

JUDGE BARKER.
Judge Barker must be more than pleased with his reception in Fredericton. The local bar, the grand jury and the Attorney General, speaking as the head of the provincial bar, all addressed him in warm, congratulatory language, and his honours and replies were conceived and expressed in a spirit which showed him deeply sensitive to the compliments paid him. It is unfortunate for the fair fame of this county, that the first case Judge Barker is called upon to try here is for the worst crime in the calendar, but happily such cases are a rarity in this community. Regarding his honor's career, Fredericton people take some satisfaction in knowing that he received the finishing touches of his education, both in arts and law, in this city, and that although not a native of Fredericton, he is a neighbor's son, having been born at Sheffield, Sunbury county, a little village that has furnished a large quota of eminent public and professional men to the province. Judge Barker has already made an excellent impression in his new position, and the Herald joins with his friends in bidding him a cordial welcome to Fredericton, and wishing him many useful and happy years on the bench, for which he is so eminently qualified.

MR. TWEDDIE HAS A SAY.
Speaking at a social reunion at Chatham the other night, Mr. L. J. Tweddie, surveyor general, touched upon the policy of his government in reference to the crown lands, and predicted that a few years hence, everybody would endorse it as the best possible one in the interests of the province. It would tend to the preservation of the timber, and the crown lands would be more valuable at the expiration of the licenses than they are now. He had the best officers department in Canada, and gave his subordinates credit for the good work they had done. The government had imposed taxes, but they were necessary to meet calls upon the treasury that were entailed by new settlements, etc. The province got the benefit of the expenditure. He expected to be endorsed at the next election—perhaps not unanimously, but by a two to one vote, which would satisfy him.

Rev. Dr. Wilson, of St. John, chose an unpopular subject when he selected Imperial Federation as a topic for his University address, Tuesday evening. The rev. gentleman is an enthusiast on the question, and presents his arguments in an eloquent way, but Canadians generally regard Imperial Federation as a fad, which can be buried out of sight none too soon. The bent of Canadian minds is in quite a different direction.

It is sad to reflect, that while the population of Canada is growing so slowly, Canadians continue to rush into the United States in large numbers. In Boston alone, there are 38,294 Canadian residents, a number equal to the population of the entire city of St. John.

The Westmorland county council has declined to endorse the resolution sent by the York county, condemning certain recent provincial legislation, thereby administering a well deserved snub to the sore heads who run municipal affairs in this county at present.

The three young bloods who were caught in an attempt to blow up the Nelson monument at Montreal, have escaped with a fine of $25 each. Had they been sons of poor men, they would probably have been sent to the penitentiary.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has been snubbed by his own friends in the Senate. He nominated a gentleman bearing the euphonious name of Hornblower for a seat on the Supreme Court bench, but the Senate refused confirmation.

The Outlets Trip.

While the Fredericton curlers in their trip to St. Stephen and St. John this week had very poor luck, they enjoyed their selves immensely, receiving every courtesy from their brethren of the "stane and besom." At St. Stephen they played Wednesday night, and won, winning the game by one point. The score by rinks was as follows:

ST. STEPHEN.	ST. STEPHEN.
Grievs.....13	Gilmore.....28
Rutter.....18	Grant.....17
Neill.....19	Todd.....14
Totals.....71	70

JAN. 18.—The store of James S. Farley had a narrow escape from being burned on Tuesday morning of this week. Just after rising Mr. Farley saw that the roof of the building was all ablaze. The hired help and a number of workmen, who fortunately remained at his dwelling house, were immediately summoned, and after a hard fight succeeded in extinguishing the flames, but not before the store had been destroyed. It is supposed that the fire originated from a tent that had been accidentally pushed against the stove pipe. Had the building burned the loss would have been a heavy one as there was no insurance.

THE DEATH ROLL.
A Great Number of Old People Have Passed Away During the Week.
The grim reaper whose name is Death, has been busy in Fredericton during the past week, especially among the older residents. La grippe is very prevalent, and is very hard on old age. There is scarcely a house in the city today but what has one of its inmates ill from this disease. The deaths since the last issue of THE HERALD include the following:
Mrs. J. J. Mayer, mother-in-law of Geo. T. Whaley, died at his residence shortly after noon on Saturday last. Deceased had been ill only a few days, and her death was unexpected. She had reached the ripe old age of seventy years. The funeral took place Monday afternoon, with services at the Cathedral. Mrs. Mayer belonged to Queens county, but had lived with Mr. Whaley for some years.
About the same hour that Mrs. Mayer died, saw the dissolution of Mrs. James Wallace, George street, at the age of eighty-two years. The deceased was mother of Mrs. R. C. Macrele, and had been in fair health up to within a few days of her death. The funeral took place Monday afternoon, Rev. R. W. Weddall conducting the services.
Mrs. James Ashfield, grandmother of Arthur A. Shute, died at the latter's home Saturday afternoon, after only three days' illness. The deceased was born in Londonderry, Ireland, in 1797, and had nearly completed her ninety-seventh year. Her husband was a builder and contractor in this city very many years ago and she only had one child, the first wife of the late S. F. Shute, and died nearly twenty years ago. Mrs. Ashfield's funeral took place Tuesday afternoon, with services at the Cathedral. Another lady who had reached a great age was Mrs. Ann Williams whose death occurred Wednesday. She was the relict of the late Edward Williams, a well known resident of Fredericton, and mother of Alexander Burchill. A son Edward Williams, lives at Woodstock, and there is another in the United States. Mrs. Williams died at the age of eighty-nine years. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon from Mr. Burchill's residence, Queen street.

Andrew C. Black, son of the late Hon. William Black, died at Robert Wied's residence Monday morning, quite suddenly. He was the last surviving member of his family and was seventy-eight years old. He was by profession a lawyer, but had not practised for many years, having become almost totally deaf. The funeral took place from the residence of his nephew, John Black, Thursday morning, interment being made at Kingsport.
Mrs. John Brown, a well known and respected colored woman, died on Tuesday, aged 78 years.
Seldom, if ever, in so short a space of time, have so many very old people died in this city as have passed away during the past week, as noted above, and the average age of the deceased reaches a high figure.
Mrs. Annfield.....36
Mrs. Williams.....37
Mrs. Mayer.....72
Mr. Black.....78
Mrs. Brown.....78
Total.....300 years.
