THE EARTHQUAKE.—What was said to be an earthquake startled the people of Prince William and Kingsclear on Wednesday night. It is thought, however, to have been occasioned by the sudden lifting of the ice by the increase of water due to Monday's rain. No damage was done.

Miss Hooper, retained Missionary, has assisted at some of the services.

RUNAWAY.—A runaway took place on Queen street on Monday night, and was particularly interesting to the spectators, if not to Messrs. Governor Russell will be welcomed, and as many of his friends as he may wish to bring.

THANKS.

W. G. T. U. Grateful for Favours Received. The officers and members of the W. G. T. U. desire to express their gratitude to the citizens of Fredericton for the hearty response to their appeal in behalf of the children; they would like to personally thank their generous friends, but as that is impossible, beg leave thus publicly to state their indebtedness to a few.

For cash, Burton Foster, $10; Geo. E. Fenety, $5; Edward Wilcox, $5; Judge Fraser, $5; Albert Gregory, $2; Rev. W. Macdonald, $1.

For turkeys, pies and confectionery, The Messrs. Edgewcombe, Mr. Morrison, Mr. Kitchen, J. J. Weddall, Jan. McMurray, Dr. Foreman, Geo. E. Fenety, Wilcox, Guiton, C. H. Miller, Messrs. Tibbitt and McCann, St. Mary, D. I. Babbitt, W. H. Vanwert, G. T. Whelpley, W. R. Loggan, and Frank Merritt.

Of the host of women who gave liberally of their abundance, and those who devoted time and toil to prepare and distribute their gifts, we have not time or space to mention, "their record is on high." We are grateful to the carriers who dissected, and made available for the children's use, the well cooked turkeys so liberally donated; and especially to Daniel Tobin, for his assistance in putting up tables, and moving crockery ware, and to Mrs. Davis who cheerfully drove round collecting baskets to supply them.

J. L. SAMSON, Rec. Sec. W. G. T. U.

No Truth in It.

An item in the St. John Globe of Tuesday last respecting the firm of John Edgewcombe & Sons, carrying builders of this city, is such a misstatement of facts and has such an injurious tendency that it calls for contradiction. Many statements in that journal, from the same pen, are just as unreliable, but as the source is known here, no reliance is placed on them. In this case, however, the matter is different, as this extensive carriage building firm, having business connections all over the province, may suffer. The fact is, that as is their custom at this season, the firm have closed down for a few days for stock taking and general repairs to machinery, etc. There is no trouble respecting a settlement of the estate, nor of difficulty of any kind, financial or otherwise, respecting the standing in your courts of the firm. One thing which business men of this city have to fight against is such rash and untruthful statements as the Globe item referred to; and those journals who have accepted the article in good faith would confer a kindness by publishing a denial of it.

The Insurance Case.

The Globe says the case of C. B. Walton and Dr. E. C. Randall, now awaiting sentence in St. John, for conspiracy to defraud an American insurance company, will be appealed to the supreme court at Fredericton. After hearing the counsel for the prisoners attorney general Blair issued his final report on the case. As soon as the writ of error will be given to Judge Peters, who tried the prisoners. It will then become his duty to report to the supreme court copies of all the proceedings in the case. When this has been done the counsel for the prisoners will file their list of errors, on which the appeal case will be tried at the next session of the court. Sentence of the prisoners will likely be deferred till the appeal case has been decided.

Strange Visitant.

A village, a few miles below Fredericton Junction, has been considerably excited of late over what is considered a supernatural appearance. The story goes that a farmers family were sitting at the table after supper when the door opened and a large dog with eyes glowing like electric lights and one foot very much larger than the others walked into the room. All attempts to drive the intruder out being futile a clergyman was sent for who came and exorcised the strange visitant which at the beginning of the prayer struck out the door as quietly as it had entered. A gun was then got and although discharged at his dog's point blank range, not a hair was turned. It has visited other homes and is creating much talk. Many suppose it is a Satanic majesty and various quotations from scripture are given to show that his conduct is not out of the usual order of things.

New Years.

As the festive day came on Sunday last, all promised themselves a day of pleasure on Monday, but alas, the rain came down in torrents and the most ardent were glad to remain by the fire and beneath shelter. It appeared for a time as though the ice would do, but through the river raised so that crossing was had on the shores, no damage was done. It was the most quiet New Year's celebration ever known here. Several bands of calisthampians tried to dispel the gloom, but after a drive round the city and St. Mary's, they were glad to throw aside their bedraggled uniforms and seek a more congenial scene. It was a dull day for the living men.

Provincial Farmers.

The provincial association of farmers and dairymen will hold their annual meeting at the city council chamber in this city on the 28th inst. There will be several important papers read and much interesting discussion on topics connected with the farm. As many of the farmers of central New Brunswick are just now much interested in silos and ensilage, they should attend this meeting where they will be able to get some very valuable information on these and similar topics. Last session was very successful and it is expected this will be more so.

To Salmon Rock.

The residents of Petterville, Queens Co. are discussing the opening of a road which may be designated as the continuation of the highway from Bayard bridge to Salmon Rock. It is only a distance of three miles and is easy to build there being only a few small brooks to cross and no hills of any size. The road will save many of the farmers a drive of six or seven miles on the road to St. John and will give them close contact with the city and other points of Kings county. It has been pushed out and used as a winter road for years and will be a great convenience at a trifling cost.

Horse Racing.

On Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons there was much horse racing on the river between the bridges. Honors appeared easy for the little dapple grey champion, Dred, and several others showed some fast spurs. At one time there were fifty or one hundred horses on the ice, a few being attached to covered buggies which appeared to need a centre board badly as they "fell off" quite dangerously at times. Those who thought that the city was devoid of fast horses, must have changed their minds since the display of this week.

To His Memory.—A movement is on foot among the clergy and laity of the church of England to erect a substantial and handsome memorial of some kind to the late Mr. J. C. Gilman.

Many are of the opinion that will take the form of a brass placed in the wall of the east in the neighborhood of the site will be the endowment. Very memorial canon. The erva at the cathedral, and in the diocese under the necessary sum is CALLED HOME.

Vacant Chairs in Many Homes Mark the New Year. On Sunday last, Wm. A. Fraser of Pokok, died at a very old age. He was the father of Mrs. Wesley Barker of this city.

On the 28th ult., Mrs. Duncan Bird of Birton, died after a short illness. Deceased leaves a husband and six children. The surviving family and relative have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

John Brown, one of the oldest residents of this city, died on Sunday morning last, after an illness of months. As a blacksmith he had more than a provincial reputation, especially with respect to axe making.

Mrs. Elizabeth Adams, who has been seriously ill for some time, passed quietly away on Tuesday morning. Her funeral, which was largely attended, took place on Thursday morning. Deceased was the mother of undertaker Adams, and was a lady who had the respect and esteem of a large circle of friends.

Miss Mary Morris, formerly of Kenilwood, died at the Sacred Heart Convent, Moncton, where she was known as Sister M. Cleopas, on Wednesday evening last, after an illness of months. She was in her fifty-second year and has been with the Sisters of Charity for the past thirty years. Many of the older residents of the parish of Bright remember her well.

Popular Weddings Which Usher in the New Year. The Rev. T. G. Johnston solemnized the marriage at Blackville, on the 28th ult., of W. A. Wilson, M. D., of Derby, to Miss Jennie Erice Murdoch, of Millerton.

Chas. H. Hanson, of this city, and Miss Minnie G. Dobson, were married on the 4th inst., at the residence of the bride's parents, Clifton, Kings Co., by the Rev. G. B. Payson.

At Woodstock, on the 27th ult., the Rev. R. S. Crisp solemnized the marriage of Wallace N. Smith to Maria F., daughter of John Jarvis. The contracting parties belonged to Canterbury, and are agriculturists.

Holland Boone, of St. Mary, and Miss Annie Blaine, of this city, were married on Wednesday evening, the 4th inst., at St. Ann's church, by the Rev. G. G. Roberts. They have many friends on both sides of the river who wish them success in their new life.

Marysville News.

Miss Hooper, returned missionary, has held several meetings at the Reformed Baptist Church, Marysville, since her return. Geo. Gifford, foreman of the machine shop at the cotton mill, was presented with a handsome tilting ice pitcher by the help of his department.

John Barker was among the lucky ones at Christmas as the young ladies of the town presented him with a handsome silver tea service.

The growth of the Methodist church under the labors of the Rev. W. Lodge, has been phenomenal and each Sabbath sees many candidates taken into church fellowship.

One of the features of the business meeting of the F. C. B. church on Tuesday evening was the resignation of the clerkship of the church by Allen Hovey, who has filled the position honorably and well for thirty-five years. Although against the wishes of the congregation yet Mr. Hovey thought that a younger man could fill the position with more benefit to the church.

Gibson and St. Mary's.

Two Indian funerals was one of the features of the week. William Rice, of Mouth of Nashwaak, captured a large bear during the week and sold the carcass to one of the village butchers.

A series of monthly concerts will be given at the church hall, Gibson, by the congregation of the Episcopal church at that place, similar to those of last year. The tea meeting and social at the church on Wednesday evening under the auspices of the ladies of the Gibson Methodist church was successful though the attendance was not large as it should have been.

At the coming convention measures will be presented looking towards a consolidation of the liberal organizations of the two counties.

NONE LIKE PRICE.—H. Price Webber, with the Boston comedy company, has been playing large audiences at the city hall each night of the week. To-night he puts on the boards the popular play, Ten Nights in a Bar Room. No one in the house takes this city like Price and his talented wife, Miss Edna Grey. All should attend to-night and witness his presentation of the great temperance drama Monday evening when he will be last appearance here this season, when Maud's Peril will be presented.

NEAT CALENDERS.—Very neat and concise calendars have been received from the Colonial Printing and Publishing Co. of British Columbia, and from the office of the Eastern Chronicle, New Glasgow. The work reflects credit on the management of these go-ahead business firms, and we return thanks for the favors. In Cornwall, general agent for the province, has presented to the city council, has forwarded us his calendar for 1893. This company announces that it is the oldest purely firm company in the world.

PAY THE ALDERMEN.—To-night a special meeting of the city council will be held at which it is proposed to present a resolution granting pay to the aldermen for their services. No doubt the ratifiers of the city will be unanimous in urging the council to pass the bill at the shortest possible notice. It would be considered a wise move if the present aldermen have become tired and wish a stimulant in the shape of pay that they retire and take a rest. No doubt someone will be willing to serve the city gratis.

RETURNING OFFICERS.—The following returning officers for civic elections were appointed at last meeting of the city council: For mayor's election—At city hall, G. H. Parker and J. A. Turner; court house, H. C. Butler and S. A. Purdie. For aldermen's election—Wellington ward, G. H. Parker and J. A. Turner; court house, H. C. Butler and S. A. Purdie; Queens, A. J. McLoughlin; St. Ann's, W. H. Yanwar and R. H. Boone; Carleton, J. R. Payne and S. R. Perke; Queens, A. J. McLoughlin and S. A. Purdie; Kings, D. B. Barker and Peter Haining.

DR. LINN, the surgeon dentist, saves many teeth by transplanting, which would otherwise be lost. Nitrous oxide gas administered for painless extraction of teeth. Dental parlours next door to Lemon & Sons, Queen street.
