

QUEEN HOTEL, QUEEN STREET, FREDERICTON, N. B.

THIS HOTEL has been REBUILT AND PAINTED IN THE MOST ATTRACTIVE STYLE. AN ELEGANT GENTLEMEN'S PARLOR, OFFICE, AND BEAUTIFULLY DECORATED DINING ROOM ON GROUND FLOOR. PERFECT VENTILATION AND SEWERAGE THROUGHOUT. LARGES AND AIRY BATHS; COMMODIOUS BATH ROOMS AND CLOSETS on each floor; all the conveniences of ONE HUNDRED GUESTS.

It is rapidly growing in popularity, and is to be one of the LEADING, as well as the MOST COMFORTABLE HOTELS IN THE DOMINION.

The Table is always supplied with every delicacy available. The "Cook" is highly commended, and the Staff of Attendants is ever ready to oblige.

There are also the largest and most conveniently situated SAMPLE ROOMS in Canada, having street entrances and also connecting with Hotel Office.

WAGONS and CARRIAGES of every style are to be had at the LIBERTY STABLE of the Proprietor, immediately adjacent to the Hotel.

The "QUEEN" is centrally located, directly opposite the Government Buildings, and within a minute's walk of the Parliament Buildings, County Registrar's Office and the Court House.

There is a FIRST-CLASS BARBER SHOP IN CONNECTION.

GEO. A. HUGHES, Attorney and Solicitor, NOTARY, CONVEYANCER, &c.

OFFICE: WHELFLEY BUILDING, Fredericton, N. B., QUEEN ST.

WESLEY VANWART Barrister. Office: Queen Street, OPPOSITE NORMAL SCHOOL.

B. H. TORRENS, M. D. M. DENTIST, Office and Residence, Saunders Building, Near Queen Hotel.

WILLIAM WILSON, Attorney-at-Law, SOLICITOR AND CONVEYANCER. Offices: Carleton St., East Side.

ALLAN LINE, ROYAL MAIL STEAMERS. Liverpool, Halifax and Portland Royal Mail Service.

From Liverpool, From Halifax, 21 Nov. LAURENTIAN, 14 Dec. 28 Nov. MONTREAL, 21 Dec. 28 Dec. MONGOLIAN, 25 Jan. 1896.

RATES OF PASSAGE. Cabin, by above Steamers, $50 and $70. A reduction of ten per cent. is made on round trip tickets, except on the above routes.

Glasgow via Liverpool and St. John's, N. F., to Halifax. Sailings fortnightly.

Glasgow, Londonderry, and New York Service. From New York, SARANTIAN, 19 Dec. 26 Dec. 2 Jan. 1896.

WM. THOMSON & CO., Agents, ST. JOHN, N. B. Frank I. Morrison, Fredericton.

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY ATLANTIC DIVISION. ALL TO BOSTON &c. RAIL THE SHORT LINE. LINE MONTREAL &c.

ARRANGEMENT OF TRAINS. In Effect Oct. 6th, 1895.

LEAVE FREDERICTON. EASTERN STANDARD TIME.

6.50 A. M.—Week days for Woodstock and points North, via Gibson.

6.00 A. M.—Week days for St. John, St. Stephen, St. Andrews, Hamilton, Woodville, and points North, via Bay, Fortville, Boston, and points West and South.

10.55 A. M.—Week days for Fredericton Junction, St. John and points east.

4.00 P. M.—Week days for Fredericton Junction and St. John, via Valour, Montreal and the West, via the Short Line, through Portland, Boston, etc.

ARRIVING IN FREDERICTON FROM St. John, etc., 9.05 a. m., 1.30, 7.10 p. m. St. John, Montreal, etc., 1.30 p. m. Woodstock and North, via Gibson branch, 6.40 p. m.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN

Social, Personal and General Occurrences of the Week.

CRISP AND TO THE POINT.

Mrs. Frank Creed who has been very ill with pneumonia is rapidly recovering her strength.

December 26th is the day fixed for the marriage of a young lady teacher of Prince William, and a popular resident of Lincoln.

George E. Torrens, a son of Alexander Torrens, a former resident of this city, died at Somerville, Mass., a few days ago, after a lingering illness of consumption.

Prayers are being offered daily at the Cathedral for the success of the Church of England mission at St. John, and will be offered as long as the missions continue.

L. W. Pond and E. W. Pond, who had the contract for the handling of the corporation drive above Grand Falls, landed in all some seventy millions of logs during the past season.

Leo Sprague, who was supposed to have been drowned on the 10th of June, last by the capsizing of his canoe in the waters of Belleisle, Kings Co., has lately been seen in New York.

At the St. Andrew's night entertainment at Chatham, Surveyor General Tweedie recited with telling effect "Bohemia," which he has charmed his hearers with on several occasions.

Don't make any other engagement for next Monday night. Secure your tickets for yourself and family; don't forget to take the boys and girls as they will want to know about the "Making of Our Canada."

Mr. Isaac Burpee a member of the University senior class, has arrived in the city to continue his course, after having spent the vacation and autumn months on the engineering staff of the Bangor and Aroostook railway.

Henry Doherty of this city, let a heavy piece of iron fall on his foot, while at work in the Canada Eastern Railway shops, several days ago, and sustained a very painful injury. He expects to be able to resume work in a day or two.

Private James Garvie of the R. E. C. I. was sent seriously ill Sunday at his home on St. John street, and his recovery is doubtful. He has suffered at different times from severe hemorrhages, and is now attacked with heart trouble.

During service at the Cathedral Sunday evening, His Lordship Bishop Kingston read a letter from Dean Partridge, in which he expressed his heartfelt thanks to the members of the church, for their generous gift to him before his departure for Bermuda.

James White of this city, formerly of the Royal Gazette office, had the misfortune to cut his foot very badly, a short time ago while chopping in R. A. Estey's lumber woods on the Tobique. He returned home the 6th, and will be laid up for some time.

The large smokstack at Blair's wood-working factory on King street was blown down by last night's gale and smashed to pieces. A temporary affair had to be erected this morning to allow the engine to be kept running. It will require $40 to repair the damage.

The ice, which has been running freely for the past few days, became jammed and frozen up during the night, and the river is now practically closed for the season. Unless a heavy thaw sets in before long, there will be very little skating on the river this season.

A horse attached to a sleigh, and belonging to D. McEachern, became frightened and ran away on Saturday evening from his shop on Queen street, where it had been left standing. The animal started down the street, and in the process of being hunted by way of Regent street. No serious damage was done.

The Fredericton DAILY HERALD is the latest addition to the journalistic family of New Brunswick. It is the only Liberal newspaper published in the city, and will be a strong reinforcement to the other press in Fredericton, but throughout the Maritime Provinces. THE HERALD is bright, fresh, vigorous and edited with marked ability.—Toronto Globe.

The residence of T. Clowes Hallet of Douglas was completely destroyed by fire on the 5th inst. Mr. Hallet was in the city at the time of the fire, and was obliged to leave at the time the fire broke out. Friends and neighbors who rushed to the scene managed to save the piano and one or two other articles, but the greater part of the furniture was destroyed. The property was insured for $500, with Frank I. Morrison of this city.

Auctioneer Wetmore sold a rather ancient looking piece of horseflesh at public auction at Phoenix square on the 7th The animal, though he had drawn a milk cart about the city for nearly a quarter of a century, possessed some exceedingly strong points—points that you could hang a hat on with ease. Owing to the discouraging outlook for river racing this season, horsemen did not bid as lively for the beast as they should have done, and so it was finally knocked down to Edward Beattie, the butcher, for the low figure of $2.25.

Grubbs, L. and L., No. 20, held their regular meeting on the 6th, when the following officers were installed by Past County Master Anderson—Worshipful Master, A. D. Thomas; Deputy Master, John Beattie; Financial Secretary, Alderman Adams; Recording Secretary, Geo. Black; Chaplain, Rev. P. C. Hartley; Treasurer, J. N. Ferguson; Director of Ceremonies, G. M. Chappell; Foreman of Committee, Jas. S. Parks.

Committee.—O. B. Stockford, Chas. Hall, Wm. Gainer and Chas. Segge. Interesting addresses were delivered by the Past Master, the retiring and newly elected officers.

Miss Jeanie Macfarlane, of the primary school staff, St. Andrew's, who tendered her resignation to the school trustees with the intention of abandoning the teaching profession for that of music, has reconsidered her decision, and has withdrawn her resignation, says the Beacon.

Miss Macfarlane is a daughter of Geo. Macfarlane, of Nashwaakias, and her many friends will be glad to hear of her popularity at St. Andrew's.—HERALD.

THE RESIDENCY QUESTION.

Active Steps being taken to bring the Matter to a Final Result.

The University Senate, at its recent meeting, having resolved to reappoint a committee of its members, viz., Dr. Inch, Dr. Harrison, Hon. James Mitchell, Dr. Conlath and Dr. Murray Maclean, to look over the University building and report on the accommodation, etc., it will afford to the students, with the changes necessary to be made.

The members of the Alumni Society are active in the promotion of the residency idea. They have appointed Dr. Murray Maclean, Judge VanWart, J. A. Belyea, John R. Dunn, Geo. A. Hughes and Dr. T. D. Walker, a committee to secure funds for the purpose, and these gentlemen are about issuing a circular, asking all graduates to subscribe, one member of each class to collect from those of his own year.

Dr. Inch, the president of the University, is also co-operating with Dr. Maclean and J. D. Hazen, M.P., in the work, and they had a conference at St. John this week. It may be stated that one wealthy Albany has already given the committee encouragement, which makes them feel sanguine of large practical assistance in that quarter.

It is proposed that the University building be utilized for the present, but the committee have suggested that the present building for residency in the near future, and $25,000 is the sum estimated as necessary for the purpose.

We understand that a special appeal will be made to the citizens of Fredericton in an effort to increase the endowment of the University, that the apparent necessity of reducing the staff may be avoided and the professors given adequate salaries.

"A BAND OF INJUNS" Give the Inhabitants of the West End a Bad Scare Yesterday Afternoon.

The peaceful and law abiding denizens of the West end were badly scared Friday for a time, and they had very good reason to be. About two o'clock in the afternoon a double team halgal in front of Estey's mill, and there alighted therefrom a number of Indians wearing robes and blankets and other paraphernalia peculiar to the Indian costume. They at once began to unload the contents of the sled, which consisted of stoves, hunting utensils and a complete camping outfit, and began to make themselves comfortable in the building.

People thought a general Indian uprising was in order and began to look about for means of defence. H. C. Mackay, Mr. Estey's bookkeeper, noticing the strange and apparently hostile actions of the braves, at once began to marshal the forces of the mill and make ready to meet the attack, which he thought was about to be made. Just as he had about completed preparations to resist the onslaught, one of the braves approached him, bearing a flag of truce in the shape of a written order from F. H. Estey for a quantity of lumber which was to be used in the construction of a camp at Garden's creek that gentleman, and which contract the Indians had secured. Mr. Mackay finding that his visitors possessed no hostile intentions, at once dismissed his force and sent them back to their traps, and departed as peacefully as they had come, all unconscious of the great war preparations that had been made for their benefit.

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS.

A New Circle Organized in This City.

Another circle of the International Order of King's Daughters and Sons has been formed within the last few weeks in our city.

The circle, which has already a membership roll of eighteen, has named itself "The Ministering Circle," and has elected the following officers: Mrs. Twining, Pres.; Mrs. O. H. Sharpe, Ist. Vice Pres.; Miss Neill, 2nd. Vice Pres.; Miss Sayre, 3rd. Vice Pres.; Miss Logan, Secretary; Miss Annie Tibbitts, Rec. Sec.; Miss Edith Gregory, Treas.

As many probably already know, the International Order of King's Daughters and Sons was only formed in New York in 1886; since that time the increase of circles, both in the United States and in Canada, has been remarkable. In New Brunswick alone there are 69 circles with a membership of 698.

The order is non-sectarian, the firm bond which binds all together being "Lend a hand—in His Name." The object which the "Ministering Circle" has in view, is to relieve cases of need, particularly in sickness. The members will be most glad of assistance in the form of money, clothing, unmade material, groceries, etc.

Gifts will be gratefully received by the officers or by any member of the circle. Gratefully acknowledged: E. H. Willmot, $5.00; Geo. F. Gregory, $1.00; Mrs. F. P. Thompson, $1.00; a friend, $1.00; clothing, Mrs. Dr. Coburn; clothing, Mrs. Robert Davies.

THE LATE TRIBUTE.

Remains of the Late Stephen Glazier Interred at Lincoln Yesterday.

The funeral of the late Stephen Glazier took place on the afternoon of the 5th, from his late residence Elmwood, Lincoln, Sanbury County, and was one of the largest ever seen in Sanbury County. People came far and near to pay their last tribute to all that was mortal of the departed cotemporary. Among those who drove down from this city were: Chas. W. Beckwith, and W. K. Allen, sons-in-law of deceased, Chas. E. Duffy, T. Carleton Allen, E. H. Allen, Charles Duffy, J. C. Allen, Jr., J. C. Beckwith.

Rev. C. H. Hayton, in this city conducted the burial services, which were very impressive.

A large number of beautiful floral offerings from friends and relatives of the deceased, adorned the casket.

The chief mourners were: Parker, Arthur and George Glazier, of Lincoln; C. W. Beckwith, W. K. Allen, J. C. Beckwith, and John C. Allen, Jr., of this city, R. A. Payne, Rev. Coombes, G. H. Miles, St. John. The remains were interred in the old Glazier family lot at Lincoln.

Undertaker John G. Adams, of this city, had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Miss Ida Lugin has an elegant assortment of ladies' fancy work of her own manufacture, which will be offered for sale at the residence of W. P. Fletting.

The stock exchange of a beautiful set of hand painted calendars, containing views of local scenery, and of a host of other pretty and useful articles. The sale commenced Friday and will continue for five days.

CROCKET UNMASKED.

The Creature who has Been Assaulting Respectable People.

Given a Dose of his own Medicine.

To the Editor of DAILY HERALD.

Sir—In accordance with the Resolution of the Fredericton Curling Club, I forward you the following communication. Please publish the same in your next issue.

Yours, etc., B. C. FORSTER, Sec'y. Fion C. Club, Dec. 5th, 1895.

At a meeting of the Fredericton Curling Club, held on the 4th inst., 1895, the following resolution was passed: "The 'Gleaner' dated 7th November last, was read, which article reflected seriously upon the character of the Club. As the article was entirely unwarranted and untrue it was unanimously agreed that the Editor of such paper, Mr. Crocket, be expelled from the Club."

B. C. FORSTER, Secretary. [A few observations regarding the above are in order. Some weeks ago the Gleaner made a most ungenerous and unwarranted attack on the members of the curling club, charging them with improper conduct while playing matches abroad, and converting their club house into a gambling den. The president of the club, E. H. Allen, promptly gave the lie to the Gleaner's charges in a letter published in the Herald, and the article was corrected. The Gleaner's day after that the article was again published, and the Editor of such paper, Mr. Crocket, be expelled from the Club."

It is proposed that the University building be utilized for the present, but the committee have suggested that the present building for residency in the near future, and $25,000 is the sum estimated as necessary for the purpose.

We understand that a special appeal will be made to the citizens of Fredericton in an effort to increase the endowment of the University, that the apparent necessity of reducing the staff may be avoided and the professors given adequate salaries.

The circle, which has already a membership roll of eighteen, has named itself "The Ministering Circle," and has elected the following officers: Mrs. Twining, Pres.; Mrs. O. H. Sharpe, Ist. Vice Pres.; Miss Neill, 2nd. Vice Pres.; Miss Sayre, 3rd. Vice Pres.; Miss Logan, Secretary; Miss Annie Tibbitts, Rec. Sec.; Miss Edith Gregory, Treas.

As many probably already know, the International Order of King's Daughters and Sons was only formed in New York in 1886; since that time the increase of circles, both in the United States and in Canada, has been remarkable. In New Brunswick alone there are 69 circles with a membership of 698.

The order is non-sectarian, the firm bond which binds all together being "Lend a hand—in His Name." The object which the "Ministering Circle" has in view, is to relieve cases of need, particularly in sickness. The members will be most glad of assistance in the form of money, clothing, unmade material, groceries, etc.

Gifts will be gratefully received by the officers or by any member of the circle. Gratefully acknowledged: E. H. Willmot, $5.00; Geo. F. Gregory, $1.00; Mrs. F. P. Thompson, $1.00; a friend, $1.00; clothing, Mrs. Dr. Coburn; clothing, Mrs. Robert Davies.

The funeral of the late Stephen Glazier took place on the afternoon of the 5th, from his late residence Elmwood, Lincoln, Sanbury County, and was one of the largest ever seen in Sanbury County. People came far and near to pay their last tribute to all that was mortal of the departed cotemporary. Among those who drove down from this city were: Chas. W. Beckwith, and W. K. Allen, sons-in-law of deceased, Chas. E. Duffy, T. Carleton Allen, E. H. Allen, Charles Duffy, J. C. Allen, Jr., J. C. Beckwith.

Rev. C. H. Hayton, in this city conducted the burial services, which were very impressive.

A large number of beautiful floral offerings from friends and relatives of the deceased, adorned the casket.

The chief mourners were: Parker, Arthur and George Glazier, of Lincoln; C. W. Beckwith, W. K. Allen, J. C. Beckwith, and John C. Allen, Jr., of this city, R. A. Payne, Rev. Coombes, G. H. Miles, St. John. The remains were interred in the old Glazier family lot at Lincoln.

Undertaker John G. Adams, of this city, had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Miss Ida Lugin has an elegant assortment of ladies' fancy work of her own manufacture, which will be offered for sale at the residence of W. P. Fletting.

The stock exchange of a beautiful set of hand painted calendars, containing views of local scenery, and of a host of other pretty and useful articles. The sale commenced Friday and will continue for five days.

FARMERS UNDER THE N. P.

How the Tillers of the Soil Fare UNDER THE TORY PARTY POLICY.

The Record of Crocket Himself.

This man, Crocket, has the hardihood to charge members of the Curling club with non-payment of their bills, but let us see what is in his personal nature is aroused.

The Record of Crocket Himself. In a financial sense. A few years ago Crocket was so hard pressed by his creditors that he was compelled to hand over his property on bill to his brother and his father-in-law. Mr. George F. Gregory had been endorsing his paper, and it commenced to fall due without Crocket making the necessary provision to meet it. The amount for which Mr. Gregory was liable footed up to the vicinity of $100. Mr. Gregory demanded some kind of a settlement and asked Crocket for a bill of sale on his newspaper plant and other property. But did Crocket show any disposition to act honestly in the matter and repay the man who had gone to his assistance? Not he.

Crocket's wonderful despatch passed all his worldly goods up to his brother and father-in-law, and up to this day does not hold a dollar's worth in his own name. In his financial collapse, Crocket struck scores of people, for hundreds and hundreds of dollars. As an instance, the Bank of the Province, who bought his paper had a judgment for $100 rendered against him; the Dominion type foundry gave a bill for over $300, and their agent told THE HERALD only last summer that they never expected to get a cent of it. Every-where he was the struggler young man. A reporter who worked for Crocket had to get a portion of salary due him, and we do not know if he has secured it yet. Crocket was arrested more than once, he was on the jail limits for debt, and yet this is the person, who talks about not paying his bills, and pretends to hold his head up in this community and assail the reputation of other men. This unprincipled scoundrel, whose origin is as obscure as his character is disreputable this man who taunts other men with drunkenness, when he is known to be a constant consumer of liquor—who was so proud of himself in the Barker House on the night of the local election of 1892 that he could not stand on his legs.

The attacks which Crocket has made on decent men have more than once subjected him to personal violence. He published a scurrilous article on Registrar Leighton and was taken to Woodstock under arrest; he insulted John W. Wetmore in the Barker House, and was pounded till his friends interfered; he published a malicious falsehood about Surveyor General Tweedie, only last summer, and that gentleman meeting him at Chatham, took him by the throat and gizzled him until he pleaded for mercy and promised better behaviour in the future. We could continue ad infinitum with an account of the wrongs which Crocket has done.

Disgraceful Escapes of this Crocket. He is the boldness to suppose that nobody is aware of a certain occurrence in this city which has never been made public and in which he appeared as the heavy villain?

Is it possible that this creature thinks that he is safe from those who have witnessed the proceedings of that occasion? Is Crocket so lost to all decency as to court an exposure of an incident in a domestic circle which

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical clergyman under whose notice the matter came at the time? The Editor of THE HERALD has been the object of Crocket's venom for nearly twenty years; there has been no insinuation to vile, no charge too false for Crocket to make, and yet we have seen him in the presence of respectable men, and in the presence of some of his nearest friends, and yet he has not been able to restrain himself from making a public attack on the reputation of those men.

Must have Terribly Shocked the Respectable Methodical