Libel Suits to be tried.

The libel suits that are to be tried next month, says the Globe, are exciting considerable interest in Victoria and Madawaska counties, and in political circles throughout the province.

One is a suit by Hon. John Costigan against Mr. Fred LaForest, a prominent barrister of Madawaska county.

Mr. LaForest is charged with having written some libellous articles against Mr. Costigan, which were published in L'Evangeline of Digby county.

Friends of Hon. Mr. Costigan are said to have answered these with letters to the Montreal Academie de Shelia, and Mr. LaForest is said to have written charged Hon. Mr. Costigan with being false and untrue to the interests of his French constituents.

The case against the Montreal Academie will come to trial first. It is set down for hearing before Judge Tuck at the court which opens in Victoria county in October.

It is not so very long ago that Hon. John Costigan and Fred LaForest were very close friends, and the outbreak between them is somewhat of a surprise. Mr. LaForest is well known in Fredericton, having been born and educated here.

MAYOR AND MRS. VANWART.

Entertain their Friends Handsomely at their Beautiful Residence Thursday Evening.

The List of Guests and some of the Dresses Worn.

One of the most successful social events ever seen in Fredericton, was the AI Home given by His Worship the Mayor and Mrs. VanWart at their beautiful home on Church street, Thursday evening.

The invitations included one hundred ladies and gentlemen, and everybody present enjoyed the kindness and geniality of the worthy host and hostess.

The Mayor's residence is well adapted for social entertainments, and decorated and illuminated as it was on Thursday evening, it presented a most attractive appearance.

The front parlors and the spacious hallway, connecting them, were thrown open for dancing, and the program was started at 9 o'clock, and continued until nearly 3 a.m.

The sixteen dances on the regular list being supplemented by numerous extras. An orchestra led by Miss Perkins on the piano, furnished excellent music, and there was a snap and go from start to finish.

During the evening light refreshments were served, and numerous cozy sitting-out retreats were freely patronized by the fair maidens and gallants.

A superb supper was served at midnight, and the tables were most attractive; a beautiful flowering lily was the centre piece, and graceful trimmings of smilax added to the effect, and throughout the house potted plants and cut flowers furnished further adornment.

The ladies present included the most beautiful dancers, carried off the palm as the " belle of the ball," but it may be hinted that " local talent" was bracketed for first place with a fair visitor from an upper Canadian city.

The list of acceptances was as follows. Dr and Mrs H S Bridges. Mr and Mrs Jeremy Taylor. Mr and Mrs W F Mitchell. Col and Mrs Gordon. Mr and Mrs D L Babbitt. Mr and Mrs L C Macnutt. Mr and Mrs M G Gibson. Mr and Mrs M D Richards. Mr and Mrs A G Edgecombe. Dr and Mrs VanWart. Mr and Mrs W K Allen. Mr and Mrs F B Edgecombe. Mr and Mrs W L Long. Mr and Mrs Geo W Allen.

the fact that Mr. Dumaresq was the original architect, and knew more about the matter than any outsider could possibly know, and relying on that gentleman's excellent professional reputation, a majority of the trustees last week decided to employ him to undertake the repairs, which Mr. Dumaresq assures the trustees need not cost anything like the sum named by other persons.

The trustees this morning and put the question to him, "Do you consider the tower in a condition dangerous to the public?" and his answer was "No, I have no doubt it would stand for years, and an altogether unnecessary scare has been worked up over it."

Mr. Dumaresq expressed a competent builder to night from Dorchester, and the work of repairs will be commenced at once under the architect's supervision, the trustees having given him full responsibility in the matter as to the employment of men and materials. The trustees who have decided on the present course, instead of being censured, deserve the warm commendation and support of the congregation, who will back them up in saving a large amount of money, in preventing what would have been a useless expenditure without achieving any better result than those promised by Mr. Dumaresq. The tower will be put in perfect condition at a cost very much below the lowest figure named by the other builders and architects.

It would be well for the newspaper which has given so much of its space towards alarming the public as to the condition of St. Paul's tower, to point out the unsafe condition of some buildings on Queen street which require attention much more than the church tower.

Personal J. C. Dumaresq, the well known architect of Halifax, is at the Queen.

Miss Annie Tibbits is visiting friends at Presque Isle and will not be home until the University opens.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh O'Brien of this city, are at the residence of Mrs. J. G. O'Brien of Boston.

Harry R. McLaren, the active travelling representative of the Canada Life Insurance Company is stopping at the Queen.

Dr. Fletcher left yesterday afternoon for his home in New York, after a fortnight's visit among his friends in Fredericton.

W. B. Winslow of the Bank of Montreal, St. John, Mass., where he has been the guest of his father, Byron Winslow.

Miss Sharp, of Toronto, who has been visiting her brother O. H. Sharp of the bank of B. N. A. here, went to St. John today.

Elbridge S. Haines, son of contractor Alfred Haines of St. Marys, and lately book-keeper at Gibson's grocery store, is now in Boston, Mass., where he has obtained a good position with a large wholesale house.

Julius I. Morrison of Kansas City, formerly a well known and popular resident of Fredericton, is here visiting his brothers, and Mrs. Morrison and her children, who have spent the summer in Fredericton, will return home with him in a few days.

Robert Inglis, formerly the popular manager of the bank of B. N. A. here, but now in charge of the agency at London, Ont., arrived last night for a short visit and is the guest of E. Byron Winslow. Mr. Inglis is looking well and is warmly greeted by his many friends in Fredericton.

Died Under Chloroform. William Barrett of Charlottetown, Carleton Co., died on Dr. Frank M. Brown's office at Centreville on the 9th inst. while having chloroform administered for the purpose of an operation performed on his leg. Early last spring he cut his knee, but the important did not seem that neglected proper treatment. The usual results followed this negligence. Dr. Brown had, however, nearly restored him to his usual health, but leaving his knee in a stiff condition. To have it restored he consented to an operation. While Dr. Brown, with a medical student assisting him, were placing him in an unconscious state he very suddenly and unexpectedly by looks and heavy breathing showed signs of expiring, which he did before the operation was undertaken. Dr. Baker and Brown in giving their testimony said they had known much chloroform to be administered with no fatal results. As the public mind was likely to be disturbed and false rumors set afloat, Dr. Brown insisted on having a coroner's inquest on the remains. Accordingly Coroner Dr. Hagerman was notified, a jury empanelled and evidence taken, with the result that Dr. Brown and all who assisted were exonerated from any blame in consequence of the fatal result, the patient having requested to be placed under the influence of the drug for the purpose named.
