THE TROUBLE AT OTTAWA.

Clarke Wallace is evidently awaking to the fact that the government has been feeling him on the school policy. He is reported to have gone to his home at Woodbridge, in the sulks, and if he has got any stuff in him at all, he will soon be heard from in the line of the policy he laid down for himself in the Orange Lodge of Halifax, last summer.

There are now three vacancies in the Dominion government—the portfolios of Agriculture, Solicitor-Generalship and Comptrollership of Customs. A spirit of resignation, but not the kind our Tory friends desire, seems to prevail in the shaky old Cabinet at Ottawa.

Mr. Foster is so soon to lose his job at Ottawa, that we suggest to the Westmorland Scot. As party to the desirability of securing his services as lecturer in the approaching campaign in that county. No doubt he would be willing to engage at the old price of $10 per night.

The St. John Gazette, a Tory organ, howls the need that city has for more industrial establishments and more employment for the people. What is the matter with the glorious N. E.?

Hon. I. H. DAVIES, Premier Fielding and Attorney General Longley, are to address a Liberal meeting at Sussex, January 2nd, opening the campaign for Col. Donville.

The minister of justice has declined to interfere in the case of Shortis the Valleyfield murderer, and he will be hanged at Beauharnois January 3rd.

Mr. Wallace, as is well known, has for several years been head of the Orange order in Canada, and no doubt it was for this reason that he was taken to the government. The Tories have prided themselves on their ability to nicely balance the orange and green in their cabinet selections, but the scale hangs very unevenly at the present moment.

Mr. Wallace, when interviewed at Toronto on his resignation, said: "I remained in the government until I felt satisfied that it was intended to coerce Manitoba into the re-establishment of separate schools. So long as I thought there was a possibility of the question being amicably adjusted between the provincial and Dominion, I was quite satisfied to continue in my official position, but the last few days have brought about new developments, and, can no longer remain comptroller of customs. I shall retain my seat in parliament, of course, and shall go into Cardwell during the campaign. As to my future course, I prefer to say nothing."

The Orange Sentinel, organ of that order in Canada, backs Mr. Wallace up in his action, and in its issue of today declares: "It is now open war between the Dominion government and Manitoba, and Grand Master Wallace has determined to resign his office as controller of customs and to join forces with those who are fighting Manitoba's battle. We congratulate the grand master on his determination, and pledge him the utmost support of the Sentinel in the position he has taken—a position that involves a great sacrifice on his part, but means certain victory for the prairie province in her struggle to maintain the little red school house."

The government are placed in an awkward position. Last July, Mr. Wallace withdrew because he considered his colleagues unfaithful to the Roman Catholics and now Mr. Wallace, the Orange leader, leaves the fast decaying administration, because he thinks they are sacrificing his ultra-Protestant friends. Mr. Pitts should get out a special edition of the Reporter, and give his views on the decidedly interesting situation. It is said that when rogues fall out, honest men get their death, and the events at Ottawa seem to point in that direction.

THE ANTIGONISH NOMINATION.

The Tories of Antigonish, Friday, again nominated Jas. A. Chisholm, a young Halifax lawyer, for the House of Commons, and two ministers of the Crown, Sir C. H. Tupper and Hon. A. R. Dickey were present to give the proceedings an air of dignity and respectability. This is the same Mr. Chisholm who was so disastressly defeated by Hon. Colin McIsaac less than a year ago. He is the tall end of a Halifax Tory law firm, and his chief recommendation for the nomination is that he happened to be a brother-in-law of the late Sir C. H. Tupper, who was popular in Antigonish, and carried the county with the assistance of Bishop Cameron. Mr. McIsaac's majority in the last election was over one hundred, and it is not likely to be less in the general election. Sir C. H. Tupper spent a fortnight in the county during the last campaign, personally directing it for Mr. Chisholm, and he returned to Ottawa with a defeat, and his prestige very much wrecked.

Mr. Chisholm in his speech, accepting the nomination Friday, declared the Government was plotted to restore separate schools in Manitoba, and that Mr. Laurier is opposing to remedial legislation. In the public meeting that followed, Mr. Dickey, a member of the Government, asserted that the nomination was bound to give effect to the remedial order, so it is evident that the Government has abandoned all intention of endeavoring to compromise the difficulty. Coercion is their policy, and they must pursue it to the end, or else down goes their house the moment Parliament meets. Sir C. H. French Tories last session, got the measure of the Government's courage. Onimet and Caron by staying away from the cabinet meeting for a week, brought the Government to its knees, and they propose to make them swallow the whole dose.

The aldermen are glad the snow has come to cover up the troublesome asphalt question, but it would take many feet of the beautiful to hide the council's neglect from the electoral mind.

The West Hants bye-election will probably take place January 9th, a week after Parliament opens.

NEW SCHOOL TRUSTEES.

The local government at its session last night, appointed Mr. J. W. Spurden and Mr. William Kitchen as members of the Fredericton Board of School Trustees in place of Hon. A. F. Randolph and Mr. J. L. Inches, resigned.

The selections we believe, will meet with the general approval of the citizens. Both gentlemen are recognized as shrewd and successful in business, and have a material stake in the community. What is wanted at the Board is practical common sense, a level judgment, and intelligence, and in all these requisites the new trustees fill the bill.

The government, while falling to comply with the memorial requesting the appointment of a lady trustee, gave the general question some consideration, and it is understood that at the next session of the legislature, a law may be passed providing for the increase of school boards in all the towns and cities of the province by two members each, both of whom shall be women—one to be appointed by the government, and the other by the town or city council as the case may be.

A NUMBER of prominent Halifax men are moving for the erection of a monument to the late Hon. Joseph Howe, the cleverest public man ever reared in Nova Scotia. Although rather late in the day, the proposition is one which should be readily taken up and pushed to a successful result. The only practical tribute yet inaugurated to Howe's memory, is in the Victoria Park at Truro, where a small monument has been erected in honor of Nova Scotia's most distinguished son.

There are now three vacancies in the Dominion government—the portfolios of Agriculture, Solicitor-Generalship and Comptrollership of Customs. A spirit of resignation, but not the kind our Tory friends desire, seems to prevail in the shaky old Cabinet at Ottawa.

Mr. Foster is so soon to lose his job at Ottawa, that we suggest to the Westmorland Scot. As party to the desirability of securing his services as lecturer in the approaching campaign in that county. No doubt he would be willing to engage at the old price of $10 per night.

FASHIONABLE WEDDING.

The Nuptials of Miss Emily Macdonald and Rev. A. B. Murray.

CELEBRATED AT ST. ANN'S WEDNESDAY MORNING.

The Guests and Presents.

A wedding which has been exciting much interest in Fredericton social circles for the past few weeks, was celebrated at St. Ann's Church at 3.30 on Wednesday, when Miss Emily A. Macdonald, niece of Rev. Canon Roberts, was led to the altar by Rev. Alex. Bloomfield Murray, rector of Stanley.

The church was nicely decorated with flowers for the occasion, and was crowded to the doors. The ceremony was performed by the bride's uncle, Rev. Canon Roberts. The bride looked very charming in a costume of ivory-white brocade, with train, trimmed with honiton lace and ivory satin; lace veil caught up with real orange blossoms; a bouquet, white roses and ferns, and a gift of the groom, made in Edinburgh, set with Scotch stones.

The bridesmaids were, Miss Klyne Macdonald, sister of the bride; Miss Elizabeth Roberts, and Miss Ethel Powys, who wore dresses of cream-colored tulle, trimmed with cream satin, and all of the same; flowers, yellow chrysanthemums; pearl pins, the gift of the groom. The groomsmen were Rev. Clarence P. Hanington, and the ushers, W. C. Roberts, and G. R. Macdonald.

The bride was given away by her brother, S. A. R. Macdonald. The hymns sung during the service were: "Oh Father all creating," were sung during the service, and Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Carman.

The wedding was a very pretty one, and was the unanimous opinion of the large number of persons who witnessed it. After the ceremony the bridal party breakfasted at the bride's home, Mrs. John Robinson's residence, George street, and the following were among the guests: Bishop and Mrs. Kingdon, Canon and Mrs. Roberts, Prof. Charles G.
