Vandalism.

When Roadmaster McKay and his men had about completed the ashphalt crossing in front of Jas. Hodge's store, Wednesday, Ald. Macpherson came along with his team and insisted on going over. The Roadmaster warned him not to do it, but he never stopped till one of the men grabbed the horse's head, and while the animal executed a jig on the soft ashphalt, the crossing was considerably torn up by his hoofs. Ald. Macpherson was very mad that he should be obstructed, but his indignation was not a patch to that felt by the citizens who observed his conduct. An alderman above everybody else should protect the city property instead of destroying it. It took the Roadmaster and his men some time to repair the damage to the crossing.

A Doctor Will Wed.

Among approaching matrimonial events, one in which a popular and successful young physician of this city is to be a principal, is talked of in social circles. The bride lives in the county of Kings, but is not unknown in Fredericton, and will be very cordially received when she takes up her residence here a month hence. The ceremony will be performed at Apohoqui next Thursday, and the bride and groom will make their honeymoon trip in the United States, visiting Boston, New York, Philadelphia and Washington, and on their return will keep house on King street, where the brfdegroom already has a residence. Very few of the Doctor's friends were aware that he entertained matrimonial intentions until within the past week the secret leaked out, and many are the congratulations he has already received.

THE HERALD keeps pretty well posted in news of this character, and now that the event is so near, we have no objection in stating that the first letter of the young physician's name is VanWart, and that his prospective bride is Miss Fenwick.

KEARSAGE STOCK GOES UP.

McConnell's Nellie G. Makes a Record at Calais.

Fredericton horsemen were pleased with the news that came from the St. Stephen races Wednesday evening, for it brought tidings of a great victory for Nellie G., the Kearsage mare reared by Alex. Gibson, jr., of Marysville, and now the property of John R. McConnell. Nellie G. had trotted in the St. Stephen races last week, but was not a winner. It is stated, however, that she was timed in one heat at 2.28, and her Calais record of Wednesday is not up to that. She trotted in the three minute class against J. O. C., Monte Mack, and Alice B. There were four heats, J. O. C. winning the first in 2.30½, but Nellie G. took the next three and the race, time 2.28¼, 2.30 and 2.32. The Telegraph's report says that after the first heat the crowd intimated that Nellie G. could do better, which proved correct, for she led from start to finish in three succeeding heats, jogging easily under the wire each time. Nellie G. was driven by John McCoy. Mr. McConnell bought her only the other day from Mayor Gibson for $300, but her value is probably doubled since her Calais performance.

The man who was most delighted by the mare's victory outside of her owner, was John H. Reid, the veteran Fredericton sport, and the owner of Nellie G.'s sire. Mr. Reid swears by Kearsage stock, when he swears at all, and to a knot of friends on the street Wednesday evening, he extolled Kearsage virtues. He thought Mr. Gibson made a mistake in selling Nellie G. so cheap. He should have seen the mare through. Her Calais record made her worth at least $1500, and perhaps more. "Where are the Wilkes' now?" enthusiastically enquired Mr. Reid. "One of them, Katrina, has a record of 2.25¼," broke in Hans Hawthorn, who is enough of a sport to like a good horse race and to know something of trotting records. "Ha," replied John H., "but Katrina couldn't do it again." It may be here explained without prejudice to John H. and Kearsage, that Katrina's record was got when she was only four years old. Nellie G. has turned six, but nevertheless Fredericton and Marysville are proud of the latter's Calais victory.

A WELCOME MEETING.

Striking Programme at the W. C. T. Union Services Last Night.

The Maritime W. C. T. Union now in session in this city, held a welcome meeting at St. Paul's church last night, and the church was crowded to the doors. Mrs. Archibald, the president of Cape Breton, presided, and on the platform beside her were His Honor the Lieut. Governor, Mrs. A. F. Randolph, Mayor Beckwith, Rev. Willard Macdonald and Rev. Dr. McLeod. The musical services were rendered by the choir of the church, assisted by Mrs. H. S. Bridges and Mrs. John Black. Mrs. Black sang a solo, "The Holy City," with splendid effect, and there was a quartette by Mrs. Bridges, Mrs. O. S. Crocket, H. V. Bridges and L. C. Macnutt. The programme included addresses by Governor Fraser, Rev. Willard Macdonald, Mrs. Randolph, Dr. Harrison, Mayor Beckwith, Rev. Dr. McLeod and H. C. Creed, and Mrs. Jones, of Wolfville, replied for the Union. We publish elsewhere the address of Rev. Mr. Macdonald. All the addresses were spirited and well delivered, and the meeting was a very successful one. This evening the Union will meet in the Baptist church, and Monday evening in the Methodist church, special programmes having been arranged for each occasion.

Wedding at St. Marys.

The marriage of Miss Sarah H. McFarlane, daughter of Walter McFarlane, of St. Marys, and Robert B. Adams, of this city, was solemnized by the Rev. Willard Macdonald, at the bride's home, Thursday evening, before one hundred guests, very many of them immediate relatives of the bride and groom. Mr. McFarlane's handsome residence was ablaze with light, and the parlors were beautifully decorated with flowers. The bride, who is a pretty and popular young lady, was unattended, and wore an elegant costume of cream cashmere with cream moire and lace trimmings. The ceremony over, the guests sat down to an elaborate supper, and a very pleasant evening was spent by all present. The F. O. M. W. club orchestra was present and played a fine program of music, and dancing was indulged in by some of the guests. It was after midnight when the guests departed from one of the prettiest weddings of the season. Mr. and Mrs. Adams came directly to their home at Court House square in this city, and many good wishes are extended to them in their new relations. The bride's presents were varied and beautiful, testifying to the high esteem in which she is held by her friends. THE HERALD extends its felicitations.

The Reform Carried.

The vote on the proposed changes in the Fredericton civic charter was enrolled Tuesday and resulted in an overwhelming majority for reform. It is true the vote polled was a small one, but the result shows the unmistakeable feeling of the citizens and is quite adequate to the purpose. The changes proposed were that the citizens qualified to vote shall in all future civic elections have the right to vote for all the aldermen instead of only those running for the ward in which the voter resides; that the mayoralty and aldermanic elections shall be held on the same day hereafter, the second Tuesday in March, instead of January, and that the civic fiscal year shall close on December 31st instead of October 31st, as at present.

The vote of the citizens stood as follows:

	FOR	AGAINST
Division 1, City Hall.....	146	21
Division 2, Court House.....	145	19
Totals.....	291	40

Majority for Reform, 251.

Under the new law the present mayor and aldermen will hold their seats until the new election in March next.

That Church Sale.

Rev. E. Bell, of Boiestown, feels aggrieved at certain Boiestown correspondence appearing recently in THE HERALD regarding the sale of a church in that locality, and says it is calculated to do him and his work an injury. He states that he sold the church, an old and unused one, on the authority of the trustees of his congregation, and that it is to be used as a warehouse, and not as a pig pen or rum shop, as alleged by THE HERALD correspondent. From Mr. Bell's statement of the case THE HERALD does not see that he should be blamed for his part in the transaction, and if the publication of the correspondence has mistated the facts and done the Rev. gentleman an injury, THE HERALD regrets it very much. We have always understood Mr. Bell to be an active and liberal minded man, one who does his best in his ministerial labors. He says he has nothing to reproach himself for in connexion with the sale of the church, and we cheerfully publish his denials.

In Hymen's Fetters.

Checkerboard Avenue was the scene of a brilliant wedding Wednesday evening, when Melindy Hector, a popular colored lady of that locality was joined in the matrimonial bond to Mr. Wright, of St. John, Rev. G. B. Payson officiating. There were a large number of guests inside Mrs. Hector's residence, but a larger number by far viewed the ceremony from outside, and gave the young couple a very lively send off. The bride wore an elegant coustume of yellow satin trimmed with black lace, and carried a boquet of golden rod. The supper served afterwards, was recherche in all its appointments, Mrs. Hector quite outdoing herself in the culinary art. Mr. and Mrs. Wright remained over night at the Hector residence, and will live in St. John, where the bridegroom is a prominent member of the colored colony.

SANITARY CONDITION BAD.

Something About Dr. Bergin Who Condemned the Military Hospital.

Among the visitors in Fredericton Tuesday was Dr. Darby Bergin, Surgeon General of the Canadian Militia, and his trip was for the purpose of examining the sanitary condition of the military property in this city. Accompanied by Dr. Bridges, who is acting Surgeon of the R. R. C. I. during Dr. McLearn's absence, Dr. Bergin made an inspection of the property and made a wholesale condemnation of it from a sanitary point of view. There were too few beds in the hospital for the number of men in the school; the heating apparatus was bad and the ventilation imperfect, and he will recommend that a new hospital be built suitable for the purposes required here. At the barracks the drainage and general sanitary condition were found very defective. No doubt as soon as Dr. Bergin's report is made at headquarters, the order for repairs countermanded the other day, will be renewed, and if the Surgeon General's recommendations go for anything, the repairs will be much more extensive than at first anticipated. Dr. Bergin is an old member of parliament. He was first elected to the House of Commons in 1871, from Stormont and Dundas, Ontario, and sat for that constituency until 1890, when he was defeated. Like many another Conservative M. P., however, he went down with a life buoy around him, and has since enjoyed the lucrative appointment of Surgeon General of the militia. He was through the North West campaign in a similar capacity, and the liberal allowance he received from the Government chest, was afterwards the subject of considerable comment in parliament. Previous to his acceptance of his present position Dr. Bergin commanded the 59th Stormout and Glengary Batt.

Cricketers Snubbed.

The cricketers interested in the paragraph below are well known in Fredericton, especially Mr. Henry, and some of his friends are slow to believe that he is guilty of the conduct attributed to him.

A Halifax despatch says: A bitter feeling prevails in Halifax over the treatment of the Maritime cricketers who played in Toronto last week. W. A. Henry, son of the late Supreme Court Judge Henry, is one of the best cricketers in Eastern Canada and has played in the international matches in the United States and England several years. This year he was dropped. Then he organized a Maritime team to go to Toronto and play the clubs there. Mr. Henry is a "Ward McAllister," of Halifax. Certain Toronto citizens subscribed to give a supper to the Maritime cricketers and members of the International team. The invitation was given to Mr. Henry, but, while intended to include the whole team, it was only communicated to the six of the eleven members who belong to the "400." The others, Kaiser, Cahalane, Smith and Macintosh, were completely snubbed. The story, when published in Halifax, created a big sensation, and Henry's social snobbishness was universally denounced. The insulted members of the team have entered into an agreement never to play in any match in which Henry plays. The result of the row will probably be to drive Henry out of the Wanderers Club.

In reply to the above Mr. Lindsay a Toronto cricketer writes the empire in defence of Mr. Henry. He says it was he (Lindsay) who extended the invitations to the supper. The invitations were not from an official source, neither were they to the maritime team nor members of the international eleven. Only one member of the international eleven were present, the invitation being from personal friends of Mr. Henry to him and such as his personal friends as he might choose to bring with him. Mr. Henry is in Philadelphia and has not yet told his side of the story.

Charlottetown and Halifax.

The Messrs. Edgecombe and Sons, with their usual enterprise, have forwarded extensive exhibits of their manufacture in carriages to the exhibitions at Charlottetown and Halifax next week. A. G. Edgecombe will be in charge at the former and W. J. Edgecombe at the latter place, and they have every reason to feel proud of the articles they will present to the public. At Charlottetown they will show a Concord wagon, express wagon, four wheeled dog cart, top buggy, phæton buggy, Mahogany body road wagon, canopy phæton, road wagon, natural wood road wagon, open Bangor wagon and road cart. The exhibit at Halifax will include piano box open wagon, phæeton buggy, Concord wagon, Concord wagon with dickey seat, cutunder extension top, road wagon, extension top Surrey, Gladstone, four wheeled dog cart, Lexington.

All these carriages are of first-class style and workmanship, and will reflect great credit on the enterprising firm manufacturing them.

Mr. Gilbert Dead.

When a local paper published last night that John K. Gilbert, of Sheffield, was likely to recover from his serious illness, that gentlemen had breathed his last; had in fact been dead several hours, and his son was here making the funeral arrangements with John G. Adams. The end came at noon yesterday, after quite a long illness. Mr. Gilbert was one of the most prominent residents of Sunbury, and was universally esteemed. He was sixty-eight years old. His wife was a Miss Murray, sister of Ranney Murray, of Spring Hill, and has been dead four years. The funeral will take place to-morrow at ten a.m., services by the Rev. H. E. Dibble and interment at Springhill.

St. Andrews Beacon: Miss Chrissie Stevenson and her betrothed, A. D. Wetmore, of Truro, N. S., came down from Fredericton together last week. Their wedding is announced to take place at an early date.
