

NEWS ABOUT TOWN

Social, Personal and General Occurrences of the Week.

CRISP AND TO THE POINT.

Dr. Torrens is visiting Boston. Mrs. A. G. Beckwith is in New York. The supreme court en banc opens here Nov. 6th.

The river has risen five feet within the past week. Mayor and Mrs. Beckwith are visiting friends in New York.

Rev. Dr. Brecken will occupy the Methodist church pulpit at Woodstock tomorrow. Miss Florrie Poyne went to St. John yesterday probably to remain for some time.

Dr. VanWart and his bride returned Saturday afternoon from their bridal tour to New York, Philadelphia and Washington. Wesley VanWart left today for Montreal to meet his wife who is returning from her western trip.

The Leighton Stock Company, a very strong musical combination, will appear in the city hall Oct. 30th and 31st. Reserved seats at Fenety's.

C. E. McCulloch, of this city, is entered for the 50 yds, 220 yds, and 120 yds hurdle races, and the high and broad jumps in the Singer rink sports at St. John.

The grand jury at the Carleton circuit court this week presented Judge VanWart with a complimentary address, to which His Honor made a happy reply.

Jarvis S. Law has been gazetted a Justice of the Peace and a Commissioner of the parish of Canterbury Civil Court, in room of Stephen G. Fowler, resigned.

The balance of the jewelry and plated ware belonging to the estate of J. McKiligan, York street, will be sold at auction to-night. Come and get bargains.

The shop fixtures in the store lately occupied by Jas. McKiligan on York street, including safe, show cases, stock desk, etc., will be sold at auction at 10.30 on Monday.

The Frederickton football team have applied for admission to the New Brunswick league, and the matter will be discussed at the executive's meeting at Moncton to-day.

The Kingsclear Fair.

The annual fair of the Kingsclear agricultural society took place on the society's grounds at Kingsclear on Wednesday. The attendance was small in comparison with former years, owing no doubt to the bad state of the weather.

Mr. Fenety's enterprise in securing T. D. Sullivan, the celebrated Irish M. P., to lecture in this city Nov. 7th, will doubtless be rewarded with full houses.

Two tramps are under arrest at St. Stephen and people think this prisoner may know something about the Maryville burglary.

Dr. VanWart and his bride returned Saturday afternoon from their bridal tour to New York, Philadelphia and Washington.

Wesley VanWart left today for Montreal to meet his wife who is returning from her western trip. They will be home Wednesday.

AROUND THE WORLD.

The News of the World in Brief - The Cream of our Exchanges.

A $250,000 Masonic temple is to be erected in Toronto. Hon. A. D. Richard of Dorchester has been created a Q. C.

The Grand Division, Sons of Temperance, will meet in annual session at Sussex Oct. 31st. Hon. Mr. Mercier is still at Notre Dame hospital, Montreal.

John Kehoe, a life convict at St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary, committed suicide Tuesday by swallowing a large quantity of tobacco juice.

Russell the tramp who unlawfully procured a young girl named Crawford near St. John, has been sent to Dorchester Penitentiary for five years.

Joseph Heine the blind violinist who recently appeared in Fredericton was stricken with paralysis at St. Stephen Sunday, and is critically ill.

Twenty hundred dollars worth of diamonds stolen from Mrs. Fuller, wife of the Chief Justice of the United States, five years ago, has been returned.

Arthur E. Smith, completed his second long trip on a bicycle from Chicago to New York, Tuesday evening, covering the thousand miles in 7 days, 12 hours and 35 minutes.

Paul Michaud of St. Leonard's, Madawaska, was drowned Tuesday night by the swamping of a small boat in which he was trying to cross the St. John river.

Senator Road of Belleville, who is in his eightieth year, is visiting the St. John's church Ottawa, Tuesday, to Mr. Waterman aged 62. Hon. Mackenzie Bowell was best man.

Worth and Boyd, two prisoners convicted in the Carleton circuit court of rape, have been respectively sentenced by Judge VanWart to three and fifteen years in Dorchester penitentiary.

The students of McGill College made a record as footballers on Saturday afternoon. The college has three teams and they were all engaged and each was victorious over their opponents.

A C. P. R. newsboy named Patterson was blown off the train crossing the St. Lawrence bridge near Montreal, but stuck fast to the girders, did not fall into the river, and escaped unhurt.

Hon. J. C. Patterson, minister of the militia, left for the maritime provinces Wednesday afternoon, to inspect all properties administered by his department including the military barracks in Fredericton.

The express car on a Southern Pacific train was robbed of $50,000 by two men Monday near Sacramento, Cal. The robbers mounted the engine and rode off after securing the "swag" leaving the engineer and freeman behind.

Capt. Howard, of Gatling gun fame, who runs a lobster factory on the Labrador coast, went out on a fishing smack with his son on the eve of the big storm last week, and has not since been heard from. It is feared he is lost.

Joseph Robinson, of Mountain Township, Ont., sold some oats in Winchester, and after going home, went to the stable to feed the cows. A roll of bills containing $80, fell out of his pocket, and one of the cows swallowed $40 before he discovered his loss.

R. Keltie Jones, eldest son of Simson Jones, and Miss Edith Cushing, daughter of the late Byron Cushing, were married at St. Andrew's church, St. John, Thursday evening. The wedding was a very swell affair, both the principals being popular and in "social" demand.

At Prescott, Ontario, Tuesday, while sweeping the house Miss Maggie Lepreux moved a loaded gun standing in the corner of a room. The trigger caught her dress and the gun was discharged, blowing her five-year old brother dead and killing her hand.

Sir John Thompson unveiled the statue to Sir John A. Macdonald at Toronto, Saturday, delivering an eloquent address and the other speakers included Bowell, Tupper, and Caron of the Ottawa cabinet and Ross, Ontario's minister of education. There were 30,000 present.

W. B. Elmhurst, president of the St. Lawrence sugar refinery, and one of the wealthiest men in Montreal, suicided by shooting Saturday while insane. He dropped $200,000 in stock speculations last summer, and his heavy loss preyed upon his mind until it became unbalanced.

At Elizabeth, N. J., Mrs. Thos. Hagan, aged 35 years, took her three children, aged five years and three years and six months, and huddled them close to her in the haymow and set fire to the hay. The mother and children were burned to death and the charred bodies of all four were found in the ruins.

Hon. Mr. Laurier and party arrived in Winnipeg Monday night after an absence of six weeks in British Columbia, the Territories and Northern Manitoba. The leader, though somewhat fatigued by the activities of his great educational campaign in the west, looks and feels better than he has for many a day.

On the night of April 28 Montgomery Gibbs, a young lawyer, was found bleeding and dying on Delaware avenue, Buffalo. The tragedy remained a mystery until Tuesday, when a woman named Robinson, who was arrested for another crime, confessed that her husband shot the man because he resisted when they were attempting to rob him.

By the breaking of an axle of a car on freight train, bound from Chicago to the Eastern States, Sunday evening, 300 hogs met their death. The train was made up of 26 cars, in nine of which were 735 hogs. The axle broke on one of the front cars, the cars behind piled on the front cars, and there was a terrible slaughter. The noise from the injured and frightened animals was terrific.

Augustus W. Peters brother of Mrs. F. A. H. Steaton of this city is in the Democratic candidate for President of the New York Board of Aldermen, and his opponent is John Jerolomon. The New York Sun in sizing the gentlemen up, remarks that Mr. Peters, who is a Wall street man, is known among politicians on account of his luxuriant mustaches. Mr. Jerolomon, who is a lawyer, is known among politicians by his sideboard whiskers, which are the envy of the whole east side.
