

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. THIRD PAGE.

Teacher Wanted - Benjamin Kelly. Dissolution - Wilson & Wilson.

LOCAL NEWS.

PROPERTY PURCHASE - Ed. Moore, of Fredericton Junction, has purchased the Jacob Hamilton residence on George street.

STORES CLOSED - The boot and shoe dealers on Queen street, excepting Hurley, McGoldrick and Lucy, will close their stores at eight o'clock in the evening henceforth.

AN ADDITION - York street school, under the supervision of A. Limerick, is moving on to completion and promises to be a great addition to the architectural beauty of the city.

A CENTENARIAN - Capt. John Barker, of Kingsclear, has passed the hundredth meridian of his life, and has been for a week past receiving the congratulations of his friends.

MURDER - Buck, the murderer of officer Steadman of Moncton, must hang, the government general deciding that the death sentence cannot be commuted. The date is December 1st.

LOSS FROM FIRE - At the meeting of the council on Tuesday night the report of the chief engineer of the fire department was submitted. The total loss by fire during the year is placed at $1,353.69.

IMPOUNDING CATTLE - A trial with some peculiar features is to come before a Kingsclear magistrate in a few days. It is connected with impounding cattle and promises some legal complications.

THE BEAUTIFUL - There was a snow fall of about an inch here on Wednesday night. At Bel River there was a depth of three inches which occasioned very heavy hauling. About a foot fell at Vanecoro.

THE BEER - The city of Kingsclear has purchased fifty-two head of cattle for fattening, and John Gibson is getting about seventy for the same purpose. These gentlemen appear to think that it pays to raise beef.

COMPROMISED - Two hundred dollars was the cost to the city of the damage sustained by Miss Smith, who was hurt some time since on a defective bridge. A compromise was made or the cost would have been greater.

FOOTBALL - The college football team left on Thursday last to try conclusions with the Montreal Allston kickers. They also intend to play with Moncton and St. John teams before returning. The Dalhousie match is declared off.

KINGSCLEAR CEMETERY - Tenders are being asked for by the New Brunswick dairymen's association for the erection of an ice-house and cold storage room at the Kingsclear cemetery. The excavations for the foundation are about completed.

CRYSTAL WEDDING - There was a very pleasant gathering at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wilson on Monday, the occasion being the celebration of their crystal wedding. Many friends visited the happy couple leaving substantial tokens of their regard.

LUMBERING - Several parties of lumbermen have gone during the week to the scenes of their winter operations. Quite a number are already at work and several millions of logs have been yarded. The cut on the St. John and tributaries will be about the same as last year.

CHURCHING - The curling club are getting ready for war once more, and at a late meeting elected the following officers: J. S. Nell, pres.; J. B. Gries, J. D. McPherson, vice pres.; W. Fisher, sec.; G. W. Hoegs, treasurer; S. G. Loggie, S. Campbell, J. Philbald, and R. B. Barker, managing committee.

STRUCK BY A STONE - The rev. Father Savage, while standing at Regent street corner on Saturday afternoon, was struck by a stone thrown by "Banker". The reverend gentleman, though struck in the face, did not receive much injury. The missile had been thrown at a passing negro.

THE RIVER - The water has risen a few inches since the recent rains set in, but is yet down to summer level. It has never been so low at this season. The last run of logs - about a million - has been rafted. There are two rafts yet at Springhill when run, will complete the season's work.

NARROW ESCAPE - Miss Dalton, a St. John Normal school student, on Monday morning, when endeavoring to throw a parcel to a friend on board the David Weston, slipped on the rocky plank and fell into the river. She was quickly rescued and appeared none the worse for her impromptu bath.

A GOOD OME - The stallion Aurora has another of his valuable offspring in the 2.30 class in the chestnut mare Bessie C., which got a record of 2:28 in the New York circuit, on the 12th of October. This stallion is now the property of Ed. Moore of this city, and may be seen at William Dunbar's stable here.

UP THE HILL - After some very careful engineering Chas. McCluskey has removed the large house at the south side Spring Hill, up the hill to the level in front of the hotel. It will be placed in the field south of the hotel and will be used as a place for gatherings. Mr. Sewell is improving this place very much.

HEAVY LOSS - The fire at Henry Forsey's, Kingsclear, a notice of which was given previously, destroyed about five hundred dollars worth of property besides the barns, mowers, sleds, wagon and all sorts of farming tools were destroyed. He feels much obliged to the friends who so helpfully responded to his appeal.

ONE OF THE BEST - Perhaps one of the best young horses in the county is the stallion Sam, bred by James Balfy, Maugeville, and now owned by William Graham, Scotch Settlement. He is jet black, weighs 1250, and is two years old. He took first prize at the provincial exhibition. He is by Zephyr and from a first-class mare.

SALMON CAPTURED - Two very fine salmon, which appear to have lost their knowledge of the season, were taken in the river in this vicinity a few nights since in a shadnet. Nothing similar has occurred at this season, so say the oldest fishermen. Specimens of fish may also be said that one not striped was seen here this year, where hundreds were formerly caught.

PROVINCIAL APPOINTMENTS - The following appointments have been gazetted: Thomas W. Perry to be sheriff of Queens Co., vice Butler resigned. George F. Hibbard to be registrar of deeds and wills for Charlotte Co., vice H. F. Hatch, removed. George J. Clarke to be judge of probate, pro hac vice, in the matter of the estate of John Townsend, late of the parish of St. Andrews, deceased.

TO REMOVE - The Hon. A. G. Blair, with his family, will remove to St. John, where he is wider field for his recognized abilities. This will be a great loss to Fredericton, viewed from a social standpoint and altogether apart from his representative capacity. Here Mr. Blair has spent his life, and given the best ten years of it to the interests of his native city and county, and what has been his reward? No wonder he decided to remove. York at present is not the most pleasant place to live in, but the strife may abate in a few years.

A SWEET CROWD.

Officials for the Province and for York.

"The best laid schemes of nice and men oft gang a-gley." Had Robbie Burns been classed as a prophet it might be claimed that when he penned the above he intended to describe in few words the position of Dr. Stockton and his satellites at present. They had a government formed, all that they wanted was the putting them in power, which the poet declaimed very heartily to do. It was as follows:

Hon. A. A. Stockton, premier, attorney general. Hon. M. O. Atkinson, provincial secretary. Hon. J. D. Phinney, surveyor general. Hon. O. M. Melanson, com. of public works. Hon. H. A. McKeown, solicitor general. Atkinson, Melanson and McKeown have been relegated to the silent shades of political oblivion, and the ill advised and poorly constructed cabinet has been very badly "busted."

The list of office holders for this county was also prepared as follows: W. K. Allen was to resign in favor of G. P. Gregory and take the position of sheriff. Deputy sheriff, F. Whittaker. Clerk of the house, O. Beckwith. Assistant clerk, W. L. McFarlane. Sergeant-at-arms, W. McCoy. Janitor parliament house, W. Anderson. Secretary for agriculture, Spencer Inch. Registrar University, J. K. Pinder. Assessor of deeds, etc., J. Black. Queen's printer, H. H. Pitts. Chief supt schools, Wm Crockett. Com lunatic asylum, J. H. Crockett. Sec board of health, Dr. Crockett. Engineering clerk, O. S. Crockett. Officer black rod, O. S. Crockett. Secretary of the county for war and great guns, Capt. Howe.

This scheme has also failed to pan out properly and now there is war in the camp. All sorts of wrangling is going on and several of the offices in the upper end of the river have been the centre of rows that will in perhaps next issue be blown before our readers.

AMONG THE TOMBS.

The Weltons and Dr. Randall on Trial. Rev. Sydney Welton, C. B. Welton and Dr. Randall were placed on trial in St. John, on Thursday morning. Mr. Bonnell was called and testified that he had received from Sydney Welton the application for insurance on the life of Reid early in 1890 and a policy was issued. On receipt of notice of death he wrote Dr. Randall and Sydney Welton regarding the pending insurance that Reid had died the day after the policy was issued. The $3,000 check was paid to the order of Mrs. A. Reid, wife of deceased. Dr. Lewis, M. P. P. for Albert, was called. He testified that he had consulted with Dr. Randall on Reid's case. Dr. Randall told him that Mrs. Reid desired him to write a letter to the insurance company respecting her husband's death. The witness spoke in favorable terms of Dr. Randall and of the deceased Reid.

Mrs. Reid sworn, said: Dr. Randall came to see her about the insurance. He wanted her to go into Gideon Reid's house and have a talk. She went in. Dr. Randall, Gideon Reid and herself were present. He asked her if she knew her husband's life was insured for $3,000. She said she did not. He wanted her to sign papers, and asked if she was willing to go on with it. She declined to do anything till she had consulted her father. The doctor was lying for her to do that. She then went to her house, and the doctor came in and said he wanted to see her father (who was then in St. John) before she did. She saw her father afterwards. Gideon Reid saw her the next day and talked about the insurance. Heard nothing more about it till Gideon Reid paid her $300 about July 19th. She gave him a receipt. The next week Dr. Randall called and asked if she had got all her $1,000. He said they had paid it all over to Gideon Reid.

It has appeared by the evidence that besides the $3,000 insurance carried by Reid there was also $2,000 in the Golden Alliance. Mr. Hayes, a witness, said that C. B. Welton told him that Reid was dead and stated that he expected to get some money out of it and it would be necessary to talk with the widow, as the company might have some suspicions, Reid having died so soon.

The case is not yet finished but is growing blacker as each witness is questioned.

DEDICATED.

The New F. C. Baptist Church Opened for Worship. For a year past the rev. J. T. Parsons, of St. John, has been laboring in the Marystown circuit, extending his services to Gibson where there were many F. C. Baptist people who worshipped with the Baptists at that place or attended the church of their faith in this city.

Shortly after Mr. Parsons began his work. Gibson's hall at Gibson was hired and arranged as a church. Here services were held for about eight months, when it was decided that the work would be of more effect if the band of worshippers were united in church organization. This was effected about two months since, when C. B. Zetabrooks, of St. Marys, and Hazen Pond, of Gibson, were elected deacons.

The lease of the hall not being satisfactory, at the end of the term it was relinquished and steps were at once taken to build a new church. Meetings were called, an effective building committee appointed, funds collected, and the work commenced in earnest, under the supervision of Mr. Macoun, of St. Marys.

On Sabbath last the building was finished and consecrated. The morning service, when the church was dedicated, was conducted by the rev. C. T. Phillips, of Woodstock. Service was held in the afternoon, when rev. G. Swin officiated. Rev. Mr. Foster, of Fredericton Junction, preached at the evening service, when the building was completely filled. All three sermons were much appreciated and the first organized step of the Gibson F. C. Baptist church has been taken.

The building is forty-eight feet by sixty, finished but nearly finished, is very comfortable and fully up to the requirements of the congregation. It is situated on Miles avenue, and regular services will be conducted each Sabbath, with prayer and social meetings at stated times during each week.

HALLOW EEN.

One of the Quietest Observances for Years. Hallow e'en did not make its tradition as such an outlay of noise and distraction as is generally the case, the business signs, door pulls and platforms being left to their ordinary repose. The police paraded the city and the streets were then the hanging of an effigy of a well known character of this city in front of the post office; outside of this there was nothing to mark that the boys had seen out on a racket. Some of the college boys observed the night in the manner of old college days, but no damage was done. At St. Marys and Marystown, outside of wagons and lumber being put on the sidewalks, nothing is reported. It appears now as though the customary overturn and destruction following on Hallow e'en has died out, and there are very few who will repeat it.

FOR SALE - The mill property and timber lands belonging to the estate of H. H. Berry, situated in the parish of Dumfries, York Co., N. B., consisting of saw mill, such and dairy factory (both water power), store, boarding house, blacksmith shop, three dwelling houses, three large barns, and about 15,000 acres of timber lands, also all personal property belonging to the estate including book debts, is now being sold by public auction on the 8th day of November next at Phoenix square in the city of Fredericton, at 12 o'clock noon. For terms and particulars apply to F. J. Morrison or B. A. Berry, trustees.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Marriages were the Order of the Day.

Kingsclear is in a social furor on account of the coming wedding, set down for Thursday next, of a popular young man connected with the creamery at that place and a young lady, the daughter of one of the most prosperous farmers of Queensbury.

The rev. G. W. Foster, at the residence of the bride's father, Tracy station, on the 28th Oct., solemnized the marriage of Marion Stinson to Miss Lettie M. Mox, both of that place. The ceremony took place on the 28th October, only immediate friends being present.

At Lincoln, on Wednesday, the 28th inst., Miss Annie Sewell, second daughter of Adolphus Sewell, was married to Ashley Hatch of Waasita. The rev. W. Currie officiated. Miss Alma Perkins of this city and Harry Kimball of Oromocto acted as the contracting parties. The general wish is that their matrimonial experience will be all that is happy and prosperous.

The Chatham Town contains the announcement of the marriage of B. E. Haines of St. Marys to Miss Bessie J. Ulcock of Miramichi. A silver tea service was presented to the happy couple by Mrs. Tweedie, Burhill, Robinson and O'Brien, the representatives of Northumberland county in the local legislature. The young couple are visiting at St. Marys.

A number of carriages gathering at the site of the rev. R. Reid, of Gibson, on November 1st, proclaimed that something out of the ordinary was occurring. It was learned that the occasion was the marriage of two very popular young people of Nashua village, Miss Olivia C. Fletcher to James W. Smith. After the ceremony the contracting parties returned to the village, where a grand reception awaited them. They deserve and have the best wishes of many friends.

At Gibson on Thursday afternoon, the 3rd inst., Miss Bertha M., daughter of Wm. Dennison, was married to Charles B. Wilson of St. John by the rev. Mr. Nobles. Miss Mamie Pickard and Edson Wilson, brother of the groom, assisted. There was a large number of guests. Among the many handsome presents were: Silver butter cooler, Mrs. John and Mrs. Nobles; silver casket, Edson Wilson; cake basket, Mrs. T. Morrison, Marystown; cake basket, Mr. and Mrs. J. Boyd; fruit basket, Mr. and Mrs. J. Davidson; napkin ring, Nicolas Tracy, Chatham; toilet set, Mrs. A. G. B. Merritt; pocket dice, Malcolm Dennison; dessert spoon, Prand Mrs. H. Pickard; fruit dish, Miss Lillie Linn; lamp, Miss Lella Logan, Marystown; silver water, the Misses and Allen Houghton; silver set, Mrs. J. Logan, Marystown; porridge set, Charles Dennison, Marystown; biscuit jar, A. L. F. Vanwart; cheese dish, Mrs. Chas. Manzer, Marystown; biscuit jar, Harrisson Brooks, Marystown; card, receiver, Wm. Logan, Marystown; glass sets, A. E. Logan, Mrs. H. Dennison, Geo. Logan and wife; table linen, Mrs. Wm. Butler, Mrs. J. Dennison; stand covers, Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Towles, Mrs. Jas. Robinson; fruit jar, Mrs. Geo. Dennison; fruit dishes, Mrs. C. Bubar, Mrs. J. Dennison, Peniac; bronze ornament, Mr. and Mrs. Nell; bunner, Miss Wilson, St. John; glass set, Miss Gusie Logan; silver spoons, Miss B. Brown, Miss Alice Nell; present from bridemaid to bride, gold lock; present to bridegroom by Edson Wilson, gold chain and lock.

OBITUARY.

Deaths in Marystown, Gibson and this City. Patrick McGarrigle, one of the best known citizens of Fredericton, died on Thursday morning at half past eight of pneumonia. He was in his sixty-sixth year. Few men had as few enemies as the deceased. He had no real enemies. He was always cheerful and obliging, his work being carefully performed. Most of his life has been spent here. His family have the sympathy of all in their deep sorrow.

On Sunday last, Ellen, wife of Edward Higgins of Marystown, was laid to rest at Sunny Bank. Since the death of his wife the deceased has resided at Aroostook with Mr. Skinner, a relative, where he died on Wednesday last. He was in his seventy-sixth year and had been long afflicted for many sterling qualities.

THE WATER WE ARE DRINKING.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD. DEAR SIR, - In the Fredericton Gleaner of Nov. 4th, there appears under the above caption, communications from no less than five writers, in which they have taken the trouble to acquaint themselves with the facts of the case, would not have felt called upon to "rush into print."

Evidently "west end" is not aware that the condition of affairs in this respect, as far as water or lumber lying in the vicinity of the water works pier is concerned, is precisely the same as it has been ever since the pier was built some ten years ago; and he has been, surely he would not have taken the trouble to make it appear, that the prevalence of typhoid fever in the city this summer (I am taking his word for it) is due to this cause.

The same superintendent has been in charge of the water department ever since the system was introduced; and if there is the great danger of contamination to the water from spruce logs lying near the pier, which these writers would have us believe, is it not strange that he did not find it out before?

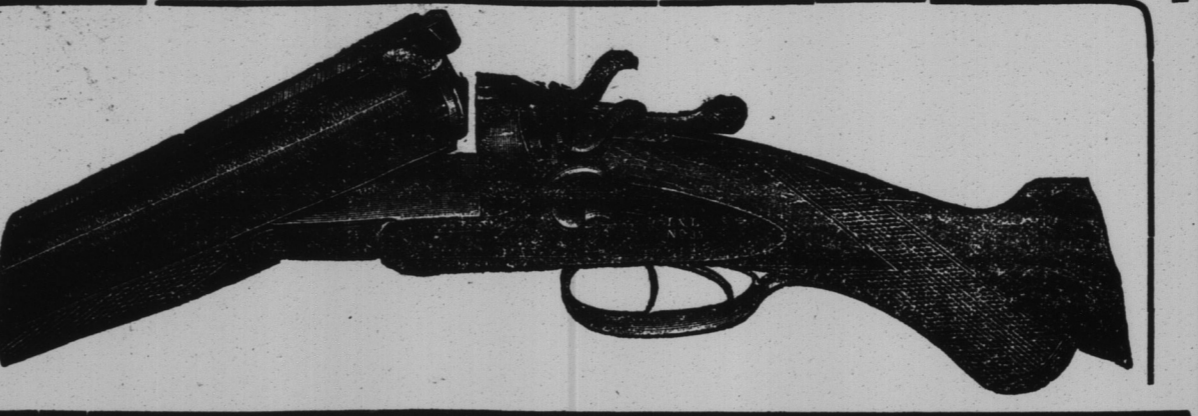

The proposed by-law was brought on for the first time at the recent meeting of the council, and as the hour was late discussion of it was postponed till the November meeting, when it was again taken up and briefly discussed, and then, as the result of the majority of the council, that no hasty or ill advised action should be taken, knowing as they did, that there was no raft at the season lying within the proposed limits of the pier, and that two or three weeks of the river will be frozen over, further discussion of it was simply postponed.

I would submit further, that if a majority of the council are trying to work in the rev. Estey's interest, as stated, they did not act with judgment, for in that case they should have voted it down altogether, instead of carrying it over for three months, and thereby handing it over to a new council to decide. It is often asked, why good men are soaverse to taking an active interest in city affairs. I think one reason is not far to seek; namely, that they do not matter how faithfully and conscientiously they may perform their duties for the public welfare, they are always open to the attacks of such persons as the three above referred to, who seem to take delight in imputing false motives and maligning individuals, while showing themselves utterly ignorant of the subjects they pretend to discuss.

JAMES S. NEILL.

"BUCK'S" LIFE STORY.

Sketch of the Career of Robert Olsen. Robert Olsen, alias "Buck," awaiting the death penalty in Dorchester jail for the murder of police officer Steadman, told the following story to the Moncton Plain Dealer:

Buck said: "I am just thirty years old. I was born in Norway, and afterwards removed with my parents to Stillwater, Minnesota. At an early age I went to sea, and followed the blue wave for six years; after which I thought I would give it up, and so I did, and I went to learn the shoemaking business, which trade I completely mastered. I worked at it in Fredericton, N. H., and in Manchester; at Fredericton, Me., at Portland and Gardiner, Me., also.

I made big wages, and spent it all in 'boozes.' I enjoyed my life when I was drinking and having a good time. I was brought up a Roman Catholic, and attended that church occasionally after I left home; but finally I neglected the early training I received, and forgot all about church and home. I joined in with bad company in my youth, and I have seen many an 'old buster' go the way of all flesh, since I started my bad career.

"I was in Moncton for the first time in my life in June. I was there then only for a short time. I was drunk there and met several lads who seemed to be having a good time. I was flush then and went to Amherst to try and get a sight in the shoe factory there. But times were dull, and I went on to Halifax, where I drank and had a good time. I then returned to Moncton, where I stopped a few days on a big debauch. From Moncton I went to the states and 'done' a good many American cities.

"I had never seen 'Jim' at this time, and never knew that there was such a person in the wide world. I met him in a fashionable salon one day in Bangor, Me. I took him to be a smart man, and his present position and burst into a hearty laugh. He told me he was an 'Ambrose,' which is an American slang phrase for a 'big drunk.' He asked me where I was going, and I said I was making for Canada, and he said, 'I will go with you; my husband for months at a time, and faked in all sorts of schemes in order that I might have a good time. I have seen the key over nearly all parts of the earth.

"But this is the hardest luck I have ever struck yet."

"Buck" can talk several languages, notwithstanding he is quite illiterate. He is blind of an eye, which would not be noticed by looking at him. He just about petitioning the minister of justice, asking him to have his sentence commuted to imprisonment for life. He has many good words for his lawyer, David Grant, who, he says, did all he could for him.

"Buck" said to the writer: "My life ought to be a caution to lots of young men, who are free to-day but who may yet wind up their end as I am about to end mine."

"Buck" says: "My right name is Robert Olsen; I have no other name." "I am sorry that the murder of Steadman occurred. I don't know that I shot him, and God knows that there was no malice in the matter as far as I was concerned. If I killed him, I suppose that was my fault, but I don't think there was a lot of crooked swearing done at the trial against me; I think Scott is the man's name who swore to

Enough to Hang Ten Men. but it is not strange that he witnessed what no other man saw or heard of? I am going to leave this world and I want to leave it without much fuss or spread, but I don't think there was a lot of crooked swearing done at the trial against me; I think Scott is the man's name who swore to

MENTIONED THE DONNELLY HOUSE, because I had been there before. He asked me to read the newspapers and see what the north shore news was, and if there was any description of any man or men who had been mixed up in a scrape. I did so and reported what the Moncton Times had said; and the third party was at the Donnelly house that night, but he did not go into the house, as he was afraid he would be arrested. His two companions left Moncton that morning. There was a third party all right enough, and the Donnelly boys are aware of the fact. I have nothing more to say that should be made public. My life has been spent, and I have not been what I should have been. My poor old mother gave me good advice. She was a good christian woman and I have no doubt been a great trouble to her; but I am all alone in the world now. I have been tried in a strange land, with strangers on every side of me; and I have heard the spectators in Moncton say, 'He should be lynched!' and I have listened to strangers discussing about it should be done with me; and I must say it is a hard place for a man to be in. The change of the judge to the jury was one of the pier; and that two or three weeks of the river will be frozen over, further discussion of it was simply postponed.

I would submit further, that if a majority of the council are trying to work in the rev. Estey's interest, as stated, they did not act with judgment, for in that case they should have voted it down altogether, instead of carrying it over for three months, and thereby handing it over to a new council to decide. It is often asked, why good men are soaverse to taking an active interest in city affairs. I think one reason is not far to seek; namely, that they do not matter how faithfully and conscientiously they may perform their duties for the public welfare, they are always open to the attacks of such persons as the three above referred to, who seem to take delight in imputing false motives and maligning individuals, while showing themselves utterly ignorant of the subjects they pretend to discuss.
