

NEWS ABOUT TOWN

Social, Personal and General Occurrences of the Week.

CRISP AND TO THE POINT.

Judge and Mrs. Steadman are summering at Digby. The A. O. H. will run an excursion to St. Stephen Sept. 10th.

The Queen hotel has been crowded with tourists all the week. The Knights of Pythias are to hold their picnic at Burton, Oct. 10th.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rabbitt celebrated their silver wedding Tuesday evening. Miss Flood of Boston is visiting the city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Murray.

The Bishop of Fredericton held confirmation services at Gagetown, Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Sharp, of Boston, are in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Owen.

Cameron Gillespie, a former University student, died of consumption at Moore's Mills last week. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. B. Fisher have returned from a lengthy visit among friends at Waterville, Maine.

A. H. Rowley, of the Bank of N. S. at Kentville, N. S., is at Marysville spending his vacation with his parents. Thieves gained an entrance to J. R. Howie's shop Tuesday night and stole two or three pairs of unfinished pants.

Loggie went to the Duganorg on a fishing trip and was accompanied by Capt. Ingham, of Halifax garrison. Miss Maggie Allen is home from Wallham, Mass., where she is engaged as a hospital nurse. She expects to remain here till September 1st.

Ald. Farrell has had a number of the catching seats erected on the Post Office Square and below Officers' Square for his weary constituents. On account of the dull lumber market, Hale & Murchie's (Victoria) mill has been closed down, throwing nearly one hundred men out of employment.

Cook & Whiteley circus advertising car reached here Thursday and the bill boards of city and country are covered with their attractive advertisements. Mr. Temple, M. P., arrived home from Ottawa, Monday, and is going to St. Andrews for a holiday. He is suffering considerably from sciatica.

W. P. King, an insurance man, who spent some time here last summer adjusting the losses in the Gibson fire, lost his wife by death at Truro on the 21st inst. Miss Truro, the efficient stenographer of the Crown Land Department, left yesterday for New Carlisle, Quebec, to spend her vacation with the family of L. W. Johnston.

Governor and Mrs. Fraser held a reception at the Royal hotel, St. John, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, and visited the camp yesterday, returning home to-day. C. A. Sampson, J. M. Torrance, A. D. Macpherson, and G. W. Brown will be the delegates of Victoria Lodge to the Oddfellows Grand lodge, which meets at Halifax, Aug. 8th.

Mrs. Gesner, eldest daughter of the late Hon. J. A. Beckwith, died at Ormocote last week, aged 71 years. She left no children. The funeral took place Sunday morning. Miss Jeanette Beverley is at Montreal visiting the family of Rev. A. J. Mowat, and Progress correspondence is attended to by a young gentleman connected with an up town bank.

Rev. Ernest W. Simpson, who was recently ordained by the Bishop of Fredericton, has been sent to take charge of the mission at Southampton, vacated by Rev. Sewell Neale, who is now at Andover. In a scratch game of cricket on Officers' Square Thursday afternoon, E. H. Allen from the lower wicket, hit the ball clean over the Officers' Barracks, over the stables in the rear, and into the post office field.

The colored people of St. John are to run an excursion to this city next Wednesday, and one of the attractions will be a base ball match on Scully's field between Joe Estaim's team and a nine of the visitors. A complete comedy company from New York are here rehearsing "A Baggage Check," which will be presented at the city hall Aug. 9th and 10th, under Mr. Fenety's auspices. The company numbers 22 people.

The Finance Minister and Mrs. Foster are at their summer residence at Apohaqui, Kings Co. Mr. Foster is considerably broken in health, having been nearly down in his tariff reform wrestling of the recent session. Some years ago the local legislature voted a subsidy to a line of railway to run from Cross Creek to Stanley, a distance of six miles, and now it is announced that the Dominion Government have actually granted the usual subsidy of $300 per mile.

Principal Mullin and his family are away at present and their house is unoccupied. Wednesday night, however, somebody entered it from the rear, and on leaving forgot to close the doors. It will not be known until the family's return, whether or not anything was stolen. F. T. C. Burpee, brother of Mrs. (Senator) Wark, of this city, died at Calais, Monday. Deceased was a native of Stanbury and was for many years a member of the well-known firm of I. F. Burpee, iron merchants, St. John. Lately he has been engaged in the real estate business, and resided in Calais.

Edward Moore talks very enthusiastically about the prospects of his coal mine at Fredericton Junction, and expects soon to announce the formation of a strong company to develop the property. Alexander Gibson and W. A. Murray are mentioned as two gentlemen likely to co-operate with Mr. Moore. The friends of the late Walter Miller, formerly of Millerton, Miramichi, have received intelligence from Europe to the effect that he died in Slavonia, Austria, being found dead in his room. A post mortem examination resulted in finding an effusion of blood on the brain. Death is supposed to have been caused by sunstroke. The deceased was well known in Fredericton.

Major H. A. Cropley, of the 71st Batt., appears in a lengthy letter in the Sun in defence of General Herber, and in the closing paragraph, to give point to his argument the Major remarks that "there are few men in the Canadian Militia who have had greater opportunities than myself for forming a correct opinion of the views which have felt called on to lay before my fellow subjects." Rev. Willard Macdonald is to take his vacation on Tuesday, and expects to be absent from the city all of August. He will spend a few days along the river, linger at Hampton and visit friends in Nova Scotia. The pulpit of St. Paul's will be occupied the first two Sundays in August by Rev. Dr. W. E. Archibald, late of Topeka, Kansas. All of Mr. Macdonald's friends will unite in wishing him a pleasant holiday.

Since Mr. and Mrs. G. Gunn have taken charge of the Springhill hotel it has been very greatly improved and now offers every comfort and facility to its guests. All the rooms have been re-furnished and made as attractive as possible, and the table would do credit to a pretentious hotel in a large city. A great many Fredericton people are patronizing the hotel this summer, and all praise the treatment they receive at the hands of the hostess and her help. Attached to the hotel are boats in which the guests may row off to the islands and spend a pleasant afternoon.

THE EDITOR OF THE GLEANER

Must Stand Trial at Woodstock for Criminal Libel on Registrar Leighton.

James H. Crockett, editor of the Fredericton Gleaner, was arrested in this city Wednesday evening by Deputy Sheriff Foster of Carleton County, on a warrant issued by Police Magistrate Dibble, of Woodstock, charging him with publishing a defamatory libel against John S. Leighton, Registrar of Carleton County, taken to Woodstock Thursday morning, and in the afternoon had his preliminary examination before the Police Magistrate.

The libel complained of is contained in the Daily Gleaner of July 14th. The article says that Joseph Vandine, of Centreville, Carleton County, borrowed $800 from Leighton, Registrar of Carleton County, on mortgage; that Vandine subsequently paid Mr. Leighton the full amount of the mortgage, taking his receipt; that Vandine recently discovered that the mortgage was not discharged. Estabrooks in reply to the demand of Vandine why he had not discharged the mortgage, wrote he would be very glad to do so when he got his money. The article further says that Estabrooks had appointed Leighton his agent, and it was only fair to assume that Leighton kept the interest paid as it came due, otherwise Vandine must have learned of the true state of affairs earlier. Mr. Leighton in his evidence in court said he never saw Estabrooks, nor ever received money from Vandine, and that the statements in the Gleaner were utterly untrue as far as he was concerned. He was subjected to a rigid cross-examination but nothing was brought out implicating him in any way with malfeasance.

John S. Leighton, Jr., Deputy Registrar, was called by the defence. He completely corroborated the father's statements, saying his father had nothing to do with the money transaction between Vandine and Estabrooks. He (the son) was agent for Estabrooks and as such had accounted to him for all moneys received from Vandine. The statement in the libel as to retaining the principal paid on the mortgage and paying Estabrooks interest thereon was untrue if applied to him. He had July 1890 furnished Estabrooks with detailed statements showing all the money he had received from Estabrooks, and the Vandine mortgage had been paid in full principal and interest. It would seem, if any one was at fault in the transaction, it would be that Estabrooks neglected to discharge the mortgage as soon as he should have done.

Crockett was committed for trial in the Supreme court which will be held at Woodstock in October. Bail was fixed at $600, and two securities for $250 each, and Crockett was released. S. B. Appleby appeared for the prosecution and A. B. Connell for the defence.

THE CITY COUNCIL

Voted Two Hundred Dollars for Aberdeen's Reception.

Hill Worsnip the Mayor presided at the special meeting of the City Council on Thursday evening, called to take steps towards the reception of Lord and Lady Aberdeen, and the Aldermen present were Gilman, Farrell, Rosborough, Macnutt, Estabrooks and Anderson. After His Worship had stated the object of the meeting, Ald. Macnutt moved that the City Corporation present an address to the Governor-General and that a committee to prepare the same be appointed. Carried. On motion of Ald. Farrell, the committee was selected as follows: The Mayor, Ald. Macnutt and the City Clerk.

It was suggested that a reception committee be appointed, but it was left over till the regular monthly meeting in August. Ald. Rosborough brought up the question of finances, and moved that $200 be granted for the reception. Carried. Ald. Macnutt moved in amendment that the firemen be granted $125 for their proposed fire works display and torchlight procession. This was seconded by Ald. Anderson and carried without division.

Ald. Rosborough moved that $75 be granted the citizens committee who have in hand the farmers' picnic to be held during the Governor-General's stay. Carried. Ald. Farrell moved in amendment, seconded by Ald. Macnutt, that the amount be $100, but this was voted down and Ald. Rosborough's resolution carried, 4 to 2. Adjourned.

A FAMILY QUARREL

Henry Cronkite Committed for Trial on a Serious Charge.

For some time there has been bad feeling between George and Henry Cronkite, brothers of Queen'sbury, which originated over a property dispute. Last fall George laid an information against Henry for perjury alleged to have been committed at the hearing of a civil suit in a Justice's court in Queen'sbury. Henry was arrested, but his preliminary examination before Police Magistrate Marsh in this city resulted in his discharge. Word has come from Queen'sbury that George has had Henry arrested again, this time for attempting to shoot him with intent to kill. It is alleged that on July 1st while George was in his farm driving some of Henry's cattle off his premises the latter went over and commanded him to cease, that when George declined to cease Henry threatened to kill him, and that in pursuance of this threat the latter went to George's farm the following day and discharged a shotgun at him. None of the shot, it appears, took effect. George laid information charging his brother with the offence above mentioned. The preliminary examination took place before Squire Whitehead at Queen'sbury Tuesday, where George Henry B. Rainsford appeared for prosecution. The Magistrate has committed Henry for trial at the next County Court.

Henry came to town and swore out two informations before the Police Magistrate, one against his brother George for wilfully, maliciously, and cutting down and destroying a number of maple trees in his sugar, and a second against Charles Woodman for a like offence. Henry says he was trying to shoot a dog that was chasing his sheep when George came up within reach of his gun, and George alleges that he and Woodman tried to take the brute to build up a line fence.

Sudden Death at Sheffield.

The many friends of Whitehead Barker, of Sheffield, Sunbury, will be pained to hear of his somewhat sudden death which occurred at his home Tuesday evening. The deceased had been in his usual good health up to the latter part of last week, when he drank a large quantity of ice water while overhauled from work in the hay field. He caught cold, pneumonia developed and his death followed. Mr. Barker was one of the best known and most popular residents of Sheffield, and his acquaintances were general throughout Sunbury. He was a brother of Judge Barker of St. John, and Mrs. Carrier of this city. One of his daughters is the wife of Dr. Kierstead of Woodstock. The funeral took place Thursday forenoon and was very largely attended.

Will Fight it Out.

The Globe says that J. Fraser Gregory is preparing to fight the suit which Mr. Beaman, of Boston, has taken against him for infringing the affections of Mrs. Beaman. Wednesday special bail was furnished on Mr. Gregory's part through his solicitor, A. P. Barnhill. The bail are W. H. Murray, millowner, for $20,000, and J. R. Warner, millowner, for $30,000. An affidavit of justification was furnished with the bail. The bail need not have been entered into until August 5, but it enables the prosecution to go on with the case by at once giving their declaration. The Globe has been very understanding there is no likelihood of a settlement in this case. It will be fought out in the courts and Mr. Gregory expects to show that the intention is blackmail.

CHANGED FAITH.

Rev. Dr. Alexander and Prof. Stockley Have Renounced the Church of England, and Gone Over to Rome.

The news from Montreal this week regarding the two Fredericton gentlemen whose names are at the head of this article, surprised nobody. Ever since Dr. Alexander was formally discharged from the Cathedral by the Bishop, the public have been looking for the announcement containing below, and when it was known that with Prof. Stockley he had gone to Montreal seeking spiritual light, all hope that the two would remain in the Anglican communion, was abandoned by the friends. All the available information on the subject is given as follows:

A Montreal despatch of Monday says: A very important and interesting ceremony took place this morning in the private chapel of the Archbishop's palace. Rev. Dr. Alexander, late Dean of Fredericton, and Professor Stockley of the same place, were formally received into the Roman Catholic church, His Grace Mgr. Fabre officiating. After the learned New Brunswickers had thus made a public profession of their new faith, the Archbishop, and the Archbishop and quite a number of persons high up in the church and state.

The two converts had been here for some time receiving instruction from Rev. Father Jones, of the society of Jesus. The sponsor for Rev. Dr. Alexander was John Meagher, merchant of this city, while Rev. Canon Bruchesi acted in the same capacity for Professor Stockley. The ceremony was carried out in the following order: Abjuration, conditional baptism, the sacrament of penance, concluding with low mass and communion.

A later despatch says: Rev. Dr. Alexander and Prof. Stockley, who embraced Romanism yesterday, could not be found to-day. Mr. Alexander has been the guest of Dr. Kingston, a leading physician, and Prof. Stockley of John Meagher, wife merchant, but it is understood that they have left for the Jesuits' College at Sault au Recollet.

(Montreal Gazette, Tuesday.) Some weeks ago a special despatch to the Gazette from St. John, N. B., announced that Rev. Finlay Alexander, M. R. C. S. (Eng.), Episcopal dean of Fredericton, and Professor Stockley, of the University of New Brunswick, had abjured the Protestant faith and embraced Catholicism. Protestant circles were considerably worked up over this announcement, but in many quarters it was discounted.

There is now no room for doubt on the matter. Yesterday morning these two gentlemen formally abjured their former faith and took their first vows in the Catholic church before His Grace Archbishop Fabre. The two gentlemen mentioned have been in Montreal for some time receiving religious instruction at the hands of Rev. A. Jones, of the Society of Jesus, a professor in St. Mary's College. When the news of their formal abjuration was received by the college was closed, and on no pretext could the rev. fathers be seen. The whereabouts of the two gentlemen has been kept secret, and it is understood that they wished to avoid having the matter public in the press. Consequently neither of the gentlemen could be found.

At the Archbishop's palace no one was desirous of going again to the Montreal despatch. However, the Gazette obtained a confirmation from a gentleman whose authority cannot be doubted. Seeing that the matter was known he did not desire to longer to conceal it. Everything being in readiness for the formal embracing of their new faith, this ceremony took place in the palace early yesterday morning. Mr. Fabre officiating in person. The sponsor for Rev. Dr. Alexander was John Meagher, of Meagher Bros., wire merchants, 14 de Broeslee street, while Rev. Canon Bruchesi acted in a similar capacity for Professor Stockley. The ceremony took place in the following order: A public abjuration of the faith formerly professed, the sacrament of baptism in the form "If you have not been baptized, I baptize you in the name of the Father and Holy Ghost," followed by low mass and communion.

The Rev. Mr. Alexander has a wife, now living in New Brunswick, while Professor Stockley is a widower.

The ceremony took place in the following order: First came the abjuration of all errors in faith and doctrine, followed by baptism, which, of course, implies a doubt as to whether the convert has already received that sacred rite. "If you had not been baptized I now baptize you in the name of the Father and Holy Ghost," was the form used to-day over the bowed heads of the converts, although, it must not be forgotten, that the church of Rome recognizes baptism as administered by most of the Protestant denominations; yet, at the same time it does not seem quite clear to the correspondent why there should have been any doubt about an Anglican divine having been previously baptized.

Everything being in readiness for the formal embracing of their new faith, this ceremony took place in the palace early yesterday morning. Mr. Fabre officiating in person. The sponsor for Rev. Dr. Alexander was John Meagher, of Meagher Bros., wire merchants, 14 de Broeslee street, while Rev. Canon Bruchesi acted in a similar capacity for Professor Stockley. The ceremony took place in the following order: A public abjuration of the faith formerly professed, the sacrament of baptism in the form "If you have not been baptized, I baptize you in the name of the Father and Holy Ghost," followed by low mass and communion.

The Rev. Mr. Alexander has a wife, now living in New Brunswick, while Professor Stockley is a widower.

The Montreal Witness says that what position they will hold in the church is yet doubtful. The Rev. Mr. Alexander is married. There is talk of an arrangement being made whereby his wife may enter one of the religious communities and be joined to the priesthood. Prof. Stockley will probably enter the priesthood at once. The information concerning Mrs. Alexander is, of course, quite guess work, as the public have no evidence that she will follow her husband in his changed faith.—HEALING.
