GETTING READY FOR SEA.—If the river rises any higher, John Gibson will make an attempt to get his new schooner afloat. About a foot more water would float her.

RETURNED.—Dr. McLearn has returned from Camp Aldershot where he had charge of the military hospital. The doctor is having a large practice and is in much demand.

NACKAWICK BRIDGE.—Whitman Brewer has finished the repairs of Oromocto wharf, and will begin work at once on the Nackawick bridge. J. K. Pinder is getting out the necessary lumber.

SENT UP.—Mrs. Hoyt, divorced wife of Bill Hoyt, colored, was before the p. m. on Wednesday charged with the stealing of linen from the Commercial hotel. She was sent to jail, awaiting trial.

WEDDED.—At Marysville on Saturday last the Rev. Mr. Lodge, pastor of the Methodist church, solemnized the marriage of George Eno, of that town, and Miss Mary McIntire, of Lowell, Mass.

GAME WARDENS.—Among the game wardens recently appointed by the lieutenant governor are: Howard D. Branscombe for Queens, Chas. I. Burpee for Sunbury, and Frank Bird for the county of York.

CARLETON'S SHERIFF.—David Irvine and W. D. Balloch are the applicants for the vacant office of sheriff of Carleton county. Both have hosts of friends and either will make an acceptable officer.

AT OROMOCTO.—Allison Cook and company of variety artists held one of their unique shows at Oromocto on Thursday evening. There were several slugging matches with gloves. The house was well filled.

PERLEY AHEAD.—The latest in the Sunbury fishery commissioner row is that all wardens are authorized to report to H S Myles. It is evident from this, that hon W. E. has got the pole in the race with Mr. Wilmot.

NEW JUDGE.—Hon Justice King of the supreme court of New Brunswick has been appointed one of the justices of the supreme court of Canada, in place of the late Judge Patterson. It is expected that Judge Landry of Westmorland, will fill the vacated seat in this province.

KEELY CURE.—It is one of the facts of the near future that a branch of the gold cure for inebriates is to be located here. The matter has been under consideration for some time and is now arranged. Patients in these institutions receive treatment for inebriety, opium, morphine habit and neurasthenia.

ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Gilbert Wiggins, of Waterborough, Queens, is confined to the house, the result of a bad accident on Wednesday last. While driving down the Titus mill hill, the kingbolt came out of its place, setting the horse free. Mrs. Wiggins was thrown out and seriously hurt about the head and shoulders. At last accounts she was doing well.

ENTERPRISING.—Eliphalet McClutcheon, of the Narrows, Queens county, has in his possession a sow of which he is justly proud. The sow early in the spring gave birth to seventeen pigs, and a few days ago she had another litter, numbering the same, making in all thirty-four pigs. This is not a bad record for the old sow to make within a few months.

DANGEROUSLY HURT.—Hiram Wade, a young married man, son of Lemuel Wade, of Penniac, was dangerously hurt in the machine shop of the cotton mill at Marysville on Tuesday. He was working at a saw when a board flew back and struck him in the abdomen. The doctor was called at once but he is in a serious state and it is feared the result will be fatal.

BAPTIST QUARTERLY MEETING.—The Baptist quarterly meeting held with the church at Springfield, York county, on Friday, Saturday and Sunday of last week was largely attended. The weather was all that could be desired, and such numbers took advantage of the opportunity that standing room was scarcely available in the church at the Sabbath services. The ministers present were Rev. Mr. Young, general missionary, Rev. P. O. Rees and Rev. E. Jenkins. Meeting adjourned to meet at Marysville in December.

SCOTT ACT SPY BEATEN.—Bragdon, the Scott act spy, has been confined to bed for a fortnight past, the result of a severe pounding received at the hands of two toughs. He went to St. Stephen and Calais on a still hunt and from there went to Eastport where he was followed by two men. They spent some days in doing the town and one morning Bragdon was found pretty well cut up—the others had disappeared. This is the story so far as it goes. MAXON, the late spy, has twenty-four complaints laid here, a hearing of which will take place in a few days.

SIGNOR SINGER.—Phillip Phillips, the singing pilgrim, will appear in the city hall, Oct. 2nd and 3rd. Mr. Phillips has entranced audiences in all the larger cities of the United States. The following clipped from the examiner, San Francisco, gives an idea of his entertainments: Phillip Phillips gave one of his series of entertainments at the Simpson memorial M. E. church last evening. It consisted of a lecture illustrated by photo-opticon views. Some capital views of Yellowstone park, Yosemite valley, Niagara falls, were shown. The lecture was interspersed with music, one selection being "Your Mission," the one that president Lincoln asked Mr. Phillips to repeat when he was singing in the hall of representatives at Washington.

The Poor Always With You.

And again Southampton is in the throes of a sensation far surpassing in detail the now famous Purvis case. It appears that some time since several pauper children wandered from Carleton county and for a time were a charge upon the poor list of Southampton. Acting upon the advice of the councillors, it is presumed, the poor masters decided to send the waifs back to their native place before the time limit had expired, when according to law they would be, as it were, naturalized and become a permanent charge upon Southampton.

When the poor masters made up their minds to act they did so at once and hired a man and team to take the strays back to Woodstock. He did so and then sent in his bill. The bill was ruled out of court; it was not paid and suit was entered. The judge before whom the case was tried gave judgment for the driver and yet the poor masters refused to pay.

On Tuesday the driver got out a capais and the poor masters have been arrested. Further developments are looked for.

H. T. Stevens Wants to Retire.

The Moncton Transcript says: H. T. Stevens, editor of the Times and husband of Jane Stevens, who was recently tried for manslaughter, has been distinguishing himself again. This time it is the members of the Frst Baptist church, Moncton, who have fallen under the ban of his displeasure. It appears that many years ago—over seven—H. T. Stevens was a regular attendant at the First Baptist church, and on the roll of church members. Since his second marriage he has ceased to attend that church. It was so long ago, that the members had forgotten that H. T. Stevens' name was still on the church roll, until that eccentric gentleman took the pains in a most insulting manner to remind them formally of the fact. Then the members looked into the matter and found that Mr. Stevens for once was right. He was indeed still a member, not having been removed from the list by withdrawal card or discipline, and belonged to a class whom the rev. Mr. Hinson once described as Quaker guns.

At a recent church meeting, the members present were astonished to hear read from H. T. Stevens a letter, stating that he understood his name still appeared on the list of church members, and proceeding claimed that he had not been treated fairly by members of the church during the recent trial of his wife, Jane Stevens. Instead of receiving that expression of sympathy which was due to him from members of the church, they had actually been hostile and uncharitable; and he intimated that as he had "learned Christ" they did not do their duty as Christians, or words to that effect. Under the circumstances if there was any way or means by which the church could bring any decent charge against him and expel him from their membership, he would be glad, as he did not wish to be connected any longer with the body.

The amusement mingled with pity for a fallen intellect with which the reading of this extraordinary epistle was greeted may be imagined. No action was taken on the precious document, in view of the immediate incumbency of the new pastor; but the majority regarded the letter as an intentionally insulting sneer at a church which has done a good work for The Master in this field.

Councillors' Election.

The approaching councillor's election is creating some interest throughout the different parishes. One reason is that it is understood an effort is to be made to saddle the costs of the Purvis vs. Johnson suit upon the county instead of the parish of Southampton—in fact many are of the opinion that the cost should be paid by private parties. In Bright Whitfield Estey or Frank Bird will oppose the present councillors, McKeen and Inch. Lawrence of Douglas is to be opposed by Thomas Murray with a strong prospect of getting in. There will be an election in St. Marys. Little and Robinson will oppose Thompson and Mowatt in Manners-Sutton, while there will be four or five applicants for the place in Southampton made vacant by J. K. Pinder who has decided to resign. Stanley will remain as at present. It would be a wise move if the councillors at the first meeting would decide to appoint an auditor to examine the accounts and get the business of the county on a reliable basis. The half hour spent by the council in looking over the public accounts year after year is time wasted, and no man can go over a year's accounts in the few minutes devoted to them. How a councillor can have the hardihood to pass accounts as correct when he does not really know they are so it is difficult to determine, but year after year it is done.

Alex. Heron of Gibson, will contest the parish of St. Marys in the election to take place on the 10th of October next.

F. C. B. District Meeting.

The annual meeting of the F C Baptist denomination of the Third District, began at Marysville on Friday afternoon last, and continued till Sunday night. There was a large attendance of delegates and visitors. Rev's. Halse, Downey, Henderson, Currie, Long, Hartley, Erb and Bunnell were present, and took part in the services. The conference meeting was one of power, and some fifty testimonies were given. Rev. Mr. Erb preached on Saturday evening. On Sunday, rev. Mr. Hartley in the forenoon, rev. Mr. Halse in the afternoon, and rev. Mr. Foster in the evening, occupied the pulpit of the F C Baptist church. Dr. McLeod preached in the Methodist church in the morning, and rev. Mr. Halse in the afternoon. Rev. Mr. Bunnell went to the Penniac church, while rev. Mr. Downey occupied the pulpit of the Gibson Methodist church.

The sermons by rev. Mr. Erb, rev. Mr. Halse, Dr. McLeod and rev. Mr. Foster, were much appreciated. It was one of the most successful district meetings ever held in this locality. Miss Gaunce was present and made an address, the collection following, amounting to $36, for foreign missions.

Rev. Mr. Foster has received a call to the church at Keswick, and will enter upon its duties in a short time. The people of Fredericton junction, where he has labored for some years with much success, feel sad at the prospect of losing him, but he feels that he has a call to go. Rev. Mr. Downey will go on the home mission, in the field made vacant by the death of his father, the late rev. Wm. Downey.

Curran vs. Morgan.

Judgment was not given by the police magistrate yesterday, in the assault case preferred against Joseph Morgan of this city by Frank Curran, clerk for Sumner & Co., Moncton. Curran was here doing business for his firm and it appears went on a time with Morgan and some others on Saturday evening and was beaten very severly by Morgan near the assembly buildings, in fact he was left senseless. Parties coming from the lower mills found him and brought him to the Barker house. The case came on for trial on Monday last. Wm. Wilson for the defence and G. A. Hughes for the prosecution.

When the case came up on Friday his honor stated that an important witness which he wished to put on the stand had been called away and Morgan was again remanded to jail.

Gaspereau Bridge.

The large bridge across Salmon river, near Gaspereau, is rapidly approaching completion. Some of the spans are up and the heavy job of rock work finished. The approach to this bridge on the eastern end involved a large amount of labor, but has been satisfactorily accomplished. The frame work will be well done, as Mr. King, who has the contract, is always at the bridge and the foreman, Robert Logan of Gibson, is one of the most capable bridge builders in the province. A bridge at that place was an absolute necessity, as the old one had been standing for perhaps fifty years or more, and the channel of the stream had become diverted so that in place of one bridge two, or two or more spans, were necessary. The present arrangement is perhaps the best that can be devised.

The Rustler Accident.

The enquiry into the Rustler accident has not yet been begun by the government, but preparations are going on. The following verdict has been rendered respecting the death of Miss Landry: "That Jane Landry came to her death by drowning by jumping through a window of the steamer Rustler to avoid being scalded by escaping steam caused by the said steamer running into the Kerr mill wharf and breaking her steam pipe. The said accident was caused by neglect of the captain not taking the necessary precaution and not having a man on the lookout.

OUR BUTTER FOR CHICAGO.—Prof. John Robertson shipped yesterday from this station for Chicago two lots of creamery butter and five entries of cheese for the world's fair. Both lots include specimens from the York and Carleton dairies and had places at the recent exhibition held here.

AT THE PARK.

Sensational Work Done by Katrina and Hatassa Wilkes.

On Wednesday afternoon the races began bringing out a better field of horses than at any of the previous shows. The first contest was as follows:

Foals of 1891, mile heats, 2 in 3.

Hatassa Wilkes, W R Dunbar, Fredericton	1	4	1
Sans Peur, W M Gordon, St John	2	2	2
Westwind, C P Pendleton, St John	3	3	4
Judge Allen, I Peabody, St Marys	4	1	4
Biddy Wilkes, Sandy Stewart, Fredericton	drawn

Time—3 01½, 3 02, 2 57.

This was a picnic for the Wilkes mare who outspeeded the others so far that in the last heat Dunbar had to hold up to save the others from being distanced. Hatassa was bred by Isaac Peabody and is a good one. Judge Allen, who took one heat of the race, is a recent importation of Mr. Peabody's.

The three minute class had some fast ones, as the time made shows. It was trotted as follows:

Three minute class, mile heats, best 3 in 5.

Maud M, A L Slipp, Truro	1	1	1
Maud D, H E Lydiard, Yarmouth	2	2	3
J O C, W A Henderson, St John	3	3	2
Minnie B, G A Polley, "	5	4	4
Johnny Dick, Wm McEvoy, St John	4	5	5
Nellie G, Sandy Stewart, F'ton	dr

Time—2:34, 2:34, 2:35.

Two heats of this race were trotted on Wednesday afternoon, the third and deciding heat being run on Thursday. The summary is as follows:

Two-thirty class, mile heats, best 3 in 5.

Katrina, C W Bell, St John	1	1	1
Heck, A L Slipp, Truro, N S	2	3	2
C P R, A H Learmont, Truro	3	dr
Thorndale Echo, F Watson, St John	4	2	3
Rampart, C R Bill, Kentville	dr
Helena B, D J Stockford, F'ton	dr

Time—2:32, 2:30½, 2:25½.

The running race was extremely interesting, perhaps because it was a struggle more between man and boy than the horses they bestrode. The youth who rode Donna Perfecta was fourteen years of age, and was pitted against Barry Woods, who, it will be remembered, rode the Church horses on the old track in racing days. The race was decided as follows, and was neck and neck both heats:

Donna Perfecta, Peter Clinch, St John	1	1
May Day, W McMonagle, Sussex	2	3
Ida Grey, " "	3	2
Bygone Days, W B Phair, Fredericton	4	dr

Time—1:52½, 1:52.

The race for foals of 1890 brought out four starters, two of them Mack F fillies, but they were outclassed. The following was the showing:

Jen F, Sandy Stewart, Fredericton	4	3	3
Annie Sprague, John McCoy, Fredericton	3	4	4
Banshee, Wm Blair, Amherst	2	2	2
Sir Richard, A L Slipp, Truro	1	1	1

Time 2:37, 2:41, 2:40.

The 2.45 class showed extra good racing and it was difficult to tell which would be the winner till the wire was reached, a few inches in several cases taking the heat. The summary is:

Rampart jr, C R Bill, Kentville	4	1	1	1
Teddy Goldleaf, C H Pendleton, St John	5	5	5	4
Maud M, A L Slipp, Truro	1	2	2	2
Maud D, H C Lydiard, Yarmouth	3	3	3	3
J O C, W A Henderson, St John	2	3	4	5

Time—2:31, 2:33, 2:32, 2:30¾.

The 2:28 class was a struggle between Favorite and Stranger. The summary was:

Don Pulling, br s, Sandy Stewart, Fredericton	dr.
Arc Light, bk s, by Rampart, C W Bell, St. John	1	1	1
Stranger, ch s, A H Learmont, Truro	3	2	3
Favorite, bk m, by Bashaw Prince, Wm Blair	2	3	2
Resolution, br s, by Rampart, H C Lydiard, Yarmouth	dr
Deceiver, b s, T J Dean, St. John	4	4	4

Time—2:27½, 2:24½, 2:27½.

The judges were sheriff Sterling and W D Gillies; C Ward, starter; Walter Jewett and H McKee, timers.

The track was quite heavy when the first races were called on Tuesday, but as the wind became stronger the track dried out so that by three o'clock the footing was not bad. It was evident in the colt race that Hattassa Wilkes was far superior in speed to her competitors, the time being no mark of her speed. In the last heat she could have broken the best colt record for this track.

Sandy Stewart was very unfortunate in his races. He appeared to have speed but his horses did not answer to his efforts and several bad breaks threw him out in all his entries. Of course it must be taken into account that he was fighting old campaigners. It was a surprise to all citizens and many visitors that the veteran Dave Stockford had not a mount in the list. Dave always had one of the races and it is evident that by dropping Dave some of the horsemen are not making any great gain. As a driver A. L. Slipp of Truro, carries the honors. He put all his horses to first place and they did some fine work. He appeared to be the coolest of the party and was by far the choice of the crowd.

One thing was especially noticeable, the Sir Charles stock was not represented, although perhaps the best in the province. It was Wilkes all through. There were no Kearsages in the swim either. It appears, to use a common and very expressive term, that they are not in it.

The ladies were in greater force at the races this year than ever before and apparently enjoyed them. All expressed delight in the running race, and perhaps it was this that brought them out in such large numbers.

Katrina was the most admired horse at the show, and her speed in the race was caught by many as a fraction below 25, though she did not get that mark by the officials. It is conceded by all that she can beat this at any time. It would have been a pleasure to city folks if Mr. Boyle had seen fit to let Helena B. start in the race. Many wanted to see her go even if she did not capture a heat. Nellie G., the big Kearsage mare owned by A. Gibson of Nashwaak, is very speedy and if Dave had placed her in a race she would have warmed the 2.35 class. But her owner decided not to enter her. There were a few protests entered by the drivers but of little consequence. The starter, Mr. Ward, deserves the thanks of the association for his skill in conducting the races.

How it was that Katrina made the sensational mark of 2.25½ in the 35 class no one appears to know, but Bell must have been a long way off in his judgment or he would not have shut her out from previous races as he has done. Perhaps it was so desired and the mare will not be raced again for some time. It is evident that H. McLellan's purse of $100 for the first get of Wilkes to enter the list is in danger. It is believed also that Helena B. can go inside of thirty at any time.

At Rest.

On Sunday last John A. Hughes, eldest son of John Hughes, of this city, was laid to rest at the Hermitage. He was a member of the A. O. H., and that body conducted the obsequies.

Ira Teed, a well known resident of Benton, died at his residence there on Monday last at the age of seventy-nine of Bright's disease. Deceased was the father of A I. Teed of the firm of Hill and Co., St. Stephen.

Much regret is expressed in this city and vicinity at the death of Capt. W. A. Barker of Gibson. He had been ill for about a year and it was thought that he would recover, but it was not to be. His death occurred at his residence on Monday evening, the 18th inst. As an officer of the 71st battalion, and as a citizen he had the respect of his men and the esteem of all who knew him. His funeral, which was largely attended, took place on Thursday.

News has been received from Nanaimo, B. C., of the death at that place, on the 10th inst., of William Coburn, sr., late of Harvey Station. He was well known in this county having been one of the first settlers of Manners Sutton, and removed to British Columbia about five years since. He leaves a large family. Deceased was in his 72d year.

The Kingston Agricultural Exhibition will be held on Wednesday, the 11th of October.

TEAMS COLLIDE.

One Boy Fatally Injured, Others Very Badly Hurt.

Main street in front of the I. C. R. general offices, Moncton, about 8.40 Wednesday evening was the scene of a shocking and unquestionably fatal accident which resulted in one boy receiving internal injuries from which he cannot recover, and another lad sustaining quite a serious shaking up. The cause of the accident was the collision of the Dominion express team with the Brunswick hotel hack. Harvey Shepherd, driver of the Dominion express team, was five minutes late in leaving the office, situated near Botsford street, the train having passed over the Main street crossing before he started. He had four parcels of money in his charge, amounting to $1,000 besides a quantity of expressage goods which were necessary to have been shipped Tuesday night. Under these circumstances he naturally drove at a speedy gait. On the seat with him were three other boys named George Gould, George McLeod and Hartly Gould. Young Shepherd, who held the reins, kept up a good pace, nevertheless maintaining his own side of the road. Just as he was approaching the western end of the general offices, so dense was the darkness, he eased up a little, but too late, for he saw the Brunswick horses, which had run away from the station, coming on a gallop not twenty yards from him. He quickly drew his horse to the left, but unavailingly. The crash came and in an instant hack, express team and the three horses were piled into a heap and the crash which could be heard two hundred yards off was veritably similar to a collision between two box cars. In an instant Harvey Shepherd was knocked over the seat into the back of the wagon and as he fell he exclaimed in agonizing tones "I am struck by the pole, hang on to the money George." The two Gould boys were hurled out while McLeod was thrown under the seat. The wagons locked together, the pole of the hack projecting over the right hand side of the other vehicle. The horses were thrown in different directions. The Dominion horse was torn from the harness and precipitated into a ditch while the span attached to the hack, held firmly by the harness, lay on their sides, the black on the left and the grey on the right sides of the wagon respectively. The black horse quickly got to his feet and the scene before described remained when Messrs. J. W. Clark, J. G. Wran, E. Lockhart and A. Morrison arrived. These gentlemen first separated the wagons and got the horses on their feet when they heard a groan and looking into the express team discovered Harvey Shepherd lying on his back in a semi-stupor. They gently lifted him out and carried him to the Brunswick hotel, and Drs. Bourque and Botsford were immediately summoned. From the nature of the injuries which are internal the doctors could not give a minute description. The upper part of the stomach was dinged in whilst the lower part of the abdomen was terribly swollen. The physicians gave as their opinion, that the peritenium, or coating over the bowels was broken and the intestines protruding which left his life a matter of a few hours. He was also attacked with an internal hemorrage and emitted large quantities of blood. Young Shepherd has since died.

Special Attractions.

Edgecombe Bros. exhibit of wagons, carriages and vehicles of all styles and descriptions calls for more than a passing notice. Their carriages in natural wool were especially admired. One thing that emphasizes the quality of their work, is that while the exhibition was in progress this firm received two orders from Halifax and one from a prominent gentleman in England for their best carriages. Whenever their work has been shown it has received the most flattering praise and the firm is in a better position to please the tastes of its patrons than ever before. Neatness of work, quality of material and especial suitability of design to the labor required of the carriage, are qualities that receive special attention, and the city is justly proud of the exhibit made by this enterprising firm.

BLOCKING THE STREETS.—The police magistrate is about to make a move against those who impede the sidewalks with coal and other articles. It is not necessary to block up the whole sidewalk to get a ton of coal into a cellar and it is probable that the law will point out a more efficient way. Violators of the law have been warned and active measures will be taken in future.

About one o'clock Thursday morning Miss Daisy Montague, the well-known dancer at the Empire theatre, London, was walking to her residence, accompanied by a gentleman, when a man overtook them and without a word fired several shots at them from a revolver, inflicting fatal wounds, He then shot himself, dying instantly. The murderer was a rejected suitor of Miss Montague.

An adjourned meeting of delegates of the various Baptist churches of the province will be held on Thursday Oct. 5th, at 7.30 p. m. in the Brussels street church. The report of the joint committees at St. Martins will be submitted for consideration and steps will doubtless be taken toward organization for provincial work.

While overhauling a net off the Kouchibouguac Beach last week, Patrick Gormon had his hand badly bitten by a shark. The shark had been caught in the net, and when Gormon went near, it showed fight. With the assistance of Paul Landry and Charles Colen it was finally captured and taken ashore.

A western journal says Sir Charles Tupper now owns a controlling share in the Hudson's Bay Company, and has a pretty little scheme to sell the H. B. lands to the Canadian government for sundry millions.
