Macdonald, has been appointed to the Executive Council at Ottawa, who is to publish the memoirs of the late Premier, Nov. 22nd, is a brother of Mrs. W. P. Mitchell of this city. Mr. Pope's book is looked forward to with great interest by all Canadians, regardless of party. He has had access to Sir John's private papers, is a clever writer, and the book must prove an intensely interesting work.

W. J. Seary, of this city, has been awarded the contract for the erection of the Salvation Army barracks, and has already commenced work. The corner stone will be laid by Governor Fraser next Thursday afternoon at four o'clock, and that evening a public service will be held by the army in the Sunday school room of the Methodist church. Special officers of the army will take part in the meeting, and subscriptions will be taken in aid of the building fund.

Speaking to the toast of the Lieut. Governor at the Campobello fish fair last week, Hon. James Mitchell said: "I have known the present Governor for many years, and those of you who know him best feel proudest of him. We have been favored in this Province with an illustrious line of governors, including the Wilnots, Charters, Tilley and the honored and lamented John Boyd, and I venture to say when Governor Fraser shall have finished his term, none will outshine him."

Timothy Sullivan, ex-Lord Mayor of Dublin, here Nov. 7th, made the opening address of his tour at Springfield, Mass. Tuesday evening, before an immense audience in Court Square theatre. Previously he was given a most cordial reception. Early in the evening every Irish society turned out with all available musical organization to escort him to the theatre. Mr. Sullivan made a very effective address, talking nearly two hours. For his lecture here, reserved seats are on sale at Fenby's.

Three young men from Toronto, Capt. Dorsey, Oliver and Lieut. Fletcher, reached here Thursday night. They came through Lake Ontario and down the St. Lawrence to River du Loup, and from Temiscouata down the St. John this way. They left yesterday morning for St. John and thence go across the bay via Digby to Halifax, to take a military course.

THE UNIVERSITY DEFEATED

By the Sackville Team at Football Yesterday.

Football is popular in Fredericton, and a goodly number of people saw the game yesterday afternoon between the U. N. B. and Sackville. Sackville won the toss and kicked the ball far into the twenty-five yard line of the U. N. B.; and there it stayed fully fifteen minutes, hovering just outside the touch-line, and despite the desperate efforts of the boys in red and black. After a series of scrimmages Markham secured the ball and gained a few yards, but it soon came back and was carried over the line. The referee gave a very doubtful try to the visitors. The ball was then kicked off from the twenty-five yard line and remained near the centre of the field during the remainder of the first half. At the call of time the U. N. B. kicked off, and for some time the ball stayed near the centre, but by a series of gradual gains, the Sackville boys worked it nearer and nearer to the College goal, and soon another try was scored. This was accomplished by rather a curious ruse. The ball was "in touch" and Hadford had the ball to throw in for Sackville. He made a motion as if to toss the ball to his left hand, but instead dashed behind the goal line himself with the ball. From that to the end the play was near the College line, but no more points were scored. Failing in each instance to kick a goal from their try, the score stood Sackville 6, U. N. B. 0.

A most unfortunate accident happened near the first of the second half, when James Tibbitts, the plucky little quarter back of the University, broke his ankle. The college team can play a better game than they put up yesterday. They did not play with the snap that usually characterizes them. Powers, the captain, worked like a Trojan and was full of grit. Malone was a whole team himself. He played his own position and seemed to always be in the right place at the right time. Tibbitts will be a great loss to the team for he is a clear grit, and no give in. He played a great game. Markham was a favorite with the crowd. He had a determined way and he worked hard and brilliantly for victory. Team work did the business for Sackville, but the U. N. B. boys have no reason to feel discouraged for Sackville's captain says they have the strongest team he has met yet.

A CANADIAN SOLDIER.

Major Buchan returns home after Spending Three Months at Aldershot.

Major Buchan, of the School of Infantry Toronto, formerly of the R. E. C. I. in Fredericton, arrived in Montreal on Sunday morning, and accorded an interview to a reporter. The gallant Major has been five months away. He went for a three months special course of work with the Imperial troops stationed at the great military camp at Aldershot. The course he took was a mixed one. He spent one month with the 1st Brigade, one month with the Scots Greys and one month with the Horse Artillery. On all these branches of the service, he had to pass an examination in order to get, when the time comes, the rank of lieutenant-colonel. One practical test is given in that examination, and that is to handle a brigade in the field, some 1,500 to 3,000 men of infantry, cavalry and artillery. This test Major Buchan came through creditably and honorably, for he not only handled his troops, but beat the foe. Of course he passed the examination with high commendation. He also went for a course at the Staff School at Sandhurst, and was equally successful there, getting an "extra" certificate. While there he had the opportunity of becoming thoroughly familiarized with the Nordenfält Maxim gun, and at Aldershot, the honor of riding on the Duke of Connaught's relief staff. During the summer manoeuvres he was attached to the staff of General Sir William Buller, who commanded the first British column. It was a pretty hard piece of soldiering; they had a fight every day, and three night engagements. Major Buchan says he has greatly benefited by his going to Aldershot, and he is strongly in favor of not only the Canadian officers but also the soldiers being sent over to some of the military centres of England. He says that he was everywhere welcomed as an officer of the Canadian Army, and he took it as a special compliment to the Dominion.

Wedding at McAdam.

The residence of T. N. Burpee was the scene of an interesting event on Wednesday, Oct. 17th, the occasion being the marriage of his daughter, Elsie E. to A. E. Williams of Toronto. The bride looked charming in a dress of fawn silk, with lace trimmings, and carried a beautiful bouquet of roses and lilies. She was attended by her little sister, Vera, who wore a dress of cream cashmere and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was assisted by T. B. Burpee, brother of the bride. The display of beautiful presents gave evidence of the esteem in which the young couple are held by their many friends. The groom's presents to his bride was a beautiful brooch with diamond settings. The bride's presents to the groom were a watch and a bracelet. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Saunders, who presided over the congregations at Manguerville, Little River and Lakeville Corner, and was indeed the bishop of Sunbury. In York, while there are thirteen churches, there are only four regularly ordained settled pastors. This he deplored, and urged the church to greater missionary effort in these inviting fields. He invited Mr. Freeman to take an interest in the quarterly meetings, and closed with expressing the wish that Dr. Saunders might remain here and take the oversight of the work in York and Sunbury.

Accident at St. Marys.

James Hughes, son of Thomas Hughes, of St. Marys, met with a serious accident last Saturday afternoon. He was breaking a bolt to a screw and in some way the animal became frightened and ran away and Hughes was thrown under the wheel, which passed over his body and head. He was taken to Victoria hospital, where his wounds were dressed by Dr. Bridges, assisted by Dr. McLearn. It took them three hours to do it. His nose is broke and there are several severe cuts and bruises about his head and neck. Now he is quite easy and his recovery looked for. Hughes took a first-class license at the Normal school last year and was valedictorian of his class.

Dominion Election Lists.

The preliminary revision of the Dominion electoral lists for York county, show an increase of 171 names over the last revision in 1901. The increases in the different places are as follows: Douglas.....210 St. Marys.....149 Marysville.....128 Fredericton.....121 Canterbury.....103 Bright.....89 Kingsclear.....81 Southampton.....65 McAdam.....45 Stanley.....42 North Lake.....35 Dumfries.....25 Manners Sutton.....11

To express the idea of poetry in the making, a lady's costume has always been the ambition of the tasteful modiste. It is a fortunate circumstance that Priestley's famous black dress goods lend themselves to the realization of this idea, for they are specially manufactured to give beauty and grace of ensemble, coupled with that which places Priestley's goods above all others—a perfect fitting and draping quality. Look for "The Varied Beauty."

Many of our readers know the worth of The Cultivator and Country Gentleman to the farmer, and to those, if there are any, who do not, we can recommend that journal as being the best agricultural paper published. There is not an issue but is worth the subscription to the farmer for the information it contains of the farm. See their terms and address on opposite page.

THE BAPTISTS HAPPY

Rev. John D. Freeman, late of Guelph, formally installed as Pastor.

A Round of Pleasant Speeches by Prominent Clergymen.

The Baptists of Fredericton have been without a regularly settled pastor ever since Rev. F. D. Crawley left here, over a year ago. During that time, however, they have enjoyed the services of Rev. E. M. Saunders, D. D. of Halifax, and strong interest in church work has been kept up through that gentleman's earnest efforts, while the congregation looked around them for a minister suitable to take their spiritual oversight. They did not adopt the usual plan of inviting candidates to preach before them, but waited for the right man to turn up. The Baptists are strong believers in Providence, and now they are agreed that that benign Sovereign has answered their prayers and sent them a suitable pastor, Rev. John D. Freeman is the new man, and he comes from Trinity church, Guelph, Ontario, where he has had a successful and useful career. He was recommended by Dr. T. H. Rand, Chancellor of McMaster college, Toronto, a former prominent member of the Baptist church here, Rev. Dr. Saunders sent up to Toronto to talk the matter over with Dr. Rand, and when he returned the call was unanimous.

Unanimously Extended to Mr. Freeman. The Baptists relied on Dr. Rand's judgment, and THE HERALD thinks they will not be disappointed. Mr. Freeman, much to the disappointment of his charge at Guelph, accepted the Fredericton call, and he is here, the settled Baptist pastor of Fredericton.

The induction exercises Thursday evening were simple but very interesting. The pretty songs, the hymns, the prayers, Rev. Dr. Saunders presided, and read a benediction on the platform were Rev. J. D. Freeman, the pastor elect; Rev. W. W. Weeks, of Moncton; Rev. F. D. Davidson, of Gibson; Rev. Augustus Freeman, of Manguerville; Rev. Mr. Manser, of St. Marys; Rev. P. O. Rees, of Keswick; Rev. H. B. Warden, of Newcastle; Rev. Dr. McLeod, Rev. B. Payson and Rev. C. Hartley, of this city.

The exercises opened with a voluntary by the choir. J. W. Spurden leader, and then Rev. H. B. Warden gave out hymn 531: "We bid thee welcome in the name Of Jesus our exalted head."

The singing was very hearty. Rev. Augustus Freeman followed with the reading of scripture from 1st Timothy 3rd chapter, 1st chapter of Titus, and Hebrews 13th chapter 9th verse. Rev. P. O. Rees engaged in earnest prayer and then H. C. Cress, clerk of the church, read Rev. Mr. Freeman's letter of dismission from the Guelph church, and a lengthy eulogistic letter from the clerk of the same, regarding Mr. Freeman's popularity in his late field of labor. Kindly reference was also made to Mrs. Freeman's efforts in support of her husband's work here. Mr. Freeman was then received as a member of the Fredericton church, Rev. Dr. Saunders giving him the right hand of fellowship, accompanying the act with a few fitting remarks. The exercises closed with a benediction, and was followed by

A Round of Speeches warmly welcoming the new pastor to his duties and responsibilities. The Rev. Dr. Saunders extended the heartiest kind of a welcome to Mr. Freeman, and was glad to know that the young men are taking up the work of the ministry. He had great respect for aged men, but he had great sympathy for young men. He had, indeed, an intense reverence for the aged, but he had a deep respect for the young, and he had a deep respect for the young men who are taking up the work of the ministry. He had a deep respect for the young men who are taking up the work of the ministry.

Mr. Freeman was introduced by the chairman and made a splendid address. He is a slightly built, well proportioned gentleman, with a pleasant countenance, dark hair and dark eyes, moustache and mustache-chop whiskers, speaks rapidly yet fluently, and at once gives the impression of great energy, ability and gentleness. He is, indeed, an attractive man, both in personality and speech, and won the hearts of his people before he had been on his feet ten minutes. It may be added here, that he was connected initially with the young with the Fredericton church, and he welcomed Mr. Freeman as a fellow worker. He, however, felt a degree of sorrow in the fact that while gaining Mr. Freeman, he had to let go Dr. Saunders, whose acquaintance and advice he had appreciated very much. Speaking of the work outside the city, Mr. Davidson said the Baptists had only one settled pastor in Sunbury, Rev. Augustus Freeman, who presides over the congregations at Manguerville, Little River and Lakeville Corner, and was indeed the bishop of Sunbury. In York, while there are thirteen churches, there are only four regularly ordained settled pastors. This he deplored, and urged the church to greater missionary effort in these inviting fields.

He invited Mr. Freeman to take an interest in the quarterly meetings, and closed with expressing the wish that Dr. Saunders might remain here and take the oversight of the work in York and Sunbury. Rev. W. W. Weeks, Moncton's popular pastor, was next introduced as the only man on the platform, or in the congregation, who knew Mr. Freeman personally before the latter arrived here. Mr. Weeks is a tall, well built, clean shaven gentleman, with a pleasant voice and manner, and he was not long in captivizing his audience. He said he was glad to see Mr. Freeman here, and extended a great kindness to his personal acquaintance and friendship. He knew Mr. Freeman as a man

From his Scalp to his Heels, and if you touched him anywhere, you would find him a man. He knew him as a student, who ran away from all the rest in the classroom; knew him as a pastor and as a preacher. He hoped this church would prove worthy of its new pastor, as he was sure Mr. Freeman would prove worthy of his new charge. He spoke of the need of missionary work in this province. The ratio of settled pastors in Westmorland, he did not think was greater than in York. Speaking to the congregation, he said he had never written a book, did not preach nor lecture, but knew how to hold her tongue in seven languages. He paid a just tribute to Rev. Dr. Saunders, who had won the affection and esteem of this congregation, and in closing asked the audience to give the veteran clergyman the Christian's salute. Handkerchiefs fluttered throughout the large congregation in response, and Mr. Freeman resumed his seat, having held the marked attention of the audience throughout his eloquent and impressive address. Rev. Dr. Saunders expressed his satisfaction and pleasure at the proceedings of the evening the choir sang, "Blest be the tie that binds." Rev. Mr. Payson pronounced the benediction, and the meeting closed.
