CRISP AND TO THE POINT

Henry H. Stuart of this city is to assume charge of the graded school at McAdam Junction, at the beginning of the next term in January.

Rev. Mr. Crossley, the evangelist, has been suffering from an attack of pleurisy, at Amherst. He was unable to take active part in Sunday's service.

Rev. LeBaron McLiel formerly of Keswick Ridge but now rector at Fairville, St. John was presented with a purse of $50 by members of his congregation, Christmas Eve.

Edward Jack, one of our well known citizens is very seriously ill of typhoid fever, and is receiving attention from Dr. McLean. His condition gives his friends considerable uneasiness.

At Sackville last week M. Duncan Don and his wife celebrated the 70th anniversary of their wedding. They have reached the advanced age of 91 years and are still hale and hearty.

Mrs. Clarke, mother of C. H. Clarke, ex-mayor of St. Stephen, fell down stairs yesterday and broke her arm, sustaining other serious injuries, which, it is feared, will result fatally. Mrs. Clarke is 80 years of age.

Leut.-Col. Dibble of Woodstock, received a telegram from Capt. Emery and Sergt. Wiley now in Victor, Col., asking if things should come to such a pass as to lead to the calling out of the battery, he should telegraph them.

The usual Christmas services will be held in St. Dunstan's Church to-night and to-morrow, as follows: Midnight—High mass and sermon; 7 a. m. to-morrow, Low mass; 9 a. m. Low mass; 11 a. m., High mass and sermon; 3 p. m., Vespers.

A young lady was heard to remark in speaking of the Carleton Co. Teachers' Institute, "The meetings were not marred by the presence of Inspector Meagher, and that they were spicy, was undoubtedly due to the fact that Mr. Hugh Peppers was there."

Walter Willis, an old resident of Nashwaak died at that place Wednesday after a long illness of kidney trouble. He was a patient at the Victoria hospital for some time, but was recently discharged as incurable. Deceased was about 60 years of age, and leaves a wife and a large family.

The ice at the rink (Christmas) was not fit for curling, and the knights of the slane and beam, were in very low spirits. It was the first Christmas for many years that a game was not possible. On New Years the match will be the same as planned for yesterday, president vs. vice-presidents, for the Coleman cup.

A fine portrait of the late Hon. C. P. Brown, a native of Southampton, in this county, who was provincial secretary in the Norway government of Manitoba, has just been completed by the St. John Portrait Co. It is life size and is from a portrait taken in Montreal 12 years ago. It is an admirable likeness and a fine work of art.

William Mitchell, of Sauris, Manitoba, formerly of Keswick Ridge, in this county, and a brother of Hon. James Mitchell, provincial secretary, arrived in the city Tuesday, accompanied by his wife. Mr. Mitchell is engaged in the hardware business, and has been very successful. He will spend the holidays with his mother at Keswick Ridge.

William H. Long, B. A., of Macquaque, and a recent graduate of the University of New E. Brunswick, has been offered and has accepted the principality of the Jacksonville, Carleton County Superior School. He will commence work at the beginning of next term. Mr. Long's many friends in this city and throughout the province will be rejoiced to learn of his good fortune.

Mr. Nelson W. Brown, B. A., of Southampton, well and favorably known throughout this city and county, was married at Hopewell Cape, Albert county, Tuesday evening, to Miss Mattie Bishop, a very pretty and accomplished young lady of that place. The Herald extends its congratulations to the newly married couple and wishes them a successful voyage through life.

The Scott Act executive committee for Westmorland, in the election to be held at that county for the repeal of the act, has invited Rev. Dr. McLeod to go over and stump the county for them. The Doctor has consented to be one of the speakers at a mass meeting to be held in Moncton next Monday evening, but it is not known whether or not he will take a general hand in the campaign. The election takes place on January 8th.

J. R. Sutherland, principal of the Milltown schools, and Miss Minnie Dewar, teacher in the same schools, were united in marriage at that town Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride, and left on the C. P. R. for a short visit to Fredericton and other cities. Mr. Sutherland is a son of the late Supt. Sutherland of Kingstear, is a graduate of the University of N. B., and has many friends in this city and county who extend to him and his bride many good wishes.

Shortly before six o'clock on Tuesday evening, the employees of the mechanical department of The Herald demonstrated the good feeling for their foreman, Mr. Austin Dunphy, by presenting him with an address, accompanied by a handsome parlor lamp. Miss Anna Lee, on behalf of the employees, read the address and made the presentation, and Mr. Dunphy, who was visibly afflicted, thanked the donors very cordially for the generosity and good feeling displayed by them.

George McCorkindale, thirteen years of age, employe of Thomas Stanger, skated into an air hole in the river below Estey's mill Christmas morning, and had a narrow escape from being drowned. A dog which was with him at the time the accident occurred, set up a vigorous barking, and this had the effect of attracting Charles Fleet, who was a short distance away, to the spot, and, after some difficulty, he was able to extricate the young man from his perilous position. Last evening a lad named Doak skated into the same place, but was fished out after receiving a good licking.

The marriage of Frederic P. MacNichol, Calais, to Miss Margaret Todd, only daughter of Henry Todd, of St. Stephen, took place early in January. Owing to the recent death of the groom's father the marriage will be a quiet affair. Both are extremely popular in social circles on both sides of the river and have the best of a large number of friends. Miss Todd is well known in Fredericton social circles, having been a frequent visitor to the city as the guest of Lady Tilley at present home. Her father is one of the wealthiest men on the St. Croix, his reaching at least $250,000, and he is the only child of Mr. MacNichol, a lawyer with good prospects in Boston.

FIFTY YEARS MARRIED.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Lower St. Mary's, Celebrate their Golden Wedding.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Brown, at Lower St. Mary's, was the scene of a very pleasant and brilliant event Tuesday. It was the 50th anniversary of their wedding day, and people from far and near had gathered to pay their respects to the worthy couple who had just completed a half century of married life. There were fully seventy-five persons present, and after all had bestowed their congratulations and best wishes on the bride and groom of fifty years, the whole company sat down to a sumptuous repast.

During the evening Miss Helen Miles, of Amherst, N.S., sang several solos in her usual exquisite manner. Miss Annie Mitchell, of Lincoln, also rendered a solo, and Miss Miles and Dufferin Mitchell, of Lincoln, sang a duet.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown were the recipients of a large number of beautiful presents, a partial list of which, together with the guests, is here appended:

Sheriff and Mrs. Sterling, brass lamp. Mr. and Mrs. Parker Glasier, Mr and Mrs. Henry Mitchell. Lewis Bliss, gold-lined bon bon dish. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sterling, Miss Magee, Mrs. Treadwell, Miss Strange, Mr. Shields, A. and G. Treadwell, gold chain and eye-glasses. Mr. and Mrs. James Ruel, Mr. and Mrs. David Coombe. Mr. and Mrs. Geo Logan, brass photo rack. Mr. and Mrs. Geo Miles, brass photo rack. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tapley, gold-lined sugar spoon. Mr. and Mrs. R. McFadden, gold-lined spoon. Mr. and Mrs. Chas Duffy, brass basket. Mr. and Mrs. Alex Wisely, brass card basket. Miss Alma Flewelling, jewel case. Dr. Phillip Cox, gold cuff buttons. Mr. and Mrs. Parkinson, silver calendar. Geo Johnston, gold monogram. Mrs. A. J. Johnston, brass vase. Mr. and Mrs. Theo Robinson $10 in gold. Miss Gertrude Brown, $2.50 in gold. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Robinson, $2.50 in gold. Mr. Stonehouse, gilt decorated glasses and tray. Harry and Miss DeVeber, gold napkin ring.

A Y. M. C. A. APPEAL.

Friends of the New Organization Asked to Assist in the Enterprise.

To our friends: You are already aware that a Young Men's Christian Association has been organized in our city, and that rooms are now being fitted and furnished for its work.

Believing that many of our friends will be glad to assist in imparting to the association rooms, a social and home-like appearance, we here mention a few of the things that will contribute to this end.

For the parlor is needed just such things as make the rooms in your homes attractive, such as pictures for the walls, vases and bric a brac for the mantel, curtains and portiers, tables and chairs. Games of all kinds, and a bagatelle board, will be very acceptable for the social room. For the reading room are required magazines and current periodicals, good, well-bound books as a nucleus for a library, a bookcase, a secretary's desk. We propose having a table for correspondence and inkstands, paper-weight, pens and stationary required.

We believe that we have only to intimate our needs to the citizens and ladies of our city, all of whom are friends of the Y. M. C. A., and that you will cheerfully contribute many of these articles. Perhaps many of them are about your homes, unused and not needed by you, but would be a positive blessing to the Y. M. C. A.

The General Secretary will be at the rooms on Monday, and all the time now, and will gladly receive and acknowledge any gifts contributed.

M. LEMONT, Executive Committee. W. G. CLARK, JAMES R. HOWIE, F. W. BARBOUR, Ed. J. PAYSON, President, General Secretary.

CHRISTMAS MARKET.

Without a Doubt the Largest of the Season.

If any indications were needed to convince one of the fact that Christmas was rapidly approaching, they would have been found by a walk through the country market Tuesday. As early as eight o'clock produce laden teams began to arrive, and continued to pour in up to eleven o'clock, and it staggered people to know where they were all coming from. All morning the market square was one struggling mass of humanity. People were rushing right and left through the deep mud, and were bumping against each other in all directions, and all with one purpose in view, that of securing something substantial for the Christmas dinner. There was an enormous quantity of fowls offered for sale, and the demand was quite equal to the supply. Prices were considerably lower than last season; for instance, pork, which brought 9 cents per pound only brought 8 1/2 cents this morning. Turkeys sold at 9 to 11 cents per pound, and geese 50 to 70 cents each, according to quality; chickens brought all the way from 30 to 50 cents per pair, and ducks, 50 to 60 cents. Other prices were about the same as published in The Herald on Saturday.

A Christmas Eve Squabble.

Tuesday evening a short course sergeant belonging to Nova Scotia and attached to the Royal Regiment for instruction, was walking calmly down Queen street in company with his best girl, when he was overtaken by another short course soldier named Doyle, hailing from Woodstock and brutally assaulted. The sergeant at once turned upon his assailant, and was about to administer to him a severe drubbing when the police happened along and ran the both of them in. Wednesday morning they secured their liberty by depositing $5, which was forfeited at the police court Thursday. Doyle formerly belonged to the permanent corps and is well known about the city as a tough character. He was considerably under the influence of liquor at the time, and held a grudge against the sergeant, which prompted him to commit the assault. The latter was perfectly sober, and gave Doyle not the slightest provocation.

Knox at the Alma House.

The inmates of the Alma house were well looked after Christmas, in the matter of Christmas luxuries. They were furnished with an elaborate dinner by His Worship the Mayor and Mrs. Van Wart, both of whom paid the institution a visit during the noon hour, and watched the proceedings with a great deal of interest. Several of the societies connected with the different churches kindly remembered the unfortunates with parcels of confectionery, fruits, nuts, and altogether the day was a pleasant and enjoyable one for them.

SHOP LIFTING

Has been extensively Carried on Here During the Past Week.

That ubiquitous class of society known as shop-lifters, who always make their presence felt in this city during the holiday season, have been getting in their work in fine style lately. The bargain counters of some of the large establishments which deal extensively in fancy goods, have been the principal targets for these light fingered worthies, though the perfumery counters of several of the drug stores have not escaped attention at their hands. It is a regrettable fact, but nevertheless true that in the majority of cases, the offenders are believed to be of the female sex. During the rush of the Christmas season, when the clerks are constantly on the jump, it is a very easy matter for a person so disposed to enter a shop and while making a pretext of examining goods drop something into an overcoat pocket or slip it under a cloak and escape without being apprehended. This has been carried on to an enormous extent during the past week and in some cases the cheek and boldness displayed by the thief was astounding. Possibly most of those who carry on this meditative occupation imagine that they do so unnoticed, but they never made a greater mistake, if they labor under this delusion. We venture the statement that many of our merchants could furnish the names of at least a dozen persons whose "lifting" operations have come under their personal notice. If some of these names were made public it would be a revelation to the citizens of Fredericton, but unless some plan such as is adopted, the practice will continue to go on year after to the expense and annoyance of the business community.

An illustration as to how these operations are carried on might be in order here. Last Monday two well known young ladies, or females would be a more appropriate term, entered a leading druggist's establishment, and at once began rummaging the shelves containing among other things a quantity of fancy perfume cases, each containing from one to three bottles of high class perfumery. After they had subjected the contents of the table to a pretty thorough overhauling, they took their departure without making any purchase. Following them, the proprietor, who was quite familiar with such characters, and had his suspicions aroused, made an examination, and discovered that two bottles of perfumery were missing from their cases. He informed the clerks of the incident, and instructed them to keep a sharp watch in future. On Tuesday, the same two females who had lifted the perfumery the day previous, again paid the establishment a visit, and as a consequence, another bottle of perfumery came very near going to join the two brothers who had been abducted the day before. But this time the proprietor was up to snuff, and kept such a close watch upon his visitors, that they had no opportunity to get in their crooked work. When they saw that they were under surveillance, they would have retreated, but they were so intensely interested in the names of the various patent medicines that were displayed in a show case, and after casting a wistful glance at the perfumery counter, took their departure.

Hosts of other similar cases could be instanced, but the above is sufficient to show the methods employed, and the amount of cheek and nerve possessed by this class of our population.

A PLEASANT EVENT.

Donation To A Popular Managerville Clergyman Last Evening.

A donation to Rev. Mr. Freeman, pastor of the Managerville Baptist church, was held at his residence Christmas, and was a great success. Upwards of fifty persons were present, and the reverend gentleman was the recipient of $26 in cash, and a large number of useful and costly presents. The wretched condition of the roads which made traveling very difficult was the means of keeping quite a number away, but he had intended being present. After ample justice had been done to the delicious spread, which had been thoughtfully provided by the ladies of the congregation, Mr. Freeman returned thanks to the parishioners, and referred to his labors among them, and spoke of the kindly disposition they had always manifested towards him. He also spoke of the social character of these gatherings, and the happy good feeling that was produced by bringing people of different religious together. He found that after all they were only separated from one another by imaginary rather than real differences. A most enjoyable evening was spent by all, and the gathering dispersed at a late hour.

CHURCH SERVICES WEDNESDAY.

Special Christmas Sermons at the Cathedral, St. Ann's, St. Dunstan's and the Methodist Churches.

The special services in several of the churches Wednesday were of a very interesting nature, and attracted large crowds. At holy communion service at the Cathedral yesterday at 8 a. m., 144 communicants went forward, and the clergyman in attendance, being his Lordship the Bishop, were Rev. Sul-dane Whalley and Rev. Mr. Simonds. His Lordship preached a powerful sermon at 11 a. m. to a very large congregation.

Service was held in the Methodist church at 11 a. m., and an appropriate sermon was preached by Rev. Father McDevitt. Yesterday morning low mass was celebrated at 8 and 9, and high mass and a sermon by Rev. Father Savage, at 11 o'clock.

Service was held in St. Ann's church in the morning at 11 o'clock, when the pastor, Rev. Canon Roberts, preached an able and appropriate sermon.

Tuesday's Funerals.

The funeral of the late Helen Davidson, who died on Saturday, took place Tuesday morning from the Baptist parsonage at Gibson. A large crowd of sympathizing friends followed the remains to Sunny Bank cemetery, where interment took place. Rev. J. D. Freeman, of this city, conducted the services at the house and grave, and Undertaker J. G. Adams had charge of the funeral arrangements.

The funeral of the late Mac Coy took place Tuesday afternoon from his father's home on King street, and was very largely attended. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. D. Freeman. Interment was made in the old burying ground on Brunswick street. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker John G. Adams.

Rev. E. B. Hooper, formerly of this city, but now rector of St. George's church, Moncton, returned Saturday morning from a few weeks trip to the upper provinces for his health, which however is not improved. Mr. Hooper's friends will regret to hear that he was taken suddenly ill Saturday morning.
