An inquest was held and the jury returned a verdict of "death by the visitation of God." Greer was well known as an arysipelas doctor.

The wife of Mr. Geo. Ogler, boat builder, was found dead on the floor of her bedroom in her house at the Straight Shore, Portland, Thursday afternoon. Thos. Mrs. Ward is believed to have been an accessory. Ward was believed to be on his way to the meadow when he was attacked, struck on the head, killed, and then dragged into the bushes. An inquest on the remains was commenced before Coroner Reynolds, of Musquash on Monday.

Ingraham, a Pond street youth, was run over by an express waggon, Thursday, but escaped without serious injury.

ST. MALACHI'S HALL BAZAAR.

The Bazaar opened in St. Malachi's Hall on Monday afternoon and during the week has been extensively patronised. The different tables are neatly arranged and contain numerous useful and ornamental articles. The exhibit is certainly creditable to the ladies who have charge. The usual lotteries in connection with the tables are vigorously pushed forward by bevies of young ladies who are rarely unsuccessful in making even the most close fisted purchase at least one ticket. They report business good and no doubt while the bazaar continues open will be quite as successful as they have been in the past few nights. The following is a list of the tables and the names of the ladies in connection therewith:

Mother Augustines's table—Mrs. Doherty, Mrs. Bardsley, Mrs. Travers, Mrs. Furlong, the Misses Petty, the Misses McElewaine, Miss Fennel, Miss Sharkey, Miss McSweeny and Miss Murphy.

Children of St. Vincent's Convent table—Miss Sullivan, Miss Cohoian, Miss Gleeson, Miss Lawlor, Miss Gallagher, Miss Jennings, Miss McManus, Miss Power, Miss Maher, and the Misses McDevitt.

St. Ann's table—Mrs. Nugent, Mrs. Corkery, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Jennings, Mrs. Doody, Mrs. Walsh, Mrs. Kane, Mrs. Cotter, Mrs. O'Brien, Miss Walsh, Miss Doody, Miss Dwyer, Miss Kane.

Consolers of Mary's table—Miss Watson, the Misses Flaherty, Miss Gorman, the Misses Condon, Miss McManus, Miss Murphy, Miss O'Brien and the Misses Crowley.

Children of Mary's Sacred Heart table—Mrs. Carvell, Mrs. Flaherty, Mrs. Landry, Miss Murray, Miss Potter, Miss Maher, the Misses Moran, and Miss Carvell.

The "Wheel of Fortune" is presided over by Miss Katie Gallagher who in turn with Miss Henretty and Miss Scallan represent "Rebecca at the Well. The "Post Office" is run by Master Fred Doherty and the Misses Doherty. Masters Jas. Driscoll and Robt. Bowes have charge of the "House that Jack built" and are doing a stirring little business. The "Fish Pond" receipts must be considerable. There is also a well supplied refreshment table. It is attended by Messrs McCrossin, Murphy, Ryan, and Miss Loeman, Miss Duffy, Miss Harris, Miss Dillon, Miss Sullivan and Miss McCarthy.

Last night the attendance was quite large. Every night during the week the City Cornet Band played some of its best selections.

CARLETON ITEMS.

Mr. Thos. O'Rielly will lecture in St. Patrick's Hall, Carleton, on to-morrow evening, under the auspices of the young men's society, (St. John the Baptist) newly formed. We have no doubt but that the Hall will be filled.

There will be a grand torchlight procession in Carleton Tuesday evening next, weather permitting, in honor of the success of Hon. S. L. Tilley and the Liberal Conservative party, and we have been requested to invite all the friends of the party living in Fairville and vicinity who can attend to do so. They are also expected to take part.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Harrigan, of Blue Rock, died rather suddenly on Friday morning. The family have our entire sympathy in this their hour of trial.

The Red Granite Works, we are glad to see, are going day and night, and Mr. F. Burpee has lately added some splendid machinery costing thousands of dollars.

Testimonial from Mrs. Jane A. Lee

INTELLIGENCE OFFICE, 102 PRINCESS ST., Saint John, N. B., July 29th, 1878.

Messrs. HANINGTON BROTHERS:

Gentlemen,—Three years ago I was going to write you how much benefit I received from taking two bottle of your Quinine Wine and Iron, being then very weak and low with no appetite for any sort of food, after a severe attack of Erysipelas in my head. Again, after the fire, I was nearly quite gone, and was restored to strength and activity by taking two bottles more, and last May I had to have recourse to the Quinine Wine and Iron again with the same beneficial results.

While I was taking it last, a person came in who had left her situation to get into the hospital, being so weak she could not work. I said I will send you to a place where you will get seven dollars a month; take two bottles of Hanington's Qunine Wine and Iron with you, and if you are not able to earn the seven dollars I will pay you for the medicine. At the end of the month she was quite smart and is still filling the situation. I send you these few lines for the benefit of society (if you trouble to publish it), as there are so many sick at present. It would greatly benefit persons after Sickness or Diphtheria, and would most certainly prevent sickness by strengthening and building up the system. Yours very truly,

JANE A. LEE.

CONVALESCENTS from diphtheria, fevers, or any enervating disease, or sufferers from weakness, from whatever cause arising, will find "Hanington's Qunine Wine and Iron," taken according to the directions, highly beneficial.

THE BEST TONIC AND BLOOD PURIFIER.—"Hanington's Quinine Wine and Iron" for the cure of indigestion, weakness, loss of appetite, depression, want of energy, and all troubles arising from the blood and a low state of the system. Price 50 cents per bottle; 6 bottles for $2.50.

LECTURE.

THERE will be a public Lecture delivered in St. Patrick's Hall, Carleton, on SUNDAY EVENING, the 29th inst., —BY— MR. THOMAS O'RIELLY, under the auspices of St. John the Baptist Society. Doors open at 7. Lecture at half-past 7. The usual collection will be taken at the door. sep28
