sunny bank. Rev. Father Kiernan officiated.

John Moran, of St. Marys, died at Victoria hospital on Wednesday. He had been ill for some time. Deceased was a bachelor and was a quiet, respectable citizen. He was upwards of fifty years of age. The funeral took place on Thursday, the interment being at Sunny bank.

Much regret is expressed in Marysville at the death at that place on Saturday last of Mrs. Chas. Gordon of consumption at the age of twenty-two. Deceased was a daughter of William Collings of that place, and was much esteemed. Her funeral took place on Sunday and was largely attended.

Much sorrow is expressed here at the death of Mrs. W. H. Quinn, which occurred on Thursday. Hers has been a protracted illness. The funeral took place on Friday afternoon at three o'clock a large number attending.

David Little, an old and much respected resident of Harvey Station died on Sunday afternoon last after a long and very tedious illness which he bore with great patience. He was a native of Dumfries, Scotland, and came to this country about fifty years ago. After residing a short time in New Maryland, he went to Harvey where he has since made his home. Deceased leaves a wife and a large family of grown up sons and daughters among whom is Mrs. W. E. Smith, merchant, of Harvey Station. He was in his seventy-seventh year. The funeral took place on Thursday morning and was largely attended, the services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Ross, of Prince William, in the absence of Mr. McLean. Mr. Little had a wide circle of acquaintances and was much esteemed.

CHASE THE RASCALS.—Vote early and often and cast the whole ballot, Blair, Anderson, Wilson and Colter. Shut out the Pinder, Howe combine and the rabble that is behind them.

TORN APART.—On Tuesday a young lad named Edward White, 15 years old, was caught in the belting of a shingle machine at Bathurst and killed. Both legs and one arm were torn off.

A new line of trusses just received at Wiley's drug store. Large stock; price reasonable.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

INCIDENT.

SOME people in this town seem utterly incapable of appreciating a generous act, merely because a young man calls on a young lady half a dozen evenings during the week, and occasionally drops in between meals.

There are people mean enough to insinuate that it means something besides anxiety about the health of the sick mother or to see how the kitchen range is working.

But speaking of ranges that reminds me of the large stock I saw up in Chestnuts store of cooking ranges and stoves, judging by the stock on hand we came to the conclusion that firm does not intend to take any back seat in that line.

Should you require anything in that line just give Chestnut & Sons a call they can satisfy most any one.
