THE AMERICAN $8 DOLLAR $8 Typewriter.

THIS is a well-made, practical machine, writing capitals, small letters, figures, and punctuation marks (71 in all) on full width paper, just like a $100 instrument. It is the first of its kind ever offered at a popular price, for which the above claim can be truthfully made. It is not a toy, but a Typewriter built for and capable of REAL WORK. While not as rapid as the large machines sometimes become in expert hands, it is still at least as rapid as the pen, and has the advantage of such simplicity, that it can be understood and mastered almost at a glance. We cordially commend it to helpful parents and teachers everywhere.

Writes Capitals, small letters, figures and marks, 71 in all.
Writes just like a $100 machine.

Capital and lower-case keyboard alike, easily mastered.
More "margin play" for the small letters which do most of the work.

A TRIP TO EUROPE

An Ex-British Consul's Experience.

A Friend's Kindness Protects Him from an Old Enemy.

F. J. Criddle, of New York, formerly British consul at Mobile, Ala., and Charleston, S. C., when about to start for Europe, found himself short of a valuable article which he feared he would not be able to obtain in Europe. He wrote thus to a friend who had previously supplied him: "Last year, when suffering from the worst cold and cough I ever experienced, for which medical skill appeared to afford no relief, you kindly gave me a bottle of Hawker's Balm of Tolu and Wild Cherry, which afforded me great relief at once, and in a short time I found that the cough had entirely left me. I have carefully hoarded a little of the contents of that first bottle, fearing I could not obtain another, and I wished to have such a valuable remedy at hand." Mr. Criddle thus expresses his thanks: "Your generosity has fortified me against my old enemy, and I send you many thanks for the same. I shall always recommend Hawker's Tolu and Wild Cherry Balm, wherever I may be, as I consider it without an equal for the cure of coughs, colds, etc."

Hawker's Tolu and Wild Cherry Balm, is manufactured by The Hawker Medicine Co., St. John, N. B., and is a perfect cure for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, and all forms of throat and lung troubles. 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

SOUTHAMPTON.

Dec. 12.—Alfred Lenentine was baptized in the river after the morning service Sunday before last by Rev. H. A. Bonnell of Caverhill. Mr. Lenentine is quite an old man and at one time had a paralytic stroke losing the use of his right arm and leg. During the following week Mr. Bonnell held night meetings both here and over in Canterbury.

Miss Fannie Pickard of the Barony, is here visiting her friend Miss Maxon. John Grant took a crew of men to the woods last Monday week. This "recreant lumberman" (as the gentleman who wrote the graphic and interesting account of his camp and crew last winter was pleased to style him) operates for Marchie Bros. at Deer Lake. By the way, if this paragraph should meet the eye of that writer he might be interested to know that the renowned Herman has given Amos a "licking."

Prof. Robinson, who as he has several times stated, is employed by our own local government to give instruction in farming, especially in dairying, gave one of his very interesting and instructive lectures in the Miller school house last Tuesday evening. W. S. Tompkins was elected chairman and F. C. Brown, secretary. The chairman promptly introduced the speaker who said he had been asked by the local government to come down from Ontario and look the province over with a view of seeing whether or not the condition of the farmers could not be made better. He came and found we had plenty of good, cool spring water, the first essential to successful dairying, good food for our cattle and a splendid climate. As a result of the move in this direction, the province had taken eight prizes at the "World's Fair" Chicago. He did not believe in the "border of crops," but strongly advocated letting land rest by pasturing. He held that we plow our land to death; the plow was like doctor's medicine to a run-down horse (which simply needed rest and food), and the scythe coming after the plow was like the whip on the back of the horse after the medicine had been administered. Better farm fires were well than both 300. He said we could not profitably raise beef, for as the prices ranged, it was not a fair wage for a fair day's work, but we should go into pork raising. We were not to feed the pigs on haley whatever we did. It spoiled the flavor of the meat and made it curl up in the pan and all or nearly all fry away to grease. But potatoes and oats (chopped) was the ideal food for "Mr. Piggie." In conclusion he gave an analysis of butter as follows: 450° of butter fat; 400° of casing; 450° of carbonaceous food and 87.00° of water. He explained how casing was forced to the top by the contracting of the particles of casing or curd and as they sank above the little oily particles up. Hence strain milk when warm, and not interrupt these natural laws. Time or space will not allow me to give a complete synopsis of all the topics he discussed, but surely the government made a wise choice in selecting him, for he at once puts himself on the best of terms with his audience without which we cannot successfully teach.

A GHOST PHOTOGRAPHED.

The Remarkable Catch of a Kodak Fiend in West Virginia.

The appearance of the astral or spirit encasement of a man who had been dead more than a year, in a photograph made with a Kodak, was the cause for the almost total suspension of animation on the part of Mr. A. Allan Wheat, of Wheeling, West Virginia. He had made a lot of photographs of people and things about the home of his wife, near Danville, Va., and had sent them to the Kodak factory to be developed, and received them back the other day.

Among the lot was a group composed of his wife, his father-in-law, Capt. Haase, Miss Maud Halcolm, and his brother-in-law, Master Charles Haase. The picture was taken at the home of Capt. Haase, about ten miles from Danville, and was made by the usual pressure of the button, about three weeks ago. When it was taken the party were ranged about the veranda of Capt. Haase's residence, the sun shining brightly, and Mr. Wheat, who operated the camera, was stationed about forty feet away. Miss Halcolm, who lives near Capt. Haase's residence, and who is a friend of Mrs. Wheat, called on the day in question, and as it was the first time she and Mrs. Wheat had met since the death of Miss Halcolm's brother Charles, she naturally talked about him considerably. After dinner the party repaired to the veranda to make the picture. Nothing unusual was noticed by anyone, and no further thought of the picture was given by Mr. Wheat till he opened the package from the Kodak factory, when, to his amazement, he found a perfect likeness of Charles Halcolm standing immediately back of his sister in the veranda.

The figure of Mr. Halcolm and his head are four times as large as those of the other persons in the picture, although he is further away from the camera, being in the extreme background. He wears the clothing which he wore in life: a stiff hat tilted back to show his forehead, as was his custom; a turn-over collar, with a small black bow; black coat and white shirt. It appears to be coming out of the double doors at the back of the veranda, although the picture shows the doors to be closed. He is smiling and appears to be in the best of humor.

Mr. Halcolm died of typhoid fever a little more than a year ago. He was not a spiritualistic believer, nor was he interested in such things. His family was not spiritualistic people, nor is Mr. Wheat or others who were present at the time the picture was taken. Mr. Halcolm was well known in Wheeling, and nearly all his acquaintances have had a look at the picture and all testify to the fact that the picture shows the doors to be closed. He is smiling and appears to be in the best of humor.

EEL RIVER.

Dec. 7.—Times are quite lively in this place since the snow came, nothing can be heard but the jingling of the bells, and we expect before long that the marriage bells will be ringing.

We have an Orange lodge organized in this place, comprising twenty charter members. It meets twice a month on Wednesday evening, and they expect to greatly increase its membership before spring.

Our little band of Foresters are gradually increasing. They are trumps and bound to shine.

The S. of T. division is not very prosperous of late, but they are going to arouse themselves and put forth more energy to help on the good cause.

The Reform Baptists are holding a series of meetings in this place. They have organized a church in the Free Baptist church.

The school and their teacher, Mr. Girwood, propose holding a concert in Grover's hall on Christmas night.

Jacob Tompkins has left the hotel here and is now running the Queen, at Woodstock. Everett Martin has taken his place here.

PUGH'S CROSSING.

Dec. 10.—We are glad of the change from the rumble of carriages to the peal of sleigh bells, which bring tidings of a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year in the near future.

Miss Bina Pugh, of Lawrence, Mass., is visiting relatives and friends here.

Wm. Jewett, of this place, who while engaged in limbing a tree in Mr. Hagerman's lumber woods on the Mirimich, slipped and fell on a knot injuring himself severely. When last heard from he was improving.

Thomas Murray has erected an attachment to his sleds, for the purpose of stowing away his farm machinery, of which he has a large and choice stock.

The new school house is a very neat and commodious building, and does credit to its builders, Messrs. Thomas and Harry Morris.

The present teacher, Mr. Currie, has tendered his resignation to the trustees, as he intends taking charge of a larger school.

The young people here, together with those of Carleton, are endeavoring to get up a concert to be held in the hall at Bart's Corner, on Christmas Eve. We wish them every success.

KINGARTH.

Dec. 6.—It will be of interest to readers of THE HERALD, to know that Isaac King has returned from Uncle Sam's territory, and being native of Kingsclear, will remain here for the winter. He says times over the border, are very interesting, and he has been asked by the local government to come down from Ontario and look the province over with a view of seeing whether or not the condition of the farmers could not be made better. He came and found we had plenty of good, cool spring water, the first essential to successful dairying, good food for our cattle and a splendid climate. ## REPULED WITH BIG LOSSES.

Insurgent Forces Beaten Back by Loyal Troops at Bage.

Tex. Dec. 3.—The town of Bage was attacked Wednesday by the rebel forces from Rio Grand de Sul under Gen. Taravara. As soon as the advancing forces reached the first houses on the outskirts of the town the loyal forces opened fire with such telling effect that the attack was quickly repelled with great loss to the insurgents.

Cobras Island abandoned by Peitoto's men, is now held by Mello. The Tamandara has been made ready for sea. She can steam five knots an hour.

Mello's flagship, the Aquidaua, had made a tour around the harbor on Wednesday, and anchored near the Nieversher 27th, and anchored near the Nieversher shore. During the night Mello attempted to land a force by means of launches and boats under cover of the guns of the Aquidaua, the Trajano and the Juniper. Peitoto's men, however, were able to prevent the landing, for Mello's gunners fired badly. They also regained possession of the Armaco, whence Mello took a large part of his stores, and moved the rest of the stores from the island. This proved a serious loss to the insurgents.

Rumors were afloat that the rebel army intended to set fire to the war vessels and to other points on the city's water front. Several bodies of residents of Bage have sent crosses to Mello to disengage his men as a token of their sympathy with his cause. Arrests of political suspects are taking place daily in Rio, and only two newspapers have escaped suspension, both prominent organs. The censorship over the telegrams out of Rio is being more vigorously imposed than ever.

MARYSVILLE DIVISION.

An occasional correspondent sends us the following:

This division is now one of the most flourishing temperance organizations, not only in the province of New Brunswick, but also in the Dominion of Canada. Its membership now numbers two hundred in good standing, and large accessions are being constantly added. Eight new members were initiated a week ago Friday evening, and ten others were proposed, so that we can truthfully say the rebel forces are about to be routed.

On the evening, after the business of the division was settled, a very lengthy program of entertainment was carried out, consisting of dialogues, vocal and instrumental music, also a reading, and added greatly to the enjoyment and pleasure of the members present. I may state here that a very interesting entertainment is in course of preparation, and to which the public will be admitted, and of which due notice will hereafter be given. Marysville intend going to Kingsclear division Saturday, to exchange fraternal greetings.

This question has, and is frequently being asked to-day by doubting men and women, what good are our different temperance societies throughout the country, doing?

My experience of twenty-five or thirty years, justify me in stating that no man or woman living to-day can measure or conceive the amount of good that has and will be accomplished in our different communities by the several branches of the temperance organizations. I am personally acquainted with men who were once the victims of the drink habit, but I am happy to say are now, through the instrumentality and gracious influences of the temperance societies, staunch teetotalers, honored and respected, filling responsible positions in the world, and what is still better, good and faithful members of Christian churches. "By their fruits ye shall know them." Our division consists largely of boys from fourteen years old, young men and young women, whose general conduct and moral habits can compare favorably with any community in the Dominion. The minds of these boys, young men and young women are being favorably impressed by reading temperance literature, hearing temperance addresses, and other matters in connection with the subject, which are calculated to bring forth fruit in the cause of temperance.
