

HOTELS.

QUEEN HOTEL,

Queen Street, Fredericton, N. B.

THIS HOTEL has been REBUILT AND REPAIRED IN THE MOST COMPLETE MANNER BY AN EXPERT ARCHITECT. THE BUILDING IS BEAUTIFULLY DECORATED WITH THE LATEST IMPROVED PERPETUAL VENTILATION. THE COMFORTABLE BATH ROOMS AND CLOSETS are of the latest style. The tables are always supplied with every delicacy. The cooking is highly commended, and the attentions are ever ready to oblige.

There are two of the largest and most commodious dining rooms in the Dominion. The tables are always supplied with every delicacy. The cooking is highly commended, and the attentions are ever ready to oblige.

ROBBERIES AND CARRIAGES of every style are to be had at the VERY LOWEST PRICES. The proprietors are situated in the most convenient position for the Steamboat and Grand Ferry Landings, and within a minute's walk of the Parliament Buildings, County Registrar's Office and Cathedral.

FIRST-CLASS BARBER SHOP IN CONNECTION.

HEALTH FOR ALL!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.

THE PILLS
Purify the blood, correct all disorders of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys and Bowels. They invigorate and restore to health Debilitated Constitutions, and are invaluable in all Complaints incident to Females of all Ages. For Children and the Aged they are precisely.

THE OINTMENT
Is an infallible remedy for Red Legs, Bad Breasts, Old Wounds, Sores and Ulcers. It is famous for Cures of Rheumatism. For Disorders of the Chest it has no equal.

FOR SORE THROATS, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS,
Glandular Swellings, and all Skin Diseases, it has no rival, and for Contracted and Stiff Joints it acts like a charm.

Manufactured only at Professor HOLLOWAY'S Establishment, 78, NEW OXFORD STREET, (late 533, OXFORD STREET, LONDON and are sold at 1s. 1d., 2s., 4s., 6d., 11s., 2s., and 3s. each Box or Pot and may be had of all Medicine Vendors throughout the World.

Purchasers should look to the label on the Pots and Boxes. If the address is not 533, Oxford Street, London, they are spurious.

THE COMING PARTY

NEW BRUNSWICK LIBERALS TURN OUT HANDSOMELY.

Premier Blair Receives An Ovation.

OTTAWA, June 19.—All indications are that the liberal convention which opens tomorrow will be the greatest political gathering ever held in Canada. From all parts of the dominion delegates are arriving by hundreds. The strength of the delegations from the maritime provinces has greatly encouraged the liberals of the upper provinces.

Hon. M. Laurier arrived at noon today. He was accompanied by Hon. Messrs. Jones, Fielding, Longley, Davies, and other leading liberals. On the arrival of the party at the depot, they were met by over 300 Ottawa liberals, who cheered heartily as Mr. Laurier appeared. An address was read by Ald. McLean on behalf of the Ottawa liberal association, as follows:

To the Honorable Wilfrid Laurier:
Sir,—It is our pleasing duty to welcome you, on behalf of the reform association of Ottawa, on the occasion of your arrival among us to attend the convention of representatives of the reform party in Canada, which you have summoned to meet you here.

We are glad that you have shown your confidence in the friendship and loyal support of the inhabitants of this city, and the many friends in the Ottawa Valley, who look upon you as a political centre, in selecting our metropolitan city as the place of meeting.

You have shown confidence, not in us only, but in the good feeling and hospitality of the inhabitants of this city, not members of our party, who feel honored by the preference you have shown to them in selecting this as the convention city, and who will, no doubt, extend to you and to the other liberal leaders and delegates, a hearty welcome as honored and welcome guests.

We believe, Sir, that this is the feeling of the people at Ottawa with regard to yourself without distinction of party, and that those who profess allegiance to the conservative party respect you for your personal courtesy for the lofty ideal of political life which you hold and exhibit.

We fervently hope that the convention which you have come here to meet will so conduct its deliberations as to support you in the arduous conflict on which you are engaged, to give a purer and better government to the Dominion and to break away the fetters which hold the best energies of our land in bondage to the forces of greed and monopoly.

We cannot adequately express our sense of the debt which we owe to you for the sacrifices you have made for the cause of truth and justice, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

THE COMING PARTY

NEW BRUNSWICK LIBERALS TURN OUT HANDSOMELY.

Premier Blair Receives An Ovation.

OTTAWA, June 19.—All indications are that the liberal convention which opens tomorrow will be the greatest political gathering ever held in Canada. From all parts of the dominion delegates are arriving by hundreds. The strength of the delegations from the maritime provinces has greatly encouraged the liberals of the upper provinces.

Hon. M. Laurier arrived at noon today. He was accompanied by Hon. Messrs. Jones, Fielding, Longley, Davies, and other leading liberals. On the arrival of the party at the depot, they were met by over 300 Ottawa liberals, who cheered heartily as Mr. Laurier appeared. An address was read by Ald. McLean on behalf of the Ottawa liberal association, as follows:

To the Honorable Wilfrid Laurier:
Sir,—It is our pleasing duty to welcome you, on behalf of the reform association of Ottawa, on the occasion of your arrival among us to attend the convention of representatives of the reform party in Canada, which you have summoned to meet you here.

We are glad that you have shown your confidence in the friendship and loyal support of the inhabitants of this city, and the many friends in the Ottawa Valley, who look upon you as a political centre, in selecting our metropolitan city as the place of meeting.

You have shown confidence, not in us only, but in the good feeling and hospitality of the inhabitants of this city, not members of our party, who feel honored by the preference you have shown to them in selecting this as the convention city, and who will, no doubt, extend to you and to the other liberal leaders and delegates, a hearty welcome as honored and welcome guests.

We believe, Sir, that this is the feeling of the people at Ottawa with regard to yourself without distinction of party, and that those who profess allegiance to the conservative party respect you for your personal courtesy for the lofty ideal of political life which you hold and exhibit.

We fervently hope that the convention which you have come here to meet will so conduct its deliberations as to support you in the arduous conflict on which you are engaged, to give a purer and better government to the Dominion and to break away the fetters which hold the best energies of our land in bondage to the forces of greed and monopoly.

We cannot adequately express our sense of the debt which we owe to you for the sacrifices you have made for the cause of truth and justice, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

THE COMING PARTY

NEW BRUNSWICK LIBERALS TURN OUT HANDSOMELY.

Premier Blair Receives An Ovation.

OTTAWA, June 19.—All indications are that the liberal convention which opens tomorrow will be the greatest political gathering ever held in Canada. From all parts of the dominion delegates are arriving by hundreds. The strength of the delegations from the maritime provinces has greatly encouraged the liberals of the upper provinces.

Hon. M. Laurier arrived at noon today. He was accompanied by Hon. Messrs. Jones, Fielding, Longley, Davies, and other leading liberals. On the arrival of the party at the depot, they were met by over 300 Ottawa liberals, who cheered heartily as Mr. Laurier appeared. An address was read by Ald. McLean on behalf of the Ottawa liberal association, as follows:

To the Honorable Wilfrid Laurier:
Sir,—It is our pleasing duty to welcome you, on behalf of the reform association of Ottawa, on the occasion of your arrival among us to attend the convention of representatives of the reform party in Canada, which you have summoned to meet you here.

We are glad that you have shown your confidence in the friendship and loyal support of the inhabitants of this city, and the many friends in the Ottawa Valley, who look upon you as a political centre, in selecting our metropolitan city as the place of meeting.

You have shown confidence, not in us only, but in the good feeling and hospitality of the inhabitants of this city, not members of our party, who feel honored by the preference you have shown to them in selecting this as the convention city, and who will, no doubt, extend to you and to the other liberal leaders and delegates, a hearty welcome as honored and welcome guests.

We believe, Sir, that this is the feeling of the people at Ottawa with regard to yourself without distinction of party, and that those who profess allegiance to the conservative party respect you for your personal courtesy for the lofty ideal of political life which you hold and exhibit.

We fervently hope that the convention which you have come here to meet will so conduct its deliberations as to support you in the arduous conflict on which you are engaged, to give a purer and better government to the Dominion and to break away the fetters which hold the best energies of our land in bondage to the forces of greed and monopoly.

We cannot adequately express our sense of the debt which we owe to you for the sacrifices you have made for the cause of truth and justice, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

THE COMING PARTY

NEW BRUNSWICK LIBERALS TURN OUT HANDSOMELY.

Premier Blair Receives An Ovation.

OTTAWA, June 19.—All indications are that the liberal convention which opens tomorrow will be the greatest political gathering ever held in Canada. From all parts of the dominion delegates are arriving by hundreds. The strength of the delegations from the maritime provinces has greatly encouraged the liberals of the upper provinces.

Hon. M. Laurier arrived at noon today. He was accompanied by Hon. Messrs. Jones, Fielding, Longley, Davies, and other leading liberals. On the arrival of the party at the depot, they were met by over 300 Ottawa liberals, who cheered heartily as Mr. Laurier appeared. An address was read by Ald. McLean on behalf of the Ottawa liberal association, as follows:

To the Honorable Wilfrid Laurier:
Sir,—It is our pleasing duty to welcome you, on behalf of the reform association of Ottawa, on the occasion of your arrival among us to attend the convention of representatives of the reform party in Canada, which you have summoned to meet you here.

We are glad that you have shown your confidence in the friendship and loyal support of the inhabitants of this city, and the many friends in the Ottawa Valley, who look upon you as a political centre, in selecting our metropolitan city as the place of meeting.

You have shown confidence, not in us only, but in the good feeling and hospitality of the inhabitants of this city, not members of our party, who feel honored by the preference you have shown to them in selecting this as the convention city, and who will, no doubt, extend to you and to the other liberal leaders and delegates, a hearty welcome as honored and welcome guests.

We believe, Sir, that this is the feeling of the people at Ottawa with regard to yourself without distinction of party, and that those who profess allegiance to the conservative party respect you for your personal courtesy for the lofty ideal of political life which you hold and exhibit.

We fervently hope that the convention which you have come here to meet will so conduct its deliberations as to support you in the arduous conflict on which you are engaged, to give a purer and better government to the Dominion and to break away the fetters which hold the best energies of our land in bondage to the forces of greed and monopoly.

We cannot adequately express our sense of the debt which we owe to you for the sacrifices you have made for the cause of truth and justice, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

We believe that the people of Canada, are today looking to you not merely as the honored leader of a great party, but as the champion and patriot of our country. We welcome you to Ottawa, and we desire to assure you that you have in the city of Ottawa, a devoted band of followers and adherents, whose affection for and loyalty to you, have grown steadily as your knowledge of your great endowments of mind and character has extended.

We believe that in this regard we speak the feelings of the liberal party of Canada towards you, and that there has been a time when the flame of their devotion to you has been more widespread and more intense than it is at this moment.

A NEW BRUNSWICKER.

A Description of a Worthy Son "One of us."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:
Sir,—It is far from being a realization that those who figure publicly, whether in the way of politics, philosophy, or religion or in any other form, are the most conspicuous objects in nature, in possession of all the talent. Far from it, for "many a flower but in the bush unseen," etc., etc. It is simply circumstances, force of character, or influence, or ambition, which gives mediocrity a prominence, while the quiet, unassuming plodder, by his abilities ever so great or scholastic attainments ever so thorough, must remain stationary and unknown to the world, if he have not the essential natural stimulus, as a lever to rouse him into activity. Then again envy and jealousy exerted by enemies are stumbling blocks to the advancement of young men of modesty; for it requires some nerve for a sensitive nature to come out openly and face criticism, and ensure perhaps, in the community where one is well known. But the case becomes different when the same young man goes abroad and develops himself among strangers. Once he gets a foot-hold and grows himself to be up to the mark, and independent, and with a good business man and somewhat talented, he takes his place among the first in the town, city or state for his usefulness and worth. How frequently do we read in the papers of New Brunswickers abroad giving a good account of themselves, occupying posts of distinction and highly respected by their fellow citizens; while at home in the quiet of their birth they were scarcely known outside their own circles for the reasons before given, especially the want of opportunity for the development of their superior qualities.

I might name many cases, and may do so hereafter, in proof of the above statement. One will suffice for the present; and I wish to say just here, that what I write is from purely disinterested motives, not feeling myself to be under the least personal obligation, but from a sincere desire to show with feelings of pride what our countrymen are capable of when the field is suitable and ample enough for the exercise of their talents and genius. When quite a young lad, Frederick Risteen left his native land, and to day we find him at the head of one of the first hotels in Boston called the "Copley Square Hotel," situated near the church of the late Phillips Brooks, and the first vice-president of the Copley Hotel Association, having been elected to that office at a late meeting of the association at Detroit, Mich.</