The senator has all but booked orders for ten more cars.

BY THE CASTING VOTE.—Although the supreme court decided that the city council had no right to pay Miss Hooper's counsel in Scott act cases, a petition was presented to the council Tuesday evening asking that the account be settled. The proposition, however, was defeated by the casting vote of the mayor, and the council decided that in future when counsel is necessary the city clerk shall act. The vote has not popularized the mayor with the temperance workers.

STANLEY'S DOINGS.—At the police court Tuesday morning there were 10 Scott act prosecutions against parties at Stanley, as follows: Harry Turnbull, six offences; Barney McMinnamin and Philip Sullivan, first offence; John McGroney, second offence. J. W. A PECULIAR STOWAWAY.—At St. John Wednesday, the men engaged in the removal of the deals from one of Mr. Gibson's Nashwaak scows, to the ship Sultan, which is loading at the corporation pier, discovered under the lumber, a mink. The conjectures as to how it got on the lighter were many, but all guessing ceased when the captain of the schooner Relief, which had moved down to the Sultan from the head of the harbor during the day told the crowd that he had seen the animal board his vessel early in the day. How it came to board the schooner, is the question the people who saw the mink are trying to think out.

DOAKTOWN MAN KILLED.—At Houlton, Maine, Friday morning of last week, the dead body of William Doak, a native of Doaktown, N. B., was discovered in a field, and partly resting upon him was a large stone. The deceased was working for John Tierney in that town, and at the time he lost his life was excavating beneath the stone, intending to "sink it"—a way farmers have of getting rid of large field stones or bowlers—when the stone started and caught him before he had time to get out of the way. His age was about forty years. Dr. Boyd, of Linneus, coroner, was summoned, viewed the body and deemed an inquest unnecessary.

Crown Land Sales.

About 270 square miles of timber limits were sold at the crown land office Wednesday. The sale attracted quite an attendance of lumbermen or their representatives, especially those who operate on the Restigouche river, and among those present were A. E. Alexander, Mr. Shaw, David Richards, George Moffat, Mr. Benson, agent of the Muskoka Mill and Lumber Co., and a number of others. T. G. O'Connor opposed the application of W. R. McCluskey and bought the block at $42 a mile, and T. B. Winslow, acting for W. Smith, opposed Timothy Lynch in a two mile block, which the latter allowed to go at $34 a mile. The remaining fifteen miles were taken by A. E. Alexander at the upset price. A berth of six square miles applied for by J. H. Barry was knocked down to George A. Hughes at $9 per mile. The other berths applied for and offered were knocked down to the applicants, Alex. Gibson, Ed. Walker, George Dutch, A. E. Alexander, G. G. King and James R. Howie, at the upset prices.

The same day applications were filed for 352½ square miles, which will be offered for sale on the 22nd inst. Of this number 37½ square miles are applied for by the Muskoka Lumbering Co.

Interesting Suit Threatened.

What promises at the present time to become rather interesting law suits have been commenced by a resident of Saint Marys against at least one or two of his neighbors. The cause arose out of the late fire in St Marys. It will be remembered that it was generally believed that the fire was the work of an incendiary, and more than one person's name was mentioned in connection therewith. The action in question has been commenced by one of those whose name, it is alleged, has been used too freely in connection with the matter. He evidently does not propose to lie quietly under the charge, and has instructed his lawyer to sift the matter to the bottom and bring his defamers to justice. It is said that one of the suits has been settled: the party having paid all costs, and certain damages to the party injured, and retracted the statements made by him.

TO MEET AT MARYSVILLE.—The members of Alexandria lodge, No. 33, F. & A. M., who lost their hall in the recent fire at St. Marys, met at Marysville hall Thursday evening, and will continue their meeting there during the winter. The lodge was also unfortunate enough to lose their regalia and jewels in the fire, saving only their charter. The jewels were the oldest in the province, having been first used by a lodge at Maugerville. Alexandria is in a flourishing condition, and is steadily adding to its membership. They have decided to hold their meetings hereafter the first Wednesday in each month.

MILL BURNED.—The saw mill belonging to John E. Smith, Blissville, Sunbury Co., was destroyed by fire on last Wednesday evening. The mill was water power, and contained one gang, two shingle and stave machines. Mr. Smith had been working the mill that day and had just gone to bed when, attracted by the light, found his mill all ablaze. The origin of the fire is unknown. Insured with F. I. Morrison for $1,500.

DR. BAILEY OBJECTS

To Prof. Duff Receiving all the Credit for Starting Scientific Investigation at the University.

At the University Monday evening, Prof. Downing, the latest addition to the faculty of that institution, delivered his inaugural address, choosing for his subject "the education of an electrical engineer." There was a fair attendance and the subject was very ably handled.

On introducing the lecturer, Dr. Harrison said that Professor Downing was a man who did with all his might whatsoever his hands found to do. Before his appointment the merit of his researches in electricity had received recognition. An account of his special work in the laboratory of the Polytechnic institute at Brooklyn had been published in a new periodical called the Physical Review. Since coming to Fredericton Mr. Downing had made the acquaintance of the directors and employes of the Fredericton electric lighting company, who kindly promised him free access to their electrical plant in teaching his classes in electricity. In the new university calendar, which will be issued in a few days, Prof. Downing had inserted a regular course in electrical engineering. Diplomas will be granted to students completing the course.

Prof. Downing then spoke for thirty minutes, treating his subject in a clear, incisive and striking style, but as no brief digest would do the matter justice, we propose awaiting the opportunity of publishing the lecture in full.

A discussion followed the delivery of the lecture, and among the speakers was Wm. McGinn, engineer at the Fredericton electric light station. He said he had listened to Prof. Downing's address with much interest, and that as a practical electrician he could give those present some information with regard to the working of the new central electric lighting station. He then proceeded to explain in a very clear manner the construction of a dynamo, pointing out the principal parts and explaining the special function of each part. He showed briefly the distinguishing features of continuous and alternating current dynamos. In conclusion he stated that he would be always glad to see Professor Downing and his class at the central lighting station, and give them all the practical information in his power with regard to the details of the plant there, as a supplement to the theoretical instruction given in the lecture room.

Prof. Dixon, while praising the lecture, said it must not be forgotten that it was due to the organizing ability and enthusiasm of Prof. Duff, that our physical department was so splendidly equipped, making the teaching of experimental physics a possibility in the university.

This brought Dr. Bailey to his feet later in the discussion, who said he arose to correct what seemed to be the general impression, viz: that till Prof. Duff had re-organized the physical department in the university there had been no practical scientific work done at the university. That was an entire mistake, because he himself had during his entire career as a lecturer at the university, put the students through a pratical course in electricity. When first he came to Fredericton, practically nothing was known of the subject, and he had seen the course of its development with interest. He described how, in conjunction with the late John Babbitt he had worked the first telephone in the city. He regretted that he was no longer a young man, and could not reasonably hope to keep pace with the developments of the science.

Geo. F. Gregory also spoke briefly.

Taylor's residence, his daughter Lilian M., was wedded to James Gilchrist, of Bloomfield, Kings Co. At the latter ceremony the groom was supported by the bride's brother, Charles Taylor, and Miss Phœbe Burpee acted as bridesmaid. The bride looked charming in a pretty travelling dress of blue serge, with hat to match. After the ceremony, which was performed by the rev. A D. McCully, the bride and groom left for St. John by the steamer David Weston, followed by lots of good wishes.

Clearness of Letter Press Copies.

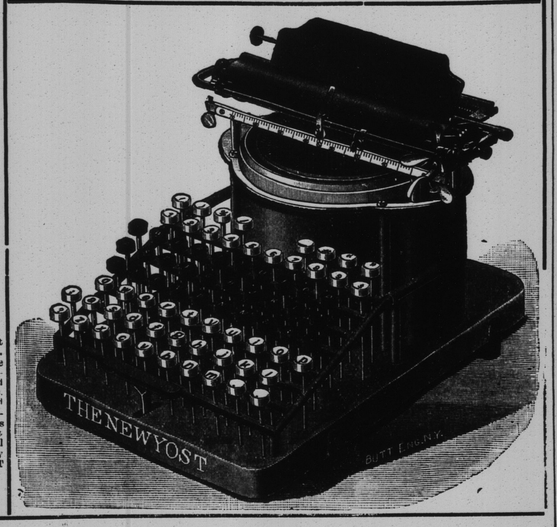
THIS is what ails them: The Fear of Change, which Milton says used to perplex monarchs when they saw a long tailed comet in the sky. The Change is Here; not heralded by a comet but by the New Yost, the perfect writing machine.



THE history of the introduction of the Yost has been marvellous since its very inception. Never did a full blooded newcomer so rapidly replace its established rivals. Its long awaited improvements, it were, gave it a hearty welcome, and to-day its flowing is world-wide and enthusiastic. Thousands of operators have tried and preferred it, and thousands others—who lack the courage of their convictions—stick to the old machines from force of habit only—already acknowledge it as THE typewriter. And all of this wonderful success of the past has been won with the early model of the Yost, upon which the NEW YOST is a vast step in advance.

The New Yost combines the life long experience of the Inventor, G. W. N. Yost, who invented the "Remington" in 1873, the "Caligraph" in 1880 and the "Yost" in 1889; the latest and best improvements have been added during 1892, making the New Yost an ideal, perfect typewriter. The New Yost prints direct from steel type; its work is never blurred but is clean cut and beautiful. The alignment is absolutely perfect and permanent. The paper feed is an ideal success, the best ever applied to a typewriter. The line spacing absolutely perfect.

CIVIC WATER DEPARTMENT.

Annual Report of Supt. Burchill—Statement of Income and Expenditure.

Supt. Burchill, of the water works department, submitted his report for the year ending Oct. 31st, 1893, to the city council Tuesday evening, and from it we make the most interesting portions:

There were 775 feet of four inch pipe laid on York street, extending from Needham street to the C. R. railway station. Total length of main pipes laid to date, ten miles 1914 feet.

There were twenty-two new services laid this year, and ten old ones re-laid.

There have been twenty-six new brick gate boxes built, and one hundred new iron service boxes set to replace rotten wooden ones.

The main pipe on Waterloo Row has been re-laid to the depth of seven feet from the top of pipe to the surface of the ground for a distance of 600 feet from Shore street to near the residence of Jas. R. Howie, and on King street from the junction of King and Queen streets to No. 3 Hose station, a distance of 1200 feet, and from Regent street to near the residence of Mrs. Henry Torrens, a distance of almost 500 feet.

The repairs to sewers have not been great, but the repairs to drains have been serious, particularly on Victoria Lane, where the pipes continued to burst long after they were thawed out, which would appear to indicate that the quality of the pipes was defective. The whole pipe system is now in good working order.

The Northey pumps have been placed in position. They are capable of doing, and have done, good work; as auxiliary to the Holly pumps they give good satisfaction. The engineers report the machinery, etc., in good working order.

SUICIDED.—Timothy Holland, 30, of Fredericton, committed suicide in the Moncton almshouse last Saturday by cutting his throat with a razor. He was fatally ill with consumption and despondent.

The Amende Honorable.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Certain statements having been made by me, on the morning of the recent fire in St. Marys, charging William Atkinson with a criminal knowledge of how the fire occurred, and accusing him of having his furniture, etc., all packed up and ready to move out, which statements were untrue and reflected unjustly upon the character of Mr. Atkinson and did him an injury, I hereby state that it was not my intention to charge Mr. Atkinson with setting said fire or having any knowledge thereof whatever, or being in any way, directly or indirectly, connected therewith; and I further retract said statements so made by me, and express my regret to Mr. Atkinson for having used the same, and so unconsciously done him an injury. And I authorize Mr. Atkinson to make what use he may chose of this statement.

Dated this tenth day of November, A. D. 1893.

(Signed) THOMAS BIDEN.

The above retraction and apology was made and subscribed to by the said Thomas Biden in my presence.
