

IN STRIKING CONTRAST.

When a temperance delegation interviewed Sir John Thompson last winter to learn the Government's intention with regard to the question of prohibition, the Premier put them off with a most indefinite and discouraging reply.

Princess William and Dunfermline parish Sabbath School Association will hold their fifth convention at the Prince William Presbyterian church on October 30th, afternoon and evening sessions. Afternoon session at 2 p. m., evening session at 7.30 p. m. All are cordially invited to attend.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Anassa Ferguson, Lower Mainville, York Co., was the scene of an interesting event on Wednesday last, when over fifty guests gathered to witness the marriage of their eldest daughter, Rebecca, to John Noble, a promising young farmer of the same place. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Wally, after which all present sat down to a sumptuous supper. During the evening Mrs. Wally entertained the company with some excellent music. The bride received a number of valuable presents, testifying to the esteem in which she is held by her friends. The usual chivvira was not forgotten.

THE TABLES TURNED.

Hon. D. C. Fraser, M. P., for Goyeboro, N. S., was one of the Liberal politicians who accompanied Hon. Laurier in his tour to the Northwest and British Columbia, and next to the Opposition leader was given the most cordial reception of any member of the party.

CHANGED HIS VIEWS.

The temperance views of England have been thrown into an unpleasant condition of mind by the declaration of Mr. Gladstone against local option, as we have it in Canada, the Scotch Act. In a letter to the Bishop of Chester he declared that if the Local Option Bill were to be a remedy for evils for drinking, it is little better than an impotent.
